This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 20, 1897.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met in the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1897, at 11 o'clock A. M., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. R. Q. Mallard, D. D., the Moderator, on Numbers x. 35, 36: "And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. And when it rested, he said, Return, O Lord, unto the many thousands of Israel."

The Assembly was then constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The Stated Clerk announced that he had official information of the erection by the Synod of North Carolina of an additional Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery of Asheville.

It was ordered that the election of Moderator be by ballot, and the Rev. George T. Goetchius, D. D., a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Cherokee, was chosen Moderator.

The Rev. A. R. Cocke, D. D., a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Lexington, and the Rev. J. H. Wiggins, D. D., a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Paris, were chosen Temporary Clerks.

The Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton, the pastor of the church, was accorded the privileges of the house.

The Rev. Dr. F. R. Beattie, of the ad interim committee to prepare a programme of exercises commemorative of the formulation of the Westminster symbols of doctrine, made a report, which was approved and referred to the Committee on Devotional Exercises.

It was ordered that the daily sessions of the Assembly be from 9:30 A. M. to 1 P. M.; from 3:30 P. M. to 6:30 P. M.; and from 8:30 P. M. at pleasure.

It was made the order of the day for this afternoon to hear abstracts of the Annual Reports of the Assembly's Executive Committees.

The Assembly resolved to be governed by the Rules of Order adopted by the Assembly of 1866.

The Assembly had recess until 4 o'clock P. M.

4 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. S. M. Neel occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Home Missions was read by the Secretary, the Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions was read by the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The Moderator announced the following Committee on Devotional Exercises: R. Z. Johnston, A. A. Little, and J. C. McLauchlin, in conference with the resident pastors.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Publication was read by the Secretary, the Rev. J. K. Hazen, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry was read by the Secretary, Rev. E. M. Richardson, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on Education. The financial part of this report was referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization was read by the Secretary, the Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on that subject.

The Annual Report of the Assembly's Home and School was read by the Rev. A. P. Saunders, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on that institution. The financial part of this report was referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises made a partial report of appointments for the Lord's day, and on the report of the ad interim Committee on the Westminster Anniversary Exercises. The report was approved, and as to the anniversary exercises is as follows:

The last General Assembly appointed an ad interim committee to prepare a programme of commemorative exercises, and to select speakers for the celebration during the present Assembly in Charlotte, N. C., of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Westminster symbols of doctrine. This committee consisted of the Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. (chairman), F. R. Beattie, D. D., W. M. McPheeters, D. D., T. C. Johnston, D. D., W. A. Alexander, D. D., and John A. Preston, D. D. Alas, within a little over three months after this appointment (September 13th) the whole church was called to mourn the death of the last-named member of this committee—a death and a loss that have shrouded in deep and personal sorrow all who knew Brother Preston, especially the Synods of North Carolina and Virginia, and the devoted church (in whose house of worship the Assembly is at present meeting) of which he was the popular and beloved pastor. Your committee, with the sad exception just noted, have been in active correspondence with one another for about four months, and have with remarkable and most gratifying unanimity and heartiness agreed upon the following programme of exercises, and upon the selection of speakers (principals and alternates) for this interesting and important occasion. The Assembly will observe that the topics fall under three general heads, viz.:

1. The civil and religious condition of Britain at the time.
2. The "personnel" and work of the Assembly in its Confession, Catechisms, polity, and worship.
3. The relations and influences of these symbols of doctrine to current popular theology and to the Reformed churches generally, and upon individual, family, social, and civil life, making in all eleven addresses.

I. Historical and Descriptive.

(1), The Social and Political Condition of Britain at the time, with special reference to those aspects of the times that (a), prepared the way for the calling of the Assembly, and (b), exerted an influence on it when called. Principal—Rev. Henry A. White, D. D., Lexington, Va. Alternate—Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D. D., Richmond, Va.

(3), Description of the Assembly—its personnel, proceedings, and place of meeting. Principal—Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., Louisville, Ky. Alternate—Rev. R. K. Smoot, D. D., Austin, Texas.

II. EXPOSITORY AND CRITICAL.

(5), Nature, Value, and Special Utility of the Catechisms. Principal—Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., Hampden-Sidney, Va. Alternate—Rev. S. A. King, D. D., Waco, Texas.

(6), Polity and Worship, emphasizing their relation to doctrine. Principal—Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D., New Orleans, La. Alternate—Rev. Eugene Daniel, D. D., Raleigh, N. C.

III. INFLUENCES, RELATIONS, ETC., ETC.

(7), The Churches that hold the Westminster Symbols, and the Reformed Churches generally—their points of contact and contrast; their present relations, work, and outlook. Principal—Rev. J. D. Tadlock, D. D., Columbia, S. C. Alternate—Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., Athens, Ga.

(8), The Westminster Symbols in Their Relation to and Influence Upon the Missionary Character and Activities of the Church. Principal—Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., Richmond, Va. Alternate—Rev. W. F. V. Bartlett, D. D., Lexington, Ky.

(9), The Westminster Symbols Considered in Relation to Current Popular Theology and the Needs of the Future. Principal—Rev. Samuel M. Smith, D. D., Columbia, S. C. Alternate—Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., Atlanta, Ga.

(10), The Influence Exerted by the Westminster Symbols upon the Individual, the Family and Society. Principal—Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D., St. Louis, Mo. Alternate—Rev. A. R. Cocke, D. D., Waynesboro, Va.

(11), The Influence of the Westminster System of Doctrine, Worship, and Polity, on Civil Liberty and Responsible Government. Principal—Hon. W. M. Cox, Baldwyn, Miss. Alternate—Judge J. Q. Ward, Paris, Ky.

Your committee is pleased to report that all the principals except one have signified their grateful willingness to undertake the service assigned them. Dr. Palmer, however, by reason of physical inability, has transferred the service appointed him to his alternate, which, we are happy and glad to say, Dr. Daniel has accepted.

(1), Your committee earnestly recommend to the Assembly to set apart and appropriate six evenings during the sessions of this Assembly to hear these addresses.

(2), We respectfully recommend that the Moderator of this Assembly preside on these evenings, announce the topics, and introduce the speakers.

(3), We further recommend that the Assembly order that the travelling expenses of such appointees as may not be commissioners from their Presbyteries be paid out of the incidental fund of the Assembly, inasmuch as they are called by the Assembly itself (through its ad interim committee) to come and address it on a designated subject.

Your committee, aware of Dr. Dabney's blindness, and hearing that Dr. Palmer was threatened with the same, and anxious to have the able help of both these beloved brethren in this interesting anniversary, passed a special and unanimous vote that if either of these brethren found himself unable to be present at this meeting, and would send his paper on the topic assigned him, your committee would promise to endeavor to have it properly read to the Assembly. Whether these addresses or papers shall be published in a separate volume, and by whom, it will be for the Assembly itself to decide.

Sincerely thanking the Assembly that appointed us for the sacred trust reposed in us, and for the high honor it conveys, we respectfully ask to be discharged.

J. HENRY SMITH,
F. R. BEATTIE,
W. M. McPHEETERS,
T. C. JOHNSTON,
W. A. ALEXANDER,
Ad Interim Committee.

The Assembly had recess until 8:30 P. M.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by the Moderator and the Rev. Dr. Dabney.

The Rev. H. A. White, D. D., addressed the Assembly on "The Social and Political Condition of Britain at the time of the Westminster Assembly, with special reference to those aspects of the times which prepared the way for the calling of the Assembly, and exerted an influence on it when called."

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Wm. M. McPheeters, D. D.

It was ordered that all overtures from the Presbyteries be read in full to the Assembly before being sent to the standing committees.

The Stated Clerk announced and read the following overtures and memorials: From the Presbytery of Lafayette touching topics for Westminster Leagues; from the same as to the term of service of the Assembly's clerks; from the same a memorial in reference to a book of praise. From the Presbytery of Memphis touching the furnishing of items to newspapers issued or printed on the Lord's day. A memorial from the Presbytery of Texas (colored) touching an independent colored Presbyterian Church. From the Presbytery of Montgomery respecting the day of prayer for colleges and youth. From the Presbytery of Eastern Texas as to the disciplining of members for non-attendance at church. From S. F. Tenny in reference to the independent colored Presbytery of Texas and the colored work. From the Presbytery of Knoxville as to revised blanks and amended rules for the collections. From W. S. Red asking a deliverance on inspiration. From the Presbytery of South Carolina touching amendments to the rules of discipline. From the Presbytery of Nashville in regard to blanks for Sunday-school reports. From the Presbytery of West Lexington touching women in our pulpits and the giving notice of their purpose to address promiscuous audiences. From the Presbytery of Dallas asking revision of blanks for the preparation of the narratives; from the same touching the exercise of sessional functions by one elder. From the Presbytery of New Orleans asking change in the sessional blanks; from the same proposing amendments to the rules of discipline. From the Presbytery of Suwanee as to one elder's competency for the duty of a session; from the same on the subject of hymnology. From the Presbytery of Tuskaloosa on one elder's competency for the duty of a session. From the Presbytery of Abingdon touching the enrollment of a church before the installation of elders therein. From the Presbytery of Augusta asking that the fall meeting of Presbyteries be dispensed with. From the Synod of Memphis touching the transfer of a church. From the Synod of Mississippi in regard to the same matter. From the Presbytery of East Hanover asking an interpretation of the word "officer." From the Presbytery of Winchester asking a revision of the questions which form a basis for sessional reports; from the same touching the enrollment of ministers in the order of the seniority of their ordination. From the Presbytery of Fayetteville asking the preparation of a pamphlet on Home Missions. From the Presbytery of Columbia touching a visit by the secretary of Foreign Missions to the missions in China. From the Presbytery of Louisville asking that our foreign missionaries furnish statistics. From the Presbytery of Columbia asking that the questions in the blank forms for reports be revised; from the same asking that the salary of the secretary of Foreign Missions be reduced. A memorial from the Executive Committee of the Prohibition party in North Carolina asking a deliverance on the subject of temperance.

It was ordered that all overtures and memorials be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, to be distributed in the judgment of said committee to appropriate committees. As an exception to this order, the overtures touching a book of praise were referred to a special committee consisting of J. W. Walden, A. W. Milster, A. S. Doak, John D. Taylor, and A. C. Howze.

The Stated Clerk announced the enrollment of the following additional commissioners: Rev. J. L. McLees, of Charleston Presbytery, and Rev. W. H. Davis, of the Presbytery of Ebenezer.

The Assembly had recess for ten minutes.

After recess, the Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. Beattie occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. Dr. Hoge, and was then addressed by the Rev. Dr. T. D. Witherspoon on "The Westminster Assembly: its place of meeting; its proceedings; its personnel."

The Assembly accepted the invitation of President Shearer to visit Davidson College next Monday afternoon at half-past two o'clock.

The annual report of the Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University was received and was referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Assembly had recess until 8:30 to-night.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. Price in the chair at the request of the Moderator. The Rev. Dr. W. T. Hall led the Assembly in prayer. The Moderator introduced the Rev. Dr. Dabney, who stated that because of impaired vision he had requested the Rev. Dr. R. C.

Reed to present his paper on the subject assigned him in commemoration of the Westminster Assembly, viz., "The Doctrinal Contents of the Confession of Faith: its Fundamental and Regulative Ideas, and the Necessity and Value of Creeds."

The Committee on Devotional Exercises made a further report, as follows:

In pursuance of the Westminster Assembly commemoration, the Assembly will be addressed on Saturday at 12 M. by the Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel; on Monday at 11 A. M., by the Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler; on Monday at 8:30 P. M., by the Rev. Dr. J. D. Tadlock; on Tuesday at 12 M., by the Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge; on Wednesday at 12 M., by the Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Smith; on Thursday at 12 M., by the Rev. Dr. J. F. Cannon; on Friday at 12 M., by the Hon. W. M. Cox.

The same committee recommended that popular meetings be held as follows: Wednesday 8:30 P. M., in the interest of Foreign Missions; Tuesday 8:30 P. M., in the interest of Home Missions.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

THIRD DAY.

MAY 22, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Stated Clerk announced that the following additional commissioners had been enrolled: Rev. W. W. Palmer, of the Presbytery of Lafayette; Ruling Elder W. T. Williams, of the Presbytery of Winchester; Ruling Elder J. H. Tindall, of the Presbytery of South Alabama; and Rev. W. T. Walker, of the Presbytery of Albemarle.

It was ordered that the Rev. Alexander McLean, D. D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, be heard at 11:30 o'clock.

The Stated Clerk announced additional overtures as follows: from the Presbytery of Mississippi touching the powers of a commission; from the Presbytery of South Alabama on a new form for the Narrative of Sessions.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture from the Synod of Memphis and the Synod of Mississippi touching the transfer of Oak Grove Church, reported, recommending that said church be transferred from the Presbytery of Chickasaw to the Presbytery of Tombeckbee.

Adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture from the Presbytery of West Lexington, touching women's conducting public religious meetings and the publication of such meetings to be so conducted, made a report which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

In reply to the overture from West Lexington Presbytery, the Assembly refers the Presbytery to the clear deliverances of former Assemblies which settle the principles involved in its overture, and should guide all our church sessions in their procedure.

Thus, the Old School Assembly of 1832, and the General Assembly U. S. A., 1872, "Meetings of pious women by themselves for conversation and prayer, whenever they can conveniently be held, we entirely approve; but let not the inspired prohibitions of the great apostle of the Gentiles, as found in his epistles to the Corinthians and to Timothy, be violated. To teach and exhort, or lead in prayer in public and promiscuous assemblies, is clearly forbidden to women in the holy oracles."

See also Minutes of Assembly, 1880, p. 186; 1891, p. 260.

The Annual Report of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly was received and referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Annual Report of the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary, and that of the Board of Directors of the Columbia Theological Seminary, were received and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A communication from the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D. D., Western Secretary of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system, was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

A communication from P. F. Stevens, Bishop of the Reformed Episcopal Church, respecting Sabbath observance, was read and referred to the special Committee on the Sabbath.

The Stated Clerk announced that an additional commissioner, Ruling Elder George H. Moran, of the Presbytery of Concord, had been enrolled.

The order of the day arrived, Dr. Hoge occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator, Dr. McLean, of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly, and was appropriately responded to by Dr. Hoge.

Pursuing the programme of exercises commemorative of the Westminster Assembly, the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel, on "The Polity and Worship of the Presbyterian Church, emphasizing their relation to Doctrine."

The Assembly had recess until 3:30 P. M.

3:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Stated Clerk announced an overture from the Synod of Georgia respecting the transfer of a church; also from the same Synod an overture respecting an independent colored Presbyterian Church.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made the following report on the memorial from the Executive Committee of the Prohibition party of North Carolina, which report was adopted:

In response to the communication signed by Edwin A. Shaver, chairman, and Thomas P. Johnston, Secretary, of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Prohibition Party, petitioning this Assembly "to make some deliverance and declaration of principles on the all-important subject of temperance," this Assembly would reply: That alike by uniform practice and constitution we are forbidden to intermeddle with political parties or questions, and that the constant and scriptural attitude of our beloved church on temperance and intemperance, as shown in past deliverances on record (see Alexander's Digest, pages 365, 366), is too well known to require restatement.

It was made the order of the day for 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning to consider the Annual Report of the Executive Committee on Colored Evangelization.

It was made the first order of the day for Wednesday to consider the Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Home Missions.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a partial report. Dr. Dabney, the chairman, was heard. Pending this business the report was put upon the docket, and the Assembly adjourned until 9:30 o'clock Monday morning.

The Moderator announced the following Special Committee on the Sabbath: S. M. Neel, R. A. Mickle, R. M. Hammock, J. M. Smith, L. A. Hill, Samuel Davis, W. Hethorn.

FOURTH DAY.

MAY 24, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Moderator.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

The Annual Report of the Board of Directors of the Louisville Theological Seminary was received, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Stated Clerk announced an overture from the Presbytery of Lexington touching the publishing of addresses commemorative of the Westminster Assembly; also, an overture from the Presbytery of Indian asking whether an elder who has been licensed to preach may continne to exercise the functions of an elder. These overtures were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath was received, and was referred to the Special Committee on the Sabbath.

Invitations for the next Assembly were received from the First Church in Richmond, Va., and the First Church in New Orleans, La., and placed on the docket.

It was made the order of the day for Tuesday, at 4 o'clock P. M., to choose the place of meeting of the next Assembly.

An invitation from the Y. M. C. A. of this city to make use of their rooms was accepted with thanks.

A communication respecting the preparation of school-books was read and ordered to be returned to the author.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture from the Presbytery of Augusta proposing the abolition of the stated fall meeting of Presbytery, made the following report, which was adopted:

To the overture of the Presbytery of Augusta the Assembly answers that it is inadvisable to make any change.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, on an overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette proposing "to fix the term of service of the Assembly's Stated and Permanent Clerks at four years," made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette the change suggested is deemed inexpedient.

The Rev. Dr. Walden offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the action taken by the Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures in reply to a communication from the Executive Committee of the Prohibition Party of North Carolina, this Assembly is not to be construed as intending to commit the church to the political theory of prohibition, either pro or con.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was read and put upon the docket.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Florida reported, recommending their approval. The report was adopted.

It was made the order of the day for Wednesday afternoon to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The Assembly had recess for five minutes.

The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler on "The nature, value, and special utility of the Catechisms."

The Assembly had recess until 8.30 P. M.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. S. A. King, D. D., occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The Rev. J. D. Tadlock, D. D., addressed the Assembly on "The churches which hold the Westminster Symbols, and the Reformed churches generally—their points of contact and contrast; their present relations, work, and outlook."

The Rev. J. C. Molloy offered the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly are hereby tendered to the Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., President, and to the other authorities and to the students of Davidson College, for the kind and generous hospitality extended the Assembly in connection with the delightful "outing" this day enjoyed, for whose inception and conduct we are indebted to them. And further, that we assure them of our sincere interest in, and earnest prayer for, this splendid Presbyterian school, and trust that its future shall be even more glorious than its noble past.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. William McF. Alexander.

FIFTH DAY.

MAY 25, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. John D. Dean.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Stated Clerk announced that an additional commissioner, J. C. Carothers, minister from the Presbytery of North Mississippi, had been enrolled.

The following salutation was forwarded to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, now in session in Charlotte, N. C., sends its cordial and affectionate good wishes to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, with the prayer in Numbers vi. 24-27. G. T. GOETCHIUS, Moderator.

JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.

The General Assembly in session at Eagle Lake, Ind., heartily reciprocate your cordial and fraternal greetings. See Ephesians iv. 4-6.

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

An invitation from the president of Biddle University to visit that institution was received, and was responded to as follows:

The Assembly receives with thanks the kind invitation from the president of Biddle University to visit that institution, and returns answer that the members will take pleasure in accepting the invitation if the business of the Assembly will permit.

A further report was made by the Standing Committee on Education. The whole report was taken up and considered seriatim.

Pending this business, the order of the day arrived, viz.: the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization. In connection with this matter, the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. O. B. Wilson and Rev. E. W. Williams (colored). The report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee has had before it the following papers:

1. The report of the Executive Committee to this Assembly. 2. The records of the Executive Committee for the past year. 3. A memorial from the Presbytery of Texas, urging the organization of an independent church. 4. A memorial from the Rev. Dr. Tenney urging greater attention to evangelistic work, at the expense even of abolishing the Executive Committee and Secretary and the closing of Stillman Institution for two years. 5. An overture from the Synod of Georgia, asking that an independent church be organized.

From all these and from conferences with brethren engaged in the work, your committee is made fully aware that there are many embarrassments in the prosecution of the work committed to the hands of the Executive Committee. Obstacles have arisen which none but the godly and faithful men having charge of the work could appreciate. There have been times of darkness when they could do nothing but stand still and wait.

But we are persuaded that neither the Executive Committee nor the church at large should be discouraged overmuch. Faithful and efficient work has been done with the means at command. It is no little matter that, under the superintendence and labors of these brethren, so many of the colored people have been wisely educated and sent out into the field as good teachers of the word of God. Greater things will yet be done, if the church will only devise liberal things for the aid of this cause.

STILLMAN INSTITUTE.

The condition of this institution demands the attention and earnest support of the church. Under the stress of financial stringency, the Executive Committee has thought it wise to close for a time the Academic Department, and confine its work to instruction in theology only, and this to but ten of the most promising candidates.

Your committee would recommend that this action of the Executive Committee be approved; but suggest that the Assembly direct the opening of the Academic Department as soon as the way is clear, and that the development along the line indicated by the superintendent be pursued by the Executive Committee at the earliest period practicable.

WORK OF EVANGELIST.

By the direction of the last Assembly the Executive Committee put Rev. O. B. Wilson, one of the teachers in the Institute, in the field as a missionary or evangelist among the colored people. A report of his labors shows good work done and a hopeful strengthening of the things that remain, and your committee recommend that his labors be continued.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE REFORMED CHURCH.

As there is good hope that this body will coöperate with us in the near future in the work of evangelization among the colored people, your committee would recommend that this correspondence be continued.

FERGUSON-WILLIAMS COLLEGE.

Your committee would recommend that, as soon as the way is clear, the amount of $5,000, determined by the last Assembly, be raised for the purchase of this institution.

INDEPENDENT CHURCH.

Your committee has sought all available light on this question. A voluminous correspondence with many of the most thoughtful in our church has been submitted to us; also a full correspondence with the colored ministers of our church, showing that out of fifty-five, thirty-three are desirous of organization, six are opposed, three are doubtful, and eleven are unheard from.

We have also learned that it is the intention of the independent Presbyteries to call a meeting at an early day for the purpose of organizing a colored Presbyterian Church.

In view of these facts, and remembering the settled policy of our church, your committee would recommend:

1. Should the independent Presbyteries call a meeting for the organization of a colored Presbyterian Church, that our Executive Committee be directed to confer with them in fixing the time and place for such meeting, and the Assembly does hereby authorize any of its Presbyteries, or ministers and churches on the consent of their Presbyteries, to withdraw on their own motion from its jurisdiction to join said church.

2. A committee of five be appointed to represent this Assembly in the event of such a convocation being held, and convey to these brethren our fraternal salutations, and the assurance that it is our determination to continue our financial help, and give them a hearty coöperation in every good work.

Funds Necessary.

Your committee would recommend that the sum of $15,000 be raised for general work, and the committee have authority to raise $10,000 additional for the development of Stillman Institute. We believe that a special effort should be made to increase the fund at the present time, and we respectfully suggest that this Assembly enjoin the Presbyteries to see that the cause be presented to every church.

Executive Committee.

Your committee would recommend that the records of the Executive Committee be approved, and that this committee for the ensuing year shall be constituted as follows: Dr. E. H. Sholl, Hon. J. W. Lapsley, Rev. L. S. Handley, D. D., Rev. J. A. Bryan, Hon. J. H. Miller, General R. D. Johnston, Dr. J. T. Searcy, Rev. John Barbour, D. D., Rev. E. P. Davis, Rev. A. B. Curry, and Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., Secretary.

J. W. BACHMAN, Chairman.
A. R. COCKE, T. H. STALL,
M. H. KERR, J. D. CRENSHAW,
H. S. BRADSHAW, W. R. WILSON,
J. A. McLEES, A. MAYS,
CHARLES W. DORSEY, J. G. HALL.
T. M. HUNTER, dissenting as to the recommendation concerning independent colored church.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report on Education, pending which business, the Assembly had recess until 12 o'clock M.

12 o'clock M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. R. C. Reed in the chair at the request of the Moderator. In pursuance of the Westminster Assembly commemorative exercises, the Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., delivered an address on "The Westminster Symbols in their relation to and influence upon the missionary character and activities of the church."

The Assembly had recess until 3:30 o'clock P. M.

3:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and resumed the consideration of the report on Education. The report was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

Your committee to which was referred the minutes and report of the Assembly's Committee of Education would respectfully report that they have examined and desire to commend the report and minutes of the Executive Committee of Education with the summary of facts therein contained. After consideration of the same, we desire to recommend to the Assembly:

1st. That the time for the observance of a day of prayer for colleges and seminaries be changed from the first Sunday in November to the last Thursday in February as unanimously requested by the Executive Committee, and by the overture of Montgomery Presbytery referred to us.

2nd. That the Assembly reiterate and impress upon all our Presbyteries that it is a settled principle of the Assembly not to assume the whole support of any candidate preparing for the ministry, but only to give such aid as will assist him in the prosecution of his studies, and prevent his discontinuance of the same. To this end that the Assembly urge upon Presbyteries to be exceedingly careful in recommending candidates for aid, and to be governed by the action of the Assembly in its former deliverances on this subject. The reasons for this recommendation being that the only practical test the church has of true self-devotion in her candidates is in requiring them to manifest it by the appropriation of their own private means, or their personal labor and efforts, to their preparation for the holy office of the ministry.

3rd. That while the Assembly does not claim to restrain the discretion or generosity of churches, individuals, or societies in rendering help to candidates, it would instruct the Executive Committee not to render aid to any candidate until it be advised of such aid as the candidate is receiving or expects to receive outside of the committee's aid, and not to grant aid to them unless it be imperatively demanded by the Presbytery under whose care the candidate may be for whom the aid is asked.

4th. That the Executive Committee be instructed to apportion the sum of $30,000 among the Presbyteries for the current year, and that presbyterial chairmen of Education be urged to apportion their presbyterial quota among the churches, and urge each church to raise the amount expected of it.

5th. That the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for the ensuing year be composed as follows: Rev. E. M. Richardson, D. D., Secretary; Rev. N. M. Woods, D. D., Rev. W. McF. Alexander, Rev. E. A. Ramsey, D. D., Rev. S. J. Foster, Rev. J. H. Lumpkin, Mr. G. W. Macrae, Treasurer; S. P. Read, Thomas Wellford, John Johnson, and C. H. Albright.

6th. Your committee recommends the following action suggested by the Executive Committee: First, That the Assembly requests all of our pastors to ask a contribution from the ladies' societies and Sabbath-schools in connection with the churches for this cause; Second, That the Assembly hereby recommends to all our people, ministers, officers, and members, to pray more earnestly and more frequently for God's blessing upon all our candidates, and for the continued and enlarged usefulness of the system of beneficiary education.

7th. The Standing Committee recommends that the Assembly adopt the following resolution: That the Assembly heartily approves the fidelity and diligence of the Executive Committee of Education, and of its chairman, secretary and treasurer, during the year just ending, and on behalf of the church tenders them the thanks of the Assembly.

The Assembly directs the Executive Committee to make no further appropriation in aid of young ladies in the school at Fredericksburg, or for any other object than education for the ministry.

The Judicial Committee reported that no business had come into their hands, and asked to be discharged. The committee was discharged.

Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Rev. Wm. McF. Alexander offered the following resolution directing the Executive Committee of Publication to issue, in separate form for general circulation, Dr. Strickler's address on the Catechism.
Adopted.

Resolved, That this Assembly hereby emphasizes anew the value that it places upon the Shorter Catechism and the catechetical mode of instruction, by requesting Dr. G. B. Strickler to furnish a copy of his address for publication, and directs its Committee of Publication to issue that address in pamphlet form, and expresses its desire that a copy of it may find its way into every home within its bounds.

Adopted.

Adopted.

The order of the day having arrived, it was ordered that the next Assembly meet in the First Presbyterian Church in New Orleans, La.

The following were appointed a commission to attend a convention of colored ministers and elders which is to meet for the purpose of organizing an independent African Presbyterian Church: J. W. Bachman, A. B. Curry, A. L. Phillips, E. H. Sholl, J. W. Lapsley.

The Moderator of the Assembly was added to this commission.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION.

This committee, with all of its members present and with prayer to God for guidance, has carefully considered all records, reports, and overtures placed before us by the Assembly.

1. We find the records of the Executive Committee correct, and recommend their approval as far as written to page 358.

2. We recommend that the Executive Committee for the coming year be as follows, viz.: James K. Hazen, D. D., Secretary and Treasurer; M. D. Hoge, D. D., Charles H. Read, D. D., J. P. Smith, D. D., J. W. Rosebro, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., Rev.

J. Calvin Stewart, S. K. Winn, R. A. Lancaster, B. R. Wellford, W. W. Henry, M. M. Gilliam, and W. C. Preston.

3. We commend the business methods of the Executive Committee, and the efficiency and fidelity of Secretary Hazen. The present assets in excess of liabilities, as given on page 14 of the report, is $108,693; not one dollar of the church collections has been used in the business or expenses of the office. The publications will compare most favorably, in all respects, with any publications on this continent. We recommend the approval of the thirty-sixth annual report, and that Presbyteries be enjoined to take action looking to more general and larger collections for this cause.

4. On the subject of a superintendent of Sabbath-schools, in view of the statements made on page 6 of the report, we recommend that no action be had at present.

5. Former Assemblies have approved the plan of having at least one colporteur in each Synod; and if the churches would contribute the $20,000 repeatedly asked by the Assembly, at least fifteen colporteurs could be commissioned; and this subject is commended to the Synods for consideration and action at their meetings this fall.

6. The Presbytery of Knoxville overtures this Assembly "to discontinue sending out blanks for reports that are out of date," and submits a specimen form to emphasize its request. We recommend this answer: The Assembly does not send out such blanks, and if Presbyteries will order annually from the committee only as many blank forms as are needed for that year, the Assembly will hereafter be relieved from the consideration of overtures of this character.

7. The Presbytery of New Orleans asks for the correction of a discrepancy between the Sabbath-school blanks and the statistical reports. We recommend that this request be granted; and that the Executive Committee of Publication be directed to make the correction.

8. The Presbytery of Fayetteville overtures the Assembly "to prepare and publish a pamphlet on Home Missions for distribution at net cost among the churches." We recommend that this request be not granted.

9. The Presbytery of Lafayette overtures the Assembly to prepare topics for the use of Westminster Leagues, and to give one topic each month to the subject of missions. We recommend this answer: The present publications of our church are sufficient to meet all present reasonable needs.

10. The Presbytery of Nashville overtures the Assembly to "supply an omission in the Sunday-school blanks ordered by the Memphis Assembly by the addition of 'number of copies of Sunday-school literature taken.'" We recommend this answer: The new form adopted by the last Assembly has twenty-three columns for statistics and fifteen printed questions, which is sufficient for the present.

11. The Presbytery of Winchester overtures the Assembly to direct Stated Clerks of Presbyteries in the preparation of statistical reports to enroll ministers in the order of their seniority of ordination. We recommend this answer: The Assembly declines to direct Presbyteries as to the mechanical order in which the names of ministers and churches shall be enrolled.

12. Four Presbyteries, Winchester, Dallas, South Alabama, and Columbia, ask for a revision of the topics embraced in the forms for narratives. We recommend the following revision, viz.:

1. Attendance on the services of the sanctuary by members and by others.
2. The observance of family worship.
3. The observance of the Lord's day by members.
4. The training of children and youth in the home and Sabbath-school in the Scriptures and Catechisms of the church.
5. Fidelity of God's people in worshipping the Lord with their substance, in giving to the support and extension of the gospel.

6. Has your church paid its minister fully and promptly the amount promised him ?

7. Have there been any special evidences of spiritual life, and growth, and activity among your people?

8. Does worldly conformity prevail among church members?

9. Is your church engaged in any evangelistic work outside your own congregation ?

The Presbytery of Winchester further overtures the Assembly for a careful revision of all blanks, and the elimination therefrom of everything superfluous, indefinite, or obscure.

In answer thereto we recommend—

1st. That the statistical reports remain unchanged.

2nd. That the systematic beneficence reports shall embrace only the following items: Foreign Missions, Assembly's Home Missions, Local Home Missions, Colored Evangelization, Relief Fund, Education, Publication, Bible Society.

3rd. The Sabbath-school reports shall embrace: (a), Number of schools; (b), Number on roll—officers and teachers, scholars; (c), Average attendance—officers and teachers, scholars; (d), Scholars admitted to communion; (e), Contributions of the school: for your own school; other objects.

QUESTIONS.

1. Is your school under the supervision of the session, and do its members attend and take part in the services?

2. Do the scholars generally attend public worship?

3. Are the Standards of our church taught?

4. Do the scholars memorize the Scriptures and the Catechisms?

5. Are the publications of our church used in your school, and to what extent?

6. Has there been any special religious interest during the year?

7. Have you teachers' meetings?

4th. That the Secretary of Publication be directed to mail a copy of this report, together with a copy of each one of the blank forms of reports adopted by this Assembly, to each Stated Clerk of Presbyteries and Synods, together with the statement that these blanks, and only these, must be used. This statement to be signed by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. A. W. PITZER, Chairman.

Adopted by the committee and ordered to be signed by the chairman.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. Robert Price presiding by request of the Moderator.

The Assembly was addressed in the interest of Home Missions by the Rev. F. D. Hunt and the Rev. H. H. Newman, of Florida, the Rev. S. G. Miller, of Arkansas, the Rev. J. H. Wiggins, D. D., of Texas, and the Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, of Virginia. A collection, amounting to $150.60, was taken, to be appropriated to this work.

The Assembly adjourned until 9:30 to-morrow morning.

SIXTH DAY.

MAY 26, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. H. Tucker Graham.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved. The Moderator was made chairman of the commission to meet the convention of colored ministers and ruling elders which is to organize an African Presbyterian Church.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report, which was read and put upon the docket.

The Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools presented a report, which was read and docketed.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions submitted a report, which was considered seriatim. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 12 M.

12 o'clock M.

The Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Dr. S. M. Smith on "The Westminster Symbols Considered in Relation to Current Popular Theology and the Needs of the Future."

An invitation from the ladies of the city and the Faculty of the Presbyterian College for Women to a reception at the College next Friday was accepted with thanks.

The Assembly had recess until 3:30 P. M.

3:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures had permission to retire at 4 P. M.

The order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was suspended to take up the unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

It was made the order of the day for 8:30 to-night to receive the delegate from the Reformed Church in America.

The unfinished business was taken up, and the report on Home Missions was considered seriatim, amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

Your committee respectfully report that they have reviewed the minutes of the Executive Committee of Home Missions and find them correctly kept, and that they have carefully examined their report and given due consideration to its several items.

This committee has the oversight of the following interests, the importance of which to the advancement of the cause of Christ as entrusted to the hands of our church cannot be overestimated, viz., Home Missions, properly so called, Church Erection, and the Invalid Fund. From the financial statement of the Executive Committee, we learn that the entire sum of which they have had the control for the benefit of all these objects during the past year has been $50,541.22, this being $917.46 less than the amount in their hands during the preceding year. Of this sum $4,560.39 were used for the expenses of conducting the business, and $42,045.96 were paid out for the support of the several branches of the work, leaving $3,934.87 on hand at the end of the year. The loss of income was due partly to the fact that the sum transferred from the Foreign Missionary treasury for the support of the Indian Mission has ceased, according to the arrangement adopted when the Home Mission Committee was first entrusted with the Indian Mission, and partly from the falling off in legacies.

The report shows that two ministers and one church building have been aided in New Mexico; that two ministers, laboring among the Mexicans in Texas, have been supported, and a Bible training-school in the same field assisted; that sixteen ministers in Arkansas, twelve in Florida, forty-four in Texas, and ten ministers and sixteen teachers in the Indian Territory have received appropriations, and that eight church buildings in seven Presbyteries have been aided. As to this branch of the work, there has been a slight decrease in the receipts from the regular sources of income, that is from the contributions of churches, Sabbath-schools and Societies, Loan Fund, and Miscellaneous as compared with the preceding year, but an increase as compared with 1894-'95, the whole amounting to only $25,215.

It should be remembered that all the departments of church work are mutually dependent, if one languishes all are affected. It is easy to see that our success in the Foreign Missionary work depends upon the maintenance of spiritual life and progress at home. As new churches are formed, and increase in membership, spirituality, wealth, and liberality, candidates for the ministry will be multiplied, and all the agencies by which the gospel is spread abroad will be increased. The Executive Committee, in their report, call our attention to a striking illustration of this important truth as furnished by the history of the work in Texas. We had in Texas in 1871 only two thousand six hundred and thirty-four members, who furnished only two candidates for the ministry, and gave only $444 to Foreign Missions. Now our Texas churches, with over sixteen thousand members, furnish thirty-five or forty candidates for the ministry, and give over $5,000 to send the gospel to the heathen.

The report of the Executive Committee speaks in the most encouraging terms of the work among the Mexicans in Texas. In five years, under the ministry of Rev. W. S. Scott, afterwards joined by Rev. H. B. Pratt, it was increased from one church of fifty members to six churches with three hundred members (over forty being received during the past year), with three young men in training for the ministry.

The report also calls attention to the present encouraging condition of the work among the Indians, especially the school work, and to the prospective importance of that field, growing partly out of the changes, social and political, among the tribes, and the influx of a white population.

Out of the Invalid Fund thirty-seven infirm ministers and ninety-six families of deceased ministers have been aided, but the sad fact must be mentioned that the funds in the hands of the committee were sufficient to pay only seventy-five per cent. of amounts asked for this purpose by the Presbyteries. In this branch of the work there has been an increase in the amount received from legacies of $154.32, and a loss in contributions of $322.12, making a decrease in the total of $167.80.

No object appeals more tenderly to our sympathies and to our sense of justice than that which is represented by the Invalid Fund. Aged and infirm ministers who have spent their lives in the service of the church, and the destitute families of those who have been cut off in the midst of their labors, ought not to be suffered to languish in poverty.

It is very gratifying to note that under the present plan of work, prescribed by the Assembly, there has been an increase in the contributions for Home Missions amounting to $8,600 annually left in the hands of the Executive Committee. This result has been secured with only a partial coöperation on the part of the Presbyteries, and shows what might be done if the Presbyteries would fall into line fully, and work the plan the Assembly has adopted.

We regret to note, however, that the Executive Committee begins this fiscal year with only $2,275 cash on hand, being $3,745 less than they had to begin the last year with.

Your committee begs leave to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly believes it to be vitally important to the success of the Home Missionary work that the cause should be distinctly and earnestly presented to the churches twice a year, according to the plan already adopted; and does now most earnestly urge all its lower courts to have this cause fully presented during the months of September and January, and to take active steps to secure for it liberal contributions.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly makes a call for the sum of $40,000 for this work for the present year.

Resolved, 3. That the pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents are requested to appropriate the collections of the Sabbath-schools on the fifth Sabbaths in the several months for the support of schools in the Indian Territory.

Resolved, 4. That any plan looking to an endowment for the Invalid Fund be abandoned for the present, and that the needs of our infirm ministers and of the families of our deceased ministers be urged upon our churches. The Assembly views with alarm and mortification the indifference of pastors and sessions to this worthy cause, which ought to appeal to every Presbyterian heart. The sum of $20,000 is necessary to meet the demands of this cause, and the Assembly recommends to the churches to make strenuous efforts to reach that amount this year.

Resolved, 5. That Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., be reëlected the Assembly's Secretary of Home Missions for the ensuing year.

Resolved, 6. That the following gentlemen be elected as the Executive Committee of Home Missions, viz.: Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., W. A. Powell, Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., Rev. T. P. Cleveland, D. D., Rev. A. R. Holderby, Rev. Chalmers Fraser, Rev. T. H. Rice, M. A. Candler, D. A. Beatie, W. P. Inman, John C. Kirkpatrick.

ROBERT PRICE, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was presented, and its consideration made the order of the day for ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

The report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath-Schools was taken from the docket. Pending its consideration, the Assembly had recess until 8:30 P. M.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, Dr. Beattie presiding by request of the Moderator. The Rev. Dr. Hoge introduced the delegate from the Reformed Church in America, the Rev. R. H. Joldersma, who brought hearty greeting from the venerable body he represents, and was appropriately responded to by the Rev. Dr. Beattie.

The Rev. D. W. Snyder, our missionary to the Congo Free State, addressed the Assembly on the work of himself and his colleagues in that region. A collection was taken, amounting to $81, to be appropriated to Foreign Missions.

The unfinished business, the report on Sabbath-schools, was sent to the docket.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence was instructed to report a minute expressive of the Assembly's appreciation of Mr. Joldersma's fraternal address, and heartily responsive to his suggestion of closer relations between the Reformed Church in America and our own.

It was ordered that the report of the Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School be taken up immediately after the disposal of the report on Foreign Missions.

It was made the order of the day for 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon to receive the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported, recommending the celebration of the Lord's supper to-morrow at 8:30 P. M., the sermon to be preached by Dr. Dabney. The report was adopted.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30.

SEVENTH DAY.

MAY 27, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in devotional exercises by the Rev. P. H. Gwinn.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

An overture from the Synod of Alabama touching the transfer of a church was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report. It was docketed. The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a further report, which was put upon the docket.

The Special Committee on the Sabbath made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Sabbath respectfully reports that the following papers have come into its hands: the report of the Permanent Committee of the Assembly, the report of the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, and a paper addressed to the Hon. James A. Gary, Postmaster-General, urging the closing of post-offices and stopping the transmission of mails on the Sabbath.

The report of Muhlenburg Presbytery should have been sent to the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath. From the report of the Permanent Committee we learn that the facts in regard to Sabbath observance are about the same as those of one year ago. Our people and other Christians seem to be observing the day quite generally.

On the other hand, there seems to be no doubt but that the desecration of the Sabbath is on the increase among non-Christians.

*The last Assembly "recommended that the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath be authorized and directed to take such steps as may be necessary to arrange preliminaries for securing a united and simultaneous effort on the part of the different denominations of Christians in the United States to get up a mammoth petition to civil authorities for the enactment and enforcement of laws to stop all unnecessary state and interstate travel and traffic on the Sabbath-day."

The Permanent Committee did not carry out this recommendation for the reason that such mammoth petition had already been forwarded to the proper authorities, which petition was signed by many of our people, and for the further reason that they were already in union with the American Sabbath Union.

Your committee recommend that this Assembly approve the action of the Permanent Committee in this matter for the reasons given.

2. It is the opinion of your committee in regard to the communication addressed to the Postmaster-General, which is in our hands, and petitions addressed to civil authorities, that there is little hope of accomplishing anything by petitioning civil authorities. Your committee therefore recommends that our pastors and teachers be urged to take pains to instruct the people in regard to the perpetual obligation and sanctity of the Lord's day, and that our people take care to so live in keeping the day holy that their light may so shine that others may be constrained to remember the day to keep it holy.

3. That the report of the Permanent Committee be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

4. That Rev. James Stacy, D. D., Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., Rev. Theron H. Rice, Jr., and Mr. John A. Barry, be appointed the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath.

S. M. NEEL, R. A. MICKLE,
R. M. HAMMOCK, J. M. SMITH,
L. A. HILL, SAMUEL DAVIS,
W. HETHORN.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative made a report, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes. The religious journals within our Church were requested to publish the report on the Narrative. (See Appendix.)

The report of the Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School was received and placed upon the docket.

The report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was received and put upon the docket.

Adopted.

Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Nashville reported, recommending their approval with exceptions. The exceptions were stricken out, and thus amended the report was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas reported, recommending their approval with exceptions. The exceptions were stricken out and the report adopted.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to whom was referred the official communication from "The Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian System," made to this body through its Executive Committee, Principal William Caven, Chairman, and Dr. Wm. Henry Roberts, Secretary, respectfully report that they have carefully considered the same, and recommend that the following action be taken:

1st. This Assembly expresses its great satisfaction that the plan of coöperation in Home Missions brought to the attention of the last Assembly by this Committee of the Alliance has been adopted by the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, as well as by our own, and by the General Synods of the Reformed Church in America and the Reformed Church in the United States.

2nd. This Assembly congratulates the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system on the success of the sixth General Council, held in Glasgow, June 17 to 26, 1896, a convocation memorable for the dignity and ability of its discussions, its happy furtherance of the high aims of the Alliance, and the cordial and noble hospitality extended by that city.

3rd. In response to the congratulations of the executive commission on the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Westminster Standards, this Assembly begs to reply, that not only in a full and well-arranged series of exceedingly able and instructive addresses, delivered by chosen and honored speakers, has this Assembly sought suitably to recognize so memorable an event, but that in the Presbyteries and Synods of our church similar exercises have been held with great and stimulating delight, or are yet to be observed.

Your committee further recommends:

1. That the treasurer be instructed to pay to George Junkin, Esq., treasurer of the Alliance, $480, being the apportionment of expenses due from this venerable body.

2. That the Stated Clerk be directed to place on the docket for the Assembly of 1898, as an item of business, the choice of thirty-three or thirty-four delegates to represent the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States in the seventh General Council of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system, to be held in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., during the fall of 1899.

3. That as the Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., was appointed "as a delegate to bear to" this "venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance," "with a view to the fuller expression of the kindly sentiments of the Reformed Churches each toward the other and of their spiritual unity," the Assembly do now appoint a time when Dr. Hoge may be heard.

The Rev. J. C. Molloy presented the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

Resolved, That the thanks of this General Assembly are hereby tendered to Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., president, and to the other authorities, and to the students of Davidson College for the generous and hospitable treatment accorded the Assembly in connection with the delightful "outing" this day enjoyed, for whose inception and conduct we are indebted to them; and that further, the Assembly assures them of its hearty interest in this splendid Presbyterian school, and of its earnest prayer that its future may be even more glorious than its noble past.

Adopted by a rising vote unanimously.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the following minute responsive to the greeting of the Rev. R. H. Joldersma, the delegate from the Reformed Church in America. The report was adopted, except so much of it as refers to organic union. This was recommitted to the committee:

In reference to the suggestion made by the honored delegate with regard to organic union between the Reformed Church and our own, your committee is ready to reciprocate any proposition to create a closer relation between the two bodies, believing that such a union is a consummation devoutly to be desired, if it could be effected on terms agreed on by both bodies which would ensure an efficiency greater than that now existing in the two churches apart, in maintaining the cardinal truths embodied in the Confessions and Catechisms of each body, and in advancing the kingdom of him whose right it is to rule throughout the world.

Your committee also recommends the appointment of the Rev. Charles R. Hemphill, D. D., and Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., as delegates to the General Synod of the Reformed Church, to meet in Asbury Park, N. J., on the 2d of June, 1897.

With regard to the resolution offered by Rev. Dr. Molloy, nominating a committee to consider the question of organic union with the Reformed Church in America, which was referred to your Committee on Foreign Correspondence, we would respectfully say that we deem it inexpedient to appoint such a committee at this time.

Your committee will place a copy of this report in the hands of the Rev. R. H. Joldersma, expressing, as it does, the cordial affection of our Assembly for the Reformed Church, and its best and kindest wishes for the happiness and usefulness of its delegate.

The Assembly had recess for five minutes.

The Rev. John F. Cannon, D. D., addressed the Assembly on "The Influence Exerted by the Westminster Symbols upon the Individual, the Family, and Society."

The report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was taken from the docket. Pending its consideration, the Assembly had recess until 3:30 P. M.

3:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Rev. Dr. Milster offered a resolution, directing the Executive Committee of Publication to issue in separate form for general circulation the address delivered this morning by Dr. Cannon.

Adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the report on Foreign Missions.

The order of the day, the consideration of the report on Theological Seminaries, was suspended, and the report on Foreign Missions was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your committee has sought to give careful attention to the important matters placed in its hands. It has reviewed the minutes of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, and it has considered the contents of its thirty-sixth annual report to the Assembly. It has also given its attention to several overtures and to other papers put in its hands by the Assembly and by the Executive Committee.

We, first of all, would record with profound gratitude the great goodness of the Lord to our beloved church in connection with the conduct and fruitage of our foreign work during the past year. That we have now more missionaries than ever in the field; that young men and women are offering their services to the Lord for this work; that the work has been considerably expanded during the year, and that no debt rests on the treasury of the committee, are matters which must evoke our grateful praise to the Head of the church. Above all, the fact that a larger number (508) than ever before have confessed Christ in heathen fields in which our missions lie should call forth our sincere gratitude and inspire us with redoubled zeal for the future.

During the year eleven new missionaries were sent out. Five of these were sent to China, one to Japan, three to Brazil, and two to the Congo Free State. This makes our total missionary roll one hundred and fifty.

During the year death has brought sadness to several of our missions, and laid sorrow upon more than one heart. The Rev. J. H. Bryson, D. D., a faithful and efficient member of the Executive Committee, was taken to his eternal reward in February of this year. The Rev. W. B. White, of the China Mission, entered into rest also in February. Mrs. D. W. Snyder was called to her heavenly home in May of last year. Miss Ronzone passed from her earthly labors at Milan in July last.

On account of ill health Rev. H. T. Graham and wife and Miss Chambers have retired from their respective fields, and Miss Reed is temporarily laid aside from her work.

The deep and sincere sympathy of this Assembly is tendered to those who have been bereaved, and its earnest prayer for the restoration of those at present in feeble health is made.

In the state of the finances there is not a little to encourage. The receipts from all sources have been $143,741.79, an increase of $1,782.84 over last year. From legacies less by $10,285.40 was received than during the last year. This makes the gifts from churches $12,067.74 more than last year. Of this sum $5,000 was a single personal contribution.

But the disbursements for the year were $10,664.05 more than the year's receipts, and $13,173.42 more than the disbursements of last year, so that the balance to the credit of the committee from last year has been almost exhausted. On April 1st of this year, exclusive of the Congo Boat Fund, the balance in the treasury was $524.41. It is clear, therefore, that a special effort should be made to increase the contributions of our people, and especially to secure a collection in every church. Out of about 2,800 churches only 1,759 have sent contributions, and only 570 Sabbath-schools out of nearly 1,800 have responded to the call for a collection. About 940 Ladies' Missionary Societies have sent in their gifts, amounting to the large sum of nearly $41,000.

Some brief comparison between the state of our work ten years ago and now may be of interest. The number of missionaries has been increased from fifty-four to one hundred and fifty. The contributions have grown from $84,675 to $143,709. The annual cost per missionary has been reduced largely by the support given by the native Christians, from $1,587 to about $1,000. At this rate we need about $150,000 for next year to maintain our present work, without much expansion. Special attention is called to the excellent missionary literature provided for our church. The Missionary has increased in circulation from 9,259 to 9,826—that is, 567 paying subscribers. The Children's Missionary has now a circulation of 6,059, being 762 more than last year. About 2,000 copies of The Prayer Calendar were distributed. We would emphasize the value of this literature, and the importance of extending its circulation among our people.

In regard to the subscription price of The Missionary, we would recommend that it be continued at the low price of fifty cents a year; but at the same time we would, in the strongest possible terms, insist on a special effort being made to increase its circulation. Since the price to subscribers has been thus reduced, the increase in circulation has not been as great as was expected, so that, during the past year, there has been a deficit of about $1,000. Unless there is an increase in the subscription list, this low price cannot well be continued another year hence.

In this connection, we venture to suggest, that the ministers who can pay for the copies (1600) of The Missionary which are sent to them (free of charge), might render useful assistance by sending the price to the publishers of that periodical, which is so helpful to them in their work.

The Executive Committee makes grateful mention of the valuable aid rendered it by the Chairmen of Foreign Missions in Presbyteries and Synods. We would call special attention to this useful service, and we would suggest that these church courts exercise due care that earnest freinds of the missionary cause be selected.

The report of the Executive Committee states that the Rev. A. T. Graybill asks that his membership be transferred from the Presbytery of Montgomery to the Presbytery of Tamaulipas, Mexico. As such transfer can only be made by special permission of the General Assembly (see Manual, Section 2, Article XV.), we recommend that permission be granted to the Presbytery of Montgomery to make the said transfer.

The Executive Committee calls attention to the fact that the large contributions which come in during the month of March indicate that the money is held back for a time after it has been contributed. This fact hampers the Executive Committee not a little, and leads it to adopt an overture asking "the Assembly to instruct, through its Presbyteries, all church sessions to elect from their number a special treasurer, who shall act as the treasurer of the benevolent funds of the church."

In reply to this request we would recommend that the attention of all Presbyteries be specially called to the embarrassments occasioned to the Executive Committee by delay in forwarding to their treasurer funds contributed by the churches, and that the Presbyteries be enjoined to require the sessions of all their churches to forward as promptly as practicable all such funds.

We would call earnest attention to the Week of Prayer which has been observed for several years, and would recommend that it be observed again this year, and that its observance be appointed for the week prior to the Sabbath in October when the collection is taken in the churches. We believe that this is a very important matter, for it is in answer to the prayer of God's people that the blessing surely comes. During the past year there were not wanting tokens of this in answer to special prayer. The Monthly Concert for Prayer is of value in the same way, and should be diligently observed.

In regard to the observance of Children's Day, we believe that its services may be made useful, and we recommend that the last Sabbath in May, or such other day as may be suitable for its observance, be appointed. We also recommend that the Executive Committee prepare an order or programme for these services, and that in preparing this the committee be careful not to introduce anything out of harmony with the Directory of Worship of our church.

The Executive Committee reports that the Salonica property in Greece is now, by transfer, in possession of the Greek Evangelical Church, all incumbrances being assumed by that church.

The committee also reports that satisfactory progress has been made in regard to the Campinas property in Brazil, though some little time may elapse before the matter is finally settled. We recommend that this matter be left in the hands of the Executive Committee, to deal with and conclude in such manner as they may deem best in accordance with Presbyterian interests.

The Executive Committee calls attention to the matter of examining physicians for applicants who wish to go to the foreign field, and it recommends that each Presbytery appoint an examining physician, whose certificate, as well as that of the family physician, should be required on behalf of every applicant. This we believe to be a matter of great practical importance, and conducive to safety and economy; and we therefore recommend that each Presbytery of the church be requested to appoint such an examining physician when needed.

Attention is called to the interesting fact that the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of our China Mission falls due next September. The missionaries on the field propose to celebrate this event in some suitable way, and they send various urgent requests that the secretary of Foreign Missions, or some member of the Executive Committee, should attend this celebration, and at the same time visit the missions in China, Japan, and Corea. They also promise to assist to defray the expenses of the visit, and other gifts are available for the same purpose. Moreover, such visits are made from time to time by other churches to the missions they are conducting.

In view of these considerations, we think that such a visit at such a time would be of much value to our work; and we therefore recommend that the visit be made, and that the details in regard to it, including the supply of the secretary's place, should he go, be left in the hands of the Executive Committee to arrange.

In connection with the Foreign Mission work of our church, it is pleasing to observe that special attention, in various ways, is given to this subject in our theological seminaries. By special lectures, by stated instruction, and by Missionary Day services, much is being done to awaken interest, impart information, and arouse zeal in the cause of missions in general. We would raise the question whether it would not be feasible, in the near future, to secure a special lectureship on Missions, the benefit of which, in a course of six or eight lectures from time to time, might be enjoyed successively during the session by all our seminaries. Five hundred dollars every two years might serve this purpose very well.

Touching the Congo boat, a large amount of correspondence has been placed in our hands. This consists chiefly of letters from Mr. Verner and Mr. Sheppard, making an earnest plea for the speedy construction of the boat. The Executive Committee has fully considered the matter, and refers the whole subject to the Assembly for decision. The able and earnest pleadings and reasonings for the boat are fitted to arrest attention and deepen the concern of the church in its Congo Mission. The letter of Mr. Verner elicits the fact that it will require about $15,000 in addition to the $10,000 already on hand to place such a boat as is needed on the river at the point where it can be utilized. We recommend that under existing conditions, and in the financial state of the church, the Executive Committee be not encouraged to proceed at present with the construction of this boat. At the same time we recognize the service which the boat might render, and would assure the missionaries and the converts of our deepest concern for them, and the difficulties under which they labor in their work.

We note with gratification that a number of churches and several individuals are supporting missionaries of their own in the field. There are six individuals and nearly fifty churches doing this, but we would like to see the number increased.

We cordially approve of the aim of the Executive Committee in seeking to develop the matter of self-support among the native converts in heathen lands.

We would arrest the attention of the Assembly with the fact that for some years past there has been a marked increase in miscellaneous gifts; and that at the same time there has been a falling off since 1892 till last year and this, in the collections from the churches. There has also been a marked decrease in Sunday-school gifts, but a slight increase in the returns from societies.

What we need is a quickening of the spiritual life and activities of the church, and a deeper sympathy with the purposes of the Master in the redemption of sinful men the world over. Let prayer unceasing be made that God would guide and bless all we do in this work.

An earnest call comes up from every field for more workers. The China Mission calls for twenty-one more, the Congo for at least two, Japan needs several, Brazil two, Corea half a dozen. For the best welfare of the work at least eighteen new laborers should be sent out. This would require about $165,000. Cannot the church do this? Surely, for God has greatly blessed this work in the past, and is ready to continue and enlarge his blessing.

We have examined the minutes of the Executive Committee, find them neatly kept, and recommend their approval.

Ministers.—J. H. McNeilly, S. H. Chester, Angus McDonald, James I. Vance, R. C. Reed, J. W. Bachman, J. W. Lupton, F. B. Webb, G. W. Patterson.

Ruling Elders.—R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, S. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton, Joseph Hardie.

We also recommend that the Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be elected the Assembly's Secretary of Foreign Missions for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted, FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported, recommending answers to overtures, which were adopted, as follows:

The Presbytery of Louisville, in session at Elizabethtown, Kentucky, October 14, 1896, respectfully sends the following overture to the General Assembly to meet in Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1897:

"Believing that a fuller knowledge of the work done in foreign fields and among the colored people would greatly advance the interest of our people and pastors in these causes, the Presbytery of Louisville respectfully overtures the General Assembly at its next meeting in Charlotte, N. C., to direct its missionaries to furnish statistics from all the churches in foreign lands as is required of our home churches, and also from all our colored churches, and that such statistics be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly."

By order of Louisville Presbytery.

DAVID M. SWEETS, Stated Clerk.

In reply to the overture from the Presbytery of Louisville, asking that missionaries in the foreign field be directed to furnish statistics from their various missions, also that our colored churches do the same, and that such statistics be published in the Appendix to the Minutes, your committee would recommend that such statistics, as far as possible, be obtained and published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

The Presbytery of Columbia, in session at Lewisburg, Tenn., April 17, 1897, would respectfully overture your venerable body to direct the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions to reduce the salary of the incoming Secretary to an amount less than that which has been paid. F. B. WEBB, Stated Clerk.

J. C. HARDIN, Moderator.

In reply to the overture of the Presbytery of Columbia, we call attention to the Foreign Mission Manual adopted by the Assembly (Section 5), which provides "that the Executive Committee shall fix the salaries of the Secretary, Treasurer, and office helpers." As the matter to which the overture relates is thus placed in the hands of the Executive Committee, we would advise the most careful economy in regard to salaries and office expenses; and, if it appear that the expenses of administration can be reduced in any way, consistent with efficiency, we shall be pleased.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

The Presbytery of Columbia, in session at Lewisburg, Tenn., April 17, 1897, having learned of an urgent invitation coming from the "China Mission" for the Secretary of Foreign Missions to be present at their thirtieth anniversary, would respectfully overture your venerable body to decline to approve or allow the visit referred to to be made.

F. B. WEBB, Stated Clerk.

J. C. HARDIN, Moderator.

In reply to the overture of the Presbytery of Columbia, which "asks the Assembly to decline to approve or allow a member of the Executive Committee to visit China on the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of the founding our mission there," we recommend that the Executive Committee arrange for such a visit, provided that the necessary funds for meeting the expenses attached to said visit are not taken from the treasury of Foreign Missions.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

Presbytery of Dallas respectfully overtures the General Assembly to convene in Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1897, to review and reverse the action of the Assembly of 1896, wherein it was decided that one elder does not constitute a session, where a church has but one elder (Minutes, p. 610), and reaffirm the action of the Assemblies of 1882 and 1884 on this matter.

By order of Presbytery,

E. M. MUNROE, Stated Clerk.

The Presbytery of Suwanee respectfully overtures the General Assembly in session at Charlotte, N. C., to reverse the action of the last Assembly touching the one ruling elder, in which the Assembly declared that one elder could not perform the functions of a session.

By order of Presbytery, November 7, 1896,

WM. HENRY DODGE, Stated Clerk.

The Presbytery of Tuskaloosa respectfully overtures the General Assembly, in view of the recent decision of that body that "one elder (where there is only one in a church) does not constitute a session, to send down to the Presbyteries an overture for their consideration, which shall make provision for this case, so that the one elder, where there is no pastor, may be able to do essential acts, in caring for the life of the church, and which shall define the acts that may be performed by this one elder."

Attest: J. A. SCOTT, Stated Clerk.

In answer to the overtures from Dallas, Suwanee, and Tuskaloosa Presbyteries—all substantially the same—touching the powers of one ruling elder, where there is only one in a particular church, this Assembly replies that the Book of Church Order, Chapter V., Section 3, Paragraph 63, teaches that one elder, where there is only one in a church, constitutes its session, and is competent to do the work of the session, except in judicial cases. Adopted.

The Presbytery of Abingdon, in session at Green Spring, Washington county, Va., on the 7th day of May, 1897, did, and hereby does, respectfully overture the General Assembly, which is to be in session on May the 20th, in the city of Charlotte, N. C., praying them to answer the following inquiry, viz.: In the event of the report to Presbytery of the organization of a church, either by a commission or an evangelist, without the election of any ruling elders for the present, shall such an organization be enrolled? By order of Presbytery,

I. N. NAFF, Stated Ceerk.

To the overture of the Presbytery of Abingdon, the Assembly answers that a church without officers is entitled to be enrolled. Adopted.

The Presbytery of Mississippi respectfully overtures the General Assembly to convene in Charlotte, N. C., on the 20th of May, 1897, to give a deliverance upon Section VII., Paragraph 2, Book of Church Order, relative to the powers and duties of a presbyterial commission:

1. Is said paragraph exhaustive in its definition of the powers and duties of a presbyterial commission, or may a presbyterial commission perform duties other than those specified in said paragraph?

2. May a presbyterial commission, consisting of three ministers and one or more elders (which is a quorum of Presbytery), perform any duty competent for a Presbytery to perform?

S. C. CALDWELL, Stated Clerk, Mississippi Presbytery.

To the overture of the Presbytery of Mississippi, touching the powers of a commission, the Assembly respectfully answers:

1. The Book of Church Order is sufficiently explicit in defining the powers of a commission. A commission cannot transact business other than that committed to it.

2. A commission is incompetent, although consisting of a quorum of Presbytery, to do any work except that which has been committed to it. Adopted.

The Presbytery of New Orleans would overture the General Assembly, meeting at Charlotte, N. C., to make certain necessary changes in our Rules of Discipline, Chapter XIII., Section IV., as follows:

P. 267.—I. Line two, after the word "against" insert "some decision of."

P. 269.—III. To substitute for the whole of this Rule the following: "The court against whose decision a complaint is taken shall appoint a representative to defend that decision, who shall be called the respondent. After the superior court has ascertained that the complaint is regular, its first step shall be to read 'the record' of the case; its second to hear the complainant; its third to hear the respondent; its fourth to hear the complainant again, and then it shall consider and decide the case."

P. 271.—V. Line one, in place of the word "which" put "whose decision."

The object of this overture is to conform these three Rules to Chapter V., III. (163), and Chapter XIII., II. (239), and to the principle that the courts are not parties in cases of process, and that when a matter is transferred from an inferior to a superior court, it is not the inferior court that is transferred, but only the cause.

Attest: LOUIS VOSS, Stated Clerk.

The Presbytery of South Carolina would overture the General Assembly, meeting at Charlotte, N. C., to make certain necessary changes in our Rules of Discipline, Chapter XIII., Section IV., as follows:

P. 267.—I. Line two, after the word "against" insert "some decision of."

P. 269.—III. To substitute for the whole of this Rule the following: "The court against whose decision a complaint is taken shall appoint a representative to defend that decision, who shall be called the respondent. After the superior court has ascertained that the complaint is regular, its first step shall be to read the record of the case; its second to hear the complainant; its third to hear the respondent; its fourth to hear the complainant again; and then it shall consider and decide the case."

P. 271.—V. Line one, in place of the word "which" put "whose decision."

The object of this overture is to conform these three Rules to Chapter V., III. (163), and Chapter XIII., II. (239), and the principle that the courts are not parties in cases of process, and that when a matter is transferred from an inferior to a superior court, it is not the inferior court that is transferred, but only the cause.

Ordered sent up by Presbytery on the 15th day of April, 1897.

G. G. MAYES, Clerk.

Answer to an overture from the Presbytery of New Orleans and the Presbytery of South Carolina, asking for certain changes in our Rules of Discipline, Chapter XIII., Section IV., etc.: We recommend that the changes asked for be made, and that this overture be sent down to the Presbyteries with the direction that the Presbyteries vote for or against the proposed changes, and report the result to the next General Assembly. Adopted.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School was taken up. The report was read. The Rev. Dr. Hoge offered a substitute therefor. The report and the substitute went to the docket, and the Assembly had recess until 8:30 P. M.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly engaged in the observance of the Lord's supper. The Rev. E. M. Munroe, D. D., presided, and was assisted by the Rev. A. B. Curry. In the absence of Dr. Dabney, the sermon was preached by the Rev. R. H. Joldersma, the delegate from the Reformed Church in America.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Neel.

EIGHTH DAY.

MAY 28, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. L. B. Johnston.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was taken from the docket, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Presbytery of East Hanover most respectfully overtures the General Assembly to interpret Paragraph 277, Chapter XV., Part II. of our Book of Church Order, on these points:

1. Does the word "officer" in this place refer to ministers, or is it to be restricted to ruling elders and deacons?

2. Has a Presbytery a right to dismiss a minister continuing to reside in its own geographical bounds to a neighboring Presbytery to serve churches in that Presbytery?

3. Should a transfer be granted in a case such as is stated in question 2, when the minister in question is engaged in a work of more general character (e. g., in work more directly under the charge of the Synod or Assembly), when it seems that he can be more efficient in his work if connected with another Presbytery?

Adopted in Presbytery April 29, 1897, at Richmond, Va., and ordered to be forwarded to the General Assembly. True copy. T. P. EPES, Stated Clerk, East Hanover Presbytery.

As to the word "officer," Paragraph 277, Book of Church Order, the General Assembly answers that the word "officer" in the above paragraph is restricted to ruling elders and deacons.

To the second question, touching minister residing in its bounds to labor in another Presbytery, the Assembly answers: The right belongs to each Presbytery to dismiss ministers. In each case the Presbytery is the judge and should decide each case on its own merits.

The Assembly answers the third question by stating that the answer to the second question is sufficient.

The Presbytery of Eastern Texas respectfully overtures the General Assembly to interpret the first clause of Section 132, Chapter III., in Book of Discipline. The information desired is upon the following points:

1. Is dislike for minister or officers, non-accord with the management of the church, or dislike for any of its officers and members, a justifiable reason for a member to urge for non-attendance upon services of the sanctuary?

2. Where such reason is given, and where such member persists in continued absence from all church services on such reasons, would a church session be justified in dropping the name of offender from the church roll after due warning had been given that if such conduct, based upon such reason, continued for one year, the name of the party would be dropped from church roll without trial or process?

I certify that the above overture was adopted by Presbytery during its session a Nacogdoches, April 21, 1897. S. F. TENNEY, Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Eastern Texas.

To overture of Presbytery of Eastern Texas the Assembly respectfully answers the first question in the negative and the second question as follows: Wilful absence from the Lord's table is always an offence (B. D., ch. XII., sec. II., par. 235). In such a case the session should proceed according to the requirements of the Book of Discipline.

The Presbytery of Lexington overtures: That whereas the General Assembly to meet in Charlotte, N. C., will celebrate the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the General Assembly, and whereas, in compliance with the advice of the Assembly, numerous local celebrations of the same event have been held throughout the bounds of our church, therefore

Be it resolved, That the Presbytery of Lexington respectfully overture the General Assembly to have its Committee of Publication issue, by the hands of some competent editor or Committee of Publication, a memorial volume composed of those papers and addresses selected from these various celebrations as to the committee may seem most suitable for the instruction of our people.

Done in Presbytery, at Mt. Carmel Church, May 14, 1897.
WM. C. WHITE, Stated Clerk, Lexington Presbytery.

In answer to the overture from Lexington Presbytery asking for the publication of the Westminster addresses, we recommend that—

1. The Assembly appoint a committee of three to edit and publish the addresses delivered at Charlotte, N. C., and secure subscriptions for the same.
2. The Committee of Publication be instructed to issue two editions, one permanently bound and one cheaply bound in paper.
3. The thanks of the Assembly be cordially given to the authors of these addresses, and manuscripts of these addresses be requested for publication.

The undersigned respectfully overtures this General Assembly to make an en thesi deliverance setting forth the doctrine of the inspiration of Scripture as contained in the words "inspiration" and "inspired" which are used in our Standards; cf., e. g., Confession of Faith, Chapter I., Par. II., III., VIII.

Signed, WM. S. RED.

Houston, Texas, May 18, 1897.

To overture of Rev. William S. Red touching a definition of inspiration, the Assembly respectfully answers that the Scriptures and the Confession of Faith are sufficiently explicit.

COLUMBIA, ALA., May 26, 1897.

Alabama Synod requests West Point, Georgia, Church transferred to South Alabama Presbytery. W. I. SINNOTT, Stated Clerk.

Action of the Synod of Georgia touching the transfer of the West Point Church to the Synod of Alabama:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows: "The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report that there has been placed in their hands a request from West Point Church, Presbytery of Atlanta, asking that it be transferred to the Presbytery of South Alabama, Synod of Alabama. The Presbytery of Atlanta approves this transfer. We recommend that Synod approve this transfer and this be forwarded to the General Assembly for final action. E. H. BARNETT,

"Chairman.

"The report was adopted."

By order of Synod, JAMES STACY, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk of the Synod of Georgia reports to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly that the Synod of Georgia has agreed to the proposed transfer of the West Point Church to the Synod of Alabama; that its boundaries otherwise remain the same, and that its next meeting will be at Rome, Ga., Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1897.

JAMES STACY, Stated Clerk.

In answer to the overture of the Synod of Georgia touching the transfer of the West Point Church to the Synod of Alabama, the Assembly grants this overture by changing the boundary line between the Synods of Georgia and Alabama so as to place the West Point Church in the Synod of Alabama. Adopted.

The Presbytery of Indian overtures the General Assembly on the following question, viz.: Does the licensure of a ruling elder debar him from the exercise of the powers of an elder?

The above was adopted May 1, 1897.

J. J. READ, Stated Clerk, Presbytery of Indian.

The Assembly answers the overture of the Presbytery of Indian touching the licensed elder, that the license in no way interferes with his duty as an elder. Adopted.

WHEREAS our General Assembly has repeatedly borne testimony against the printing, editing, selling, and patronizing of Sunday newspapers; and, whereas, the officers of our Assembly are every year importuned by representatives of the press for copies of proceedings and other matter for publication in Sunday and Monday papers; therefore be it

Resolved, 1, That our Assembly to meet soon in Charlotte, N. C., be respectfully overtured by the Presbytery of Memphis to take action early in its sessions disapproving of any of its officers or members furnishing any items for Sunday papers, or giving items on the Sabbath which are to be set up that day for Monday papers.

2. That the Stated Clerk of Presbytery prepare two copies of this overture, one of which shall be forwarded by mail to the clerk of the Assembly, and another to be given to one of the commissioners of the Presbytery, to be by him handed to the chairman of the Assembly's Committee of Bills and Overtures, requesting said chairman to see that said overture come before the Assembly in good season in the usual way.

Adopted by Presbytery of Memphis, April 16, 1897.

E. M. RICHARDSON, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly urges the officers and members to abstain from assisting in any way the desecration of the Sabbath day by offering news or reports for either Sunday or Monday papers, and refers to the past deliverances of the Assembly on Sabbath observance as sufficient.

The Rev. Drs. F. R. Beattie and C. R. Hemphill, and Ruling Elder H. V. Escott, were appointed a committee to coöperate with the Executive Committee of Publication in the matter of issuing in book form the commemorative addresses delivered before this Assembly.

The report of the Assembly's Home and School was taken up. The Rev. A. P. Saunders, D. D., was accorded the privileges of the floor in connection with its consideration.

This business was arrested, to be resumed as the first order for this afternoon.

The Assembly had recess until 12 o'clock M.

12 o'clock M.

The Assembly met, the Hon. B. R. Wellford, Jr., in the chair by request of the Moderator. The Hon. W. M. Cox addressed the Assembly on "The Influence of the Westminster System of Doctrine, Worship, and Polity on Civil Liberty and Responsible Government."

The Assembly had recess until 3 o'clock P. M.

3 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., was appointed the alternate of the Rev. Dr. Hemphill to convey the greeting of the Assembly to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky reported recommending their approval, with the exception that the printed copy placed in the committee's hands is not attested by the Stated Clerk of said Synod.

Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Virginia reported, recommending their approval.

Adopted.

The Committee on the Bible Cause presented the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on the Bible Cause repectfully makes the following report: The Assembly has heard with great pleasure and interest the address of Rev. Dr. Alexander McLean, corresponding secretary of the American Bible Society, concerning the work and the condition of that society.

It is with pain we learn that the receipts of the American Bible Society have fallen off the past year to such an extent that this society, representing interests that are common to every Christian's heart, must curtail its work as it has never been forced to do before. Especially do we deplore the sad fact that the Bible Society has had to deny two new translations of the Bible in the work of missions; and further, that unless prompt and liberal gifts are made, the work of the society must be greatly dwarfed both at home and abroad.

This Assembly also acknowledges that our church has not done as much in past years as it ought to have done. The statistical reports show that for the past year ending April 1, 1897, only 353 churches contributed to this cause, giving $2,678.00.

Recognizing and acknowledging our duty in this work, this Assembly renews its obligations to this society, and does hereby urge upon Presbyteries to appoint a Committee on the Bible Cause, if they have not one already, and further urges upon the Presbyteries to see that this cause is presented to the churches within their bounds, and that they give these churches an opportunity to contribute to the Bible cause each year.

Attention is called to the offer of the American Bible Society, either by direct correspondence with the society, or through its district, or any superintendents, to furnish any needed information or literature on the subject. W. A. WOOD, Chairman.

The Auditing Committee made a report, which was put on the docket.

A resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote, and is as follows:

WHEREAS, We, the commissioners of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, now in session at Charlotte, N. C., are under obligations to the press of this city for many favors and acts of kindness extended to us by it: and whereas we feel under especial obligations to the Daily Charlotte Observer for the full and efficient manner in which the daily proceedings of the Assembly have been reported, and especially to Miss Addie Williams, for to her efficiency and skill is due the excellency of these reports; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a rising vote of thanks of this Assembly be tendered to the Observer and to its efficient and obliging reporter.

By a rising vote the thanks of the Assembly were tendered as follows for the addresses commemorative of the Westminster Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly has listened with intense interest and profound attention to the addresses made at the Westminster celebration observed by this Assembly, by Rev. H. A. White, D. D., Rev. Robert Price, D. D., Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., Rev. R. L. Dabney, D. D., Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., Rev. Eugene Daniel, D. D., Rev. J. D. Tadlock, D. D., Rev. M. D. Hoge, D. D., Rev. Samuel M. Smith, D. D., Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D., and the Hon. W. M. Cox.

2. That the Assembly expresses its very great gratification with the exceptionally high order of the addresses these brethren have delivered, and it at the same time assures them that they have discharged the responsibilities laid upon them in a manner which elicits our highest praise, and merits our deepest gratitude.

3. That the Assembly tenders to these brethren, by a rising vote, its sincere and formal expression of thanks for the splendid service which they have rendered in making this celebration so successful, and in rendering its results so effective for good under the blessing of God to the whole church.

The consideration of the report on the Assembly's Home and School was resumed. The report was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on the Assembly's Home and School respectfully report that they have examined very carefully the report of the Board of Trustees of that institution. They have also conferred with the chancellor, Dr. A. P. Saunders, and with the president of the board, Dr. M. D. Hoge. In order to secure still further information touching the past history, present status, and future prospects of the Assembly's Home and School, they have consulted with care the Minutes of preceding General Assemblies.

They deem it due to this Assembly and necessary for its wise action to lay before it several facts.

I. Facts Concerning Property.

According to the treasurer's statement, the Assembly now owns in the city of Fredericksburg real estate valued at $24,300, and personal estate valued at $13,550; making a total of $37,850.

The Assembly owes in connection with its work in Fredericksburg $22,925; of this amount $15,000 is secured by mortgages on its real estate; $5,925 are in outstanding notes, and $2,000 in open accounts. The value of property above obligations is $14,925.

The property which is listed this year at $37,850 was listed last year at $42,850, thus showing a decrease in valuation to the extent of $5,000.

The indebtedness last year was $17,600, less by $5,325 than it is this year. It thus appears that by the depreciation of value of property, and by increase of indebtedness, the Assembly is this year $10,325 short of last year.

Furthermore, it seems proper to state that $10,000 listed as personal property consists in bonds of the city of Fredericksburg which are not available as general assets, inasmuch as they revert to the city in case the trustees cease to fulfil certain conditions on which they were issued. Deducting the amount of these bonds from the property valuation leaves the excess of valuation over indebtedness $4,925. This, in the judgment of your committee, represents the real value of the Assembly's property in connection with its Home and School; and this, it may be remarked, is but little more than half the value of the property with which it began operations four years ago.

II. Facts Concerning Work.

From the report of the Board of Trustees it appears that they have under their administration three departments of work.

1. The Home.—This embraces three buildings in which forty children are cared for: thirty-six of whom are orphans; three are children of foreign missionaries, and one is the child of a home missionary.

2. The Bible and Training School.—The object of this is to provide instruction in theology, medicine, and pedagogy, by way of training young women for missionary work in either the home or foreign field. Others than those preparing for missionary work have the privileges of this school.

3. The Fredericksburg College.—This institution differs in no essential respect from other colleges of the land. It proposes to do the same class of work, on the same terms as other colleges. Its only claim to the Assembly's special consideration is based on the fact that it opens its doors free to the wards of the church gathered in the Home.

So far as the committee can learn from the sources of information accessible to it, the benevolent work done during the past year under the direction of the Board of Trustees may be summed up under the following heads:

1. Forty children were sheltered in the Home.
2. Twenty-five of these were boarded free, and two others were aided in the matter of board.
3. Twenty were taught in the College, and twenty in the kindergarten and elementary grades of the model school.
4. Four students preparing for missionary work were instructed in the Bible and Training School.

III. Facts Concerning Cost of Maintenance.

1. It does not appear from the Minutes of previous Assemblies that the General Assembly has ever supposed itself to be responsible for the financial support of the Fredericksburg College. The Standing Committee of the Assembly of 1895 emphasized the point that "the College is entirely self-supporting, and that none of the funds contributed to the Home go to the support of the School. Manifestly there would be an impropriety in appropriating funds contributed to the benevolent work of our church to the support of an institution which is run merely as an educational enterprise for the benefit of all classes of persons. Moreover, the trustees have never asked, nor has the General Assembly ever ordered, collections for the support of the College. It has never been even commended by the supreme court of the church to the liberality of Christian people.

2. The Training School is also represented as costing the church nothing. Two teachers connected with it, Mrs. Randolph and Miss Henderson, draw an annuity from the treasury of the Foreign Mission Committee. The other teachers give their services free.

3. The Home is the only department of the work under the direction of the trustees for support of which the church has supposed itself responsible, so that, to this alone must be charged the sum total of money which has been collected from the church and expended by the Board. We find this sum to be $6,252.63. To this, however, must be added the sum of $3,620.62 which was secured by the Board by discounting notes in bank, and for the payment of which the honor of the church is pledged. Thus it appears that the care of forty children, only twenty-five of whom were boarded free, cost the church last year $9,873.25; the cost per child being $245. If we distribute the amount among twenty-five children, who alone seem to have been dependent on the charity of the church, the cost per child is about $400.

This showing leads us to suspect that there is not a careful separation between the expenses of the Home, for the support of which the church is responsible, and the expenses of the College, for the support of which the church has assumed no responsibility. A glance at the treasurer's statement shows the surmise to be correct. It there appears that the receipts from all sources are listed together, and the expenditures for all purposes are listed together. When the items are examined, it is found that the expenditures "for maintaining Home and Training School" are $5,927.32. All other expenditures amount to $11,071.08. The College earned only $6,520. The difference between its earnings and the cost of maintaining it is $4,551. How was this deficiency provided for? So far as your committee can gather from the treasurer's statement, it was provided for by drawing on the funds of the church, with the exception of $885.62, which amount was made up by a balance of $474.31 carried over from last year, and $411.31 obtained from miscellaneous sources.

IV. Facts Concerning Means of Support.

In 1894 the General Assembly approved the plan of operation of the Home and School, and urged all the ministers to give it their personal support, and all the churches to aid in the maintenance of scholarships. That year the scholarships and contributions fell $1,000 short of maintaining the School. In 1895 the Assembly again appealed to the churches to assume the maintenance of scholarships in the Home, either directly or through ladies' societies, young people's societies, or Sunday-schools. At the end of that year it was stated in the report of the trustees that $2,500 had been secured from churches and individuals. This was so far short of an adequate support, that it was deemed best for Dr. Saunders "to resign his pastorate and devote his entire time and energies to laying the claims of the Home and School before the churches and individuals who are able and willing to aid it." At the end of this year the amount secured through Dr. Saunders' faithful endeavors is found to be $3,620 short of the actual need, and this amount had to be borrowed from bank, and has gone to swell previous indebtedness.

In a recent appeal prepared and sent out by the honored President of the Board of Trustees occurs this statement: "The original pledges made by thirty-seven churches for annual contributions continue to be faithfully met. About six other churches send occasional contributions. The remaining three thousand churches take no notice of the Assembly's repeated call upon them for help, and have done nothing for it." In order to sustain the enterprise the six members of the Board have been obliged to assume personally obligations to the amount of $5,000 or $6,000.

It seems fairly evident from the foregoing that the interest of the church at large in the work is not such as to guarantee its support. Your committee have reason to think that this lack of interest is largely due to the connection of the Fredericksburg College with the Home and Training School; and they venture to express the conviction that while this connection remains what it now is, the church cannot be induced to furnish the necessary means to support the Home and School.

Recommendations:

1. That the Assembly instruct the Board of Trustees to take steps to sever at once all connection between the Fredericksburg College and the Home and Training School.

2. That the Board be further instructed to take steps to dispose of the property designated in the Board's report as "college buildings and grounds," so as to relieve the Assembly from all responsibility for the ownership, conduct and support of said College.

3. That when the Board of Trustees shall ascertain the exact amount of indebtedness now resting on the Home and Training School, or incurred by the conduct of the same, they be authorized to make a definite appeal to the churches for money to liquidate this indebtedness.

4. That the Board be instructed to reduce the cost of supporting the Home and Training School to the lowest point consistent with the benevolent care of the children committed to their trust.

5. That in view of the great importance and urgent need in our church of an institution for the care of the orphans of ministers and the children of missionaries, and in view of the imperative necessity of an institution for the proper training of our lady missionaries, this institution, combining both of these offices as thus reorganized, is most cordially committed to the sympathy and support of our church, and this especially because of its present critical financial condition.

The Assembly had recess until half-past 8 o'clock.

8:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

A resolution offered by the Rev. Dr. S. A. King, touching salaries paid by the Assembly's Executive Committees, was put upon the docket.

The report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was taken up and adopted, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Your committee, in reporting upon the papers placed in their hands by the Assembly, would present the following summary:

1. Columbia Seminary: There have been in attendance during the session now closed twenty-six, eleven of whom were in the senior class. The fidelity of professors and diligence of students are specially emphasized by the Board. The financial condition is somewhat impaired by change of investment of some of the funds of the seminary.

2. Union Seminary, Va.: The new buildings at Richmond are being rapidly erected, and early removal to them is hoped for. Twenty young men go out from this institution this year to preach the gospel. Mr. W. L. Lingle was reëlected tutor, intendant, and librarian. During the year Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., was formally inducted into the chair of systematic theology. A falling off in the receipts of the treasury is reported. The faithful work of faculty and students is commended.

3. Louisville Seminary: Sixty-seven students have been in attendance during the year. The degree of bachelor of divinity was conferred upon twelve students; twenty-four graduated in the school of biblical introduction; seven in the school of Old Testament exegesis; fourteen in New Testament exegesis; twenty-two in the school of English Bible and biblical theology; seventeen in the school of systematic theology; fifteen in the school of church history and polity; sixteen in the school of homiletics and pastoral theology; twenty in the school of apologetics; six in the school of elocution. Certificates of proficiency were given to twelve in the department of homiletics and twenty-six in that of the standards. A number of advanced courses of study are offered for the next session. The seminary has come into possession, through the liberality of Mr. William N. Haldeman, of Louisville, of a valuable piece of property, whose building is admirably adapted for seminary work.

4. Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University: Thirty students have been enrolled during the year, of which number ten finish their studies in June. During the year Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., resigned the chair of practical theology, and has been succeeded by Rev. James Edward Fogartie, Ph. D., D. D., of South Carolina.

The committee recommends the following action:

1. The General Assembly expresses its approval of the election of Rev. Dr. Fogartie to the chair of practical theology in the Divinity School of the Southwestern University.

2. The General Assembly also gives its expression of great satisfaction in the faithful and efficient work of these institutions, praying God's continued blessing on them, and commending them to the generous beneficence of our people.

3. Recognizing the splendid equipment of the professors of the schools for their work, taking note of the times as to theological thought and Bible study, and being mindful of the need felt by many of our pastors for help in meeting the questions of the day, the General Assembly is desirous of establishing, at some convenient centre, of salubrious climate, and where living is cheap, a summer school for Bible study, in which these professors of our various seminaries may be utilized for helping the average pastor and thoughtful elders to prepare for more efficient service.

To carry out this desire, the General Assembly appoints the following ad interim committee of four ministers and three elders, whose duty it shall be to arrange a plan for such a school, and ascertain the best place for its location, and to report to the next Assembly.

Ministers.—George Summey, D. D., F. R. Beattie, D. D., William M. McPheeters, D. D., W. W. Moore, D. D. Elders.—Hon. M. F. Ansel, Greenville, S. C.; Howard W. Hunter, Esq., Louisville, Ky.; Major Joseph Hardie, Birmingham, Ala.

The Special Committee on Hymnology presented their report. In connection with its consideration, the Rev. Dr. Robert P. Kerr, the compiler of the Hymns of the Ages, was invited to address the Assembly for ten minutes. The report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

1. In answer to overtures from Lafayette and Suwanee Presbyteries, asking that this Assembly undertake the making of a new hymn-book, this Assembly would reply that at this juncture the making of such a book is inexpedient, owing to existing contracts.

2. In answer to an overture from the Presbytery of ———, the Assembly recommends that no action be taken touching the preparation of a Sunday-school hymn-book.

In pursuance of the action of the Assembly on Thursday, adopting a report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, the Rev. Dr.

Moses D. Hoge conveyed to the Assembly the salutation of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence presented a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly accepts with the utmost cordiality the hearty salutations of the representative, Rev. R. H. Joldersma, of the Reformed Church in America; and it reciprocates with great and sincere appreciation the noble Christian sentiments which he has expressed in warm and eloquent terms.

The Assembly is glad to hear from his lips, what, indeed, it was not entirely ignorant of before, that in doctrine and life there are so many points of likeness between that body, the oldest branch of the Reformed churches in America, and our own, the youngest branch.

The Assembly rejoices that in educational work, in earnest missionary activity at home, and in foreign mission work especially, the Reformed Church is doing what justly entitles her to a place in the front rank of the evangelical churches of this country in these important respects.

The Assembly heartily reciprocates the sentiments expressed in regard to a better acquaintance between these two branches of the church so like each other, and it fervently prays that, "keeping the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace," we both may, even if for the time we be different divisions of the Lord's sacramental host, walk and work together with the same spirit, with a common aim, and with the glorious hope of blessing in the end.

The report of the Auditing Committee was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly:

Your Auditing Committee begs leave to submit the following report. There have been submitted to them the following, to-wit:

The report of the trustees of the General Assembly accompanied by the report of the treasurer, which is reported audited by the Auditing Committee and found to be correct. The reports of the committees appointed by the last General Assembly to audit the reports of the treasurers of Executive Committees of Home Missions, Publication, Education, Colored Evangelization, and Foreign Missions: each and all of these Auditing Committees certify to the correctness of the several reports audited by them.

We have examined the books, accounts, and vouchers of the Stated Clerk and the Treasurer of the General Assembly, and find them correct. They show a balance due him of $784.33.

The terms of office of the following trustees, Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, James P. Irwin, Esq., and George F. Bason, Esq., expire with the meeting of this Assembly. Mr. Irving having removed from Charlotte, and having expressed a desire to be relieved from further service on the Board, your committee would most respectfully suggest the name of Peter M. Brown, Esq., as his successor, and further recommend the appointment of Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, George F. Bason, Esq., and Peter M. Brown, Esq., for the three years' term.

(2), Executive Committee of Publication.—H. Swineford, Edwin Pleasants, and B. C. Wherry.

(3), Executive Committee of Education.—H. M. Neely, J. S. Durant, and A. B. Hill.

(4), Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization.—W. F. Lyman, J. W. Montgomery, and J. K. Brockman.

(5), Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.—George G. O'Bryan, R. S. Hollins, Sr., R. E. Magill.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN D. TAYLOR, Chairman.

The Rev. J. D. Thomas presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

The Assembly enjoins the Presbyteries to faithfully attend to the matter of forwarding at once to the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., the treasurer of the Assembly, the amounts overdue, that the Assembly may meet its obligations.

The Assembly adjourned until half-past 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. J. G. Richards.

NINTH DAY.

MAY 29, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A communication from the session of the First Presbyterian Church, Jackson, Tenn., respecting a "Presbyterian Hospital and Sanitarium" in that city, was read and laid on the table.

The Committee on Leave of Absence made the following report, which was approved:

Your Committee on Leave of Absence reports that it has excused for good and sufficient reasons the following brethren: J. M. Scott, of Ebenezer Presbytery, after the 24th; A. Mayes, of Ethel Presbytery, after the 24th; Dr. Moran, of Concord Presbytery, after the 27th; A. A. McGeachy, of Missouri Presbytery, after the 27th; J. T. Murdock, of Tombeckbee Presbytery, after the 27th; J. C. McLaughlin, of Mecklenburg Presbytery, after the 27th; Wm. M. McAllister, of Lexington Presbytery, after the 27th; J. W. Blue, of Paducah Presbytery, after the 27th; O. E. Johnson, Jr., of Charleston Presbytery, after the 27th; J. M. Hodgson, of Athens Presbytery, after the 27th; C. L. Stewart, of South Carolina Presbytery, after the 27th; W. M. Graybill, of Holston Presbytery, after the 27th; Geo. L. Cowan, of Nashville Presbytery, after the 27th; John D. Taylor, of Wilmington Presbytery, after the 27th; W. T. Williams, of Winchester Presbytery, after the 27th; Col. McAlister, of Orange Presbytery, after the 27th; J. M. Hoskins, of Paris Presbytery, after the 28th; C. S. Newman, of Central Mississippi Presbytery, after the 28th; J. F. Pharr, of Atlanta

Presbytery, after the 28th; J. W. Bachman, of Knoxville Presbytery, after the 28th; Capt. Hethorn, of Roanoke Presbytery, after the 28th; H. S. Bradshaw, of Orange Presbytery, after the 28th: J. P. McCluer, of Lexington Presbytery, after the 28th; W. W. Simpson, of Enoree Presbytery, after the 28th; J. H. Tindall, of South Carolina Presbytery, after the 28th; Mr. Hemphill, of Bethel Presbytery, after the 28th; S. M. Neel, of Upper Missouri Presbytery, after the 28th; Wm. M. McPheeters, of St. Louis Presbytery, after the 28th. Conditionally excused: Geo. Howard, of Albemarle Presbytery; E. H. Buchanan, of Abingdon Presbytery; W. V. Frierson, of Chickasaw Presbytery; Geo. E. Perkins, of West Hanover Presbytery.

Your committee recommends that this Assembly enjoin the Presbyteries to instruct their commissioners when elected to remain till the final adjournment of the Assembly unless called home by a providence unforseen when elected.

Respectfully submitted, W. McF. ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The Committee on the Assembly's Home and School made a supplementary report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly recommends that a collection be taken in all our churches on the fourth Sunday in December next in order to relieve the present embarrassments of the Home and School, and to facilitate the prospective changes ordered by this Assembly.

A resolution touching blank leaves in the Book of Church Order was adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, To instruct the Publication Committee that future issues of the Book of Church Order have blank leaves inserted between the printed matter of Form of Government and Rules of Discipline.

A resolution of thanks to the ad interim committee which prepared the programme for the Westminster commemorative exercises was adopted, and is as follows:

The thanks of this General Assembly are hereby given to the ad interim committee on the celebration of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Westminster Standards for their faithful and efficient labors, resulting in so splendid a programme of subjects, and so wise a selection of speakers, thereby contributing ably to the revival of interest in these noble symbols of faith.

We hereby express our heartfelt sympathy for our brother beloved, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Smith, D. D., of Greensboro, member of the committee, in his sickness preventing his attendance on this meeting of the General Assembly.

A resolution as to Young People's Societies and Westminster Leagues was adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, 1, That hereafter a committee, to be known as Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and on Westminster Leagues, be appointed as one of the Standing Committees of the Assembly, to which committee shall be referred all papers concerning Sunday-schools, Young People's Societies, and Westminster Leagues.

2. That the Assembly's Executive Committee of Publication be instructed to prepare or have prepared blank forms of reports for Westminster Leagues, from session to Presbytery, and from Presbytery to Assembly.

A resolution of thanks for the hospitable entertainment of the Assembly was adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That the Assembly tenders its sincere and hearty thanks to all those who have, under the good hand of God, united to make this meeting of the Assembly so happy and enjoyable, especially to the pastor and officers of the church in which the Assembly meets for the use of their property, to the pastors and officers of our other churches in the city, to the pastors and people of the other churches in the city for all their courtesies, to the committee of arrangements for the admirable preparations which it made and carried out for the convenience and comfort of the members of the Assembly, and to the warm-hearted people of this beautiful city for their abundant hospitality, which will ever be cherished with great pleasure; to the press for their excellent reports of the proceedings of the Assembly, and to the railways for reduced rates over their lines of travel.

We also pray that the blessing of God may ever rest on the churches and public institutions of the city, and upon its citizens generally, in all that goes to build up a prosperous and truly religious community.

The report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence was taken from the docket, amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT ON SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence reports that only sixty-nine out of seventy-seven Presbyteries have reported to this Assembly, and many of these reports are so imperfect and incomplete in their statements that an accurate tabulation of the facts desired is impossible. Several Presbyteries make no report as to pastors' salaries or contributions to congregational purposes, while others combine the amounts given for these two objects. Some of the reports have no signature, and some do not give even the name of the Presbytery reporting. Some reports are mere clippings from newspapers, while other are on blanks so old and out of date that your committee does not remember ever to have seen one like them. Another fact that your committee feels constrained to present is that only four hundred and thirty-nine churches out of two thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight have contributed to all the Assembly's causes of benevolence, while four hundred and thirty-two are reported as giving absolutely nothing to these causes, and as a probable reason, in part at least, for this dereliction in duty and want of appreciation of privilege, your committee finds that only twenty-five out of seventy-seven Presbyteries have called upon the churches to give reasons for such failure, as required by the action of the Assembly of 1875.

The following is a tabulated statement of contributions to the benevolent causes of the church from the reports placed in the hands of your committee:

1028	churches	gave to	Foreign Missions,	$ 74,106
810	"	"	Assembly Home Missions,	15,256

Your committee recommends:

1. In view of the fact that accurate and uniform information in regard to the matters referred to in the statistical reports is exceedingly desirable and important, that the stated clerks of Presbyteries be urged to get and use up-to-date blanks in making their reports.

2. As the reports reveal the fact that so many of our Presbyteries are neglecting the instructions of the General Assembly upon the important subject of Systematic Beneficence, and in order that accurate information as to what these instructions are may be in the hands of all our ministers and sessions, that the action of the Assembly of 1875, except sections 5 and 6 (see Alexander's Digest, pp. 304, 305), be reaffirmed by this Assembly and inserted in the Minutes with this report. It is as follows: "(1). The Assembly solemnly urges upon all pastors and other ministers their obligation to expound fully to the people the duty and privilege of giving to Christ as an essential part of acceptable worship. (2). The Assembly urges upon all its constituent Presbyteries to include this branch of ministerial duty in their stated conferences upon the state of religion in their bounds. (3). The Assembly hereby solemnly enjoins the Presbyteries to require of church sessions, in case of failure to take up any one of the collections ordered, to report in writing the reason thereof, upon the validity of which the Presbytery shall pass judgment, approving or disapproving, as the case may be. And the Presbyteries shall state upon the face of their annual reports on Systematic Beneficence in regard to their compliance with this injunction. (4). It is made the duty of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence of each General Assembly to ascertain from the presbyterial reports on this subject how far the above injunctions have been complied with, and to report to the Assembly what Presbyteries (if any) have failed to comply with them. It is also hereby made the duty of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to enter upon the docket the duties herein imposed upon the said committee, as an item of business, so that the attention of the committee may be expressly called thereto."

3. In view of the fact that the circulation of the Bible is of fundamental importance, the Assembly urges Presbyteries to greater diligence in seeing that their churches give more liberally to this great cause, and that the third Sabbath of October be fixed as the time for this collection.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises made a report of appointments for the Lord's day. Approved.

The Secretary of Home Missions was instructed that when he issues an appeal for contributions to the Invalid Fund, he shall designate that fund as the "Invalid," not as the Ministerial Relief Fund.

The following instruction to the Executive Committee of Publication was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of Publication be instructed by the Assembly to append a foot-note to the blank for Systematic Beneficence explaining that the heading called "Ministerial Relief" is the same as the one also known as the "Invalid Fund" (the latter words to appear in parenthesis with the words "Ministerial Relief").

The report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools was taken from the docket, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

Your Committee on Sabbath-schools begs leave to respectfully report that there have been placed in its hands the Presbyterial Sabbath-school reports from seventy-two (72) Presbyteries out of a total of seventy-seven (77) Presbyteries within the bounds of the Assembly.

Your committee has made a careful examination of these reports, but in view of the fact that so many Presbyteries have failed to make their reports full and complete, that many of the reports are imperfectly filled out, and that three distinct forms of reports have been used, it is impossible to make a correct detailed report of the schools within our bounds.

But from the seventy-two (72) Presbyteries we find there are two thousand and forty-one (2,041) schools, as against sixteen hundred and thirty-two (1632) reported last year, a gain of four hundred and nine schools (409). We find that there are seventeen thousand five hundred and thirty-four (17,534) officers and teachers, as against thirteen thousand six hundred and eighty-two (13,682), a net gain of three thousand five hundred and fifty (3,550).

We find there are one hundred and thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-one (133,331) scholars, as against one hundred and fifteen thousand and sixty-eight (115,068) last year, a net gain of eighteen thousand two hundred and forty-three (18,243).

We find that these schools contributed for their own purposes forty-five thousand eight hundred and forty-seven dollars ($45,847), as against forty-seven thousand two hundred and sixty-nine dollars ($47,269), showing a falling-off of one thousand four hundred and twenty-two dollars ($1,422), and for all other objects twenty-two thousand three hundred and thirty-six dollars ($22,336), as against twenty-three thousand and fifty-seven dollars ($23,057), showing a falling off of seven hundred and twenty-one dollars ($721), a net falling off of two thousand one hundred and forty-three dollars ($2,143).

There have been added to the communion of the church from the schools during the past year four thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven (4,767) members, a net gain of one thousand and five (1,005).

As no reliable information can be gathered from the reports received as to the number of schools under sessional control, the number to whom pastors regularly preach, and the number of schools using the Catechisms and Standards of the church,

1. We recommend that a uniform blank be issued, the same recommended by the Committee of Publication for the use of Presbyteries.

2. We recommend that all the Sabbath-schools introduce and use, in connection with the Bible lessons, the Supplemental Lesson Course, directed by the last General Assembly, embracing a full course of catechetical study and also upon the government and history of the church.

3. In answer to the overture asking the Assembly to prepare a hymn-book for use in Sunday-schools and young people's societies, your committee respectfully recommends that this matter be referred to the special committee already appointed on hymnology.

4. Your committee would recommend that a change be made in Section 2 of the Constitution of the Westminster League, which is as follows: "2. While the Assembly does not forbid affiliation for certain purposes between societies of our churches and those of other evangelical bodies, yet it enjoins upon sessions to maintain a careful oversight of the nature and influence of such association, and, in the exercise of their discretion, to guard their young people against influences and teachings which are inconsistent with the principles of our own church. The Assembly would utter a special warning against the danger to which young and inexperienced persons are exposed from attendance upon large and promiscuous conventions which are not under ecclesiastical control." The language is vague and indefinite. It is recommended that the entire section be stricken out, and that the remaining sections be numbered 2, 3, 4, and 5, so as to make the Constitution consistent with itself.

5. We recommend that the General Assembly call special attention to the great falling off in contributions by the Sabbath-schools to their own support and other causes, and urge upon them more liberal contributions to these causes.

6. We recommend that sessions and parents be urged to see that the children of the church attend regularly upon the preaching of the word and other services of the sanctuary, and that pastors preach specially to the children.

7. We recommend that the last Sabbath in September of each year be set apart as "Children's Day" for Home Missions, to correspond with "Children's Day" for Foreign Missions in the spring.

APPENDIX.

I. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE NARRATIVE.

Narratives from seventy-four Presbyteries have been submitted to our perusal. It may not be out of place to remark, with all due courtesy to the Presbyteries, that while some of these narratives are prepared with evident care and a zealous interest, some are negligently prepared, very meagre in statement, and paper, in some cases, defaced. It does seem that this is unbecoming the important and dignified work of the Presbytery, and unworthy the sanctified interests involved.

Your committee also notes in this connection that many of the Presbyteries report a surprisingly large percentage of their churches as sending no narrative to Presbytery. For instance: Dallas Presbytery reports only twenty-seven narratives out of fifty-one churches; the Presbytery of Athens, eighteen narratives out of thirty-six churches; North Alabama Presbytery, thirty-seven narratives out of seventy-one churches.

The year past, judging from the narratives, has been one of general advancement all along the line of our church's work. Our hearts are cheered at the tidings of what great things the Lord hath done for our Zion.

It is a little significant that while, in a large majority of the churches, no "special outpouring of the Holy Ghost" is noted, yet it is evident that the year gone has been a time of the Spirit's special presence and power in nearly all the churches. There has been a marked growth in grace; a renewed fidelity on the part of the people in laboring in church, Sabbath-school and in mission work; there has been a deepening of the spiritual life of the people, as evidenced in the worshipping of the Lord with their substance with singular faithfulness and liberality in these greatly depressed business times.

Cheering tidings come from very many churches of a silent yet powerful work of the Spirit in accompanying the stated preaching of "the word." One Presbytery reports four hundred and seventy-five additions; another, two hundred and eighty-three; one, one hundred and forty-six; another, one hundred and ninety-four; one, two hundred and fifty-seven; another, two hundred and forty-one; then one reports an increase of twenty per cent. of the membership; this report comes from Indian Presbytery. Another Presbytery reports three hundred and five additions; one, two hundred and thirteen; and another, two hundred. Atlanta Presbytery reports two hundred and eighty-nine added to the church, of whom one hundred and seventy-five came from the Sabbath-school.

We see a gradual awakening of the church to a sense of her duty to the spiritually destitute within her bounds. Our church is arousing to the fact that her gospel, creed and polity are more and more adapted to all within our bounds, and we rejoice that in very many churches she is hastening to occupy the fields at her doors.

We quote from the Presbytery of New Orleans: "The Presbyterial force has been materially strengthened by the addition of several consecrated and able young men, who, in the pastorate and in the evangelistic field, have been doing admirable and effective work. Our missions in New Orleans among the Chinese, the seamen and the negroes, are all flourishing.

Converted Chinamen are from time to time returning from this Christian school to their fatherland, and constituting new centres of evangelistic influence in that great pagan country. At a recent communion in the Canal Street Church, under whose care this mission is, eighteen of these saved orientals sat down at the table of the Lord. A number of Syrians, small shop-keepers in New Orleans, expressed through one of their number, although members of the Greek church, a desire to become Protestants.

This year marks an increase in the faith and affections of our church for her traditional doctrines and practices. There is to be this year a triumphant vindication of the loyalty of our people to our historic Standards. The celebration of the two hundredth and fiftieth anniversary of the Westminster Assemblies and Confession is having an effect of great value upon the thought and individual life of our church.

One Presbytery reports a great revival of catechetical study, and happily, too, with this increased zeal in the study of the Catechism, there has been noted an increase in Bible study in the church, in the Sabbath-school, and in the home.

There is an apparent gain in missionary zeal and organization. There is a distinct effort being made to enlarge and more thoroughly organize and perfect our Sabbath-school work. An effort is also being made, and is gradually gaining ground, to train more generally the members of our Sabbath-schools in systematic giving to the church's causes.

We note that almost every narrative emphasizes a decrease in intemperance and worldly amusements, Only one narrative has an expressed fear on the growth of worldly amusements and attendance thereon. Some anxiety, and evidently with good ground, is expressed with regard to the attitude of our people toward Sabbath observance. It is an unquestioned fact that some of our members do not observe the Sabbath as they ought. This holy day is being more and more secularized, and the time has undoubtedly come for the regular pastorate to preach with renewed fidelity to the people, especially to the young of our congregations, set discourses on the divine origin of the day; its relation to man's spiritual interests and to his material and physical well-being, as well as to the nation's and church's prosperity and peace.

Just in this connection one thing pains us to note, and a mere statement of it will carry its own lesson and afford food for the whole church's prayerful consideration. It is the almost general decadence of family worship. One narrative, in speaking on family worship, says: "No increase"; another, "sadly neglected," and after a careful scanning of some fifteen narratives, representative in character, we are constrained to join in and quote the exact language of one of them: the neglect is simply "appalling."

We see, too, a common, and, if we mistake not, a growing practice on the part of parents to delegate to the Sabbath-school teacher nearly all of the Bible and catechetical instruction of the children of their homes.

As we said in the outset, so we say in conclusion, that the year, as a whole, has been one of advance. A tone of cheer and confidence pervades the churches; the signs of persistent, consecrated, and prayerful effort on the part of the ministry and the office-bearers of the church are everywhere apparent, and here, as always, they have had their precious reward. Grace, mercy, and peace to all the Israel of God.

J. CALVIN STEWART, Chairman.

II. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The history of the year's work has impressed the committee more than ever with the conviction that the solution of all problems and the disposal of all difficulties connected with it are to be found in the outpouring of the Spirit of God on the home church and on the mission fields. Special effort has, therefore, been made to enlist the prayers of our people in its behalf. The correspondence of the office shows that many throughout the church have participated in the midday service of prayer for missions, and that from many homes and many congregations the prayer of faith has regularly gone up. We believe it to be in direct answer to these prayers that we are now able to report that all qualified applicants during the year who were ready to go have been appointed and sent out, that no debt rests upon the work at the close of the year, and that there has been a large increase over last year in the numbers added to the churches in the mission field. The number added this year was 508.

The receipts for the year, from all sources, were $143,741.79. This is $1,782.84 more than the receipts for last year. Legacies this year were less than those received last year by $10,285.40. The increase in the regular contributions of the churches was, therefore, $12,067.74.

But it is proper to state that of this amount $5,000 was a single personal donation.

The disbursements for the year were $154,405.84. This includes a small amount mentioned in the Treasurer's report, under the head of "Money returned," and about $12,000 forwarded or prepaid to the missions for the year beginning April 1, 1897. At the same date last year $11,713.19 had been forwarded on the present year's account.

The disbursements were $13,173.42 more than those of last year, and $10,664.05 more than the present year's receipts. On April 1, 1896, there was a balance in the treasury, exclusive of the Congo Boat Fund, of $10,223.57. The balance in the treasury on April 1, 1897, exclusive of the Congo Boat Fund, was $524.41. $8,000 of the Congo Boat Fund was loaned for the whole year on good real estate mortgage, and the loan has been continued; $2,393.09 of this fund has been loaned for part of the time, but is now in the treasury. As directed by the Assembly, the interest on these loans has been applied to the support of the African work.

The number of contributing churches was about 1,759. The number of contributing Sabbath-schools was about 570, and the number of contributing missionary societies about 937.

Thankful as we are for this happy issue to our God, whose good hand has so conspicuously helped us in times of threatened peril, the committee yet desires to express, with emphasis, its conviction that the point has been reached beyond which we cannot safely go in the enlargement of the work without some guarantee from the church of enlarged contributions to support it. This is preëminently a work of faith. But the faith that sustains it, and in which all its administration should be conducted, should be, not that of the Executive Committee alone, but of the whole church. And, in planning for its future, the committee knows no other guage by which to measure the church's faith than the gifts which represent the sacrifice the church is willing to make for it.

TABLE I.

	MISSIONARIES.	RECEIPTS.	DISBURSEMENTS.	EXPENSE PER MISSIONARY.
1889	72	96,035	94,825.00	1,316
1890	78	107,625	105,295.00	1,350
1891	85	112,930	111,795.00	1,317
1892	102	133,016	121,225.00	1,188
1893	106	133,900	143,165.00	1,350
1894	130	143,776	140,500.00	1,080
1895	135	132,330	133,710.00	990

It will be seen from this statement that within this period our missionary force has increased from 54 to 150, and our annual receipts from $84,075.00 to $143,709.46. Dividing the annual disbursements by the number of missionaries gives the total cost of the work per missionary. This cost includes home administration, outfit, travel, and salaries of missionaries, property purchased, school work, medical work, pay of native assistants, and all incidental expenses. The cost per missionary has varied in different years, the maximum being $1,587 and the minimum $990. The average for ten years is about $1,250. For the past three years, by various economies, it has been kept about the limit of $1,000. We can make no safe estimate of probable cost at a lower rate than that. As we now have 150 on our roll, $150,000 is the lowest estimate we can make of the probable cost of the work, on its present basis, for this year.

Any new missionaries sent out will involve an additional cost of about $750 for outfit, travel, and part year's support for each one sent.

The following table shows the receipts of the treasury since 1890, by departments:

TABLE II.

	CHURCH COLLECTIONS	SOCIETIES.	SABBATH-SCHOOLS.	LEGACIES	MISCELLANEOUS.	TOTAL.
1890........	$49,812.00	$28,206.00	$ 8,673 00	$14,927.00	$ 6,007.00	$107,625.00
1891........	53,109.00	33,455.00	9 379 00	5,207.00	11,800.00	112,950.00
1892........	64.340 00	35,624.00	11,064.00	5,125 00	16,862.00	133,015.00
1893........	63,440.00	34.736 00	13,302 00	1.662.00	20,760.00	133,900.00
1894........	64,103 00	37,598.00	16,578.00	1,430.00	24,066 00	143,775.00
1895........	55,953.00	37,795.00	9,800 00	5,332.00	23,450 00	132,330.00
1896........	58,548.00	37,803.00	7,324.00	13,612.00	24,713.00	142,100.00
1897........	65,918.16	40,933.93	8,199.97	3,326.56	19,005.63	143,741.79

It appears from this table that there has been, until last year, a considerable decrease in the church collections since 1892. There has also been a marked decrease in the regular Sabbath-school contributions. These losses have been offset by a small increase in the receipts from societies and a marked increase in miscellaneous gifts. The miscellaneous column contains most of the gifts made in response to special appeals to meet emergencies. The committee has regretted the necessity of making so many of these appeals, and while profoundly grateful for the way in which the church has received and responded to them, yet earnestly desires to see the day when the regular contributions of the churches during the months assigned to the cause, together with the continuous help of missionary societies and Sabbath-schools, will be sufficient to meet the ever-growing demands of the work.

This can only be hoped for as the result of an earnest and united effort of the whole church during the months of May and October. For it must be remembered that the foreign work embraces all the departments embraced in our home work, under the heads of Pastors' Salaries, Evangelistic Work, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Invalid Fund, and Bible distribution, with a large expenditure for travelling and medical work in addition.

Nevertheless, if by any means it were possible to enlist the whole church in an earnest effort for Foreign Missions during the two months assigned to that cause in our church calendar, the present income would be largely increased, and the tantalizing opportunities that continually thrust themselves upon us could be dealt with in a much more satisfactory and encouraging way.

The committee would make grateful mention of assistance rendered in our work by the Women's Presbyterial Unions, and notes with gratification the increasing number of these organizations, and asks the Assembly to recommend their formation in Presbyteries where they do not now exist.

The committee would make grateful mention also of the efficient help rendered by some of the synodical and presbyterial chairmen of Foreign Missions, and asks the Assembly to call the attention of the Presbyteries to the possibilities of these offices as agencies for enlarging the gifts of the church, and to the importance of selecting for them able, earnest, and truly mission-spirited men. The Presbytery of Fayetteville, Synod of North Carolina, through the joint agency of its efficient chairman and of its Woman's Presbyterial Union, has for several years past reported only three or four non-contributing churches.

The Presbytery of Nashville reported this year only two non-contributing churches, both of these being vacant.

THE MISSIONARY.

The circulation of The Missionary has increased during the year. The number of paying subscribers now on the list being 9,826, as against 9,259 at the close of last year. But the increase has not been what was hoped for under the reduced rate of subscription. In some churches where pastors and others have made special efforts, the lists have been largely increased. But in most churches no such efforts have been made, and the lists remain as they were when the price was 75 cents and $1. In last year's report the statement was made that "the committee believes that it is wise to publish the magazine for 50 cents, even at a loss, if the circulation can be thereby largely increased, because the direct loss will be more than counter-balanced by the indirect returns from the larger circulation." But unless a much larger increase can be had than has yet appeared, the committee now thinks that the reduction of the price to 50 cents will prove to have been a mistake. The issue for the month of March was 12,100 copies. The number of copies sent free each month was about 1,600. A few of our ministers again set the commendable example of declining to avail themselves of the free list. The cost of publishing the magazine, including its proportionate part of the editor's salary ($1,200) was $6,331.67. There was received from subscriptions and advertisements $4,198.39.

THE CHILDREN'S MISSIONARY.

The circulation of The Children's Missionary has increased, the number of paying subscribers now on the list being 6,059, as against 5,297, the number on the list at the close of last year. The cost of publication, including its proportionate part of the editor's salary ($600), was $1,862.86. The amount received from subscriptions was $974.64.

THE PRAYER CALENDAR.

Three thousand copies of the Prayer Calendar were issued, at a cost for printing of $378.42. In addition to this was the cost of postage and mailing, of about $100. About 2,000 copies were distributed, the receipts from sales being $447.73. Attention is called to the decline of over 700 in the number of calendars distributed as compared with last year. This publication is intended to be both a compendium of missionary information and a guide to intelligent and definite prayer. It is worth the expense of printing it in the comfort it brings to the missionaries in assuring them that, by those at least who use the calendar, they are remembered and prayed for by name.

It is certain that rich spiritual results would flow from the general circulation and use of it among the people.

REINFORCEMENTS.

Eleven new missionaries were sent out during the year.

Five were sent to China. They were: Rev. W. F. Junkin and Rev. J. M. Blain, Mrs. M. P. McCormick, Miss Addie Sloan and Miss Emma McKnight.

Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Baird and Miss Rebecca T. Morrisette were sent to Northern Brazil.

Rev. W. M. Morrison and Rev. J. S. Crowley were sent to the Congo Free State.

Miss Henrietta Donaldson, M. D., of the Northern Presbyterian Mission in China, was added to our roll by her marriage to Rev. M. B. Grier.

Miss Duryea, of the Dutch Reformed Mission in Japan, was added to the force in Japan by marriage to Rev. R. B. Grinnan.

Miss Eugenie C. Hilbold, of the M. E. Church Mission, joined the China Mission by marriage to Rev. R. A. Haden.

Rev. G. W. Painter and Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Woods, Jr., of the China Mission, having been in this country for the recovery of their health, returned to their fields during the year.

III. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

GENERAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Composed of the following sums:
Receipts during the year for Home Missions, Moore, and Invalid Funds,	$38,299 58
		50,541 22
Disbursements.
On account of Home Missions, Moore, and Invalid Funds,	$42,045 96
On expense account,	4,560 39
Total disbursements,	$46,606 35
Balance on hand March 31, 1897,	3,934 87
		50,541 22

HOME MISSIONS.

Receipts from legacies, $391.50; from contributions, $24,251.42; from loan fund, $365.22; total receipts, $25,008.14. To this add $18.25, money sent out to the Indian Territory just before the close of last year, not used and now returned to the treasury; and also add $6,070.16, cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and we have $31,096.55, total for this department in the hands of the treasurer during the year.

Several years ago the Indian Territory work was turned over from our office of Foreign Missions to the home office, and the foreign office was to furnish funds for support of the work on a prescribed descending scale. The last money thus to be furnished by the foreign office was paid during the year previous to the year covered by this report, so that there was this year an anticipated deficit of $875 in our receipts on this account. The legacies received this year were less than those of last year by $2,598.71. Up to December 31st there was an increase in the regular and miscellaneous receipts of $1,001.04, and we hoped confidently for a further increase of receipts from the January collection, but the receipts after January 1st fell below those of last year by $1,158.44, and so left a shortage for the year in receipts from our regular and miscellaneous sources of $157.04. The pastor of one large, liberal church was laid aside during the year by sickness, and two Presbyteries, feeling that they must secure more funds for their local work, changed their plan of work, and the central treasury received from these three sources $744.78 less than was received from them last year, but gains in other directions made up that loss and the anticipated loss of $875 from the Foreign Missions office, with the exception of the $157.04 above named.

The number of contributing churches has increased each year, but one thousand four hundred churches last year gave $621.28 less than was given by one thousand three hundred and twenty churches during the previous year. The number of contributing Sabbath-schools was less last year than in the year before by thirty-seven, with a corresponding falling-off in contributions of $380.11. There was an increase of sixty-one in the number of contributing societies, with an increase of $605.62 in contributions.

Looking at the contributions of churches, Sabbath-schools, societies, regular loan fund, and miscellaneous, given strictly to Home Missions, the statement for the three years under the present plan is as follows:

For year 1894–'95, ...	$23,506 79
For year 1895–'96, ...	24,774 04
For year 1896–'97, ...	24,616 64

Showing an increase from the regular sources of $1,267.25 in the second year over the first year, and a loss of $157.40 in the third year as compared with the second year, but still a gain of $1,109.85 in the third year over the first year.

Under the former plan of work, after the Presbyteries had drawn back from this treasury the amounts needed for their local work, a balance of about $12,000 per year was left to be used at the discretion of the Central Committee. Under the present plan (the whole amount of receipts being used at the discretion of the Central Committee) that committee has had control of $20,658 per year from the Presbyteries.

The Invalid Fund.

Receipts from a legacy, $187.50; from contributions, $12,118.02: total, 12,305.52. Add $3,345.25 cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and we have $15,650.77 total in the hands of the treasurer during the year. Of this sum, $14,100.75 was paid out to aid thirty-seven infirm ministers, and ninety-six families of ministers deceased. Expenses, $1,508.67 were paid, and a balance of $41.35 cash on hand remained in the treasury. This balance was paid out early in the present year.

The receipts of the present year, as compared with those of the previous year, show an increase in amount received from legacies of $154.32, and a loss in contributions of $322.12; decrease in the total, $167.80.

Your committee met its financial promises, sometimes in advance. It expended more money in the work than in either of the two previous years under the present plan of work.

Reports from ministers engaged in field work indicate that about three hundred and sixty-five churches or preaching stations (as many as sixty-five of these new appointments) have heard the preached word; about eleven thousand services have been held: over eight hundred members received on profession of faith, besides many who have joined other churches; about thirty new churches have been organized, and a dozen church buildings erected. The whole of this work has been dependent for its maintenance upon the Assembly's assistance.

Many Mexicans, nominally Roman Catholics, are coming into Texas. In coming years hundreds of thousands of these people will become citizens of our Southwestern States. They can be reached with the gospel with much more hope of success here upon American soil, under the influence of free institutions, than is possible under the domination of the Roman priesthood in Mexico. Their reflex influence upon their Mexican friends in Mexico must necessarily be greatly for good. We have been fortunate in having two ministers, who, in the providence of God, have been wonderfully well equipped for this work. One, Rev. W. S. Scott, whose work radiates from San Marcos, was reared in Mexico, and speaks the language with ease. He began work among the Mexicans in Texas five years ago, with one church of fifty members. There are now six churches with three hundred members, with church property worth $2,000. Four Sabbath-schools are in Mr. Scott's field, and he reports that when these people become converted they are ready to sing, pray, and speak to their countrymen of the Redeemer. Mr. Scott says there are ninety thousand unconverted, semi-pagan Mexicans in Texas not touched by the gospel. He has received thirty-eight church members during the year, and is abundant in labors in season and out of season, and his people give evidence of great gratitude to him for his devotion to their welfare.

The other minister is Rev. H. B. Pratt, a superior scholar, who has translated the Bible into the Spanish language, and who was for years a missionary in British Columbia under the care of our Foreign Missions Committee. He began work January 1, 1896, and is assisted by his excellent wife, who is experienced in foreign missionary work. His headquarters are at Laredo, with a Mexican church at Corpus Christi under his care, and with monthly appointments among the Mexicans who work in the coal mines of Cannel and Minera on the Rio Grande.

The three facts that only a small amount was last year received from legacies, that all funds coming from the Foreign Missions office for Indian work have been paid over, and that more money was expended in field work last year than in previous years, have caused the new year to begin with only $2,275.25 cash on hand. There will be no regular collection until September, and the work will be embarrassed unless the receipts for the next few months shall bring an increase over the same months of last year, and the need of an increase in contributions in the two months of September and January next is absolute. The Assembly directed its committee last year to ask the churches for $50,000. A contribution averaging six per cent. of amount paid for pastors' salaries would secure that sum, and this call was earnestly pressed during the year; but the result has been that the contributions from all sources within the Presbyteries have reached only a little over two and one-half per cent. on amount paid for pastors' salaries. Your committee suggests that to raise the $50,000 for which the Assembly has asked, each Presbytery will need to give to the general work one-half as much as is expended in local work. We will need at least $2,000 within the next forty days to enable the treasury to meet its promises up to June 30th.

Thirty-seven infirm ministers and ninety-six families of ministers deceased have been aided. Presbyteries fixed the amounts asked of the fund for these beneficiaries, but the churches and others contributed enough of money to pay only seventy-five per cent. of the amounts asked from the treasury. Your committee is convinced that some steps should be taken to remedy this state of affairs, which has existed now for several successive years.

The Assembly of 1894 authorized an effort to secure an endowment of $100,000 for this Invalid Fund. Your committee has kept that fact before the church, but there is no practicable way of raising a permanent endowment except that of placing agents in the field, and the Assembly has repeatedly declined to raise its benevolent funds in that way. The Invalid Fund is for the benefit of infirm ministers and of families of deceased ministers, and since this is true, some brethren have believed that ministers themselves would, by their own annual contributions, create an endowment if opportunity were offered. Your committee recently presented to all of our ministers a plan for a temporary endowment, as follows:

Subscriptions are solicited, payable in cash, or as the subscriber may prefer, in from one to five annual installments. The funds to be safely invested as soon as possible.

These subscriptions are not to interfere with the regular collection for this cause, which occurs in July. They are to supplement that collection. Only the interest on the fund is to be used until March, 1900.

Beginning with March, 1900, the Assembly, through its Executive Committee, may draw annually upon the principal for so much as may be necessary (when added to the receipts from the regular collection) to enable the committee to pay in full the amounts asked by the Presbyteries for the year, which ends March 31st, provided that not more than one-fifth of the principal shall be drawn in any one year unless the principal shall be reduced to $1,000, then it may all be drawn.

Each minister who subscribes is requested to prefix Reverend to his name. All remittances to be made to the Treasurer of Home Missions, Presbyterian Church, U. S., P. O. Drawer H.. Atlanta, Ga.

Then followed a subscription blank, providing for subscriptions payable in from one to five years at the option of the subscriber.

Your committee has kept the action of the last Assembly before the church, urging our pastors and people to do something towards Christianizing the large number of Israelites among us. So far as we are informed, a good work in this behalf has been inaugurated in St. Louis with encouraging results, but nothing special has been done elsewhere. J. N. CRAIG, Secretary.

IV. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

Our business has continued to feel the effect of the depressed financial conditions prevailing throughout the country. Our sales, however, have increased about five per cent. over the previous year, and apart from colportage sales and donations, which are, in our reports, always included in the total amount of business, the sales have been somewhat larger than those of any previous year. It must be noted, however, that the margin of profit has been smaller than ever before. This is due to the fact that we have been compelled to increase our discounts to meet the conditions of trade. Publishers, under the pressure of the times, have made extraordinary efforts to push their lines of goods, and have offered special inducements to this end, which we have been compelled to follow. It should not be forgotten, at the same time, that our patrons have thus had the opportunity of supplying their wants upon very favorable terms.

It will be seen by a reference to the treasurer's report that the total increase in the assets is only $1,964.06.

In obedience to the instructions of the last General Assembly, which placed the amount that should be raised for the prosecution of the benevolent work entrusted to the Executive Committee of Publication at $20,000, this amount was apportioned among the different Presbyteries, and the call of the General Assembly, together with such facts as would emphasize the great necessity of the work, was laid before the Presbyteries at their fall meetings. Many of the Presbyteries gave careful consideration to the subject, and urged upon the churches a liberal response to the call; but the result, as shown by the March collection, is another disappointment, the total receipts being a little less than last year. It is manifest that many pastors and sessions utterly neglect to call attention to this cause, as only about one-third of our churches make any contribution. With facilities unsurpassed for prosecuting the work of supplying our many destitute fields with religious literature and of promoting an evangelistic Sabbath-school work second to none in importance, it is a matter of profound regret that so little can be raised for this purpose. The Executive Committee can only point to the great need of the work, the great opportunities offered, and to the fact that we have an effective organization to supply these needs and to improve these opportunities, and await the action of the General Assembly and the churches.

Under the conditions set forth above, it has not been, and it will not be, possible to enlarge our colportage work; on the contrary, we must content ourselves with seeing it restricted more and more.

The calls from Sabbath-schools, churches, missions, pastors and evangelists for donations of literature have all been met with prompt responses, the total amount appropriated for this purpose being $4,302.59—making, with the amount of $2,594.24 appropriated to colportage, a total of $6,896.83 applied to our benevolent work, or $517.12 more than the collections for this cause.

Eight hundred and seventy-two Bibles were given as prizes for perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism, one thousand one hundred and ninety-two Testaments for perfect recitation of the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism, the total amount appropriated for this purpose being $734.

In the list of publications issued during the year will be found some new issues of great importance, among which may be specially noted The Southern Presbyterian Pulpit, a volume of sermons by ministers of our church. This has been warmly welcomed, not only by our ministers, but by our people generally.

In regard to the work of this department, it may be said that we are seeking to carry out the purpose of the church by careful discrimination in the material offered to us, and the use of only such as we are satisfied will be of lasting value to the church and useful in the prosecution of its work.

V. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

Applications for aid to candidates have come to us from the Presbyteries as follows: North Alabama, 8; South Alabama, 4; Tuscaloosa, 4; Arkansas, 4; Ouachita, 3; Pine Bluff, 1; Washbourne, 1; Suwanee, 2; Athens, 2; Atlanta, 5; Cherokee, 4; Savannah, 1; Ebenezer, 2; Louisville, 8; Paducah, 3; Transylvania, 1; West Lexington, 10; Chickasaw, 1; Memphis, 9; North Mississippi, 3; Western District, 4; Central Mississippi, 7; Mississippi, 2; Red River, 2; Lafayette, 3; Missouri, 2;

Palmyra, 2; Potosi, 1; Upper Missouri, 1; Holston, 4; Knoxville, 4; Albemarle, 1; Concord, 7; Fayetteville, 5; Orange, 12; Wilmington, 3; Bethel, 9; Enoree, 7; Harmony, 1; Pee Dee, 1; South Carolina, 6; Central Texas, 2; Dallas, 10; East Texas, 2; Ft. Worth, 1; Indian, 4; Paris, 5; West Texas, 1; Abingdon, 7; East Hanover, 5; Greenbrier, 1; Montgomery, 12; Norfolk, 3; Roanoke, 8; West Hanover, 3. Total, 224.

A few of these found they would need no assistance, but we were requested to aid four others by special contributions for them, although they were not on our roll, so that the exact number aided by the committee is 218, only two less than were aided last year. Besides these four special candidates who were not on our roll, there is quite a number to whom we made the regular appropriations, to whom we were asked to send special contributions made for them. If these special contributions were all made outside of the regular November and April collections, it would be all right, but when they are taken from or in the place of the regular collections, it is simply subtracting from our treasury what should come into it to pay our regular appropriations. The total amount of these special payments this year is $1,274.92; $452.15 paid to four candidates not on our roll, $750.15 to enrolled candidates, and $187.50 to ladies. None of it was paid on the appropriations. There ought to be a remedy for this, and your committee would recommend that all candidates be enrolled at a specified amount, and that all the regular contributions of November and April be held sacred to pay these appropriations, and that the committee be instructed to pay any special contributions made at other times to any candidate for whom they may be made.

The total receipts for the year is $16,552, which is $964 less than last year. Forty-six Ladies' Societies contributed $1,059.45, and sixty-one Sabbath-schools contributed $206.30.

The number of contributions this year is 2,080 up to May 14th, as against 2,076 last year.

Our income for the last several months has fallen behind that of last year by about $1,000, varying a little from month to month.

On the 16th of March the committee made a plain statement of the work, showing the pressing need of a good collection in April.

While this collection has been encouraging, it is not quite what we had hoped to receive. In November the great cause of Synodical Evangelization is presented in several of our Synods, thus dividing the field with Education. In April there is no collection except for Education; but it seems that it is not a favorable month for collections.

But notwithstanding the stringency of the times and the pressure of other great and important causes, we have been able to collect and disburse to our 218 candidates and the three ladies the sum of $14,805.52. The appropriations to the ladies were paid in full, and all appropriations to our candidates for a less sum than $75 were paid in full, and over 90 per cent. on the 168 appropriations for $75. The amount lacking to pay these in full is $1,176.85; but when the $837.65 special payment is deducted, the real shortage is $339.20.

The system of beneficiary education has been of very great benefit to our church in the past, and although it may be desirable to found scholarships and to accumulate students' funds, it will be a long time, if ever, before the regular annual collections from the churches will not be necessary.

Your committee would recommend to the Assembly:

1. To authorize the apportionment of $30,000 among the Presbyteries for this cause for the ensuing year, and exhort them to make an earnest effort to raise their pro rata.

2. To request of all of our pastors to ask a contribution from their Ladies' Societies and Sabbath-schools for this cause.

3. To request of all chairmen of Education to make an apportionment among their churches of the amount apportioned to their Presbyteries; have it adopted by the Presbyteries at their fall meetings and send a notice to each church of the amount expected of it.

4. To recommend to all our people, ministers, officers, and members, to pray more earnestly and more frequently for God's blessing upon all our candidates, and for the continued and enlarged usefulness of the system of beneficiary education.

Without the help received this year many of our candidates would have been compelled to suspend their studies and return home.

VI. ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

The Secretary has given careful supervision to every department of the work. As our plans unfold his work will increase, for upon him fall both the formation and unfolding of the plans. He has made himself thoroughly acquainted with every detail; the condition of this church, the needs and hopes and trials of this pastor and that; the special obstacles to growth in this part of the church and that; the development of the spirit of self-help everywhere; the instruction, discipline, and finance of Stillman Institute; the arrangements for Mr. Wilson's work and its development; the development of the plans for a colored Presbyterian church; the details of finance for all the work; the writing of reports; and the hundreds of details under each of these heads. His correspondence has grown to large proportions, and is often of the most important character. He often takes trips for speaking on the work in its various aspects.

These specifications make their own argument for the necessity of a secretary upon whom the constant care of this work shall come. This, we suppose, cannot be realized by any so perfectly as by your Executive Committee. Indeed, there is probably no cause of the church needing so much the personal attention of one man, who shall be able to go at once to any part of the field, and to address himself to problems arising in the interior of the committee's meetings.

We are glad to report that by persistent efforts we have secured the appointment of Committees of Colored Evangelization in sixty-eight out of our seventy-four white Presbyteries. In all the other Presbyteries arrangements are made for some oversight of this work. As soon as possible we wish to begin the work of organization in the congregations. We are aware that we can do nothing in this regard without the coöperation of the ministers and sessions. But every congregation that puts this cause in the hands of a special agency is a distinct gain. In some of the Presbyteries the committees have been active and very helpful. We are persuaded that the cause is slowly gaining a recognized place in the business of our church courts. This phase of the work should be agitated until every congregation, as far as practicable, has some definite way of laying the cause before the people.

We gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to those chairmen in the Presbyteries who have labored unceasingly for a better organization of this neglected cause.

We herewith submit the summarized accounts of W. A. Powell, Treasurer, and A. L. Phillips, Secretary.

The Treasurer's report shows that 945 churches, 32 Sabbath-schools, and 13 societies contributed through the Assembly's treasury.

In reviewing the finances of the year we call attention to the fact that during the year Professor McAlpine and the Secretary surrendered $100 and $300 of their salaries respectively. The salaries of all the white ministers connected with this cause are now as low, if not lower, than is consistent with efficiency.

It should also be remembered that all the funds for Colored Evangelization raised in our church do not pass through the committee's treasury. The Synods of Mississippi and South Carolina retain most of the funds raised in their bounds. Several Presbyteries do the same with their funds in part or whole.

We earnestly hope that the Assembly will do all in its power to get more money for this cause. The sum of $15,000 is the least that the church should think of providing for its support during the year.

We respectfully submit the following recommendations for careful consideration, as in our opinion of the most vital importance to the work of Colored Evangelization for the coming year:

1. The continuance of Mr. Wilson's work under the general direction of the committee as the way may open.
2. The continuance of the correspondence with the Reformed Church in America (Dutch) as to their coöperation with us in this work.
3. The giving of authority to the Executive Committee to raise $5,000 in the next year for the Ferguson-Williams College, if the way seem open.
4. The approval of a meeting for the organization of the Colored Presbyterian Church, and the appointment of five commissioners to represent the General Assembly at that meeting.
5. The development of the Stillman Institute along the lines indicated in the Superintendent's report, contained in this report.

6. The appointment of an auditing committee who are not members of the Executive Committee.

7. The raising of $15,000 during the coming year for the general work, and the giving of authority to the Executive Committee to raise $10,000 additional for the development of Stillman Institute.

VII. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, IN VIRGINIA.

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, May 5, 1897.

The Board met in annual session May 4, 1897, in the Seminary library. Nineteen members out of the twenty-four were present, including the Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell and Rev. J. B. Morton, newly-appointed members from the Synod of North Carolina.

During the past session, all five members of the Faculty have been continuously on duty. Both Faculty and students gave evidence, in the examinations, of faithful work. We mourn the loss by death of one of the members of the Board, the Rev. D. D. McBryde, and of one of the students.

The Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., was formally inducted into the chair of Systematic Theology.

A report from the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, relating to the new buildings at Richmond, was received, stating that gratifying progress had been made in their erection, and expressing the hope of our early removal to them.

The library has been increased by the addition of fifty volumes, twenty by gift and thirty by purchase. The full number of volumes is now 15,299 bound and 254 unbound.

Owing to the stringency of the times, the Treasurer reports a falling off in the receipts for the treasury.

A committee has been appointed to awaken interest in the churches of the two Synods in the matter of furnishing and equipping the new seminary buildings when they shall be completed.

Diplomas were awarded to the following young men: A. E. Baker, H. R. Borthwick, Charles Friend, E. E. Gillespie, J. H. Grey, C. E. Hodgin, N. A. Parker, C. Preston, C. F. Rankin, J. C. Shive, and E. Tufts. Certificates were awarded to J. A. Paisley and L. H. Query; a limited certificate to V. G. Smith. Besides these, there were five students who practically completed the course, but did not apply for certificates. In all, there go out from the Seminary this year twenty young men to preach the gospel.

An address was delivered to the graduating class, after the diplomas had been awarded, by Rev. G. W. Finley, D. D.

A finance committee was appointed to look after all changes in the investments and to manage all the funds of the corporation.

The Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D., was elected to deliver the address to the graduating class in May, 1898, and Rev. J. B. Morton was elected alternate.

The Board adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Synods of North Carolina and Virginia be requested to grant to the Board authority to procure from the Legislature of Virginia an amendment to the charter of the Seminary, by which the following clause will be added to section 2 of the amended act of incorporation, approved February 25, 1892, namely: 'and to confer proper literary degrees upon the graduates of said institution.'".

J. P. FITZGERALD, Secretary.

VIII. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of Columbia Theological Seminary submits to the General Assembly the following as its annual report for the year ending May, 1897:

The number of students in attendance is about the same as last year. Twenty-six have been present, as follows: Eleven in the senior class, five in the middle, eight in the junior, and two irregulars.

There is gratifying evidence of marked fidelity and thorough work on the part of the Faculty, and of earnest diligence on the part of the students with but few exceptions. The thorough and efficient work done by our professors is highly praiseworthy, and should commend our seminary to all our Presbyteries which desire to have their candidates thoroughly trained and equipped for their work as ministers of the gospel. The Faculty remains the same.

The financial condition of the Seminary is somewhat improved since our last report, in that certain non-paying railroad bonds have been exchanged for others that are paying. The total amount of invested funds, including material property, is $283,071.62. The income from invested funds last year amounted to $11,661.55. Donations to the amount of $650 have been received from Dr. Otts, Dr. Rogan, of New Jersey, and other sources. Contributions for current expenses to the amount of $159.41 have been received from various churches, all of which, with one exception, are in the Synod of South Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. MILLS, Secretary of Board.

IX. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors was held in Louisville, Ky., April 27, 28, 1897. The Faculty remains unchanged. Sixty-seven students have been enrolled, representing twenty-six (26) institutions of learning, all but ten of whom are under the care of Presbyteries. They have manifested diligence in study and an earnest spirit and devotion to mission work in various parts of the city.

To seventeen (17) in the school of Systematic Theology: L. W. Barron, J. E. Deggendorf, G. V. Dickey, E. B. Fincher, J. R. Finley, J. B. Gordon, C. O. Groves, R. J. Hunter, L. Humphreys, J. E. Kerr, H. W. Myers, J. A. McKamey, J. E. Park, B. L. Stuart, J. H. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, J. E. Travis.

To fifteen (15) in the school of Church History and Polity: L. W. Barron, J. E. Deggendorf, E. B. Fincher, J. R. Finley, J. B. Gordon, C. O. Groves, A. A. Hill, L. Humphreys, J. E. Kerr, H. W. Myers, J. E. Park, B. L. Stuart, J. H. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, J. E. Travis.

To sixteen (16) in the school of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology: George D. Adamson, L. W. Barron, J. E. Deggendorf, E. B. Fincher, J. R. Finley, J. B. Gordon, C. O. Groves, L. Humphreys, R. J. Hunter, J. E. Kerr, H. W. Myers, J. E. Park, B. L. Stuart, J. H. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, J. E. Travis.

To twenty-five in the school of Apologetics: E. F. Abbott, J. K. Ake, J. J. Alexander, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, C. C. Carson, W. Clift, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. E. Furr, C. L. Goodman, J. T. Hall, R. B. Hudson, G. W. Jurey, J. Little, C. A. Logan, W. S. Megginson, E. H. Moseley, H. McDowell, Jr., J. A. McRamey, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis, A. D. Rice, C. Sheltman, S. F. Shiffler.

To sixteen in the school of Elocution: G. D. Adamson, T. C. Cleveland, G. V. Dickey, W. T. George, G. Glass, W. L. Hickman, R. B. Hudson, R. J. Hunter, J. Little, W. S. Megginson, R. H. Rusk, J. F. Tappey, W. C. Tenney, H. H. Sweets, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson.

Certificates of proficiency were given to twelve in the department of Homiletics: G. D. Adamson, T. C. Cleveland, H. L. Cockerham, W. T. George, G. Glass, W. S. Megginson, R. H. Rusk, M. P. Slaughter, H. H. Sweets, J. F. Tappey, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson.

Certificates of proficiency were given to twenty-six in the department of the Standards: E. F. Abbott, J. K. Ake, J. J. Alexander, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, C. C. Carson, W. Clift, H. L. Cockerham, G. V. Dickey, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. E. Furr, C. L. Goodman, J. T. Hall, R. B. Hudson, G. W. Jurey, J. Little, C. A. Logan, E. H. Moseley, H. McDowell, Jr., T. McGill, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis, A. D. Rice, C. Sheltman, C. F. Shiffler.

In addition to the regular courses of the several schools, the following advanced courses of study will be offered next session for those who may wish to avail themselves of them:

I. In the school of Old Testament: (a), A seminar, conducted by the professor on the Messianic Prophecies; (b), A course of twelve lectures on the Old Testament History in the Light of Modern Research. II. In the school of New Testament: A course in the Septuagint Version and in Patristic Greek. III. In the school of Apologetics: A course of special studies in the Philosophy of Religion. IV. In the school of Systematic Theology: A course in Symbolics, dealing with the great Christian creeds. V. In the school of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology: A course in Hymnology, Ancient, Mediæval and Modern.

For some time the Board of Directors, in conference with the Faculty, has had the matter of the Students' Aid Fund under serious consideration, and the present is regarded as an opportune time to inaugurate a change of policy. For the next session, therefore, there will be no promise to any student of financial assistance coming direct from the Seminary treasury; but the Board and Faculty will encourage individuals and churches to aid students, and will coöperate with them in securing mission work to assist them in meeting their necessary expenses.

For all students, excellent rooms, well ventilated and comfortably furnished, will be provided free of charge, in the Seminary buildings. Fuel, light, attendance, and good board at the refectory will be furnished at the rate of $3.00 per week, making the cost to the student about $90.00 for the whole Seminary year, exclusive of books and the personal expenses of clothing, travelling and laundry. Special discounts on books and reduced railroad rates will be obtained.

It is also the hope of the Directors and Faculty that generous friends will found scholarships, to be awarded by examination on the basis of character and attainments.

The Seminary has come into possession of a most valuable piece of property largely by the liberality of Mr. W. N. Haldeman, of Louisville. It is situated on the corner of Broadway and First Street. The handsome and commodious building is admirably adapted for class-room work and for dormitory uses.

Valuable contributions of books have been made to the library, which now numbers nearly five thousand volumes.

By order of the Board of Directors. J. G. HUNTER, President.

J. S. LYONS, Secretary.

X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE SOUTH-WESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY.

Since the last annual report of the Board of Directors of the University touching its Divinity School, the work of this school has progressed in its usual manner, and under the evident blessing of God. The students have been unusually faithful and diligent, and give promise of future usefulness. Thirty have been enrolled during the year. Of these, ten will complete their studies in June and be ready to enter upon their work. They are: Messrs. J. C. Barr, of New Orleans Presbytery; T. A. Clagett, of Nashville Presbytery; U. B. Currie, of Central Mississippi Presbytery; J. N. Ivy, of Fort Worth Presbytery; L. B. Jureidini, of Nashville Presbytery; H. E. Kirk, of North Alabama Presbytery; S. L. McCarty, of Dallas Presbytery; J. L. Stitt, of Ouachita Presbytery; H. V. Tull, of Central Texas Presbytery; and J. T. West, of Tuscaloosa Presbytery. Most of these young men have already found fields of labor. Their instructors feel assured that they will be faithful and successful ministers of the word, and that they will maintain the high standard of excellence and adaptability to their work which has marked the graduates in the past years of this young institution of the church.

Since the last annual report, the Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., has resigned the chair of Practical Theology, to return to the pastorate, having accepted a call to the Presbyterian church in Lexington, Virginia. The Board elected as his successor the Rev. James Edward Fogartie, Ph. D., D. D., of South Carolina. Dr. Fogartie accepted the call, and entered upon his work in September, and has been most efficient and successful.

By order of the Board of Directors. GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

D. N. Kennedy, Secretary.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to meet at Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1897:

Our Treasurer's annual account, which has been duly audited and approved, and which please receive herewith, shows that he has received $3,561.40, that he has disbursed $2,854.22, and that he has a balance on hand this day of $10,066.81, which amount is held and invested as shown in the account.

The $2,000 bequest of Miss Jennie Johnston, mentioned in our last report, has been promptly and fully paid, and the amount has been forwarded to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.

Another small remittance has been received from the bequest of Mrs. Jane M. Anderson, and we have reason to believe that we shall receive the remainder during the coming year.

We learn from the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions that the balance of $1,000 ($500 for Foreign Missions and $500 for Education), due from the Monroe bequest, has not yet been paid. We may add that such sums as have been paid on account of this bequest have gone direct to the beneficiaries (Foreign Missions and Education) named in the will, and not through this Board.

We regret to report that the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia has affirmed the decision of the circuit court in the matter of the Franklin bequest, which means that we fail to secure this bequest; but we are pleased to report that the time for appeal having expired, and no appeal having been taken, the will of the late Dr. John Sutton stands, thereby making secure to our church the amount bequeathed by Dr. Sutton. This (Sutton) estate will now be settled as rapidly as the process of the law will allow.

From the bequest of T. H. Wilie we have received $249.50, and our attorneys inform us that there is a balance in cash in the hands of the executor of between, $500 and $1,000, which has been made secure and will probably be paid within the next few months. In addition to the money received and to be received from the executor we have received about 380 acres of land in Limestone and Robertson counties, Texas, which will be disposed of as rapidly as may be for the best interests of the church. We have just sold 100 acres for $800, payable $200 on each November 1st, 1897, 1898, 1899, and 1900, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum.

Within the past year we have learned of the death of Mrs. Sarah Murray, of Jacksonville, Ill., who bequeathed "one-half of the residue" of her estate to our (Southern) Presbyterian Church, to be divided equally between Foreign Missions and Home Missions. The executor, however, does not encourage us to expect much, if anything, from this bequest.

The last annual statement of the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund shows that the assets of the "Relief Fund" have increased from $50,573.88, July 29, 1890 (when the fund was transferred) to $53,949.69 December 31, 1896. The statement also shows that the liabilities ("reserve to fulfil contracts") are $35,923, leaving a surplus of $18,026.69.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires with the meeting of the Assembly, viz.: Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, James P. Irwin, and George F. Bason. Mr. Irwin having removed from our city, and having expressed a desire to be released from further service on the Board, we would suggest the name of Peter M. Brown as a worthy successor to Mr. Irwin.

The officers of the Board for the year beginning to-day are: Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, President; Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., Vice-President; John E. Oates, Secretary and Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

E. NYE HUTCHISON, President.

Charlotte, N. C. April 29, 1897.

XII. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

The Permanent Committee on the Sabbath would report to the General Assembly that they have received reports from forty-nine of the seventy-six Presbyteries. These reports contain the usual admixture, and in about the same proportion, of encouraging and discouraging things, with the same deepening tinge of darkness, however, as reported in former years.

The reports show that while twelve of the Presbyteries have displayed more or less activity, one (Winchester) holding a mass-meeting at one of its regular meetings, at which stirring addresses were made with hopeful results; and another (Orange) preparing and forwarding a petition to the Postmaster-General, asking a discontinuance of the Sunday mail; thirty-six of the Presbyteries reported "nothing special" done by way of awakening a deeper interest in the matter of Sabbath observance.

These reports also show that the day is fairly observed by our own people and Christians generally as a time of holy rest, with some degree of laxity, however, on the part of many, but by outsiders generally as a day of recreation and pleasure.

They also show, and with little or no improvement, a large amount of railroad travel and traffic, and running of freight trains on the Lord's day, with excursions and pleasure riding, to which the bicycle is now given as an additional factor. Only six of the Presbyteries report no freight trains on the Lord's day; fifteen with such trains as on other days; eight with only through freight (the locals being discontinued), and three with only perishable cargo.

With regard to that other instrument of desecration—the Sunday newspaper—the Presbyteries speak in no uncertain sound. In the language of one of the reports: "Like the frogs of Egypt they go everywhere, into our houses, our bed-chambers, our ovens and kneading-troughs, infesting the land as a plague." With the extension of railroads, the increased rate of speed, and the multiplied attractions of the Sunday issue, the future only bids fair to reveal a still greater prevalence of this great rival of the church. It would be well for the Assembly to reiterate its solemn warnings upon this subject.

By way of encouragement, we may mention that some of the Presbyteries report a more general and decided interest upon the Sabbath question; that the Alabama State Sabbath Association, formed last year, is still in existence and actively engaged in work; that the Christian Endeavor Societies are in some directions laboring for a better observance of the day. We may also mention that the practice of Sunday base-ball playing at the United States barracks at Atlanta, Ga., has been discontinued by an order from the War Department, in connection with a petition from the Ministers' Association of that city; and last, though not least, we mention with thankfulness the fact that the managers of the Nashville Exposition have closed their gates on the Lord's day.

On the other hand, we mention with grief a fact known to every one, as the thing was not done in a corner, but in the eyes of the nation and of the world, that at the close of the last Congress, in utter disregard of divine authority and the claims of God, our rulers again, as on previous occasions, appropriated the Lord's day for the transaction of the nation's business! In this connection, and by way of showing the status as well as general trend of public sentiment, in some directions at least, we mention a fact reported by one of the Presbyteries, that a bill introduced before the Legislature of Missouri to forbid base-ball playing on the Sabbath was lost; and also the fact reported by another, that at a recent municipal election in the city of St. Louis three hundred thousand political circulars were distributed on the Sabbath, burdening the mails to such an extent as actually to clog the service, a public meeting being held on the preceding Sabbath at which the candidate for the chief place made an address.

From a survey of the whole field, your committee feel constrained to reiterate what has been so often said before, that the Sabbath is fast losing its hold upon the conscience of the nation as a day of holy rest, and becoming in general, more and more, if not for business, as a time for recreation and pleasure.

The last Assembly instructed your committee to open correspondence with the other religious denominations, and inaugurate measures looking to the getting up of a mammoth petition to be presented to the Congress of the United States, asking a discontinuance of the Sunday mails and postal service. We regret to say that we did not see our way clear to carry out the instruction, as a petition of that kind, and much larger than we could ever hope to secure, was already in the hands of the American Sabbath Union, and had been presented to the authorities at Washington a few years since. As many of our churches and people were included in the list of petitioners on said petition, and as we had entered into a union with the American Sabbath Union, and could more effectively carry out the purpose in coöperating with them, your committee felt sure that when the facts were brought to the notice of the Assembly they would greatly modify, if not wholly rescind, the action above referred to.

As heretofore, we can only express regret at our not being able to attend any of the meetings of the American Sabbath Union on account of the great distance and heavy cost. Respectfully submitted,

JAMES STACY,
E. H. BARNETT,
JOHN A. BARRY,
Committee.

[Rev. G. B. Strickler, D. D., and Mr. S. M. Inman, the remaining members of the committee, were absent at the meeting of the committee.]

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions, and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organizations of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, at the meeting of the Assembly, also, the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies.

ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF

EMBRACED IN THE PRECEDING PAGES.

NOTE.—The Post-office addresses in this List may in a few cases differ from those given in the Tables, the List having been prepared to correspond as nearly as possible with recent changes. The figures denote the page on which the name may be found in the Tables. The names without figures are not found in the Tables, but with no information otherwise, they, with their post-offices, from Minutes of 1896, are for the present retained in this list.

The Rev. R. E. Steele, chaplain of the Bethel, read the annual report, and the Rev. Dr. J. W. Walden, and, by request, Commander A. L. Wadhams, U. S. Navy, addressed the Assembly, and Messrs. R. V. Lancaster and F. B. Webb were appointed a committee to report a response.

The following additional commissioners were enrolled: L. J. Washington, minister, and Wm. Fields, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Central Alabama, and W. F. McComb, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Pine Bluff.

The following salutation was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

WINONA LAKE, IND., May 20, 1898.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, La.:

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The salutation was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, which reported the following response, which was adopted:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., May 20, 1898.

To the General Assembly af the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, convened at Winona Lake, Ind.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at New Orleans, have received your greetings. With high esteem and prayerful sympathy in your work for the extension of the kingdom of Christ, with special reference to our co-operative labors in Brazil, Korea and Japan, we send you our cordial salutation.

The Assembly adjourned until 9:30 o'clock A. M. to-morrow. Closed with prayer by the Rev. W. D. Morton, D. D.

THIRD DAY.

MAY 21, 9:30 A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. W. M. Anderson.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

An additional commissioner, W. F. Stevenson, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Pee Dee, was enrolled.

The Judicial Committee reported that they have had in their hand the complaint of S. S. Laws against the Synod of South Carolina, and that they find no ground for judicial action, and recommend that the complaint be referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported further that they have had in their hand a complaint of Wm. M. McPheeters and others against the Synod of South Carolina concerning its action in addressing an official communication to the civil government in regard to Sunday mails:

> Your Committee find the complaint regular in form, and the complainant and respondent present in person, with the records of the Synod of South Carolina bearing upon the case. We recommend, 1, That it be heard by the Assembly and that it be made the special order for 10:30 o'clock Monday morning. 2, That the order prescribed in the Book of Church Order, Rules of Discipline, Chap. xiii. Sec. 4, Par. 3, be followed, viz.: (a), read the record in the case; (b), hear the complainant; (c), hear the respondent by its representatives; (d), hear the complainant again, and then consider and decide the case. 3, That the complainant be allowed forty-five minutes for his first speech and forty-five for his second, and the respondents one hour and a half to present their side of the case.

The report was adopted.

It was ordered that a popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions be held Monday night at 8 o'clock, and that it be the first order of the day Tuesday morning, May 24th, to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

It was ordered that a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions be held Tuesday at 8 o'clock P. M., and that at the same hour on Thursday a similar meeting be held in the interest of Colored Evangelization.

It was ordered that the first order of the day for Tuesday afternoon be the hearing of the report of the Standing Committee on Education.

Additional overtures were announced as follows:

From the Presbytery of Orange, asking that the Executive Committee of Home Missions be composed of a representative from each of the Synodical Committees of Home Missions. From the Presbytery of Fayetteville, an overture to the same purport. From the Presbytery of St. Louis, asking that the interests of Home Missions be represented in The Missionary magazine. From the Presbytery of Suwanee, on changes in the Book of Church Order; from the same, on a new hymn-book. From the Presbytery of Orange, touching careful instruction as to the more frequent observance of the Lord's supper. From the Synod of Florida, proposing that the colored work be turned over to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. From Angus Johnson, on preaching by unlicensed men. From the Presbytery of Eastern Texas, as to the disposition of the Colored Evangelistic Fund.

These overtures were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, except that touching the use of The Missionary to further the cause of Home Missions, which was referred to a special committee, composed of the Standing Committees on Home Missions and on Foreign Missions; and the overture from Suwanee Presbytery on a new hymn-book, which was referred to the special committee on that subject; and the overture from the Synod of Florida, which was referred to the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization.

The committee appointed by the last Assembly to edit the Westminster Addresses made the following report, which was approved, and the committee was discharged with the thanks of the Assembly:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States in session at New Orleans, May, 1898:

The special committee appointed by the Assembly of 1897 to co-operate with the Committee of Publication in publishing, in book form, the addresses delivered in connection with the celebration of the two hundredth and fiftieth anniversary of the Westminster Assembly, makes report as follows:

Your committee proceeded at once to secure advance subscriptions, and in a very short time a large list was obtained.

The volume, with a suitable introduction, was promptly pushed through the press, and was ready for distribution early in September, 1897.

The first edition was two thousand copies, and this edition was speedily exhausted. A second edition of five hundred has been issued, and more than half of it has also been sold. By report from Dr. Hazen on April 25th, the exact number of copies disposed of was two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

A small number of copies have been issued in paper covers, but there has been very little demand for this edition.

The volume has been very favorably received beyond the bounds of our own church, and copies of it have gone not only to all parts of the United States, but also to Canada, Britain, and the continent of Europe. A copy of the volume is herewith laid before the Assembly.

In conclusion, your committee sincerely thanks the Assembly for the opportunity of rendering this service to the church, and respectfully asks to be discharged.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE,
CHARLES R. HEMPHILL,
HENRY V. ESCOTT,
Editing Committee.

The Annual Report of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly was read, and referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Annual Report from the Directors of Union Theological Seminary, and that from the Directors of the Louisville Seminary, and that from the Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, were read, and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

An additional commissioner, J. T. Marsh, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Upper Mississippi, was enrolled.

A communication from the Synod of the Evangelical Church of Greece was read, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Adopted.

Adopted.

Adopted.

Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Virginia made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas reported, recommending their approval.

Adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows:

The Presbytery of East Hanover respectfully overtures the General Assembly to add to Chap. V., Sec. IV., 75, of the Form of Government, the following words: "And shall subject them to such other particular examinations as shall fully satisfy the Presbytery of their fitness for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church."

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

Adopted.

Your memorialist would respectfully represent that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in accordance with the plan of the London Sabbath-School Union, is endeavoring to secure the observance of the fourth Sabbath in November as Temperance Day. Believing that your influence would be of great help in advancing this movement, we most earnestly request the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to recommend the observance of this day as an annual temperance Sabbath.

ANNA R. MAHOOD,
Superintendent Sabbath-School Department W. C. T. U.

Answer: We recommend the following answer: While we have borne, and do now bear, our unqualified testimony against intemperance as a fruitful source of evil, we decline to grant the request of the Sabbath-School Department of the W. C. T. U. to set apart a special Sabbath as a temperance day.

Adopted.

The undersigned respectfully overtures your venerable body to send down to the Presbyteries the following proposition as an amendment to the Book of Church Order:

1. Strike out all but the first sentence in Paragraph 269, the part thus obliterated being inconsistent with the changes recommended in this overture if adopted.

2. Strike out all of Paragraph 261, and substitute instead thereof the following as Paragraph 261: "No appeal or complaint shall be issued unless the record of the case sent up to the appellate court be prefaced by the certificate of the clerk or moderator of the court from which it is transferred, certifying that the notice and grounds of appeal or complaint were served in due time; and when such certificate is so attached the clerk of the appellate court shall place the same on the docket for a hearing."

When the court proceeds to hear the cause the following order shall be observed:

1. The decision complained of or appealed from shall be read, and the grounds of the appeal or complaint.

2. The appellee, or respondent, or any member of the court, may move to dismiss summarily the case, on the ground that the irregularities cited are immaterial or the reasons alleged are frivolous, that there is a lack of proper parties, or that the matter is one purely discretionary, or that the matter is res adjudicata. In the absence of such motion, or if it is lost, the court shall entertain the case, and it shall be considered in the following order:

1. The entire record shall be read.
2. The parties shall be heard—first, the appellant or complainant; second, the opposing party, and the appellant or complainant shall close.
3. The roll shall be called, that each member may debate the matter.
4. The vote shall be taken separately upon each ground or reason alleged in the complaint or appeal, and also upon the prayer of the same, in the form: "Shall this reason or ground (or prayer) be sustained?" and the clerk shall record the vote in the margin of each reason or ground cited, and a committee shall be appointed to formulate the judgment of the court. The record, with the vote, shall then be placed in the hands of this committee, whose duty it shall be to state clearly the errors found to exist in the court or courts below, and to this shall be added such explanatory matter as may be deemed advisable, all of which shall be entered in the record of the case.

We think the above changes will contribute to distinctness and definiteness in actions upon appeals, etc., and lucidness in the records.

Praying that God's Spirit may rest upon you and guide you in all wisdom, we are yours, fraternally, etc.,

W. H. WORKMAN.
J. R. RILEY.

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

Adopted.

Pending consideration of a further report from this committee, the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The committee appointed to prepare a response to the addresses on work among the seamen presented the following, which was adopted:

The committee to whom was referred the subject-matter of the Seamen's Bethel and its work beg leave to report as follows:

The General Assembly has heard with pleasure of the continued success of the work at the New Orleans Seamen's Bethel, and is gratified to learn of the proposed extension of the work at Key West, Fla., especially at this period of our country's history. This Assembly would, with renewed interest, affectionately commend the zealous chaplain of this work, Rev. R. E. Steele, to the sympathies and prayers of the people, and also urge them to pray unceasingly for that class of men "that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters." The Assembly would also especially commend the proposed work at Key West, Fla., to the support of God's people by means of free-will offerings.

And this Assembly desires hereby to express its thanks to Lieutenant-Commander A. V. Wadhams, U. S. N., for his interesting and touching address in behalf of his fellow-seamen of the Navy, and prays that the blessing of God may rest upon him in the discharge of his important duties at this time, as well as upon all the officers and men of this branch of the Government service.

Respectfully submitted,

R. V. LANCASTER, } Committee.
F. B. WEBB, }

The Assembly resumed consideration of the report of Committee on Bills and Overtures, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Presbytery of Lexington, in session at Loch Willow Church, respectfully presents to the General Assembly in session in New Orleans, La., the following statement and overture:

The late Miss Mary J. Baldwin, a member of the First Church, Staunton, within the bounds of this Presbytery, left to the Trustees of the General Assembly a legacy of $5,000 "for the Domestic Mission work of said church" [the Southern Presbyterian Church previously mentioned in the same paragraph of the will].

With reference to this legacy the following petition to the Trustees was unanimously adopted by the Presbytery of Lexington, and afterwards endorsed by the Synod of Virginia with only one negative vote:

PETITION.

"The Presbytery of Lexington, in session at Millboro, Va., respectfully petitions the Trustees of the General Assembly to appropriate to the Local Home Missions of this Presbytery and to the Evangelistic work of the Synod of Virginia a portion of the legacy of five thousand dollars ($5,000) left by Miss Mary Julia Baldwin to 'Domestic Missions.'"

1st, The term "Domestic Missions" by which alone Miss Baldwin indicates to what cause she wishes the legacy devoted is an ambiguous one. It applies with equal propriety to each one of three distinct enterprises, viz.: The Assembly's Home Missions, the Local (or Presbyterial) Home Missions, and the Synod's Evangelistic Work. There would, therefore, seem to be no warrant in the language of Miss Baldwin's will for applying the whole amount left by her to any one of these three causes to the exclusion of the other two.

2nd, Previous to January, 1894, the three kinds of "Domestic Missions" just enumerated were not distinguished from each other, but were grouped together under the single title "Home [or Domestic] Missions." All the funds for these three causes went into a single treasury, and the work was administered by a single committee appointed for the purpose by the General Assembly. At that time every Presbytery had the right to draw on that central treasury for the means to conduct its local work. After January, 1894, "Home Missions" became separated by the General Assembly into "Evangelistic Work," which was relegated to the several Synods; "Local Home Missions," which was relegated to the several Presbyteries; and the "General Assembly's Home Missions" (frontier work), which was left in the care of the old committee of the Assembly.

It required many months for the private membership of the church (even the most intelligent of them) to understand the nature of the change and to learn the new nomenclature.

As Miss Baldwin's will was made in 1895, the Presbytery believes that she did not at that time fully understand the radical nature of the change that had been made, and that it was far from her intention to have all of her generous gift pass into a treasury to which her own Presbytery would have no access to get help for its great need that appealed so strongly to her heart.

3rd, The following table has been made by a careful examination of the books of the Treasurer of the First Presbyterian Church of Staunton, Va., of which Miss Baldwin was a member for very many years. This table shows Miss Baldwin's contributions to the several causes for the past three years, and it indicates her estimate of the comparative importance of the causes:

TABLE.

Synod's Evangelistic Work, . .	$100	$100	$200	$400	.44
Assembly's Home Missions, . .	25	50	65	140	.16

In 1895, when the "Local" and "Assembly's" causes were still confused, the contributions were small. The two years following show a decidedly greater interest in Synodical and Presbyterial work than in the Assembly work. It is not for a moment intimated, however, that she was lacking in decided devotion to any good work.

4th, Having shown that she was profoundly interested in Synodical and Presbyterial work, and that her legacy was left to a cause which, at the time of the making of her will, she must have understood to include both of these, it needs only to be added that she made no other provision for Presbyterial and Synodical work, and the evidence is complete that she did not intend to exclude them from a share in this bequest.

5th, When the fields worked by our Presbytery's Committee of Home Missions and those worked by the Synod's Committee of Evangelization are compared with the fields worked by the Assembly's Committee in Florida, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico and the Indian Territory, it will be found that these are every whit as important as those. Our fields are populous now, and the extraordinary mineral and lumber resources of West Virginia are attracting a rapidly increasing population. A single county (McDowell) of that State has within the last fourteen years grown in population from three hundred to thirty thousand. The spiritual destitution of this inflowing population is appalling. Substantial men who are leading in the development of the natural resources of the State are ready to lend a helping hand if we do an earnest work there. Our methods of work have been conservative, and yet the results which have already accrued and the promise for the future if we continue and enlarge our efforts are equal to any that can be shown in any other part of the church. For these reasons we regard our own field as being intrinsically of as great importance to the growth of our Southern Church as any within its entire area.

Whilst it is not claimed that as much as forty per cent. of the legacy should be appropriated to this Presbytery (on the ground that Miss Baldwin gave forty per cent. of her Home Mission gifts to Presbytery work while she lived), nevertheless it is respectfully urged that all the facts indicate that a substantial share of the legacy should come to the Presbytery.

The Trustees replied that they had no authority to grant this petition. They say, "We have no discretion as to the disbursement of any money left to the different objects of the church. The disbursement is left by the Assembly to the different committees." They say again, "We remit to the proper committee." Again, "We are compelled to remit to the Committee of Domestic Missions established by the Assembly." All of which assumes that some "committee" is named in the will as the "proper" one to receive this legacy, whereas the will does not mention any committee or any person or persons, but designates the "Domestic Mission work of the [said] church" as the object for which the money is to be used. In deciding, therefore, to give the legacy to the Assembly's Committee, the Trustees have exercised the very discretion which they declare they do not possess.

Assembly, saying, "We have no doubt but that such orders will be made in the premises as will be consistent with justice."

The Presbytery of Lexington, therefore, respectfully overtures the Assembly to direct the Board of Trustees to appropriate out of Miss Baldwin's legacy to Domestic Missions the sum of $1,000 to the Local Home Missions of the Presbytery of Lexington, paying the same to the Rev. A. H. Hamilton, treasurer, and $500 to the Evangelistic Work of the Synod of Virginia, paying the same to the Rev. J. E. Booker, treasurer.

Answer: We recommend that the request be granted.

The following report of the convention of colored ministers to organize an Independent Colored Presbyterian Church was read by the Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization:

Whereas, pursuant to the adjournment of the convention called by the Independent Presbyteries within the bounds of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church through the agency of its Executive Committee on Colored Evangelization; and

Whereas the convention met in the Berean Presbyterian Church, in the city of New Orleans, May 19th, at 7:30 o'clock P. M.; and

Whereas the convention was duly convened and opened with prayer and divine services; and

Whereas the convention has on this 19th day of May, 1898, entered into permanent organization by the unanimous election of the Rev. E. W. Williams as moderator, and the Rev. A. E. Reed as permanent clerk; and

Whereas it has been, and still is, the purpose of the Presbyteries creating this convention to organize a separate, self-governing Colored Presbyterian Church in the United States and the Dominion of Canada; and

Whereas it is the further purpose of the Presbyteries creating this convention to establish, when, in the providence of God, the way shall be clear, a separate and self-governing Colored Presbyterian General Assembly in the United States and in the Dominion of Canada; therefore, be it—

Resolved, That until the way is clear to establish a General Assembly this body shall be known as the separate, self-governing "Colored Presbyterian Synod of the United States and the Dominion of Canada."

Be it further resolved, That this convention adopt the standards of doctrine and polity of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Be it further resolved, That this convention does hereby and now declare itself profoundly grateful to the Southern Presbyterian Church for its sympathy, co-operation and substantial financial support.

Be it further resolved, That this convention, in the prosecution of its work throughout the several Presbyteries here represented, request and urge upon the Presbyteries as far forth as practicable to seek the advice, counsel and co-operation of the white brethren in the execution of the work.

Be it further resolved, That for the present this convention shall create four standing Executive Committees, namely, a Committee on Foreign Missions, a Committee on Home Missions, a Committee on Education and a Committee on Sabbath-schools.

Be it further resolved, That the Moderator be and is hereby requested to name the chairmen of these several committees as soon as practicable after the adjournment of this convention.

Be it further resolved, That this convention returns its most hearty thanks to Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., for the timely and faithful assistance he has rendered in perfecting this organization.

Be it further resolved, That the thanks of this convention be further extended to the Assembly's Executive Committee on Colored Evangelization, and that it is hereby requested to continue its work in the interest of the colored people.

A. E. REED, Clerk,
J. A. TURNER,
E. W. WILLIAMS,
Committee.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday morning, 9:30 o'clock.

FOURTH DAY.

MAY 23, 9:30 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Morton.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read, corrected and approved.

An overture from Ruling Elder C. S. Wood, touching the wine to be used in the Lord's supper, was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Annual Report of the Board of Directors of Columbia Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A communication from the delegates of the Reformed Episcopal Church was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The report of the ad interim committee on a summer school of theology was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Resolutions by the Presbytery of East Hanover, relating to the colored evangelistic work, were read and referred to the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization.

The commission of the Rev. G. E. Henderlite as the representative of the Synod of Brazil, and an overture touching the distribution of mission funds, were transferred from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions; and an overture touching the establishing of a mission in Cuba was transferred from the Committee on Bills and Overtures to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

An additional commissioner, U. McCluer, minister, from the Presbytery of Washbourne, was enrolled.

It was made the first order of the day for Wednesday afternoon to choose the place of meeting of the next Assembly.

It was made the second order of the day for to-day to hear and consider the report of the Special Committee on Hymnology.

It was made the second order of the day for to-morrow afternoon to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Publication.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of the complaint of William M. McPheeters and others against the Synod of South Carolina. The Moderator enjoined the Assembly to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ and the solemn duty in which they were about to engage. The record in the case was read. The Rev. Dr. McPheeters was heard on the part of the complainants. He was followed by the Hon. W. F. Stevenson for the respondent. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The special committee to whom was referred overtures on the education of the young made a report, which was put upon the docket.

Adopted.

Adopted.

The Report of the Committee on Records of the Synod of Virginia, recommending their approval, with exceptions, was taken from the docket, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Virginia would report that they have performed that duty, and recommend their approval, with the following exception:

On pages 519, 520, and 521, a report was adopted by the Synod, signed by the chairman of a committee, which chairman was not a member of the Synod, and who, so far as the records show, was not accorded the privileges of the floor, nor was even present at this meeting.

The judicial case was resumed. The Rev. C. W. Humphreys, D. D., was heard for the respondent. The case was closed by the Rev. Dr. McPheeters, for the complainants.

The roll was then called, and each commissioner allowed two minutes in which to express his opinion. The Rev. Dr. Palmer, however, was called first and permitted to consume fifteen minutes. The roll was again called for the vote, which resulted as follows: To sustain the complaint, 19; to sustain in part, 6; not to sustain, 145; excused 3; absent, or not voting, 9.

The Moderator appointed the following committee to report a minute embodying the judgment of the court: F. B. Hutton, B. M. Palmer, and W. D. Hedleston.

The Special Committee on Hymnology made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Assembly had recess until 8 P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. Dr. Boude occupying the chair by request of the Moderator.

According to previous order, the interests of Home Missions were under consideration, and the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Samuel Semple, of the Presbytery of Arkansas, the Rev. S. E. Hotema, of the Presbytery of Indian, the Rev. W. S. Scott, of the Presbytery of Western Texas, the Rev. W. C. Campbell, D. D., of the Presbytery of Montgomery, and the Rev. W. M. Anderson, of the Presbytery of Dallas.

A collection amounting to $128.25 was taken for Home Missions.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Alexander Cowan.

FIFTH DAY.

MAY 24, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. S. M. Logan.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

An additional commissioner, J. S. Foster, minister, from the Presbytery of Nashville, was enrolled.

An overture from the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, asking the publication of tracts in cheaper form for free distribution, was referred to the Standing Committee of Publication.

An overture from the Presbytery of Montgomery, relating to a book of psalms and hymns, was referred to the Special Committee on Hymnology.

The annual report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath was read and referred to the Standing Committee on the Sabbath.

The report of the Committee on Hymnology was taken from the docket, and after amendment by the addition of the Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., to the committee for which it provides, and his appointment as chairman of said committee, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee to which was referred the overtures on hymn-book would respectfully report:

We have had placed in our hands nine overtures asking this Assembly to inaugurate measures for the preparation of a hymn-book. Two of these were from the Synods of Mississippi and Georgia. The others were from the Presbyteries of Arkansas, Suwanee, Athens, Winchester, West Hanover, Lafayette and Montgomery. Thus it will be seen that these overtures express the desire of twenty-six of the Presbyteries of the Assembly, about one-third of the whole church.

Upon investigation, your committee finds that the present situation of the Assembly as to a hymn-book for use in our churches is as follows:

(a), There is the book approved by the Assembly in Memphis, 1866, entitled Psalms and Hymns.

(b), In 1882 an arrangement was made with the Century Company, of New York, for the introduction of Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs, under the imprint of our committee. The contract made under this arrangement has been renewed from time to time.

(c), At the General Assembly in Macon, 1893, a similar contract to the one made with the Century Company was made with Dr. R. P. Kerr, by which The Hymns of the Ages was approved and commended to our churches, and the imprint of the committee was ordered to be put upon it.

It appears from this history of the Assembly's relation to hymn-books, that we have three. One of them was prepared by the church, while the other two have been commended to the churches for their use, under the imprint of the Committee of Publication. In order that by the time the contract with the aforesaid parties shall have expired, the church may have a book of her own, and suited to her needs, we recommend the following action:

1. The Assembly hereby determines to undertake the preparation of a hymn-book that will meet the demands of our church, the product of her own life and effort.

2. To carry out this purpose, the following permanent committee is appointed:

Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., chairman, Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., Rev. W. S. Lacy, D. D., Rev. A. W. Milster, D. D., Maj. Jno. C. Whitner, Rev. W. L. Lowrance. This committee is empowered to go forward in the work at once, with the purpose of having the book ready for use by 1903, when all arrangements for sale of other hymn-books shall have expired.

3. We recommend the following rules for the guidance of the committee:

(1), That the book be not too large.

(2), That it be compiled on an exhaustive index, topical and scriptural.

(3), That it be made with special care to the adaptation of music to words, with a conservative regard to time-honored associations.

4. The Assembly hereby extends to all in our communion the opportunity to suggest to the committee for its consideration such lists of hymns and tunes as it is thought ought to be included in a church book of praise.

5. The Assembly requests the committee to meet as soon as practicable for organization and the mapping out of work, at such a place and time as may be agreed upon, the expense of such meeting to be borne by the Assembly.

J. W. WALDEN, Chairman.

A resolution touching the purchase of the Hymns of the Ages was presented by the Rev. A. C. Hopkins, D. D., and referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

The report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was taken up and considered seriatim, which business was interrupted to hear the protest of several colored ministers against the action of the convention to erect an Independent Colored Presbyterian Church. The protest was referred to the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization, and the discussion of the report on Home Missions was resumed, pending which the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

It was made the second order of the day for to-morrow to hear the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported the arrangement for the observance of the Lord's supper to-morrow night.

The first order of the day for this afternoon, the hearing of the report of the Standing Committee on Education was suspended in order to finish the consideration of the report on Home Missions, which report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

Your committee respectfully report that the report of the Executive Committee and the records of the said committee have been put into our hands. The latter have been well kept, showing the personal care and interest of the members of this committee, and we suggest their approval.

We find the whole amount of funds in the hands of the committee during the year, $52,353.34. Home Missions, $37,580.45; Invalid Fund, $11,669.80. This money has been wisely used in supporting the work among the Mexicans in Western Texas; in supporting six white and five Indian ministers in the Indian Territory; sixteen ministers in Florida; forty-five in Texas; seventeen in Arkansas, and eighteen teachers in eleven schools in the Indian Territory; aiding in erecting two church and school buildings in the Territory, and the erection of eight churches in five Presbyteries.

The regular Loan Fund and the William A. Moore Loan Fund (Church Erection) have been judiciously managed. This work has been accomplished at an expense of $4,391.44.

Your committee is satisfied that the whole work of the Executive Committee has been faithfully administered, and the result a great blessing to our church.

The increase in contributions, compared with last year, is $10,466.86. The increase in four years is from $25,855.39 in 1894-'95 to $36,073.67 in 1897-'98.

There has been a decrease in contributions from societies of $504.71. This was doubtless owing to the call made by the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions in January.

The year closed without debt, with $9,456 cash, and $1,000 railroad bonds in hand, for which the Assembly expresses profound gratitude to God. One discouraging feature is the falling off in the contributions to the Invalid Fund. The contributions to April 1, 1897, were $12,118, to April 1, 1898, $11,619. There has been a steady decrease in the contributions to this fund since 1895. The beneficiaries of this fund are the men who have borne the burdens of work until they have been laid aside from labor—men who have spent their all in the service of the Master and the church· Dependent as they are, they deserve the care of the church. This may have been the result of the absence of so many from their own churches during the month of July.

With this statement of facts, your committee make the following suggestions for the action of the Assembly:

1. That fifty per cent. of the amount due from the Apopka Church in Florida, and the Gainesville Church in Texas, to the Loan Fund, be remitted, provided the remainder be paid within two years, and that the application of Hebron Church, of the Presbytery of Harmony, be referred to the Presbytery for action.

2. That Presbyteries be urged to direct the chairmen of Home Missions Committees to devise some plan by which these causes may be presented on their own merits in every church, according to the Assembly's plan.

3. That Presbyteries be instructed to emphasize the importance of the Invalid Fund during the month of July.

4. To prevent confusion, the Committee of Publication is directed hereafter to place the name "Invalid Fund" at the head of the column for that cause, and not "Relief Fund," as now.

5. We recognize the importance of the work among the Mexicans of Texas and in New Mexico, and would call special attention of the Executive Committee to the advisability of advancing the work in those fields as far as practicable.

6, We suggest that a vigorous effort be made to raise this year for Home Missions $40.000, and for Invalid Fund $20,000.

7. The Executive Committee for the coming year shall consist of Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., secretary; W. A. Powell, E. H. Barnett, T. P. Cleveland, A. R. Holderby, Chalmers Fraser, T. H. Rice, M. A. Chandler, D. A. Beatie, W. P. Inman, J. C. Kirkpatrick.

H. B. BOUDE, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Education was read and considered seriatim. This business was suspended to hear a special report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on an overture from the Presbytery of Norfolk, asking that the Executive Committees of Education and Publication be consolidated. The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending that the proposed consolidation be not effected. Adopted.

The report on Education was then adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee, to which was referred the report of the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry, respectfully submits the following report, including recommendations:

The papers placed in the hands of this Standing Committee included the printed report of the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry, the official records of the meetings of this Executive Committee, together with the monthly reports made to it by the secretary, the report of the treasurer of the committee, and the report of the Auditing Committee ad interim appointed by the last General Assembly to examine the treasurer's and secretary's accounts.

These papers have been carefully examined, and we have also called upon members of the Executive Committee for such special information as the Standing Committee needed. The work of the Executive Committee for the last year has thus been fully reviewed.

The records of the committee have been found to be kept with fulness and accuracy. The accounts of the treasurer are duly reported by the Auditing Committee to be properly kept, and his disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

The Assembly has already been informed of the decease of the venerable Secretary of Education, elected by the last General Assembly, Rev. E. M. Richardson, D. D., and of the death of another active member of the Executive Committee, Rev. E. A. Ramsey, D. D.

Under the providence of God, the Executive Committee, in the exercise of its legitimate power, was able to provide for the emergency, and to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Richardson in such way that the work of the year was accomplished successfully. The business of the Executive Committee was so systematized, and the details so carefully executed, that the year closes with all obligations fully met, and with an encouraging outlook for the immediate enlargement of this necessary beneficiary work of the Assembly, in assisting candidates for the ministry.

Your Standing Committee respectfully recommends:

1. That the Assembly approve and commend the work, the diligence and the faithfulness of the Executive Committee in meeting the peculiar exigencies of the last ecclesiastical year.

2. That the Executive Committee be authorized and instructed to endeavor to raise the sum of thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars for the coming year for education for the ministry, that this sum be apportioned among all the Presbyteries of the church, and that all of the Presbyteries be earnestly urged to heartily co-operate with the Assembly's Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry in the great work entrusted to its care.

3. That while it is the purpose of the Assembly to authorize collections in the churches for the cause of ministerial education in the months of November and April only, the Executive Committee is not to be restricted to these months in disseminating information as to this cause, by visits of the secretary to the churches, when arrangements can be made with them, and by other proper means.

4. The Executive Committee is instructed to discontinue aid to academical students not in college classes.

5. In view of the fact that our own colleges and theological seminaries afford ample facilities for the education of candidates for the ministry, the Assembly urges the Presbyteries to discourage attendance upon colleges and theological seminaries other than our own by candidates receiving aid; but in extraordinary cases the matter of extending aid from the Assembly's funds to candidates for the ministry pursuing their studies in other than our own colleges and theological seminaries shall be left to the decision of the presbyterial committees, after consultation with the Assembly's Executive Committee.

6. That the following be elected to compose the Assembly's Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for the coming ecclesiastical year: Rev. Joseph H. Lumpkin, secretary, Rev. W. McF. Alexander, Rev. S. J. Foster, Thomas Wellford, J. S. Devant, S. P. Read, Rev. N. M. Woods, D. D., Rev. W. H. Neel, D. D., G. W. Macrae, treasurer, C. H. Albright, John Johnson.

All of which is respectfully submitted. R. B. FULTON, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was taken up and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee of Publication respectfully reports that it has examined carefully the records and report of the Executive Committee, and that it has discovered several encouraging features in the work of the past year which deserve to be mentioned. We notice with grateful acknowledgment: (a), The increased activity in this department of our work during the year; (b), That there has been a slight enlargement of the benevolent work of this department; (c), That the committee has been enabled to offer a more liberal discount than heretofore from the list price of our publications; (d), That a larger number than usual of Bibles and Testaments have been presented for the perfect recitation of the Catechisms of our church; and finally, (e), That the Memorial Volume of the Westminster Assembly, which deserves to be in every family of our church, has had an extensive circulation, not only within, but beyond our own bounds.

The following recommendations have been unanimously adopted by your committee:

I. That the thirty-seventh annual report and records of the Executive Committee of Publication be approved, and that the diligence and efficiency of the said committee be commended.

II. That our churches, Sabbath-schools and members generally be urged to give their patronage to the fullest extent possible to our own Committee of Publication.

III. That inasmuch as the dissemination of religious literature is of the utmost importance, especially at the present time, when so much that is evil proceeds from the press; inasmuch as all the contributions to this fund are used exclusively for the benevolent work of the church, such as colportage and donations to churches and Sabbath-schools; and since the amount necessary to the proper conduct of this work is $20,000, while the contributions to this cause are only about $7,000, many congregations contributing little or nothing to it: therefore, we again earnestly urge upon all our people the duty and privilege of contributing more freely and more generally to this fund.

IV. In view of the fact that Dr. W. A. Alexander has, with great labor, prepared a Digest of the Minutes of all the General Assemblies of our church from 1861 to the present day, and in view of the fact that the aforesaid Digest is practically a fre gift to the church, that the thanks of the General Assembly be hereby extended to Dr. W. A. Alexander for the same.

V. That in view of the great importance of such a work to the proper conduct of the business of the courts of the church, the Synods and Presbyteries be hereby urged to purchase copies of the said Digest and place them in the hands of their stated clerks.

VI. Your committee thinks it unnecessary to make any recommendation in regard to the overture from the Presbytery of Muhlenberg, asking for a cheaper edition of our doctrinal and devotional tracts, inasmuch as the publications referred to are already published in as cheap a form as is deemed practicable, especially in view of the liberal discount offered by the Executive Committee.

VII. That the Executive Committee of Publication be authorized to distribute as many as fifty copies of the Westminster Memorial Volume among the leading libraries of our country and the world.

VIII. That the same Executive Committee be re-elected for the ensuing year, viz.: J. K. Hazen, D. D., secretary and treasurer; M. D. Hoge, D. D., C. H. Read, D. D., J. P. Smith, D. D., J. W. Rosebro, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., J. Calvin Stewart, S. K. Winn, D. D., R. A. Lancaster, B. R. Wellford, W. W. Henry, M. M. Gilliam and W. C. Preston.

J. ALBERT WALLACE, Chairman.

The same committee presented a supplementary report touching the business of the Executive Committee of Publication with the author of Hymns of the Ages, which report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee further report that a certain resolution touching the dissolution of the contract now existing between Dr. R. P. Kerr and this Assembly has been placed in our hands, in regard to which the following recommendation is offered, viz.: That the Executive Committee of Publication be directed to purchase from Dr. R. P. Kerr the copyright and stereotype plates of both the word and tune editions of the Hymns of the Ages at such price as the Executive Committee may deem just and fair, and that the stock of Hymns of the Ages now on hand, together with unbound sheets of the same, be purchased at cost, and that the committee be directed to pay both for the plates, copyright, and stock of books out of funds received from the sales of Hymns of the Ages as they are realized.

J. ALBERT WALLACE, Chairman.

The committee to formulate the judgment of the Assembly on the complaint against the Synod of South Carolina made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The committee appointed to formulate the judgment of the Assembly upon the complaint against the Synod of South Carolina submit the following:

"The General Assembly refuses to sustain the complaint against the Synod of South Carolina, upon the ground that the action complained of is legally based upon Chapter XXXI., Section 4, of the Confession of Faith."

F. B. HUTTON,
B. M. PALMER,
W. D. HEDLESTON.

The Assembly had recess until 8 P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, Ruling Elder J. W. Lapsley in the chair, at the request of the Moderator.

The interests of Foreign Missions were considered in addresses by the Rev. G. E. Henderlite, missionary to Brazil; the Rev. S. P. Fulton, missionary to Japan, and Lieutenant-Commander A. V. Wadhams, of the United States Navy.

The Assembly adjourned until 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SIXTH DAY.

MAY 25, 9:30 A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. D. C. Lilly.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A communication from the Rev. S. F. Tenney respecting the Relief Fund was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A proposal to print the Minutes of the Assembly was referred to the Auditing Committee.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, in connection with which the privilege of the floor was accorded to the Rev. D. C. Rankin, editor of The Missionary, to present the claims of the church's missionary journals. The same courtesy was extended to the Rev. Dr. S. H. Chester, the Secretary of Foreign Missions, that he might acquaint the Assembly with the result of his recent visit to our missions in China, Korea, and Japan.

The following resolution, in response to the greeting brought to the Assembly by the Rev. G. E. Henderlite from the Synod of Brazil, was adopted:

> The Assembly would express its gratification at the cordial message of greeting from the Synod of Brazil, so happily conveyed by its accredited delegate, the Rev. George E. Henderlite. We would record our profound and unfailing interest in the work of the Synod of Brazil, which shall continue to receive our support and shall ever be remembered in our prayers. We send through the Rev. George E. Henderlite our most fraternal Christian salutations to the Synod of Brazil.

The report on Foreign Missions was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Foreign Missions begs leave to make the following report:

Your committee has had before them and have considered:

1. The minutes of the Executive Committee.

2. A communication from the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Lackawanna, touching the proposed transfer of the Rev. J. E. Phipps, one of our missionaries on the Congo, to one of our Presbyteries.

3. The report of the Executive Committee to this Assembly.

4. The appeal of the Synod of Brazil to the General Assemblies, North and South, as to the manner of giving help to the cause of missions in Brazil.

5. An overture from the Presbytery of Winchester to establish a mission in Cuba.

6. A certificate from the Moderator of the Synod of Brazil, appointing Rev. G. E. Henderlite to bear to us the fraternal greetings of that Synod.

1. MINUTES.

We see nothing in the minutes of the committee requiring action of the Assembly.

2. TRANSFER OF MR. PHIPPS.

We recommend that the Secretary of Foreign Missions be instructed to write to the Presbytery of Lackawanna, showing the difficulty in the way of transferring from one Presbytery to another, while Mr. Phipps is abroad, and asking that Presbytery to continue the presbyterial oversight of Brother Phipps, requiring of him the usual reports in such cases until such time as he shall return to this country, when a transfer in due form can be effected.

3. PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

We rejoice in the progress of the work; the reports from the missions, though not fully received, showing 523 additional communicants, as against 503 received last year.

4. FINANCE.

We record with pleasure the net receipts of the year as $146,478.27, a larger sum than ever before contributed, it being $2,328.68 more than last year, and showing a balance of $161.17 in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year. But as against this, we note that the expenditures have been $146,841.51, which is $771.04 more than the receipts. While this is liable to occur, because of the necessity of incurring liabilities before the amount of income is fully known, yet it is a matter which should be carefully noted, and a continuing indebtedness should be avoided.

5. TREASURERS FOR BENEVOLENT FUNDS.

Our Executive Committee again calls attention to the fact that the large contributions coming in during the month of March, each year, would indicate that money is not forwarded promptly when collected, thus causing anxiety and sometimes forcing the missionaries to borrow money from banks. We urge upon our Presbyteries the necessity of giving this matter their prompt attention. Contributions from all churches should be forwarded at once. Each Presbytery should require sessions to devise plans to remedy this evil. We direct the attention of the Presbyteries to the suggestion made by our Executive Committee; that separate treasurers be appointed to have charge of all benevolent funds.

6. "THE MISSIONARY," "CHILD'S MISSIONARY," AND "PRAYER CALENDAR."

We recognize as undoubtedly the most potent means of increasing the gifts to this great work an intelligent understanding of its conditions and needs. No means can be devised of more value to secure this end than a familiarity with the contents of The Missionary, Child's Missionary aud Prayer Calendar. We urge all pastors to explain the condition under which we are now furnishing these indispensable adjuncts of our work at a loss, and insist upon their people subscribing to these publications; and then engage the services of some member of their charge to canvass their congregations with copies of these publications, and take subscriptions therefor, requiring payment of one year's subscription in advance.

7. REINFORCEMENTS AND LOSSES.

We note with regret that while we added eleven new missionaries to our rolls last year, we have this year added only eight. The number of missionaries is now 155, as against 150 last year, some serious losses having been experienced, and among them the death of Mrs. Pauline DuBose Little in Japan, July 27, 1897, to whose deeply bereaved husband, parents and friends we offer assurance of our warmest sympathy.

8. THIRTY ADDITIONAL MISSIONARIES NEEDED.

We confide in and approve the judgment of our Executive Committee that thirty additional men and women are needed for the field, and that the workers can be found, and that the church is very well able to support a larger and constantly increasing force of missionaries; but the committee should not now add to the number if it should increase expenditures beyond the probable income, rigidly estimating future receipts only by past experience; and should the income obstinately drag behind the expenditures, it is better to cut expenses as the best and only remedy; and in cutting expenses the committee should consider the propriety of a horizontal and uniform scaling of salaries. To avoid this necessity we remind the church again that it is absolutely necessary to increase the income, because, as already indicated, the present income is less than the past year's expenses.

9. THE CAMPINAS PROPERTY.

The Southern Brazil Mission has asked our Executive Committee that of the proceeds of the sale of the Campinas property $5,000 shall be donated to the Synod of Brazil for its theological seminary. We recommend that the Assembly give assurance to the brethren in Brazil of our church's cordial sympathy with the Synod in its efforts to establish and foster a theological seminary, and would be glad to comply with their request had we undisputed possession of the property. In the present condition of the property, and in view of the uncertainty of the future, we recommend that the management of the property and distribution of the proceeds that may arise from a sale or rent thereof should be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

10. THE CONGO BOAT.

We would commend the wisdom and diligence of the Executive Committee in conserving the Congo Boat Fund, and approve their determination to proceed at once to build the boat, and would direct that it be sent forward as soon as it is consistent with due care and prudence. But it is well that the Executive Committee and the brethren in Africa should have before them the history of other missionary bodies who have only learned how to manage a steamboat successfully after some experiences of the accident, expense and trouble incident thereto. But as others have attained success, so may we, if patience and ordinary care and prudence is used. In this connection, and in view of the faithful and constant care for the mission's interests, and kindness to passing missionaries shown by Mr. Robert Whyte, our London agent, the Secretary of Foreign Missions is directed to express to Mr. Whyte the appreciation and thanks of the Assembly.

11. CHANGE IN THE MANUAL.

We recommend that Paragraph 49 of the Manual be altered so as to strike out, "He shall pay the missionaries their salaries in gold," and insert, "He may pay the missionaries their salaries either in gold or in the currency of the country to the amount that the gold appropriated for salaries will purchase, as the mission shall direct or as circumstances may render practicable."

12. FROM SYNOD OF BRAZIL.

In response to the communication of the Synod of Brazil, asking that any help given the cause in Brazil be given to them to aid them in evangelization and education, we direct the secretary of Foreign Missions to write them and express our preference that any money or property we may have or be able to send to Brazil, beyond the support of our own missionaries, should be used in assisting to educate men directly for the ministry, and that our policy is to consult our missionaries on the subject. He will also assure them of our sympathy with them in their efforts at independence and self-support, and our hope that the day may soon come when they may be fully successful, and their church may take its place among the Presbyterian churches of the world and enlist with them in sending the gospel to the regions beyond.

13. MISSION IN CUBA.

Answering the overture touching the establishing of a mission in Cuba, the Assembly expresses its approval of the purpose of the overture, and authorizes the Executive Committee to found a mission there when the way is clear.

14. REV. G. E. HENDERLITE.

This brother, who is one of our missionaries in Northern Brazil, came bringing the fraternal greetings of the Synod of Brazil, and the Assembly had the pleasure of hearing him at the missionary mass-meeting last evening.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed members of the Executive Committee for the coming year, viz.: J. H. McNeilly, S. H. Chester, Angus McDonald, James I. Vance, J. W. Bachman, J. W. Lupton, F. B. Webb, G. W. Patterson, J. S. Foster, R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, G. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton and W. Gales Adams; and we recommend that Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be elected the Assembly's Secretary of Foreign Missions for the ensuing year.

JAMES W. LAPSLEY, Chairman.

The second order of the day was taken up, and the Committee on Bills and Overtures made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Presbytery of Norfolk would respectfully overture the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at New Orleans, as follows:

That the Assembly request of the Committee of Foreign Missions to refrain from assuming financial obligations in the name of the church without reasonable assurance that the funds of the church will be sufficient to meet such obligations, and that the Assembly further enjoin that the policy of all our committees in administering the funds of the church shall conform to the policy of a wisely and safely conducted business.

Answer: We recommend that the answer be that no action is necessary.

Ruling Elder C. S. Wood asks: "Is it competent for a church session to elect what element shall be used to typify the shed blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in the sacrament of the Lord's supper?"

Answer: No; the Lord has indicated bread and wine as the proper elements.

The Synod of Alabama hereby overtures the General Assembly to meet in New Orleans in May, 1898, to legalize the meeting of the Synod held December 7, 1897, at 7:30 P. M., instead of November 9, 1897, at 7:30 P. M., being postponed on account of the presence of yellow fever in the State.

Answer: We recommend that this request be granted.

Rev. Angus Johnston "most earnestly overtures the Assembly to declare all unlicensed preaching irregular and to be avoided."

Answer: We recommend that the overture be answered by reaffirming deliverances of former Assemblies.

The Presbytery of Athens overtures the General Assembly to answer the following question: "Is it obligatory upon church sessions to bring charges against members who wilfully and persistently absent themselves from the services of God's house?"

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly refer the Presbytery to the law of the church as given in the Form of Government, Paragraph 67, and the Rules of Discipline, Paragraph 235.

The Presbytery of Fayetteville respectfully overtures the General Assembly to have its Committee of Home Missions so constituted that every Synod of the Assembly shall be represented in said committee, in order that there may be a larger and more extended interest in the work; that the work may be more thoroughly overlooked, and so prove more efficient; that the responsibility for the execution of the work may be shared by representatives of the various Synods, and so give general satisfaction to those that contribute to this great object.

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

The Presbytery of Orange respectfully overtures the General Assembly to so change the constitution of the General Assembly's Home Mission Committee that it may hereafter consist of representatives from the synodical committees.

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

Columbia Presbytery, at its meeting in Pulaski, Tenn., April 15-19, 1898, respectfully overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to convene at New Orleans, La., May 19, 1898, for information regarding the phrase, "wilful desertion," Confession of Faith, Chapter XXIV., Section VI., which is as follows: "Although the corruption of man be such as is apt to study arguments, unduly to put asunder those whom God hath joined together in marriage; yet nothing but adultery or such wilful desertion as can no way be remedied by the church or civil magistrate is cause sufficient of dissolving the bond of marriage," etc., etc.

The information desired is this:

1. Does the principle of "wilful desertion" apply to a case where both husband and wife are believers?

2. In such a case, when they are divorced by the civil law, is it morally right for the innocent one to marry again?

Answer: We recommend the following answers: To the first question, Yes. Desertion, if total, causeless and incurable, affords proper ground for divorce. (Confession of Faith, Chap. XXIV., Art. 6.) The same reason attaches whether either or both of the parties are believers or unbelievers.

And to the second question, Yes. Presuming the divorce to have been correctly granted by the civil court, the innocent party has both legal and moral right to marry again.

The Presbytery of South Alabama hereby respectfully overtures the General Assembly to meet in New Orleans, May, 1898, to consider the propriety of requiring the salaries of all ordained missionaries, secretaries and professors to be reported in the presbyterial statistical tables, just as are the salaries of pastors and stated supplies.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly decline the overture.

From Orange Presbytery to the General Assembly:

Believing that Jesus Christ in the appointment of the sacrament of the Lord's supper as a memorial of himself and of his death, and as a communion with himself and with his people, intended that the supper be observed often, as a precious means of grace; and believing that the apostolic church, by its practice and usage in observing the supper, established no inviolable programme for the church in all ages, yet that they, taught of the Spirit, possessed and interpreted by their usage the mind of Christ as encouraging frequent partakings of the supper,—

Therefore the Presbytery of Orange hereby overtures the General Assembly in session in New Orleans, La., to prepare and to send down a pastoral letter to the churches, calling the attention to the importance and to the benefits of the sacrament, urging our ministers to instruct their congregations upon the duty and the privilege of coming to the Lord's table, and recommending our churches to observe the sacrament often, leaving it to the session of each church to decide how frequently it will be convenient and profitable for their people to keep the communion.

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative, no action being necessary, as the session has all necessary discretion.

The Presbytery of East Hanover begs the Assembly to take steps to have the baptismal formula, found in Chap. IX., Sec. 6, of Directory of Worship, restored to its original form—"I baptize thee in the name"—instead of "into the name," etc., that this formula may be in harmony with all other parts of our standards in which the sentence occurs. The Presbytery begs the Assembly to propose to the Presbyteries that they consent to this change.

Answer: Resolved, That the petition of the overture from East Hanover Presbytery, asking that the baptismal formula be restored to its original form, be granted, and that the Presbyteries be overtured asking their advice and consent to the restoration of the original form as found in the old Directory.

The Presbytery of East Hanover overtures the General Assembly, proposing a change in the Directory for Worship, Section 6, on the subject of Christian Giving, which is part of Chapter VI., entitled "Of the Preaching of the Word," and asks that an ad interim committee be appointed with instructions to enlarge said paragraph, with a view to magnifying the duty of worshipping the Lord with our substance, and that the committee report the enlarged paragraph as a distinct chapter on Christian Giving, to be proposed to the Presbyteries as an amendment to the Directory for Worship.

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

The Presbytery of Albemarle respectfully overtures the General Assembly to instruct the Assembly's Executive Committees to look well into the matter of salaries paid to the Secretaries of Home and Foreign Missions, and to see to it that too large a proportion of the funds raised for these causes be not paid for salaries.

Answer: We recommend that no action is necessary on the part of the Assembly.

The East Hanover Presbytery respectfully overtures the General Assembly at New Orleans to take the necessary steps to amend the Book of Church Order, Section VI., Paragraph 184, after the words "with the reasons therefor," by the addition of the following words: "Provided that no candidate in extraordinary cases shall be licensed except at a regular meeting of Presbytery and with the concurrence of three-fourths of the members present."

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

Presbytery of Dallas respectfully overtures the General Assembly to recommend and send down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent the following amendments to the Book of Church Order, viz.: Form of Government, Chapter VI., Section V., Article VI., Paragraph 121, change the phrases, "presiding minister," "minister who presides," and "minister presiding," to presiding member, member who presides, and member presiding; so that this paragraph will be consistent with Paragraph 119, where the phrase "member appointed to preside" occurs, and also consistent with the principle that an elder may be moderator of the higher courts of our church, and may take part in the installation of a minister.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly answer this overture in the negative.

The Assembly received with thanks an invitation to an excursion on the Mississippi River to-morrow afternoon, and resolved to extend to-morrow's recess from 1 P. M. to 8 P. M., that the members of the body may avail themselves of this courtesy.

The Assembly had recess until two o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

Adopted.

It was made the first order of the day, after the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries; the second order to hear the report of the Special Committee on the Education of the Young; and the third order to hear the report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The following paper touching Dr. Chester's visit to our missions beyond the Pacific was adopted:

The General Assembly would express its appreciation of the successful visit of our Secretary of Foreign Missions to the several fields in which our missions are established, of which we have heard report to-day, and would return our thanks to those individuals who, in the providence of God, made it possible for him to make this tour of inspection.

The Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr presented a paper exhorting the confining of the pulpit to the proclamation of the gospel, and cautioning against disregard of the Lord's day. The paper was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

In view of the fact that the government of the United States is now engaged in a war, which naturally creates excitement, and more or less tension of anxiety, from time to time, with reference to the results of battles on land and sea, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States would call the attention of all our ministers to the historic position of the church on all such matters; that while ministers and people, in public and private, should pray for our rulers, and for the officers and men of the army and navy, and that peace with honor may be soon established, yet it is the duty of ministers to proclaim from their pulpits at all times nothing but "the glorious gospel of the blessed God," according to the church's commission from her sovereign Head, Jesus Christ the Lord.

We urge also upon all our people that they abstain on Sabbath from such reading and conversation as may be inconsistent with the holy resting of the Lord's day, devoting its sacred hours wholly "to the public and private exercises of God's worship, except so much as is to be taken up in the works of necessity and mercy."

We recommend that this action of the General Assembly be read from all our pulpits at as early a day as possible.

The order of the day having arrived, it was ordered that the next Assembly meet in the First Presbyterian Church in Richmond, Va.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

The Presbytery of Suwanee respectfully overtures the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at New Orleans, La.,—

1. To change Book of Order, Chapter V., Section VII., "Of Ecclesiastical Commissions," Par. 93, II., at the words, "The commission for the ordination of a minister shall consist," etc., so as to read: "A commission shall consist of a quorum of the court. In case of ordination of a minister, the Presbytery itself shall conduct the previous examination."

2. To change Book of Order, Chapter VI., Section V., "Of the Ordination of Ministers and the Formation and Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation," Par. 128, XIII., so as to conform to the common usage of the church in such cases, and to read as follows: "When any minister shall tender the resignation of his pastoral charge to his Presbytery, the Presbytery shall cite the church, having been previously notified by him of his intention to resign, by its commissioners appointed for the purpose, to show cause, if any it has, why the Presbytery should not accept the resignation, etc."

3. To amend Rules of Discipline, Chapter XV., "Of Jurisdiction," Par. 278, III., by adding the clause: "The session dismissing shall notify the session of the church to which dismissed of such dismission, and when such member is received, session receiving shall notify session dismissing of such reception."

Answer: We recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

The Presbytery of Central Texas respectfully overtures the General Assembly to decide whether or not (1) a ruling elder can constitutionally charge a pastor or the people in the installation service of a pastor, and (2) if not, what is the duty of a ruling elder as appointed on such commission?

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly reply that an elder may deliver the charge.

The undersigned would respectfully memorialize the General Assembly, now in session at New Orleans, suggesting that, as our Assembly is embarrassed by having so small a relief fund for the relief of invalid ministers, etc., and as many of our invalid ministers and families of deceased ministers must have been very much embarrassed on account of the small appropriations made to them, that our Assembly overture the Presbyteries, requesting that our ministers agree to make a special contribution to this fund at the rate of two per cent. of their salaries per annum. I learn that the Methodist Church in Canada gives a pension to its invalid ministers, and that it is raised partly by an assessment of three per cent. on the salaries of their ministers. The undersigned would respectfully request the Assembly to consider the advisability of taking some such measure as is suggested in this memorial.

S. F. TENNEY.

Answer: We recommend that the memorial be answered in the negative.

The Presbytery of Brazos overtures the General Assembly to meet in New Orleans, May 19, 1898, to make a deliverance in answer to the question, Whether it is agreeable to Presbyterian order to hold an entertainment in a church building, either formally dedicated or not, to which an admission fee is charged?

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly answer that, according to the law of our church, the affairs of the local church are under the control and direction of the session of the church.

The Presbytery of Brazos overtures the General Assembly to convene in New Orleans, May 19, 1898, to give a deliverance upon Paragraph 119, Section 2, Book of Church Order, relative to the meaning of the words, "system of doctrine." It wishes to know whether a minister or officer can accept the standards as a whole without subscribing to each particular doctrine therein.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly give answer as follows: First, The words "system of doctrine" as applied to the whole body of truth contained in the Confession of Faith, being not ambiguous, but sufficiently definite and plain, the Assembly considers it unnecessary, and therefore declines to give any further definition. Second, The use of the words "system of doctrine" in the terms of subscription preclude the idea of the necessary acceptance of every statement in the standards by the subscribers, but involves the acceptance of so much as is vital to the system as a whole. Differences of opinion as to whether any divergences are or are not vital to the system, when of sufficient importance, should be determined judicially by the proper ecclesiastical courts.

The Presbytery of Norfolk would respectfully overture the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at New Orleans, as follows: That the Assembly unite the Committees of Education and Publication in one committee, with one Secretary, the said Committee and Secretary to be located at Richmond, Va.; and, further, that the Assembly order such other measures as will effectively reduce the expense of administering the funds of the church, to the end that the offerings of the people may be more nearly used for the objects for which they are given.

Answer: We recommend that the Assembly answer this overture in the negative.

The Rev. G. W. Finley, D. D., for himself and others, gave notice of protest against the decision of the Assembly that a ruling elder may deliver one of the charges at the installation of a pastor.

The following fraternal message was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and was referred for response to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

MARSHALL, MO., May 23, 1898.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, New Orleans, La.:

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church extends fraternal greetings. Read Acts xx. 32.

H. H. NORMAN, Moderator.

J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries made a report, the consideration of which was arrested by the arrival of the hour for adjournment.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. W. M. McPheeters.

SEVENTH DAY.

MAY 26, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. Samuel Semple.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A communication from the American Bible Society was read and referred to the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause.

A proffer of the privileges of the Howard Library in this city was received with thanks.

The Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee has examined carefully the fifth annual report of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., and has been greatly aided by conferences with the superintendent and with Dr. Kerr, a member of the Board of Trustees, and with others.

From information received from these sources the committee is enabled to report that the instructions given to the Board of Trustees by the last Assembly have been carried out. All connection between the Fredericksburg College and the Home and Training School has been severed, so that the Assembly has been entirely relieved from responsibility for the conduct and support of the college. The property known as "the college buildings and grounds" has been sold for the amount of indebtedness upon it, the Board of Trustees reserving the right of free college tuition for as many as twenty-four orphans for ten years.

The collection authorized by the last Assembly was taken in only two hundred and eighty-five churches. This collection, together with the contributions of forty-three individuals, amounted to $3,415, which amount sufficed to pay about twenty per cent. of the old accounts which had accumulated under the former management of the institution. The cost of supporting the Home and Training School has been reduced to the lowest point consistent with the proper care of the children gathered in it. The present superintendent and treasurer, Mr. S. W. Somerville, is to be heartily commended for his efficient management, whereby all the current expenses of the year have been met, about $1,000 of interest and discounts paid, and the outstanding indebtedness greatly reduced.

Steps have been taken by the Board of Trustees to prevent any increase of debt on account of current expenses of the Home, and we have definite assurance from members of the board that no debts shall be incurred.

In the Home there have been thirty-five students. Five of these have had school privileges only, seven have been provided with lodging and tuition, two have been employed in the elementary school, and the remaining twenty-one have had all the privileges of the Home.

While much has been accomplished by the prudent and economical use of the funds received by the treasurer during the year, still the financial condition of the institution is deplorable. Its real and personal property has an estimated value of $10,200, and its outstanding obligations, consisting of bonds, notes and accounts, amount to $14,260.

The principal sources of income are from scholarships and the gifts of individuals. These will, doubtless, within a few years be sufficient, not only to defray the expenses, but also to permit the much needed increase of the facilities of the Home and enlargement of its benefactions. But for the present, in order to supplement the income, we recommend that a collection be taken in all our churches on the last Sabbath of next December.

In order that the Home may be freed from debt, which so greatly hampers its usefulness and threatens its existence, we recommend that the Board of Trustees be authorized to employ some capable man to undertake, as soon as possible, to raise the money to liquidate the debt.

In view of the meagre equipment of the training school for women missionaries, and because there is no urgent demand for it, we recommend that the training school for women missionaries be discontinued.

W. D. HEDLESTON, Chairman.

The Assembly entered upon the consideration seriatim of the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Pending this business the Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported recommending the following as a response to the greeting of the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly, which recommendation was adopted:

To the Hon. H. H. Norman, Moderator of Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly, Marshall, Mo.:

We welcome your fraternal message, cordially reciprocating the sentiments so kindly expressed, and do invoke upon your body and your church the blessing of God.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

According to previous order, the Assembly met in the interest of Colored Evangelization, the Rev. D. A. Planck occupying the chair by request of the Moderator.

The report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization was read and received, and addresses were made by the Revs. R. H. Alston (colored), E. W. Williams (colored), W. S. Jacobs, T. H. Rice, and A. L. Phillips, D. D. A collection, amounting to $66.22, was taken for this cause.

The consideration of the Standing Committee's report was made the first order of the day for to-morrow.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

EIGHTH DAY.

MAY 27, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. J. N. H. Summerell.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Rev. Dr. J. R. Wilson tendered his resignation as Stated Clerk and Treasurer. The resignation was accepted, and the following paper adopted:

> The Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, having tendered his resignation of the office which he has held for thirty-three years, the Assembly feels constrained to release him from the cares of the position which he has filled for this long period with faithfulness and distinguished success, and would record our appreciation of his services, expressing the thanks of the church to her loyal servant, and invoking upon him during all the remaining years of his life the blessing of Almighty God.

It was made the order of the day for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to elect a Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the Assembly.

The Committee on the Narrative presented a report, which was read and put upon the docket.

Adopted.

The Committee on the Sabbath made a report, which was read and docketed.

The Committee on Sabbath-Schools and Young People's Societies presented a report, which was read, and the consideration of it made the order of the day for this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence beg to report that they have read the letter from the Evangelical Synod of Greece, and recommend the adoption of the following reply to be forwarded to the Greek Synod:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., U. S. A., May 27, 1898.

To the Synod of the Greek Evangelical Church:

BELOVED BRETHREN,—We are glad to acknowledge the receipt of your very fraternal letter thanking the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for the transfer to your body of the title to the mission property at Salonica, and also expressing grateful appreciation of all work heretofore done by us for the cause of evangelical religion among the Greeks. We will also express our great gratification at the report given in your letter, indicating good progress in your work of building up the church of God in the kingdom of Greece and in the Turkish empire. We wish you heartily God-speed, and do pray that Christ, the great Head of the church, may crown all your labors with abundant success.

Assuring you of our continued interest in the Synod of the Evangelical Church of Greece, we are your brethren in the Lord, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. E. M. GREEN, Moderator.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to which was referred the letter of the Rev. A. Demorest, D. D., representing the Reformed Church in America, recommend that the General Assembly record its high appreciation of this fraternal message so happily expressed, and that the Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., Moderator, be appointed to make a suitable reply, conveying to the General Synod our Christian salutations and best wishes for the prosperity and peace of that church, so nearly akin to our own in government and theology, intimating also our pleasure at the correspondence at present being conducted between the Reformed Church and one of our executive committees with reference to co-operation in a particular branch of our work, and expressing the hope that this correspondence may be a step towards a nearer approach of their church and our own. The Moderator is directed to embody in his letter this action of the Assembly.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence report that a letter has been placed in their hands from George L. Alrich and William T. Way, under address of 923 Gibson street, Scranton, Pa., informing our Assembly that they had been appointed to visit us and present the Christian salutations of the Reformed Episcopal Church, of which they are the authorized representatives. In their very fraternal communication they express regret at not being able to be present at our meeting, and so they send a brotherly epistle, wishing us God-speed in our work.

We recommend that the Rev. E. H. Harding, D. D., of Farmville, Va., and the Rev. W. S. Lacy, D. D., of Norfolk, Va., be appointed to make a suitable reply.

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence, to which was referred the letter of the Rev. William Caven, D. D., chairman, and the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D. D., Secretary, of the Western Section of the "Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World, holding the Presbyterian System," which letter stated that our apportionment for the expenses of the Alliance is not paid, do recommend:

1. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be directed to pay what is due from our Assembly out of the funds in the treasury.

2. That the members of the American Section from our church endeavor to have the expenses of the American Section reduced, and a corresponding reduction obtained in the apportionment of our Assembly.

3. That the Rev. G. W. Finley, D. D., the Rev. F. H. Johnston, D. D., and Elder W. M. Graybill be appointed a committee of correspondence with the American Section, and that they be instructed to notify the delegates of their appointment to attend the approaching meeting in Washington, D. C., September 27, 1898. Also, that they be authorized to fill vacancies in the list of delegates.

4. We also propose the following named ministers and ruling elders as delegates to the next meeting of the Council in Washington, D. C.:

Synod of Alabama.—Principal, Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D.; Alternate, Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D. Principal, Rev. D. A. Planck; Alternate, Rev. W. H. Richardson.

The same committee made a report on the overture touching union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, which report went to the docket.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Arkansas reported that the records were not present. The committee was discharged.

ERRATUM.

Through an oversight of the author of the report on the Alliance of Reformed Churches, the date of the next Council is given as 1898, whereas, it should read 1899.

Recommendations.

1. This Assembly would renew previous recommendations to Presbyteries to appoint committees on Bible cause, where such committees do not exist, and urge that they see that this cause is presented to the churches within their bounds, and that such committees work with the Bible Society's auxiliaries, which will need special attention now, owing to the society having dispensed with superintendents.

2. This committee believes that our church members are in need of more love for the blessed word of God, and it believes that love for the word always grows by its study, and resultantly greater love for the Bible cause would be shown. Your committee would urge, therefore, and recommend, that our pastors endeavor to inaugurate some systematic line of Bible study among their members, especially among the officers and others whose influences are likely to be in touch with the young; and we would recommend that such line of study be more especially applied to the abundant references in the Scriptures authorizing the Catechisms of our church.

Adopted.

The report of the committee to which was referred the overture from the Presbytery of St. Louis, asking that The Missionary be used to further the interests of Home Missions, was put upon the docket.

The Auditing Committee made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence reports that seventy-one Presbyteries have reported to the Assembly—a gain of two over those reporting last year. And not only is there improvement as to the number of Presbyteries reporting, but a decided improvement as to the character of these reports. The Assembly's Standing Committee of last year reported that some of the presbyterial reports had no signatures, and some did not even give the name of the Presbytery reporting, whilst others were mere clippings from newspapers. Your present committee takes pleasure in reporting that of the seventy-one reports placed in its hands, not one was unsigned or failed to give the name of the Presbytery reporting, or was a newspaper clipping.

But there is yet room for improvement in the character of these reports. This is evident from the fact that five Presbyteries, viz., Mississippi, Western District, Paducah, Memphis and Nashville, do not use the blanks prescribed by the General Assembly, and as a consequence, all these reports are more or less imperfect.

1701	churches	gave to	Foreign Missions, ...	$105,935 32
1455	“	“	Assembly's Home Missions, ...	27,542 21
1770	“	“	Local Home Missions, ...	76,430 22
1075	“	“	Colored Evangelistic Fund, ...	11,526 52

Respectfully submitted, Wm. E. McIlwaine, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on the Narrative was taken from the docket, adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Auditing Committee's report was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly:

Your Auditing Committee beg leave to report upon the following matter submitted to them:

The report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, as audited by their own Auditing Committee, is found to be correct. There is, however, some explanation needed of the charge of five per cent. deducted from bequests and legacies and credited to account of contingent fund. Some of these gifts seem to require nothing beyond turning them over to another committee of our church. While disclaiming the least reflection upon any one, your committee would state that they find no authority for such deduction beyond expense actually paid in each case.

The reports of committees appointed by the General Assembly to audit reports of the Treasurers of the Executive Committees of Education, Publication, Colored Evangelization, Foreign Missions, and Home Missions, have been handed to us, each of these auditing committees certifying to the correctness of the several reports audited by them.

There is no itemized statement accompanying any of these to show in detail what the auditing committees approve, excepting in the case of the Home Mission Committee, which furnished a statement of accounts in detail; and therefore your committee can go no further than accept as correct those statements of approval. It certainly would be better to have a detailed statement of account to accompany each approval of the respective auditing committees of the General Assembly, and your committee would recommend this as a rule to be observed in the future.

In most cases the several auditing committees fail to certify that disbursements were made upon proper authority. This is the main duty resting upon these committees, and we recommend that the auditing committees be so instructed by the General Assembly.

The term of office of the following Trustees, viz., Dr. J. B. Shearer, D. W. Oates, and John R. Pharr, expires with the meeting of this Assembly. Your committee respectfully suggest the appointment of D. W. Oates, John R. Pharr, and J. R. Howerton for the term of three years, and that J. W. Stagg be appointed to fill the vacancy occasionedby the death of John E. Oates.

Your committee further recommend the appointment of the following auditing committees for the ensuing year:

1. For Executive Committee of Home Missions.—W. F. Parkhurst, H. T. Phillips, W. R. Hoyt.
2. For Executive Committee of Publication.—H. Swineford, B. C. Wherry, Edwin Pleasants.
3. For Executive Committee of Education.—H. M. Neely, A. B. Hill, George Mason.
4. For Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization.—W. E. Bingham, W. B. Oliver, W. C. Harris.
5. For Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.—George G. O'Bryan, R. S. Hollins, Sr., R. E. Magill.

The Auditing Committee have not examined the books, accounts and vouchers of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the General Assembly, because up to this time no report could be procured from the Treasurer on account of his sickness.

The bid of Wilson & Wyatt, Clarksville, Tenn., for printing of the Minutes of the General Assembly, we recommend be referred to the Committee of Publication. (See Digest, p. 79, paragraph 177.)

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. C. WHITNER, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

The special committee appointed to report on the overtures from the Presbyteries of Norfolk, East Hanover and Greenbrier, with reference to Christian education in schools under presbyterial control, would respectfully report recommending the appointment of an ad interim committee in pursuance of the designs indicated in the overtures. Should this recommendation be approved by the Assembly, we suggest the appointment of the following committee: Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., chairman, Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., Prof. John E. Wharton, Prof. R. B. Fulton, Prof. A. E. Spencer.

The special committee appointed to tabulate the action of the Presbyteries on the overture sent down by the last Assembly made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The ad interim Committee on Hymnology was authorized to fill vacancies in said committee.

The Rev. J. W. Montgomery presented a protest, which was admitted to record without answer, and is as follows:

The Presbytery of Brazos overtures the General Assembly to meet in New Orleans May 19, 1898, to make a deliverance in answer to the question, viz.: Whether it is agreeable to Presbyterian order to hold an entertainment in a church building, either formally dedicated or not.

The Assembly answers that according to the law of our church the affairs of the local church are under the direction and control of the session of the church.

We protest (1), Because to your protestants this answer is only partly true, as courts of review and control above the church session not only have adopted the Directory of Worship and the Confession of Faith, but are set for instruction and advice and control, which instruction and advice the Assembly fails to give.

(2), Because this reply seems to your protestants to evade the two principles embodied in the overture, viz., (a), The sacredness or not of our church buildings; and (b), The ordinance of communicating or worshipping the God of all grace with our substance, and not belonging, therefore, to Presbyterian order, is included in the overture; that communicating belongs to Presbyterian order is further demonstrated by the exposition of the second and third commandments, relating to purity of worship (see Confession); and in these the singleness of motive suggests the Assembly ought to have answered the overture in the negative.

(3), Because this ordinance is in a number of our churches violated by an appeal to tastes and pleasures non-spiritual, and when held there is a desecration of the house of God at the same time.

(4), Because by not answering this overture in the negative the Assembly is not only indirectly sanctioning these practices, but giving occasion of stumbling to many.

J. W. MONTGOMERY,
FRED. S. ROBBINS,

The following paper, calling for the issue of a pastoral letter, was adopted:

Whereas error in many subtle forms exists around us, and may invade the church, to the injury of her doctrine, polity, spirituality and morality; and

Whereas the General Assembly is to "recommend measures for the promotion of charity, truth and holiness through all the churches under its care," therefore be it

Resolved 1. That a committee is hereby appointed to address a pastoral letter to our ministers and people, affectionately warning them against all errors, and urging them to steadfastness in "the faith once delivered to the saints."

2. That this committee shall consist of Rev. Dr. G. B. Strickler, chairman, Rev. Dr. B. M. Palmer and Rev. Dr. J. B. Stratton.

3. That all the papers of our church are hereby requested to publish said letter, and all our pastors are requested to read it to their congregations as soon as practicable after its publication; and where churches are vacant, that the elders be requested to read it to them.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was resumed. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 2 P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The report on Theological Seminaries was further considered, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries have had referred to them:

1. The reports of the several boards governing Union, Columbia and Louisville Seminaries, and the Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University.

2. The papers in what was the complaint of the Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D., against the Synod of South Carolina.

3. The report of the ad interim committee on the establishment of a summer school for Bible study.

Upon these papers they submit the following report:

I. ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

All the reports from the theological seminaries are of an encouraging character. There has been an excellent attendance of students during the year, amounting in all to one hundred and sixty-five, forty-one of whom have completed the course of instruction necessary for entrance upon the ministry. Good work, good conduct and good health have characterized their labors for the year.

Only two changes in the faculties of these institutions have been reported. The Rev. J. D. Tadlock, D. D., and the Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D., will discontinue their labors in Columbia Seminary, while the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., has been elected to succeed Dr. Tadlock, and the Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D., and the Rev. S. C. Byrd have been added to the corps of instructors as lecturers.

All of the seminaries, except the one at Columbia, report improvements in their buildings, and Columbia Seminary reports that its buildings and grounds are in excellent condition and well cared for, and that friends are raising funds for adding a new and greatly needed building to be used as a mess hall. Within a few months, Union Seminary will probably remove from Hampden-Sidney, Va., to its handsome new home in Richmond, Va.

In some cases, additions have been made to the libraries by gifts of books, and whenever it has been necessary to make any appeal to the churches for aid in the financial support of these institutions, the churches have responded in a praiseworthy spirit of devotion and liberality.

At both Columbia and Louisville, the question of a more judicious expenditure of funds for beneficiary education is being studied in a prudent manner.

Your committee recommends that the Assembly express:

1. Its regret that the church can no longer have the benefit of the valuable services at Columbia Seminary hitherto so faithfully rendered by the Rev. J. D. Tadlock, D. D., and the Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D., and so gratefully appreciated by the church.

2. Its approval of the election of the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., to fill the vacancy caused by the Rev. Dr. Tadlock's retirement, and of the arrangement by which the Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D., and the Rev. S. C. Byrd have been secured to deliver lectures at Columbia Seminary.

3. Its unqualified commendation of all these seminaries to the patronage, beneficence and affection of our people.

4. Its gratitude to the Head of the church for his gracious care of these beloved institutions and his blessing upon them during the past year.

2. On the Complaint of the Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D.

In the matter of the complaint of the Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D., against the action of the Synod of South Carolina, your committee recommends the following:

Whereas, It is provided in the constitution of the Columbia Theological Seminary that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has "the right of general supervision over the interest of this seminary," and "can advise and recommend measures for its welfare" (Constitution, sec. 1, art. 2); and,

Whereas, It is likewise provided in the same constitution that, "should the Assembly see reason, at any time, to object to any of the acts of the directors or other authorities of the institution, it shall send down in writing to the Synods its opinion in the premises, but shall have no controlling negative, nor the right to originate any measures for the management of the seminary;" and,

Whereas, The so-called age rule, section 3, art. 12, par. 33 (p. 8), is deemed harmful to the seminary and to the church and its ministry, and seems plainly to be founded on the false principle that a definite age may be set as a limitation of service in said seminary of the church, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly advises and would approve the action were the Synods in charge of this seminary to do away with said age rule (Constitution, par. 33).

2. In earnestly and affectionately giving this advice, the General Assembly would, in doing so, make mention, as was done by the Synods of Georgia and Alabama in their actions for the repeal of the aforesaid age rule of the understood fact that par. 15 (art. 12, sec. 2) of the "Plan of Government," would still remain in full force as "a sufficient provision of authority for the Board of Directors in the matter of retiring professors."

3. That, as is provided in the constitution of the seminary, the clerk of this General Assembly is directed to send down in writing this advisory deliverance to the four charter Synods, with the assurance that it is expressive of our sincere, fraternal and abiding interest in the welfare of this venerable institution of our church, for whose prosperity and extended usefulness we will ever pray.

3. On the Summer School.

Your committee recommends the adoption of the plan for a summer school of Bible study proposed by the ad interim committee with the following changes, viz.: that the sixth paragraph of their report be stricken out, and the seventh paragraph be amended by adding the words, "travelling expenses," after the words, "such as," in the second line.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee,

A. M. FRASER, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Assembly's Summer School as thus amended and adopted is as follows:

The committee appointed by the General Assembly (Minutes, 1897, p. 50) to select a place for holding a summer school for Bible study, and to arrange a plan for such a school, would respectfully recommend the following action:

1. That such a school be organized at Monteagle, Tenn., beginning, if possible, in the summer of 1898.
2. That the school be held in the month of August, from the first to the thirty-first inclusive, with work on all the days except Sundays.
3. That all the professors in our theological seminaries be ex-officio teachers in the school, together with such other ministers and ruling elders of special qualifications as the Executive Committee hereinafter provided for shall deem it advisable to associate with them.
4. That an executive committee be appointed, consisting of the Rev. George Summey, D. D., the Rev. Francis R. Beattie, D. D., the Rev. W. M. McPheeters, D. D., and the Rev. T. C. Johnson, D. D., and that this committee be charged with the duty of organizing the courses of study, securing a proper rotation of teachers, preparing programmes, advertising, receiving and disbursing all money, etc.
5. That the instructors and lecturers be requested to give their services without charge, their travelling expenses, however, to be paid.
6. That in order to meet the incidental expenses above referred to (see recommendation 4), such as travelling expenses, correspondence, advertising, circulars, blackboards, etc., a small fee be required of each student, the exact amount of which shall be fixed by the Executive Committee.
7. That the Executive Committee be requested to provide for two lines of work for ministers: the one distinctly technical and scholarly, for the benefit of those who wish to pursue any special study, with the latest results of scholarship brought to bear upon it; the other distinctly practical, for the benefit of busy pastors who are desirous of becoming more effective in pulpit and pastoral work.
8. That the Executive Committee be requested to make provision also for meeting the wants of ruling elders, deacons and Sabbath-school workers by securing suitable persons to prepare and deliver addresses, and to give special instruction along these lines.
9. That in case a sufficient number of students to justify the holding of the school shall not have sent in their names by the middle of July, the Executive Committee is hereby authorized to announce that the school will not be held this year.

Respectfully submitted,
W. W. MOORE, Chairman.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the election of a Stated Clerk and Treasurer, and the Rev. W. A. Alexander, D. D., was chosen to fill these offices.

The report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization was taken up, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly is aware that the status of the work committed to us presents, at this time, unusual complications—a condition of affairs that your committee approached with the conviction of special responsibility.

Having carefully reviewed the records of the Executive Committee, and finding them neatly and carefully kept, recommend their approval, except that on pages 149 and 155, blanks occur as to the amount of receipts and disbursements of certain funds, and that on pages 158 and 159, discrepancies appear in connection with the disbursements of funds that we are unable to harmonize in the absence of any detailed statement of the treasurer.

We were impressed with the difficulties involved in the work of this committee, and commend the zeal and devotedness with which they have administered the affairs of this important trust.

We recommend the approval of the purchase of the Cochrane homestead as the permanent quarters of the Stillman Institute, and express the hope that arrangements may be made at once for thorough academic as well as theological training.

We note with special approbation the purpose of the Executive Committee to meet as speedily as possible the pecuniary obligations assumed in all contracts hitherto made with laborers in the field.

AD INTERIM COMMITTEE.

Your committee have carefully noted the report of the ad interim committee, Rev. G. T. Goetchius, D. D., chairman, which represented the Assembly at the Colored Presbyterian Convention held at Birmingham, Ala., and recommend that the Assembly express its high appreciation of the faithful and efficient services rendered by them on that occasion.

THE INDEPENDENT COLORED SYNOD.

The Assembly has been officially notified that, at a convention held in the Berean Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, May 19, 1898, in pursuance of an order taken by the Birmingham conference, an independent organization was effected, denominated, "The Synod of the Colored Presbyterian Church of the United States and Canada."

This result is in accord with the long cherished plans of the Assembly, and as an ecclesiastical body of like faith and order with our own, we welcome it to the relation of fraternal correspondence with this Assembly, and pray upon it the special favor of our Lord.

In view of the fact that the Assembly encouraged this movement by promises of material assistance, be it hereby—

"Resolved, That the Assembly engage to aid said Synod with all moral and financial support within its power."

A communication to the Assembly from certain representatives in the Convention of Colored Presbyters, expressing dissent from the action of the convention establishing an independent Synod, has been placed in our hands.

Concerning this dissent we would acknowledge the right of these brethren in the exercise of their own opinions as to the best time for taking this step, and commend their fidelity to their convictions.

But the Assembly hereby expresses its earnest hope that all difficulties in the way of united action in the movement of independent existence may be overcome by further careful consideration, and to this end directs the Secretary of Colored Evangelization to visit the Presbyteries of Central Alabama and Ethel on the occasion of their Spring Meetings, and lay this action before them for further consideration, assuring them in the meantime of the same care and support hitherto accorded.

FERGUSON-WILLIAMS COLLEGE.

That the matter of the Ferguson-Williams College be referred to the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization, to act according to its discretion, and with power to act.

OVERTURES.

The following overtures have been placed in our hands.

An overture from the Synod of Florida, asking that the "entire work for the colored people be turned over to the General Assembly in the United States of America," with the promises of liberal coöperation; one from the Presbytery of Florida dissenting from Synod's action; one from the Presbytery of Arkansas suggesting coöperation with the Northern Presbyterian Church; one from East Hanover Presbytery touching the reorganization of Stillman Institute, and more vigorous prosecution of the whole work; and one from Eastern Texas relative to unpaid appropriations to men laboring in the Synod of Texas.

Your committee recommend that various specifications already passed upon in this report be regarded as sufficient answer to these several overtures.

SPECIAL RECOMMENDATIONS.

In view of the fact that the formal relations of this work have been specially modified, in view of the steady progress being made, and the yet more urgent reasons for its earnest prosecution, we reccommend:

1, That the sum of $15,000 be asked for the service of the committee for the ensuing year, to be distributed and raised by the presbyterial committees in the usual way.

2, That all our ministers be solemnly enjoined to preach boldly the claims of this work in connection with the annual collection.

3, That the presbyterial committees give special attention to the matter of evangelistic services for the colored people within their bounds, engaging their own ministers as far as possible in this service; and that, to this end, every Presbytery that has not as yet done so be required to create a special standing committee on this subject.

4, We note that the Synods of North and South Carolina and Mississippi "have been doing their own work" in this matter. We would respectfully suggest that, as the time has come for a more aggressive and systematic work, full coöperation through the regular channels appointed therefor be urged upon all the Synods and Presbyteries of this Assembly.

5, We recommend the appointment of a treasurer, to be located at Tuskaloosa, Ala., to whom all funds collected for this cause shall be sent.

6, That the matter of expense incident to the meeting of the highest court of the Independent Colored Synod be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

REV. A. L. PHILLIPS, D. D.

In view of the voluntary retirement of Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., from the secretaryship of this committee, be it—

Resolved, That in Dr. Phillips the Assembly has had a faithful exponent of the spirit and interest of our church in this work.

That the Assembly record its appreciation of the faithful, earnest and judicious manner in which he has prosecuted the work, culminating as it has in the organization of an Independent Colored Presbyterian Church—a result which has long been the hope of the Assembly.

REV. R. B. MCALPINE.

The Assembly would likewise express its hearty appreciation of the services of Rev. R. B. McAlpine, for so many years professor in Stillman Institute.

In his retirement the institution suffers the loss of a skilful, devoted and self-sacrificing official, but is cheered with the hope of an abundant harvest from the good seed he has sown.

REV. O. B. WILSON.

We would also make special mention of the self-sacrificing spirit exhibited by Rev. O. B. Wilson, in giving all his time and energy to the cause of Colored Evangelization without any compensation whatever. Such generosity and Christian zeal merit the hearty thanks of the Assembly.

NOMINATIONS.

Your committee would nominate the following persons to constitute the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: E. H. Sholl, J. W. Lapsley, L. S. Handley, D. D., A. B. Curry, D. D., J. A. Bryan, J. H. Miller, R. Cecil, D. D., E. P. Davis, W. H. Verner, E. B. Nuzum, and D. C. Lilly. Rev. D. C. Lilly, Secretary of Colored Evangelization, to assume the functions of the office at such time as shall be specified by the Executive Committee.

D. A. PLANCK, Chairman.

The answer of the Assembly to the overture touching the ruling elder's delivering a charge at the installation of a pastor was reconsidered, and the following paper was substituted therefor:

Resolved, 1. That the action of this Assembly in answer to the overture of the Presbytery of Central Texas asking the Assembly to decide whether or not a ruling elder can constitutionally charge a pastor or the people in the installation of a pastor be reconsidered.

2. That in lieu of the answer proposed the Assembly does hereby recommend for adoption, and send down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent, the following amendment to Chapter VI., Section V., Par. 6, of Form of Government: Instead of the words, "after which the minister presiding, or some other appointed for the purpose, shall give a solemn charge," read, "after which the minister presiding, or some other minister appointed for the purpose, shall give a solemn charge." Then at the end of the paragraph add the sentence: "If, in the judgment of the Presbytery, it be deemed advisable, a ruling elder may be appointed to deliver the charge to the people."

The Standing Committee on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies beg leave to report that we have carefully examined all the papers that have been placed in our hands from 73 out of 77 Presbyteries. We find that there are 2,042 Sunday-schools that have sent in their reports, as compared with 2,041 last year, a gain of 1. We find that there are 19,020 officers and teachers, as against 17,534, a net gain of 1,486. We find there are 134,316 scholars, as against 133,331 last year, a net gain of 985. We find the contributions for current expenses to be $48,483, as against $45,847 last year, a net gain of $2,636. For all other objects the contributions are $32,529, as against $22,336, a net gain of $10,193. We have added to our communion 4,455, as against 4,767, a loss of 312. We recognize the necessity for more earnest prayer and labor to win our young people for Christ.

From the meagre reports we conclude that our Sunday-schools are generally under the care of our church sessions, that our ministers do not generally preach to the children as such, and that the Catechism is taught, but the "Supplemental Lesson Course" prepared by the Assembly is not in general use.

1. We recommend that parents and church sessions use such means as they may deem wise and proper to encourage the children to attend upon the preaching of the word as well as all the services of the sanctuary.

2. We recommend greater care on the part of the stated clerks of Presbyteries in the preparation of their reports.

3. We reiterate the injunction of previous Assemblies that our Sunday-schools be urged to take a collection for all the objects of benevolence in which our church is engaged.

Your committee has examined the reports from the Young People's Societies, and there is evidence of great activity and zeal on the part of many that deserves to be fostered and encouraged by our ministers and church sessions. Only fourteen Presbyteries have reported to this Assembly, and many of these reports are very imperfect and would not give any adequate idea of the work being done by our young people.

1. We recommend to our sessions and ministers the importance of giving to our young people encouragement and help in the organization of societies calculated to train and develop them in every good work; and in all cases where societies have been organized antagonistic or in any way unfriendly to our system of doctrine or government, we recommend, not the destruction of such organizations, but an earnest effort to bring them into active sympathy with the true spirit of Presbyterianism.

2. The Presbytery of Arkansas having overtured the Assembly to instruct the Executive Committee of Publication to enlarge the constitution and by-laws of the Westminster League so that a congregation of young people can be organized thereby with all the committees and officers necessary to an active and efficient society, as the present constitution is regarded as wholly inadequate, we recommend the following reply: The Assembly does not deem it wise to make any change in the form of government of the Westminster League. S. D. BOGGS, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence on the overture relating to union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to which was referred the overture from Columbia Presbytery proposing organic union with the Associate Reformed Church, report recommending that the petition of the overture asking for the appointment of a committee to confer with the Associate Reformed Church be granted.

We recommend that the Rev. F. B. Webb, D. D., Rev. M. S. Kennedy, Rev. Alexander Sprunt, and Hon. J. W. Lapsley be appointed, and that they be directed to confer with the Associate Reformed Church, proposing organic union with that church, and asking for the appointment of a committee on their part to confer with our committee. If the Associate Reformed Church agree, our committee is authorized to arrange details for a union, and report to the next General Assembly.

Our committee is directed to express to the Associate Reformed Church our most cordial, fraternal regard, and to assure them of our readiness for a union with them.

R. P. KERR, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of North Carolina reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

It was made the order of the day for 8:10 o'clock to-night to hear the report of the Committee on the Sabbath.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Auditing Committee made a supplementary report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The illness of Dr. Jos. R. Wilson, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the Assembly, prevented him from making his annual financial report. Dr. Wilson having resigned his position because of ill health, Dr. W. A. Alexander was elected his successor, but too late to prepare the financial report. Hence this matter must necessarily be passed over until the meeting of the General Assembly in 1899.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. C. WHITNER, Chairman,
D. B. MOREY,
S. W. SOMERVILLE,
JNO. J. McROBERTS.

The report on the overture touching the use of The Missionary magazine for the promotion of Home Mission interests was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

Overture from the Presbytery of St. Louis: "Is it practicable and wise that part of The Missionary magazine be given to Home Missions?" Your committees on Home and Foreign Missions, in joint session, recommend that the overture be answered in the negative.

The report of the committee to tabulate the answer of the Presbyteries to the overture sent down by the last Assembly was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly in session at Charlotte, N. C., May, 1897, received overtures from the Presbyteries of New Orleans and South Carolina, asking for certain changes in our Rules of Discipline, Chapter XIII., Section IV., specified on pages 40 and 41 of the Assembly's Minutes for 1897. The Assembly answered these overtures as follows: "We recommend that the changes asked for be made, and that this overture be sent down to the Presbyteries with the direction that the Presbyteries vote for or against the proposed changes, and report the result to the next General Assembly." Of the seventy-seven Presbyteries constituting our Assembly, forty-nine have put answers into our hands. Of this forty-nine filing answers, forty-six vote for and three, viz., Chesapeake, Lexington and Roanoke, vote against the proposed changes.

Your committee would, therefore, report the said changes in the Book of Discipline, Chapter XIII., Section IV., as adopted by a clear majority of the Presbyteries, and recommend that this Assembly do now enact the same as part of the constitution.

The Committee on Leave of Absence made a report, which was approved, and is as follows:

COMMISSIONERS GRANTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

After Tuesday—Daniel Campbell, of Florida Presbytery; William Park, of Nashville Presbytery; F. P. Stubbs, of Red River Presbytery; F. P. Venable, of Orange Presbytery. After Wednesday—Prof. C. A. Smith, of Louisiana Presbytery; J. Q. Holland, of Mecklenburg Presbytery; Dr. F. Robinson, of Mecklenburg Presbytery; John Kay, of Macon Presbytery; Judge J. W. Lapsley, of North Alabama Presbytery; S. G. Crouch, of Kanawha Presbytery. After Thursday—Dr. I. C. Morton, of Paducah Presbytery; Elder J. F. Hedger, of Lafayette Presbytery; Elder B. F. Van Meter, of West Lexington Presbytery; Elder R. P. Hawkins, of Montgomery Presbytery; Elder W. K. Thompson, of Bethel Presbytery; Elder B. F. George, of Atlanta Presbytery; Elder William Baker, of Chesapeake Presbytery; Elder J. M. Poyntz, of Transylvania Presbytery; Elder George H. Cornelson, of Charleston Presbytery; Elder J. T. Marsh, of Upper Missouri Presbytery. After 5 P. M. Friday—Rev. S. D. Boggs, of Ebenezer Presbytery; Rev. J. Alb. Wallace, D. D., of Holston Presbytery; Elder A. L. Nelson, of Lexington Presbytery.

The report of the Committee on the Sabbath was taken from the docket, considered seriatim, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Sabbath respectfully reports that the following papers have come into its hands: the report of the Permanent Committee of the Assembly, the report of the Presbytery of Lexington, a paper addressed to the Postmaster-General, urging the closing of post-offices and stopping the transmission of mail on the Sabbath, and a communication for information from the Committee on Sabbath Observance in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. The report of Lexington Presbytery would have been sent to the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath but for the lateness of its meeting, and is herein considered in connection with that committee's report.

From the reports in hand we learn that there is a growing disregard for the Sabbath day, and that this is not confined alone to the non-Christians. Some of our people seem to disregard the law and principle of the Sabbath as expressed in the Decalogue, and are governed too often by personal convenience and the interest of worldly gain and sensuous pleasure. That which fifty years ago would have shocked our moral sensibilities is now received as a necessity by many of our professed Christians.

Your Permanent Committee especially emphasizes the belief that travel and traffic are on the increase, and laments the grasping greed of great corporations that leads them to offer a premium for Sabbath desecration. It also emphasizes the ruinous effect of the Sunday newspaper. It urges us to especially guard against the increased tendencies to Sabbath desecration because of the present war with Spain. By way of encouragement we are assured that very many of our own people faithfully hold to the tradition of the fathers as to the sacredness of the Sabbath.

In the light of these reports we earnestly urge this General Assembly to give to this vital question the attention which its importance demands, not only by calling attention to the conditions and the evils which threaten, but by urging upon our people the necessity for an aggressive movement against the allied forces aiming at the destruction of our Christian Sabbath. We, therefore, recommend—

1. That this General Assembly emphasize by reaffirming its belief that the Sabbath is a perpetual binding obligation upon all men.

2. That we call upon all our people to use their utmost personal influence for the scriptural observance of the Sabbath as the Lord's day.

3. That while our ministers and elders are to be commended for their faithfulness, they are reminded of the necessity of increased diligence in opposing the tendencies toward Sabbath desecration. We advise that our ministers at an early day preach an especial sermon upon this subject, at which time they read to their congregations the report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee, together with these recommendations.

4. We commend the efforts and the literature of the American Sabbath Union to the sympathy and liberality of our people as individuals, and the following as the representatives of our church on the union committees of the various denominations in the different cities where these members reside, viz.: Rev. Dr. M. D. Hoge, of Richmond, Va.; Rev. Dr. W. S. Thompson, of Charleston, S. C.; Rev. Dr. R. Q. Mallard, of New Orleans, La.; Rev. Dr. T. D. Witherspoon, of Louisville, Ky.; Rev. Theron H. Rice, of Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. Dr. James Stacy, of Newnan, Ga., as chairman.

5. In regard to the communication addressed to the Postmaster-General, we deem it unwise and inexpedient to thus petition the civil authorities, and would rather urge our people to enforce the observance of this sacred ordinance both by precept and example.

6. That the report of the Permanent Committee be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

7. That the Rev. James Stacy, D. D., Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., Rev. Theron H. Rice and Elder John A. Barry be appointed the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath for the ensuing year.

By a rising vote the following resolutions of thanks were adopted, and ordered read from the pulpits next Sabbath:

The Assembly expresses its lively sense of the thoughtful and lavish kindness, which, like a genial atmosphere, has enveloped us on every side.

We venture to tender our gratitude especially to Rev. J. H. Nall, chairman, and the Committee of Entertainment; to the railroads, for reduced rates and other courtesies; to the Young Men's Christian Association, for tender of courtesies; to the newspapers of the city, for faithful reports of the Assembly's proceedings; to the ladies of the various churches, for their delightful midday luncheons; to the friends who devised and carried out the refreshing excursion of Thursday afternoon; and to our hosts and hostesses, for the substantial and graceful hospitality of their homes.

Nor can we refrain from a distinct acknowledgment to Dr. Palmer, in a special sense the host of the Assembly. The serene glow of his life's sunset has cast over us all its quiet and powerful spell. His kindnesses have been manifold, and best of all is Dr. Palmer himself. As we bid him good-bye, we pray that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with him always. Amen.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another Assembly, to be chosen in like manner, shall meet in the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Richmond, Va., on the third Thursday of May, 1899, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Closed with singing, and prayer by the Rev. Dr. B. M. Palmer, and the benediction by the Moderator.

ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I.—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE NARRATIVE.

Your Committee on the Narrative beg leave to make the following report to the General Assembly:

Of the seventy-seven Presbyteries, reports from seventy have been placed in the hands of your committee. From a careful examination of these various reports, we find much that calls for profound gratitude to the great Head of the church, for the past year has been one of advancement along many of the spiritual lines of work. On the whole, the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. But the sad neglect of some duties, as reported, on the part of some of our Christian people, also makes us sad, and should lead ministers and people to more earnest prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our churches.

1. In the first place, we find a diversity of answers touching the attendance upon the services of the sanctuary. In reference to the Sabbath morning service, the attendance is uniformly reported as being excellent, whereas the attendance upon the Sabbath evening and prayer-meeting services is almost uniformly reported as being remarkably small.

2. In the next place, touching the observance of family worship, with but one or two exceptions, the refrain is "sadly neglected," and the statement is sometimes made, that it seems as if family religious instruction has been committed entirely to the Sabbath-school.

3. As to the proper observance of the Lord's day, it is very gratifying to report that the desecration of the Sabbath seems to be the exception, and its observance is the rule, according to the statements made, although these reports do not specify what constitutes such observance.

4. In the next place, your committee find that the catechetical instruction of the children and youth is left to the Sabbath-school, and in some instances it is reported, not well attended to even there. The larger per centage of the narratives, however, shows that our church still emphasizes the training of our children and youth in the scriptures and catechisms of the church.

5 Again, we are pleased to report that, on the whole, the narratives from the different Presbyteries represent the churches within their bounds as being faithful in worshipping the Lord with their substance. Their ministers generally have been paid their salaries regularly and fully, and our people have responded with liberality, in many instances, to the causes of Home and Foreign Missions.

6. It is with great gratification that we are impressed with the statements, in many of the Presbyterial reports, to the effect that "worldly conformity" does not prevail to any alarming extent among our members. There is nothing that will contribute more to make our churches each a mighty power in the communities where they are planted than the non-conformity of their members to this world's sinful amusements. There must be separation from the world on the part of the church's membership ere there can be an acceptable service for God.

After summing up, then, what has been stated, it will be seen that, whilst there has not been any remarkable wide-spread and powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit, nevertheless, the Spirit's special influence and power has been experienced throughout the bounds of our beloved Zion. The missionary spirit is evidently increasing, both as to home and foreign work. The spirit of worldliness is reported as diminishing, and although family religion is sadly neglected, our youth are still being trained up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord" by earnest and consecrated Sabbath-school teachers. So we have reason to "thank God, take courage, and go forward" "in the name of our God, setting up our banners," and always exclaim, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us; but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake."

Respectfully submitted,

F. B. WEBB, Chairman.

II. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

According to the advice of the General Assembly, and the instruction of the Executive Committee, the Secretary visited the Missions of China, Japan and Korea, leaving home on July 26th, and returning on December 28th.

We are thankful to report that notwithstanding the disturbed condition of some of the countries where our missions are working, none of them have been seriously disturbed in their work. Excepting two or three cases of persecution in Northern Brazil, it will be seen from the annexed historical reports that, with all the missions, the year has been one of peace prosperity and progress. The number of communicants reported as added this year is 523. The actual number is larger than this, the reports from some stations not having been received. Wide open doors and great opportunities have been set before us everywhere, which the committee has been able to meet with a very inadequate supply of reinforcements to the missions. This must continue to be the case until the church shall largely augment the amount of resources hitherto placed in our hands.

FINANCE.

The receipts for the year from all sources were $146,478.27, including $407.80, funds returned. Net receipts, $146,070.47. This is $2,328.68 more than the receipts for last year, and $2,296.45 more than the largest amount received in any previous year. The balance on hand April 1, 1897, General Fund, was $524.41. The disbursements for the year, excluding repayments of borrowed funds etc., were $146,841.51. We, therefore, close the year without debt, and with a balance in the treasury of $161.17 belonging to the General Fund. We are the more gratified and thankful to be able to make this statement, because after the heavy falling off in the receipts from our October collection, the closing of the fiscal year with a large deficit seemed at one time to be inevitable. It was found necessary to make several urgent special appeals.

SPECIAL TREASURERS FOR BENEVOLENT FUNDS.

The committee would call attention to the fact that the receipts for the month of March were over $19,000, most of which were funds which had been held back by church or presbyterial treasurers for a greater or less time, and which, if they had been promptly forwarded, might have saved the necessity of borrowing money by the committee, and by our missionaries in heathen lands. This leads us to suggest that if our churches would appoint special treasurers for benevolent funds, so that they might be kept separate from collections for general church expenses, there would be much more likelihood that the gifts of our people would be promptly forwarded to their destination. Some churches have adopted this plan, with happy results. Therefore, we again ask the Assembly to recommend this plan to all the churches.

Owing to the time consumed in the transmission of funds it has been the custom every year to send forward before the close of the fiscal year a remittance for the work of the following year. The amount of this advance payment last year was $12,000.00. The amount advanced this year was $5,129.06. The difference between these amounts, $6,870.94, added to the disbursements for the year. $146,841.51, equal $153,712.45, is the amount actually expended on the year's work. This amount exceeds the net receipts for the year by $7,641.98.

"THE MISSIONARY."

The circulation of The Missionary has increased during the year, the number of paying subscribers now on the list being about 10,926, as against 9,826 at the close of last year. The issue for the month of March was nearly 12,800 copies. The number of subscribers delinquent for one year or more remains painfully and unaccountably large, being about 1,550. The cost of publication and distribution was $5,029.70, and the receipts from subscriptions and advertisements were $4,313.37.

"THE CHILDREN'S MISSIONARY."

The circulation of The Children's Missionary has also increased, although the increase was small, the number of paying subscribers now on the list being about 6,385, as against 6,059 reported at the close of last year. The cost of publication and distribution was $1,232.58. The amount received from subscriptions was $848.73.

"THE PRAYER CALENDAR."

Two thousand copies of the "Prayer Calendar" were issued, and nearly all distributed, at an estimated cost for printing and mailing of $340. The receipts from sales were $439.27.

REINFORCEMENTS.

Eight new missionaries were sent out during the year. Dr. L. L. Moore, Miss Nettie DuBose and Miss Mary S. Matthews were sent to China. Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Myers were sent to Japan. Miss Mattie B. Ingold, M. D., was sent to Korea. Miss Sophie Wright (now Mrs. J. S. Crowley) was sent to Africa. Miss Edith M. Houston was sent to Mexico. Miss Blanche Dunlap, of the Southern Brazil Mission, who has been in this country for some time on account of health, returned to her field during the year. Miss Wilson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church Mission in Japan, was added to our roll by marriage to Rev. W. McS. Buchanan.

LOSSES.

The China Mission was sadly bereaved by the death of Mrs. Pauline DuBose Little, at Karuizawa, Japan, on July 25, 1897. Rev. M. H. Houston, of the China Mission, and Rev. and Mrs. DeLacy Wardlaw, of the Northern Brazil Mission, retired from service during the year. The number of missionaries now on the roll is 155.

PRESENT NEEDS.

To man our present China stations for effective work, there is an urgent need of at least six ordained men and two physicians and several single women. Korea needs three ordained men, one physician and two single women. The present stations occupied in Japan are fairly well supplied, but several new men ought to be sent to that field to begin preparation for aggressive movements on new lines, which greatly need to be made. Africa sorely needs two more white and several more colored missionaries. The magnificent work that is opening to us there will not be done without them. Southern Brazil imperatively needs three more ordained men, and a single woman for the school work at Lavras, and one for the work at Sao Joao Del Rei. Mexico needs a man to assist Dr. Graybill in the supervision of his wide field. Thirty new missionaries to be sent out during this year is a conservative estimate of what the work already in hand requires for its efficient prosecution.

CAN THE WORKERS BE FOUND?

Yes. Without having made any appeal for them, the committee rarely has a meeting without receiving one or more applications for appointment. Ten are already under appointment, waiting for the opportunity to go.

CAN THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SEND THEM OUT?

We answer, No, not even on the basis of this year's enlarged receipts, nor until the church has increased its gifts to this cause very considerably over any amount given to it heretofore. A table of figures printed in the last annual report showed that the smallest amount for which the work has ever been conducted is about $1,000 a year for each missionary. Considering all that this $1,000 provides for, over and above the missionary's salary, school work, medical work, travel, literary work, house-building, support of native helpers, etc., the amount is much smaller than good business management requires it should be.

IS THE CHURCH ABLE TO SUPPORT THE PRESENT WORK AND ENLARGE IT?

We answer unhesitatingly, Yes. Eight of our missionaries are now supported by individuals. So far as known to us, none of these individuals are persons of large wealth, but only persons of good income from investments or business, and their work is one of self-denial for Christ's sake.

CAMPINAS PROPERTY.

REPORT ON CAMPINAS PROPERTY FOR 1897—SAM. R. GAMMON, ATTORNEY IN FACT.

"In February I informed the Executive Committee that the titles to those portions of our Campinas property that, by the administration of the Lane estate, fell to Mrs. Lane and the two older heirs, had been transferred to the committee under its corporate title. It is now my pleasure to inform you that, during the first part of this month, I was in Campinas, and succeeded in transferring the title to that part of said property that fell to Miss Sallie Lane, who became of age and sent me her power of attorney after the date of the transfer of the other shares. This reduces to your possession all of the said property save that part covered by the legacy in Mr. Lane's will. Much has been accomplished in this difficult matter, and we have great reason to be profoundly thankful. The full and final settlement of all this business no longer depends upon the contingency of anyone's life. A year ago the death of any member of the Lane family would have caused serious complications and delays. This is no longer the case.

"In regard to that part of the property covered by the legacy, our lawyer speaks encouragingly. He feels confident that by means of the friendly suit that he has now been authorized to institute, we shall obtain unincumbered possession of it I hope that by the middle of the present year I may be able to write you of the final issue of the whole matter; but you know that dates for the termination of lawsuits cannot be definitely marked.

"The accompanying financial statement for the year passed shows that I have on hand a balance of nearly four thousand milreis. This amount and more I shall need when the business is finally concluded, to pay lawyers' fees and court dues. By that time, however, I shall doubtless have sold some more lots, and realized something further from rents

"Respectfully submitted,

"Lavras, January 20, 1898 SAM. R. GAMMON."

The committee has no change to recommend as to the plan now in operation for reducing the whole of this property to possession. If the friendly suit now being conducted is brought to a successful issue, the whole matter ought to be consummated during the present year. As there has been nothing to encourage the hope that Campinas will cease to be visited by yellow fever, the committee thinks that all idea of carrying on extensive school work at that point should be definitely abandoned. Mr. Gammon is under instructions to embrace the first favorable opportunity to sell that part of the property of which we have unincumbered possession.

REQUEST FOR DONATION TO THE SEMINARY AT SAO PAULO.

The Southern Brazil Mission at its late meeting preferred the request that of the proceeds from the sale of the Campinas property $5,000 be donated to the Synod of Brazil for its theological seminary. Other suggestions have been received from that mission as to the disposition of the funds to be derived from the sale of the property.

THE CONGO BOAT FUND.

Eight thousand dollars of the Congo Boat Fund has been loaned throughout the year on good real estate mortgage, and the interest applied to the support of the African work. The remaining $2,393.09 has been loaned part of the time, but is now in the treasury.

The correspondence from Africa throughout the year has been growingly urgent in appeals from the several missionaries that the boat be now built. On July 29th, the Mission held a meeting at Luebo and unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

"1. That the need of a steamer for this mission at present is absolute and imperative.

"2. That in the judgment of the mission a steamer sufficient for our use can be built with the money already on hand for that purpose; if, however, a larger sum is in hand or can be obtained, it would be well to build the steamer accordingly.

"3. That we cannot, at present, detail specifications in regard to the steamer, but we at least may say that it should be flat-bottomed, and, if possible, not drawing over twenty-four inches, the draft preferable being eighteen inches. The minimum capacity should be, say, three tons."

The secretary has entered into correspondence with English boat-builders through Mr. Robert Whyte, our agent in London, to ascertain whether such a boat as the mission calls for can be built and transported and set up on the Congo at Stanley Pool at a cost safely within the limits of the present fund. If this should prove to be the case, the committee asks authority from the Assembly to proceed with its construction. If not, and the additional amount required should not exceed $2,500, we ask authority to call upon the children of the church to contribute this additional amount, and to proceed with the construction of the boat as soon as the necessary amount is in hand.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF THE SEPARATE DEPARTMENTS.

I. HOME MISSIONS.

Receipts from legacies, $2,047.55; from loan fund, $585.75; from contributions (cash, $31,671.90, one Railroad bond, $1,000), $32,671.90. Total receipts, $35,305.20. To this add $2,275.25 cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and we have a total in hand of the Treasurer during the year, for this department, of $37,580.45.

DISBURSEMENTS AND BALANCE ON HAND FOR HOME MISSIONS.

The sum of $487.50 was paid for the services—after June 25, 1897—of Rev. J. L. Kell in New Mexico; $1,900 was paid for missionary work performed by or under the care of Rev. H. B. Pratt and Rev. W. S. Scott among Mexicans in Texas; $13 special contributions were appropriated to the erection of two Mexican church buildings; the sum of $18,251.17 was paid for the support of six white and five Indian ministers in the Indian Territory, sixteen ministers in Florida, seventeen in Arkansas, and forty-five in Texas; the sum of $2,297.20 was paid for support of eighteen teachers in eleven schools in the Indian Territory; $299.25 was paid on two church and school buildings in the Indian Territory; $479.50 was donated and $175 loaned to secure the erection of eight church buildings in five Presbyteries; $3,220.93 was used to defray expenses, and there remained on hand at the close of the year a cash balance of $9,456.90, together with a Southern Railway Company first mortgage bond of $1,000, contributed by a friend of Home Missions, and bearing five per cent. interest. The total outlay for field work was $23,902.62, given for the support of 110 missionaries (ministers and teachers) and to secure the erection and equipment of eight churches and two school buildings.

II. REGULAR LOAN FUND.

During twelve years the sum of $6,955 (including two loans of $100 and $75 made this year) has been loaned to enable fifty-one white churches to erect or repair church buildings. No interest is charged on these loans and no security for their repayment is taken except a pledge of honor from the members or representatives of the churches to use diligent means to secure that result. During the year, thirteen churches have returned $585.75 on the amounts loaned to them; the Assembly has cancelled one loan of $300. These sums added to $3,210.49 † previously returned, make a total returned and canceled of $4,096.24, leaving the sum of $2,858.76 still outstanding, $345 of it not yet due. Out of $255 loaned several years ago to five colored churches, $125.50 was repaid; the remainder, which has now been long past due, will probably remain unpaid.

* This has been reinvested since April 1, 1898.

† In last year's report the amount returned was given as $3,080.99 It should have been $3,210.49.

III. THE WILLIAM A. MOORE LOAN FUND (CHURCH ERECTION).

The year began with cash on hand, $1,589.20; during the year twelve churches paid into the treasury $768.47, which gave a total of cash on hand of $2,357.67. Loans amounting to $375 were made to two churches; expenses, $72.17, were paid, as per Treasurer's Report, and $1,910.50 remained, cash on hand at the end of the year.

This legacy of $5,000 was received into your treasury in March, 1892. It is loaned at 3 per cent. The total loaned to nineteen churches has been $4,825. Of this, principal and interest amounting to $1,921.72, has been repaid; $3,318.84 are yet outstanding, some of it not yet due, all of it secured by mortgages on the church property of seventeen churches, making a total of $5,229.34 to the credit of this fund.

Four Full Years Have Now Elapsed

Since the present plan of work went into operation. A table shows the number of churches which sent contributions to your treasurer during this year. The treasurers of several Presbyteries forwarded the contributions of their churches in bulk, but have, for the last two years, reported to us the number of their contributing churches. With this information, and making due estimates for the two years of 1896 and 1897, we are able to exhibit the receipts and the sources from which they came for each of the last four years, as follows:

Year.	No. of Contributing.			AMOUNTS RECEIVED FROM									Total Receipts.	Totals, leaving out Legacies and Funds from For. Mis. office.
	Churches.	S-Schools.	Societies.	From Foreign Missions office for Indian work.	Legacies.	Churches.	Sabbath Schools.	Societies.	Regular Loan Fund.	Miscellaneous within Presbyteries.	General Miscellaneous.	Moore Loan Fund.

The increase in receipts for Home Missions this year over the receipts of the previous year were:

In legacies,	$ 1,656 05
From churches,	1,440 30
Sabbath-schools,	545 89
Loan fund,	220 53

Moore loan fund,	169 89
Total,	$10,971 57
Societies short,	504 71
Increase over previous year,	$10,466 86

The increase in contributing churches was 143; in Sabbath-schools, 111; falling off in contributing societies, 39.

IV. THE INVALID FUND.

Receipts from a legacy, $50; from contributions, $11,619.80. Total receipts, $11,669.80; to which add $41.35, cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and $28.49 cash on hand for an endowment fund at the beginning of the year transferred to the regular fund, and we have $11,739.64 total cash on hand during the year. Of this sum

$10,480.70 was paid out to Presbyteries to aid thirty-nine aged or infirm ministers and one hundred and seven widows or families of ministers deceased; $1,098.34 was paid for expenses as per treasurer's report. This left $160.60 on hand, a part of which has been paid out since the new year began. A comparison of the receipts for this fund for the last four years is made in the following table:

BOXES.

Aid has been given to a number of your ministers and schools in the way of boxes of clothing and other articles, some of which have been of great service; some were doubtless sent by churches or societies and the fact not reported to us. We mention as contributors known to us, the churches or societies of Charlottesville, Va., Columbia, Mo, Athens, Ga, the Central Church, of Atlanta, Ga., Grand Ave., St. Louis, Mo., Lexington, Mo., Wetheredville, Md., South Highland Church, Birmingham, Staunton, Va., California, Mo., Rogersville, Tenn., Trenton, Tenn., Washington, Ga., Crystal Springs, Miss., Cook Ave., St. Louis, Mt. Carmel, Tenn., Opelika, Ala., Franklin St. Church, Baltimore, St. Charles, Mo., and Dallas, Texas, and from friends in Mt. Mourne, N. C.

NEW MEXICO.

Rev. E. Brantley, feeling obliged by domestic reasons to leave our field in New Mexico, was succeeded there by Rev. J. L. Kell, who took charge in June last. He resides at Eddy, a county seat, and is our only representative in New Mexico.

IN FLORIDA.

In the Presbyteries of Suwanee and St. Johns the situation has been but little, if at all, improved. The cold weather of the past winter has seriously retarded the recovery which was hoped for from the effects of the disastrous freeze of three years ago. A few of our churches have become nearly extinct; others have been so reduced financially as to be dependent upon liberal aid from other parts of the church to save them from "a famine of the word of God," certainly a famine of that word as it is preached by Presbyterian ministers. In the future, crops in Florida will be diversified; the people will not risk so much on the orange industry. Between 1874 and 1896 our church there increased two hundred and forty-two per cent., and if they can be tided over the present distress the future is one of hope. Over one hundred and ten members were received during the year on profession of faith.

IN ARKANSAS AND TEXAS.

The increase of population and the crystallization of society, godly or ungodly, goes steadily forward. Our five thousand Presbyterians in the midst of a million and a half of people in Arkansas, and our over sixteen thousand members in the midst of three and a quarter millions of people in Texas are overwhelmed with a sense of their weakness as compared with the needs of mission work around them. The field calls loudly for the best effort that our entire church can put forth. Two hundred and fifty towns in Texas, with a population of 300 to 2,500, as well as a vast number of country neighborhoods, are not touched by us, and many of them have little or no good religious training.

MEXICAN WORK.

God has certainly blessed us in regard to this field. Just as the influx of Mexicans, nominally Roman Catholics, began to appear upon considerable scale in our Southwestern territory, we were able to find in our ministry two men—Rev. H. B. Pratt and Rev. W. S. Scott (a commissioner to this Assembly)—who can speak and preach in the Spanish language as readily as in English, and who are entirely familiar with the characteristics of the Mexican people. Mr. Scott's work has grown steadily, the four churches under his care now having 262 members. The church at Reedville grew in its first year, just closed, from eighteen to forty-six members, and erected a chapel worth $400 at a cost of $230, not counting the personal labor of the members. Mr. Scott recently spent six weeks on a tour through five counties, containing 25,000 or 30,000 Mexicans. He preached to about 1,600 of these, and was heartily received by the people, who turned out to hear him on short notice.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

During the year we have had six white and five Indian ministers engaged, one of the white ministers having been in the eastern part of the Choctaw Nation only since January 1st. These ministers have supplied all of our organized churches and eight or ten other points with regular or occasional preaching, and from their statements we gather that there were over 130 professions of faith.

TERRITORY SCHOOLS.

In 1894, being no longer able (as we had been up to that time) to hold control of the Armstrong Academy, a home and school for orphan Indian boys, we began a system of school work in towns and neighborhoods, which has grown in importance and usefulness from the beginning. The plan is, first, to have the teachers secure all the patronage possible from the Indian Nation (teaching their children during the months for which the Nation is able to pay tuition) and all the tuition possible from private Indian and white patrons; to give free instruction to the poor children of both nationalities; and your committee adds to the tuition such pay as will secure for the teachers a fair but moderate support. About 650 pupils have been in our schools during the past session, over one-third of whom have been missionary pupils, taught free of all charge. The children of the poor white people have no school advantages at all, except such as are afforded by mission schools. The Indian children get the advantage of public schools for a few months of the year, without any guaranty of religious instruction.

We have two high schools—one at Cameron, Choctaw Nation, under the care of Rev. T. B. Lunsford, who has two assistants; the other, Calvin Institute, under the care of Mr. Ebenezer and Miss Fannie S. Hotchkin, with two assistants, is located at Durant, Choctaw Nation. In addition we have neighborhood schools at Old Good Land, Cold Spring, Bennington, Bethel, Nuni Takili, Osko Chito and Shady Point. We have quit-claim title to a good lot and two-story stone building at Cameron, to a lot and two-story building in Durant, lot and building at Shady Point, and a claim upon a lot and building at Wahpanucka. Our sole aim is to secure religious instruction for the youth, and through them to reach the home.

In the winter time the teachers find many children in great need of clothing. Boxes sent by Ladies' Societies enable the teachers to supply the children with clothing, and thus secure their attendance upon our Christian schools.

Our teachers undergo many privations, but are doing a vast deal of good. A number of the pupils (not less perhaps than twenty-five) became church members during the year. The Assembly asks all Sabbath-schools to contribute on fifth Sabbaths for the support of this school work.

of the work performed by over seventy of the ninety-two ministers who have been engaged in this service lead us to believe that it is safe to say that 12,000 religious services have been held by our missionaries, with something like 1,200 professions of faith, while not less than twenty-five church buildings have been erected, repaired or freed from debt.

In the last eighteen years the population in the fields above referred to has, in round numbers, been doubled. Our church members have been increased nearly fivefold.

Amounts Given to Local Home Missions.

We have tried faithfully for four years to ascertain, in time to state in the annual report, the amount given by the Presbyteries to the local work, but have never been able to get replies from all of the stated clerks. As we go to press this year we have statements from the stated clerks of seventy Presbyteries, which give a total contributed in those Presbyteries to local work of $98,967, being $2,848 more than was given by them to that department in the previous year.

A Brief History

of the work of the Assembly's office of Home Missions from 1861 onward has been prepared by the secretary, and its publication authorized by the committee. It will appear as soon as the needed data can be gathered from the reports made by the Presbyteries to this Assembly, which will bring it down to date.

The Invalid Fund.

Full information was laid by your committee in June last before all pastors; and through our church papers the needs of this cause were laid before our people.

The result has been a considerable increase in the number of contributing churches, but a falling off in the contributions. This falling off has been somewhat general, and not large at any particular points, but if hundreds of churches give each a little less, the aggregate loss is great. We give below a table showing the receipts of this fund for ten years past, by which it will be seen that a falling off, which began in 1892-'93, has not been retrieved, the contributions of this last year being less than those of any previous year.

It has been suggested by several persons that one cause of this decrease is the fact that the summer outings of people in our city and town churches have of late years begun in June, and that in July, when this collection is taken, a large number of church members are absent; that this becomes more and more the case with each passing year, and that it especially affects the contributions of Sabbath-schools and societies, many of which do nothing in July for any cause.

IV. ABSTRACT OF REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

On June 15, 1897, the committee met at the call of the secretary, Rev. E M. Richardson, D. D., and after considering the action of the last Assembly, by which the committee was appointed, organized for the work of this year by re-electing Rev. W. McF. Alexander, chairman, and Mr. John Johnston, clerk.

The salary of the secretary was made $1,200, and that of the treasurer $100 per annum.

The Directors of the Union and Planters Bank have kindly permitted us to use, without charge, their rooms for the meetings of the committee. Also, the Memphis National Bank, of which our efficient treasurer is president, kindly gives us, without charge, all necessary exchange.

The amount to be appropriated to candidates was made the same as last year, namely: Seventy-five dollars as the maximum for candidates in college and in seminary, and twenty-five dollars for those in academical studies.

In obedience to the instruction given us by the last Assembly, we discontinued to make appropriations to young women preparing for the work of Foreign Missions, thus confining aid strictly to Education for the Ministry.

It came to pass, in the providence of God, that this first meeting of the year was the last at which our former beloved secretary, Rev. E. M. Richardson, D. D., was present. Just fifteen days after this date he ended his earthly labors and entered upon his everlasting rest. Retiring in apparently his usual health on the night of June 29th, he passed quietly away during the night, and was found dead in his bed on the morning of June 30, 1897.

On July 5th the committee met at the call of the chairman, who officially announced the death of the secretary; whereupon a committee of five, with Rev. E. A. Ramsey, D. D., chairman, was appointed to prepare suitable memorials of Dr Richardson. These memorials were prepared, adopted, and engrossed upon our minutes. The committee continued Dr. Richardson's salary until September 31, 1897, the end of his year, and during this period the work of the secretary was done by our chairman, without remuneration.

The committee being empowered by its constitution to fill all vacancies that may occur during the year, then proceeded to the election of a secretary, who should enter upon the duties of this office September 1st. Though there were several names before the committee, there was only one nomination. Mr. G. W. Macrae, treasurer, nominated Rev. Joseph H. Lumpkin, then pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Memphis, Tenn., and also a member of this committee. Mr. Lumpkin retired from the meeting, and after full consideration he was elected by unanimous vote, and was given, at his request, one week to consider the matter. At the expiration of this time Mr. Lumpkin signified his willingness to accept, the Presbytery of Memphis afterwards consented, and he entered upon the duties of this office September 1st. His salary was made $1,500 per year.

Printed copies of the report of the work of last year were distributed, and circular letters in reference to the collections for this cause in November and in April were sent to pastors and sessions. In addition to this, the secretary visited and presented this cause to a few churches. But in this respect two serious difficulties have been encountered: first, that of arranging with a sufficient number of churches that might be reached by a single trip, thus economizing time and expense of travel; and second, that of reaching any considerable number of churches in the two months set apart to this cause. The secretary has, therefore, been constrained to confine his attention chiefly to our church courts and to private correspondence, but he has endeavored to use diligently these means of access to our church at large. In the months of October, November, and December he was enabled to visit and to present this cause to twelve of our thirteen Synods, the Synod of Florida being the only one not visited by him. In these visits he placed emphasis upon the type of Christian manhood that should characterize those who offer themselves for the sacred office of the ministry, the care that Presbyteries should exercise in receiving, recommending for aid, and directing their candidates, and the duty of pastors and sessions to present fully to their people the claims of this work. By correspondence he has tried to place the facts concerning this work before our courts, pastors, and people.

In addition to this he has visited a number of institutions of learning. He presented the claims of the ministry to the students of Davidson College and of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, made a passing call upon the Louisville Theological Seminary, and was permitted to take part in the chapel exercises with the students of the University of Tennessee, and with cadets of Alabama.

Then he has kept this work fully before the Executive Committee, and has made to the committee monthly written reports of his work.

We have enrolled upon application of Presbyteries, two hundred and twenty candidates. Of these, one hundred and two are theological, one hundred and one are collegiate, and seventeen are academical students.

Three of our candidates are studying outside of our own institutions.

In addition to the two hundred and twenty regularly enrolled there are three who are aided through us from private sources to the amount of $432.52—one at Hampden-Sidney College, one at Columbia, and one at Union Seminary.

Of those regularly enrolled and drawing full appropriation from our committee, seventeen have received through us from their Presbyteries, and in addition to our appropriation, $549.61, making a total of special contributions made through our treasury of $982.13.

Of the candidates enrolled, nine, either not entering upon their studies, or finding they would not need the aid promised them, received nothing. One, having abandoned the idea of preparing for the ministry, refunded the small sum sent him on appropriation, and sixteen leaving institutions before the close of the year, received a part only of appropriations made to them. The exact number, therefore, aided by the committee is two hundred and eleven. Of aid given by different institutions to their own students in addition to our appropriations we, of course, make no report. These special appropriations, however, whether made by institutions, Presbyteries, or individual churches and persons, complicate and, to some extent, interfere with the regular work of your committee, though if they must be made, they should not be allowed to interfere with the November and April collections, and, with the exception of those made by institutions to their own students, they should always be sent through our treasury.

It deserves to be noted that in November collections are taken in some places for Synodical work, and in April in other places for Christian, as distinct from ministerial, education. These causes, in themselves commendable and deserving the hearty support of our church, necessarily interfere, when presented in November and April, with the Assembly's work of education for the ministry. Yet with the good hand of our God upon us, and through the liberality of our people, we have been enabled to pay in full our appropriations to our candidates and report a small balance.

As the treasurer's appended report shows, we have received this year $16,956.23. We have disbursed to candidates, $15,169.53.

We have received $403.26 more than we received last year, and have disbursed to candidates $304.01 more than last year.

We have to report the death of one student aided by us, and also the death of another member of your Executive Committee. At the beginning of the year the Rev. E. A. Ramsey, D. D., was in feeble health, and consequently was soon forced to leave the city. He did not meet with us after our second meeting, which was held July 12th. After a long and painful illness, he died January 14, 1898.

V. ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

Publishing Department.

No year in the history of the work has been marked by greater activity in this department than the past, the whole number of issues from the press of books and tracts being in round numbers 100,000, besides a large number of blank reports for the use of Sessions, Presbyteries and Westminster Leagues.

The two most important volumes of the list are Vol. III. of Peck's Miscellanies and the Memorial Volume of the Westminster Assembly, which was published by order of the last General Assembly, and contains all the addresses delivered before that Assembly in May last in commemoration of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Westminster Assembly and of the formation of the Westminster Standards. In obedience to the orders of the Assembly the addresses of Dr. Strickler and Dr. Cannon were issued in separate form. The subscriptions to the Memorial Volume justified the issue of an edition of 2,000, and a second edition of 500 has since been issued, of which only about 200 remain. The book has met with a wide sale, many having been distributed in the Northern church, in Canada, and in Great Britain, and from these sources numerous warm and gratifying commendations of the book as to its contennts, mechanical execution, and cheapness have been received.

Some valuable additions have been made to our list of Sabbath-school library books as well as to our tract list.

Just after the close of the year another volume of much importance was issued, viz., an Appendix to our Digest, by Rev. W. A. Alexander, D. D., so that now we have a complete Digest of the Assembly's proceedings up to date. It should be added in this connection that the cost of the Digest and the Appendix has been far beyond the income realized from the sale of the work thus far ; this was to be expected in view of the limited number of those who are likely to purchase such a book, but the importance and value to the work of the church of a complete Digest is so great that the committee have felt that the Assembly would approve the necessary expenditure. The more general use of it by all members of our church courts would doubtless result in great saving of time in the prosecution of their business.

Our sales department has had a fair measure of prosperity during the year, and we are able to report an increase in the business of the year of nearly five per cent. It is found that the margin of profit with each succeeding year becomes smaller, a fact that is due to a variety of causes that cannot be enumerated here.

SABBATH-SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

Children's Friend (weekly),	1,100,000
Earnest Worker (monthly),	215,000
Pearls for the Little Ones (weekly),	920,000
Lesson Quarterly,	130 000
Primary Quarterly,	65,000
Lesson Papers (weekly),	900,000
Pictorial Bible Lessons,	80,000

an increase over the issues of last year. Comparing the issues of the two principal papers, The Children's Friend and The Earnest Worker, with the issues reported ten years ago, it will be found that their circulation has grown from 510,000 to 1,315,000. We have not only the encouragement of a steady growth in this department of our work, but that afforded by many evidences that our papers are meeting satisfactorily the wants of our Sabbath-school work.

DONATIONS.

The Executive Committee has continued to respond to appeals that have come to us for help from Sabbath-schools, churches, mission fields, pastors, and evangelists, the total amount appropriated for this work being $4,662.53, an increase of nearly $400 over the appropriations of last year. Nearly one-half of this amount was given in Sabbath-school papers for the use of mission Sabbath-schools and other work. A large number of tracts, donated for the purpose, have been distributed by our pastors and evangelists.

Ten hundred and sixty-eight Bibles have been given for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism, or two hundred more than last year, and eleven hundred and ninety-two Testaments for the perfect recitation of the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism, or about one hundred and fifty more than last year, the total amount appropriated to this purpose being $867.50.

Colportage.

We have not thought it wise to restrict further the work of colportage, as was intimated might be the case in our last annual report, but the same colporteurs reported last year have continued in the work, viz.:

Rev. William Crow,	Synod of Kentucky.
Samuel Lacy,	Synod of Virginia.
Rev. Ro. Morrison, D. D.,	Synod of Missouri.
Rev. J. Calvin Smith,	Synods of Arkansas and Mississippi.
Rev. R. L. Fulton,	Synod of Georgia (part of the time).

Rev. D. T. Towles, Synod of North Carolina, though in infirm health, has given about six weeks' time to the work.

Total number of days' service,	1,086
Miles travelled,	12,528
Sabbath-schools visited,	98
Prayer-meetings held,	43
Addresses delivered,	39
Sermons preached,	276
Families visited,	7,245
Books and tracts distributed (value),	$2,729.70
Total expense,	2,255.49

In addition to the above, the Executive Committee appropriated $100 to the Evangelistic Sabbath-school work in the mountains of Kentucky, as in the previous year, besides such grants of supplies as were needed.

It will appear that the total appropriations to our benevolent work—donations and colportage work—during the year was $6,918.02, or $538.41 more than the collections reported at the beginning of the year.

VI. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

THE COMMITTEE.

Since the first of April, 1897, we had thirteen meetings, which have been well attended by the members living in Birmingham. It was agreed that those living at a distance might attend whenever there was business of importance to be discussed. The decisions reached by the committee have in most cases been unanimous. During the year Dr. J. T. Searcy resigned from the committee, and we appointed Rev. D. C. Lilly, pastor of the Tuscaloosa Church, to fill the vacancy till the meeting of the Assembly.

It will be remembered that the Charlotte Assembly directed us to co-operate with the Independent Colored Presbyteries in fixing a time and place for holding a convention to organize an Independent Colored Presbyterian Church. The Independent Presbyteries made such a request, and we selected Birmingham, Ala., as the place, and November 26–28, as the time, for such a gathering. The convention met as called. The report of the committee appointed by the last Assembly to represent the Assembly at its sessions is submitted along with this report, but separate from it, because it was not committee action.

The expenses of the Birmingham convention were paid by us from the fund collected specially for this purpose two years ago, supplemented by some small contributions, and by $36.89 from the general fund.

There is evidently not perfect agreement among the colored ministers and elders as to the wisdom of this movement. Very few of them say that it will never be wise; almost all saying that it will be right and proper at some future date. The chief difficulties remain the same in their minds as in former years, namely, lack of experience in church government and lack of funds necessary to carry on an extended work. These difficulties are very real, and must be dealt with by the Assembly in all candor and liberality.

In order to meet the necessity for a fund to help them pay the necessary expenses of the meetings of their highest church court, we earnestly recommend that the Assembly authorize its Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization to aid in paying such expenses from the general fund, or in any other way that seems best to the Assembly.

We have found it necessary to pay a part of the expenses of the New Orleans meeting from our general funds, and ask that the Assembly take some steps to reimburse the amount.

REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA.

The Reformed Church in America has not seen its way clear to co operation with us during the past year. They have approved the principle of co-operation, and referred its details to its Board of Domestic Missions. Of the present status of the matter, the following letter from Rev. C. H. Pool, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of that Board, gives a sufficient account:

"NEW YORK, March 21, 1898.

"DEAR BROTHER: In reply to yours of the fifteenth instant, I would say that our General Synod's Committee did report in favor of co-operation with your Committee on Colored Evangelization, when it was discovered by our attorney, that by its charter our Board is debarred from expending any of its funds through the agency of another denomination. That will prevent co-operation with the Presbyterian or any other church, at least for the present.

"Our treasury is by no means overflowing, as seems to be the case with yours; still our Board, through a special committee, is trying to ascertain if it is practicable and possible to undertake a mission somewhere in the South on our own account.

"Very cordially yours,

"C. H. POOL, Corresponding Secretary."

Since the meeting of the Assembly of 1895, we have had authority to purchase the Ferguson-Williams College property at Abbeville, S. C., if the way should be clear. We have desired to buy it, but the difficulty of getting money for the Stillman Institute, and for the general work for which we were already responsible, has forbidden our making special efforts in this direction. In view of all the facts of the case, we recommend that the Assembly drop this matter.

At the beginning of the session in October, 1897, the secretary and Professor McAlpine took charge of the instruction in the Institute. It became evident after a month that one instructor could do all the work needed for the eight students in attendance. So the secretary withdrew from the recitation room. Since the first of November, 1897, Professor McAlpine has done all the teaching.

The small number of students in attendance during the year, ten in all, is accounted for by the fact that the committee did not think that the expense of caring for a large number would be justified so long as the ministers in the field were so poorly provided for, and in consideration of the fact that the educational department of the work had always received the largest share of the income of the committee.

Decidedly the most encouraging step taken during the year was the securing of a most beautiful location for the institute, immediately adjoining the corporate limits of Tuscaloosa. For three years we have been looking for a suitable place for the erection of needed buildings and the cultivation of a farm, looking to the idea of at least partial self-support. We let it be known through the church papers that we desired a place. Finally the decision lay between Tuscaloosa and Birmingham. The Pioneer Mining and Manufacturing Company, of Thomas, near Birmingham, Ala., generously offered us a beautiful site three miles from the city. Before accepting this offer the people of Tuscaloosa tendered us $745 in money, and urged us to buy the old Cochrane homestead, which could be had at a reasonable price. After the most careful consideration we decided to accept the Tuscaloosa proposition. We bought the house, with twenty acres of good land for $5,000, payable one-half in cash, and the balance in three equal payments, due the first of April, May and June, with interest at six per cent., and secured by the notes of the trustees of the Institute and mortgage on the property. We are very thankful to report that we have paid on the purchase the sum of $3,333.33, and have reliable pledges to meet the deferred payments, besides the old building at Tuscaloosa, which is surely worth $800. The building is a large two-storied brick house, well built, and already fairly well adapted to our purposes.

We are most thankful to announce to the Assembly that at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1898, we had secured in cash and subscriptions throughout a portion of the church the sum of about $9,000. We have never made a personal appeal to any individual for a cent of this amount. The matter has been faithfully laid before a part of the church, and those who desired have contributed as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

We employed the Rev. O. B. Wilson to undertake the raising of this Development Fund. We think that the cordial thanks of the whole church are due to Mr. Wilson, because he gave his services free to the committee during his canvass. His report is here submitted, with secretary's statement of the building fund:

We rejoice to report that during the year nearly all of the colored churches have had preaching more or less regularly. The great majority of them have stated preaching at least once a month. Quite a number have services every Sabbath. Upon the whole, they have grown in self-reliance and in many graces. Some of them have made most commendable efforts to reach the point of self-support, and have gone a long distance in that direction. It is our unfailing policy to encourage all such efforts. During the year we have paid out for the support of these feeble churches and for reaching outlying districts the sum of $1,221.75, which has been paid to twenty-nine ministers, serving forty-seven churches. During the summer of 1897 we made a most earnest effort to reduce our expenses to the very lowest possible point in order that we might give more largely to the support of these churches and ministers. It will be seen that our effort was successful to some degree. We now have a plan by which all the income above certain necessary fixed expenses goes into the field. So that if we had an income of twenty thousand dollars, much less of it than now would be paid to white workers.

We confidently hoped a year ago that we would be able to pay the whole amount due the colored ministers for work done several years ago, but the falling off of our income to the amount of $360.64 has prevented our paying all that we owe them. We now owe these brethren the sum of $1,346.75.

As before pointed out, we directed the secretary to take one of the departments of the institute last fall. He conducted the Academic Department for a month. It appeared that one teacher could do all the really necessary work, and so the secretary was relieved in order to give himself to the work prescribed in the Manual of the committee. He made several extended trips, during which he spoke in advocacy of the work. But he has, during the year, given himself chiefly to forming plans for the development of the Stillman Institute and to the purchase of a suitable place for its permanent location. He formulated the plans by which we believe that our work can be done at a greatly reduced cost.

Herewith are submitted the summarized accounts of W. A. Powell, treasurer, and A. L. Phillips, secretary.

STATEMENT OF W. A. POWELL, TREASURER.

ATLANTA, GA., April 1, 1898.

	Amount in treasury, March 31, 1896,		$ 542 41

The treasurer's report shows that 789 churches, 28 Sabbath-schools and 9 societies contributed through the Assembly's treasury.

It will appear that the receipts for the general fund are $360.54 short of those for the years 1896–'97. We cannot give all the reasons for this exhibit. It is probably in a large measure due to three facts, to-wit: to scarcity of money, the effort to raise a special fund, and particularly to the lethargy on this subject existing in the church so largely.

It will appear, however, that the receipts for all purposes are $3,668.20 ahead of those of last year. When the statistics from those Synods and Presbyteries which coöperate with the Assembly's treasury by sending a percentage of their collections are made known, it is believed that it will be seen that the largest sum ever given for this cause was raised during the year just closed.

The Synods of North Carolina, South Carolina and Mississippi have been doing their own work during the year, and retaining most of the money contributed for the cause. It is well known to us that there are many contributions made to this work in money, food, clothes, all through the church, which never reach our treasury, while largely swelling and increasing the reported amounts given.

VII. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, IN VIRGINIA.

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, May 4, 1898.

The Board of Directors and Trustees of Union Theological Seminary, in Virginia, respectfully report to the General Assembly that the session of 1897–'98 was marked by many tokens of the divine favor.

The number of students was 68, of which 22 were in the Senior Class, 17 in the Middle Class, 26 in the Junior Class, and 3 pursuing special studies. These came from 12 States of the Union and from Ireland.

The report of the Faculty shows that the students were industrious and successful in work, and commendable in conduct; while the results of the examinations, at the end of the session, showed excellent work in the class-rooms by both professors and students.

This Board assures the General Assembly that we have a Faculty thoroughly equipped for its work, and worthy of the admiration of the church and of her patronage.

Bound volumes,	15,132
Unbound volumes,	481
Pamphlets,	283

FUNDS.

General endowment,	$206,000
Scholarships,	95,000
Library fund,	8,000
Total,	$309,000

The General Endowment Fund is the one from which all the expenses of administration must be paid, and needs to be increased to meet all the proper demands upon it.

REMOVAL.

The removal of the seminary to Richmond, Va., authorized by the Synods of Virginia and North Carolina nearly three years ago, is to be made during the summer vacation, and the next session will be opened on the new site on the first Wednesday of October, 1898. The new buildings are all contracted for; some are at this time virtually completed, and all are expected to be ready for occupation before the first of next October.

They consist of one large administration building, named Watt's Hall, one library building, fire-proof, named the Spence Library, one dormitory and five residences for professors.

The contract prices for these buildings were:

Watt's Hall,	$48,322.70
Spence Library,	25,906.16
Dormitory,	19,341.00
Five residences, about	38,000,00
Total,	$131,569.86

Other considerable costs, however, must be incurred to make needed improvements, for which it is hoped the money will soon be raised.

Means have been provided for completely furnishing about two-thirds of the rooms of the new buildings for the use of students. The buildings are to be well furnished with water and light; when so completed, the equipment of our seminary will be all that can be desired for health, comfort, and convenience.

The Board has taken order to make disposition of the real and certain personal estate at Hampden-Sidney, at the same time endeavoring to protect the college from any evil or unfriendly influences, and if possible to aid this venerable and beloved institution.

Col. J. P. Fitzgerald, for many years the treasurer of this Board, and whose business knowledge and foresight, and devotion to the seminary have been most valuable, has resigned his office, and Mr. Wm. C. Preston, of Richmond, Va., has been elected in his place.

Diplomas have been given to the following seventeen young gentlemen, who have completed the full course of studies in the seminary, viz.: C. C. Anderson, James Arthur, Geo. L. Brown, R. D. Campbell, S. L. Cathey, J. W. Goodman, H. C. Hammond, G. B. Hanrahan, L. F. Harper, W. E. Hudson, R. W. Jopling, S. S. Oliver, H. G. Richardson, R. A. Roane, J. W. Stokes, R. L. Wharton, J. L. Yandle.

A copy from the minutes, J. P. FITZGERALD, Secretary.

VIII. THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of Columbia Theological Seminary submits to the General Assembly the following as its annual report for the year ending May 12, 1898.

The Board convened in the Seminary chapel, May 10, at 8:30 P. M. All were present, except the Rev. H. F Hoyt, D. D., of Georgia, and Mr. J. H. Miller, of Alabama.

The report submitted by the Faculty, which included the catalogue for the current year, shows that the condition of the Seminary is healthy and its outlook encouraging. With few exceptions, the health of the students has been good, their work satisfactory, and their conduct such as becometh the gospel.

Of the twenty students who matriculated, four (4) were enrolled as post-graduates, viz.: Rev. T. C. Marshall, of Princeton Seminary, and Rev. F. E. Rogers and Licentiates W. H. Mills and F. K. Sims, of Columbia Seminary.

One matriculant, Mr. R. H. Rusk, was admitted to the senior class, having completed a two-year's course at the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary; three were enrolled in the middle class, viz.: Mr. D. M. Douglas, who had completed his first year at the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Mr. Alex. Waite, of Union Seminary, N. Y., and Mr. James Waite, of Union Seminary, N. Y., and Alleghany Seminary, Penn.; and two, the Rev. J. A. Rice, D. D., of the Methodist church, and Mr. C. C. Carson, who has been one year at the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, were enrolled as special students.

The total enrollment was thirty-three (33), as against twenty-six (26) for the previous session. Of this number, twenty (20) had received the degree of A. B., and one that of B. L. S. The remaining thirteen (13) had all received a more or less complete college training. The enrollment in the regular classes and special courses was as follows, viz.: Senior, 6; Middle, 9; Junior, 11; Special students, 3; Post-Graduates, 4.—Total, 33.

The following students having passed satisfactory examinations and fulfilled the other necessary conditions, were awarded the degree of B. D., viz.: Messrs. D. J. Blackwell, Melton Clark, J. A. Clotfelter, F. L. Higdon, and R. H. Rusk.

Mr. J. M. Harris was given a Department Certificate in Apologetics, Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity, and Theology; and a sessional certificate in Old Testament and New Testament Literature and Exegesis.

The Committee of Examiners appointed by the Board met at the time fixed, and went over the examinations set by the Faculty and the papers prepared thereon by the students. They report that the method pursued by the Faculty in these examinations commended itself to them as both thorough and comprehensive, and at the same time of such a character as to give every student a fair opportunity to exhibit his knowledge of the subjects involved. Of the papers submitted by the students they say that they are generally satisfactory, and some of them exhibit high attainments.

Under the efficient oversight of Prof. D. J. Brimm, the buildings and grounds have taken on a greatly improved appearance.

The ladies who have the mess-hall in hand are still pressing their work, and hope at some not distant day to bring it to a successful conclusion.

There have been added to the Library in all forty-two volumes. Of these, seventeen, consisting of valuable Jewish service-books, parts of the Hebrew Bible, and other books, were the gift of Mr. J. L. Hart of Charleston, S. C. Of the remainder, six were the gift of Professor W. M. McPheeters.

The thanks of the Board are due to the following churches for special contributions to aid in meeting the contingent expenses of the Seminary, viz.:

Pursuant to action taken by the Board at its last meeting, and based upon a specific provision of the plan of Government, the chairs of Apologetics, and of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity, became vacant at this meeting of the Board. The Board esteem themselves fortunate in having been able to keep up the worthy succession in the latter chair by filling it with one so widely and favorably known in and to the church as the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn. They are also gratified to be able to announce that they have further strengthened the Faculty by securing the services of the Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D , and those of the Rev. S. C. Byrd, A. M., for the coming seminary year. Dr. Smith will act as lecturer in Pastoral Theology and Sacred Rhetoric, and Rev. Mr. Byrd as lecturer in the English Bible. The Chair of Apologetics will be left vacant for the present, in order that its endowment, which has become somewhat impaired, may be strengthened.

A request from the students asking for regular instruction in missions was, by the Board, referred to the Faculty, who will, doubtless, do whatever they can to meet the wishes of the student body in the premises.

The Seminary Institute, authorized by the Board at its last meeting, was, for cause, deferred for one year. The Faculty, however, notified the Board that it was only deferred, not dispensed with, as it is their purpose to hold the institute at the appointed time during the coming session.

The chairman of the Faculty, who last fall a year ago was elected to a position on the Board by the Synod of South Carolina, announced his purpose to tender his resignation to that Synod at its approaching meeting.

The following action taken by the Board in reference to the difficult and perplexing subject of beneficiary education will, it is hoped, commend itself to General Assembly.

Whereas, it is of the utmost importance that all funds provided to aid beneficiaries be so administered as to command the confidence and approval of the church, to promote the real interest of those receiving them, and not to defeat the worthy end aimed at by those donating these funds ; and

Whereas, it of right belongs to the Presbyteries to decide, and the Presbyteries alone are in a position to decide how much aid is required in the case of each particular candidate, therefore, be it

Resolved 1, That hereafter, in addition to the letter of introduction at present required, the Faculty shall require of every candidate entering the Seminary as a beneficiary a statement from his Presbytery, or from the chairman of the Presbyterial Committee of Education of his Presbytery, informing the Faculty what is the maximum amount which in the judgment of his Presbytery should be granted said candidate from Seminary and other funds.

2, That hereafter, in extending aid to beneficiaries from Seminary funds, the Faculty be instructed to give them the option of receiving such aid in the form of a loan, without interest, to be repaid in larger or smaller instalments as God may enable them, and within ten years after leaving the Seminary.

3, That the foregoing resolutions be submitted to the four controlling Synods, with the request that if they meet their approval, they will endeavor to secure the hearty coöperation of their respective Presbyteries in giving them effect.

W. W. MILLS, Secretary of Board.

IX. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session in New Orleans, May 19, 1898 :

The Southwestern Presbyterian University takes pleasure in submitting its annual report concerning its Divinity School.

The professorial corps remains the same as last year. Its members, five in number, have been in excellent health, and the work of the school has gone on without any interruption whatever during the usual forty weeks.

Twenty-three students have been enrolled during the year. Of these five will, on June 8th, nothing preventing, complete the entire course of study required for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, viz.: Messrs. William Plumer Dickey, A. B., of Texas, a candidate under the care of Fort Worth Presbytery; Lucius Ross Lynn, A. B., of Tennessee, a candidate under the care of Memphis Presbytery; John Samuel Nisbet, A. B., of Arkansas, a candidate under the care of Ouachita Presbytery; William Moore Scott, A. B., of Arkansas, a licentiate of Arkansas Presbytery, and William Thorburn, A. B., of Tennessee, a candidate under the care of Nashville Presbytery. In addition to these the following, while not taking the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, will be ready to enter upon their work, viz.: Messrs. Wilbur Alonzo Cleveland, of Georgia, a candidate under the care of Atlanta Presbytery, and William Abraham Zeigler, of Louisiana, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Red River.

In the life and health and opportunities for work of all the professors and students, and in the material conditions of the institution, this Divinity School has enjoyed the signal favor of God during the past year. In the completion of a new building for gymnasium. social and devotional purposes, library and auditorium, the Divinity school, as well as the University at large, has greatly increased its facilities.

By order of the Executive Committee.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors was held April 26, 1898. Reports of the faculty show that there were forty-one students in attendance, representing seventeen institutions of learning, all of whom, with the exception of five, are under the care of Presbyteries. Fidelity and diligence have characterized the work of professors and students.

Practical mission work is afforded the students in the city and surrounding country. This work is conducted under the advice and control of the faculty, and constitutes a most valuable part of training for future usefulness.

A fair test of the policy of the Board in declining to offer any financial aid to students out of the funds of the Seminary has fully justified the wisdom of this change. The Board has taken steps towards establishing several scholarships to be awarded upon the principle of merit, which shall be ascertained by a strict examination upon entering the Seminary.

A movement was recently inaugurated by friends of the Seminary to supplement the regular income of the institution by personal subscriptions running from one to five years. The results of this endeavor have been extremely gratifying.

The Board has authorized the sale of a valuable building in Louisville, and the application of the funds of the sale to the enlargement of the main dormitory and class-room building.

The regular course of study remains unchanged, but much advanced special work has been done, and a number of special courses have been provided for the next session.

The students have enjoyed excellent health during the session. An earnest and happy devotional spirit has characterized the work of the institution.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred upon the following young men: George Vernon Dickey, William Thomas George, Gilbert Glass, William Lewis Hickman, Robert Bowman Hudson, Donald Murchison Grant, Henry Hayes Sweets, William Collins Tenney, Willis Wade Williams, Emmett Leigh Wilson, Archibald Alexander Hill.

A diploma in all the schools except Old Testament and New Testament Exegesis was awarded to Thomas Calvin Cleveland.

In the school of Biblical Introduction six students were enrolled. The following passed examination successfully: H. P. Alexander, J. H. Bellot, T. F. Gallaher, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little.

In the school of Old Testament Exegesis thirty one were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: H. P. Alexander, T. F. Gallaher, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little, J. Little, E. F. Abbott, J. J. Alexander, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. T. George, J. T. Hall, R. B. Hudson, E. H. Moseley, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis, A. D. Rice, W. C. Tenney, E. L. Wilson.

In the school of New Testament Exegesis fourteen were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: A. O. Browne, W. Clift, J. H. Edwards, G. V. Dickey, W. T. George, G. Glass, W. L. Hickman, R. B. Hudson, H. H. Sweets, W. C. Tenney, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson.

In the School of English Bible and Biblical Theology twenty were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: H. P. Alexander, J. H. Bellot, T. F. Gallaher, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little, J. J. Alexander, A. O. Browne, T. C. Cleveland, G. V. Dickey, W. E. Furr, G. Glass, D. M. Grant, A. A. Hill, R. B. Hudson, C. Sheltman, H. H. Sweets, W. C. Tenney, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson.

In the School of Systematic Theology thirty-three were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: E. F. Abbott, J. K. Ake, J. J. Alexander, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, W. Clift, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. E. Furr, C. L. Goodman, J. T. Hall, E. H. Moseley, H. McDowell, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis, A. D. Rice, C. Sheltman, T. C. Cleveland, W. T. George, G. Glass, D. M. Grant, W. L. Hickman, A. A. Hill, R. B. Hudson, H. H. Sweets, W. C. Tenney, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson.

In the School of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology thirty-four were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: E. F. Abbott, S. H. Ake, J. J. Alexander, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, W. Clift, G. V. Dickey, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. E Furr, C. L. Goodman, J. T. Hall, G. W. Jurey, J. Little, E. H. Moseley, H. McDowell, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis A. D. Rice, C. Sheltman, T. C. Cleveland, H. S. Cocherham, G. V. Dickey, W. T. George, G. Glass, D. M. Grant, W. L. Hickman, A. A. Hill, R. B. Hudson, H. H. Sweets, W. C. Tenney, W. W. Williams; E. L. Wilson.

In the School of Apologetics eight were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: H. P. Alexander, G. V. Dickey, T. F. Gallaher, D. M. Grant, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little.

In the School of Elocution twenty-six were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: E. F. Abbott, H. P. Alexander, J. S. Baird. A. O. Browne, J. H. Edwards. W. E. Furr, C. L. Goodman, J. T. Hall, G. W. Jurey, H. McDowell, E. P. Pillans, A. D. Rice, J. K Ake, J. J. Alexander, J. H. Bellot, W. Clift, F. E. Fincher, T. F. Gallaher, D. M Grant, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little, E. H. Moseley, J. O. Reavis, C. Sheltman.

In the School of Church History and Polity twenty-nine were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: T. C. Cleveland, G. V. Dickey, W. T. George, Gilbert Glass, D. M. Grant, W. L. Hickman, H. H. Sweets, W. C. Tenney, W. W. Williams, E. L. Wilson, E. F. Abbott, G. D. Adamson, J. J. Alexander, S. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, G. V. Dickey, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, E. H. Moseley, H. McDowell, E. P Pillans, J. O Reavis, A. D. Rico, C. Shelsman G. W. Jurey, W. C. Tenney, John Little, W. W. Williams.

In the School of the Standards six were enrolled, and the following passed examination successfully: H. P. Alexander, J. H. Bellot, T. F. Gallaher, W. K. Johnston, D. D. Little.

Mr. J. J. Harbison, of Louisville, Ky., was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board due to Mr. R. S. Veech's failure to serve.

An addition of three hundred and thirty-seven valuable books has been made to the library.

The goodness of God to the institution during the past session is humbly and gratefully acknowledged.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. HUNTER, President.

J. S. Lyons, Secretary.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to meet in New Orleans, Louisiana, May 19, 1898*:*

Your Trustees submit the following report for the year ending April 28, 1898:

Since our last annual meeting we deeply regret to have to report the death of our much beloved and honored Treasurer, John E. Oates, who departed this life July 30, 1897.

Our Treasurer's annual account, which has been duly audited and approved, and which we hand you herewith, shows that he has received nine thousand five hundred and eighty dollars and thirty-two cents($9,580.32), leaving a balance on hand of twelve hundred and thirty-one dollars and twenty-nine cents ($1,231.29), including balance from preceding year, as shown in report. We have received a part of the Miss Mary Baldwin legacy—one thousand dollars ($1,000) for Home Missions and two thousand dollars ($2,000) for Foreign Missions. We have also received the Mary P. Wiley legacy of five hundred dollars ($500) for Home Missions; also the M. F. Harmon legacy of twelve hundred and forty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($1,247.50) for Home and Foreign Missions; and also other smaller bequests, as may be seen in the Treasurer's report.

We regret to report that our expectations in regard to the bequest of the late Dr. John M. Sutton, of Midway, Kentucky, cannot be realized, owing to the failure of a bank in which he was a director and a large stockholder, and on account of numerous claims which have been presented against his estate. The amount we will receive will be materially diminished, and his executor as yet has made no payment on this bequest.

The bequest of John C. Ross, of Cabarrus county, North Carolina, for Home Missions, amounting to fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) or more, much exceeds the amount we had expected to receive, and will be paid to us this year.

The term of the following officers will expire with this meeting of the Board, namely: Dr. J. B. Shearer, D. W. Oates, and John R. Pharr. The officers of the Board beginning to-day are: Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, President; Geo. E. Wilson, Vice-President; and John R. Pharr, Secretary and Treasurer.

Your Board would recommend the reëlection of D. W. Oates and John R. Pharr, and the election of Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton, of this city, in place of Rev. Dr. J. B. Shearer (who lives twenty miles from the city, and is thereby prevented from attending any of our meetings), and of Rev. J. W. Stagg in place of John E. Oates, deceased.

Respectfully submitted. E. NYE HUTCHISON, President.

Charlotte, N. C., April 28, 1898.

XII. REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

The Permanent Committee on the Sabboth would report to the General Assembly that they have received reports from fifty of the seventy-seven Presbyteries, a consolidation of which only confirms the statement made in previous reports of a growing dishonor and disregard for the Lord's day by the people generally of this country. This disregard has been on the increase for years, the general trend being in the direction of looser views and practices. The reports this year, if anything, are even more discouraging than ever, and show a more rapid demoralization than any for some time. A very large number of the Presbyteries express themselves very decidedly in the belief that there is no improvement, and fully as many declare that there is manifest deterioration in the matter of Sabbath observance. Only a few say that there seems to be any visible improvement. With a few exceptions, they generally express the belief that travel and traffic are largely on the increase, especially the former, there being in many instances actually more travel on the Lord's day than any other; that, with the exception of a few localities, freight trains are allowed to run, especially through ones, and more particularly those claiming to have perishable freight on board; and further, that the Sunday newspaper is largely on the increase, especially on main lines of railroad and in the vicinity of the larger cities.

The reasons for this increased deterioration will be readily seen:

1. The first is that just mentioned, viz.: the increased number of Sunday papers, with their increased size and increased amount of reading matter, taking up so much of the time and attention of the people as to leave very little if any for religious thought and worship.

2. The second is cheap excursions on the Lord's day. It seems from the reports that it is getting quite common for the railroads, if not to give excursions, at least to sell tickets at reduced rates on the Sabbath, which is simply offering a premium for travel on the Sabbath, and which explains the statement in some of the reports that the travel on that day is actually greater than any other.

3. The third cause now operating with greater force than any other is the existence of the present war. Nothing so demoralizes a people and does more to weaken their reverence for the day than war. The building of ships, the preparation of war materials, the marshalling of troops, the skirmishes and battles on Sunday, the interest and anxiety to hear the news, are all well calculated to lessen the obligations of the day. Newspapers, in order to furnish the news, justify themselves in issuing an extra on Sunday, and the people for the same reason are rushing to the trains to purchase the same of the newsboys. Many measures and practices adopted as war measures during the late civil strife still remain, though the exigencies calling them into existence have long since passed. And whilst we cannot doubt but that God will overrule the present struggle, as all others, for his own glory and the advancement of his kingdom, we cannot but feel anxious about the effect it will have upon the future Sabbath of this country. It would seem, therefore, a particularly opportune time for the Assembly again to caution our people against the peculiar temptation at this time to relax their hold upon the sanctity of the day.

By way of encouragement on the other side, we would mention the gratifying fact reported to former Assemblies, that our own people are pretty generally holding to the tradition of the fathers on the subject; that our ministers are endeavoring faithfully and earnestly to counsel and instruct them in the duties and obligations growing out of the fourth commandment; and that our people, upon the whole, are observing a tolerably fair respect for the sacredness of the day.

As long as our own people, especially our ministers and elders, adhering to the traditions of the past, continue to hold with a firm grasp and enforce the teachings of the Scriptures upon this subject, we may expect our church to become one of the mighty bulwarks of the nation, and the great breakwater to resist the incoming tide of error and infidelity.

Praying God's blessing upon you, and that heavenly wisdom may be granted you in devising suitable measures for the advancement of his kingdom, we subscribe ourselves,

Very respectfully,
JAMES STACY,
THERON H. RICE,
J. A. BARRY.

The other member of the committee, Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., was not present at the meeting of the committee.

XIII. REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE CHARLOTTE ASSEMBLY TO BE PRESENT AT THE CONVENTION OF COLORED MINISTERS AND CHURCHES.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States in Session at New Orleans, La., May 19, 1898:

The undersigned were appointed by the General Assembly of 1897, together with Rev. J. W. Bachman, D. D., and Hon. J. W. Lapsley, to represent it in case a convention should be called for the organization of a Colored Presbyterian Church. We respectfully submit the following report concerning the convention which was held.

We regret exceedingly that providential reasons prevented the attendance of Dr. Bachman and Judge Lapsley. We met promptly at the beginning of the convention and faithfully attended every session to its close, giving such counsel and aid as seemed necessary.

As a part of this report we beg to submit here a printed copy of the Minutes of the convention.

MINUTES OF THE COLORED PRESBYTERIAN CONVENTION, HELD AT BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, NOVEMBER 26–28, 1897.

FRIDAY, November 26, 1897.

The convention, called by the Independent Presbyteries within the bounds of the Southern General Assembly, through the agency of the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization, met in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, Alabama, at 2:30 P. M., and was called to order by the Rev. G. T. Goetchius, D. D., who offered prayer.

The action of the Charlotte Assembly in regard to this convention and the actions of the Independent Colored Presbyteries on the same subject were read.

Rev. L. J. Washington, of the Presbytery of Central Alabama, was elected chairman, and Rev. E. W. Benjamin, of the Presbytery of Ethel, was elected secretary of the convention.

After devotional exercises conducted by the chairman, consisting of reading the Bible, singing and prayer, the following were enrolled as members of the convention: From Independent Presbyteries: Rev. J. A. Turney, of the Presbytery of Texas; Rev. G. S Alford, of the Presbytery of North and South Carolina; Rev. A. E. Reed, of the Presbytery of Chester. Two Presbyteries still under the jurisdiction of the Assembly, were represented, as follows: From the Presbytery of Central Alabama—Revs. L. J. Washington, I. C. H. Champney, G. W. Covington, and S. W. Hudson, with Ruling Elder G. B. Erwin; from the Presbytery of Ethel—Rev. E. W. Benjamin.

Of the committee appointed by the General Assembly, there were present, Rev. Drs. G. T. Goetchius, Moderator of the Assembly and chairman, A. B. Curry, and A. L. Phillips, Secretary of Colored Evangelization, with Dr. E. H. Sholl, Chairman of the Assembly's Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization. Rev. E. M. Clarke, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America (Northern), Rev. Mr. Hunly, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. S. G. Shields, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Fry, were introduced and invited to sit as visiting brethren.

The following Committee on Resolutions was appointed: I. C. H. Champney, J. A. Turner, E. W. Benjamin, A. E. Reed, and G. B. Erwin.

The following Committee on Devotional Exercises was appointed: S. W. Hudson, G. W. Covington, and G. B. Erwin.

It was resolved that the matter of the organization of an Independent Colored Presbyterian Church be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises recommended the adoption of the printed programme without change. Adopted.

EVENING SESSION, 7:30 P. M.

There were brief devotional exercises, led by the chairman.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly to attend the convention was formally introduced. Addresses were made by Rev. G. T. Goetchius, D. D., by Rev. L. J. Washington, and by Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D.

The convention adjourned, to meet Saturday at 9:30 A. M.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1898.

The convention was called to order and was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by the chairman.

Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Communications from Ruling Elder S. P. Bell, of Ethel Presbytery, and Rev. E. W. Williams, of Abbeville Presbytery, expressing regret that they were unavoidably kept from the meeting, were read.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted a report, which was taken up seriatim.

Rev. J. M. Coleman, of the Presbytery of Ethel, was enrolled as a member of the Convention, having been detained by a delayed train.

Pending the full and earnest consideration of the report of the Committee on Resolutions, the Convention took a recess till 2 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION, 2 P. M.

The Convention reassembled, and took up the unfinished business. A substitute to the original report of the committee was unanimously adopted, as follows:

"Resolved, (1), That it is the sense of this Convention that a separate, self-governing Presbyterian Church for the Colored People should be organized at the earliest day consistent with stability and efficiency; and, furthermore, it is our conviction that the desired day is at hand.

"(2), That we therefore call upon all colored Presbyterians who hold these convictions with us to send two ministers and two ruling elders as commissioners to a meeting to be held in the Berean Church, in the city of New Orleans, on the third Thursday of May, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of perfecting the organization of this separate and self-governing Presbyterian Church.

"(3), That Rev. L. J. Washington, as principal, and Rev. J. A. Turner, as alternate, preach the opening sermon, and preside till an organization can be effected; and that Rev. J. M. Coleman and Rev. E. W. Williams constitute a committee on commissioners and credentials.

"We are moved to this action by the following considerations: (1), That the General Assembly has given its assurance of the continuance of its financial help and hearty co-operation, which assurance we receive in all good faith and thankfulness. (2), That to place, as far as possible, the control of all business necessary to the life and growth of the organization in the hands of colored men will conduce largely to the progress of Presbyterianism amongst our race for the glory of Christ, the Head of the church."

Rev. I. C. H. Champney, J. A. Turner, E. W. Benjamin, G. S. Alford, A. E. Reed, and E. W. Williams, with Rev. L. J. Washington as chairman, were appointed a committee to correspond with the churches, and to make necessary arrangements for the meeting in New Orleans.

Convention took recess, to meet at 7:30 P. M., to hear a sermon by Rev. J. A. Turner.

EVENING SESSION, 7:30 P. M.

After the sermon, the Convention resumed business. Rev. S. W. Jordan, of the Baptist Church, Rev. C. S. Dickins, and N. H. Hudson, M. D., were introduced, and invited to sit as visiting brethren.

It was unanimously resolved, That the Convention return its most hearty thanks to the good people of Birmingham, white and colored, for generous hospitality; to the railroads for kindness shown; to the General Assembly's Committee for their faithful attendance, their wise counsels, and their inspiring words; and to the press of the city for full reports of the proceedings.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Convention adjourned, with prayer and singing, and the benediction by the chairman, to meet in New Orleans, Louisiana, on the third Thursday (the 19th day) of May, 1898. L. J. WASHINGTON, Chairman.

E. W. BENJAMIN, Secretary.

We do not think it necessary to repeat the facts mentioned in the Minutes, and shall content ourselves with making a few observations.

First of all, we wish to record the pleasant impression made upon us by the members of the Convention. They made an excellent appearance in all respects. Some of them were graduates of our Stillman Institute; others had not enjoyed that privilege. All were dignified men, seemingly impressed with the great importance of the work in hand.

They showed considerable and accurate knowledge of parliamentary law, and transacted their work in a very orderly and proper manner. There were no needless delays, and no useless discussions of unimportant matters. All seemed anxious to know what was the best thing for them to do in order to promote the interests of our church among the colored people.

At first there was considerable difference of opinion as to whether the time had arrived for the organization of an independent colored Presbyterian Church. Discussion brought them closer together. The difficulties in the way of immediate organization, as developed in discussion, were chiefly three, to wit:

1. The poverty of their people and the smallness of their membership forbade their undertaking complete self-support. The great distances between the centres of their membership would make the meetings of their highest court difficult and expensive.

2. The continuance of their connection with our Assembly would, in their view, secure to them the great advantages of review and control. Such connection would also tend strongly to keep alive such interest as now exists in their welfare.

3. If they should at that time declare independence, they would not own any church property, since the deeds of their churches are not, as a rule, made to them.

It was quite clear to us that the principal difficulty in the way was the lack of money to carry on their work. If there were a reasonable sufficiency of money, we do not doubt that the greatest difficulty would at once disappear.

When questioned as to the exact attitude of the General Assembly towards this movement, we answered them fully and frankly that the Assembly was most solemnly pledged to continue to aid them with money and with counsel; that the Assembly wished them to decide for themselves as to the best time for the organization, advising them, however, to proceed with it as soon as practicable.

The Committee on Resolutions, after full and careful consideration, finally reported in favor of organization. After discussing the report in convention, they finally unanimously adopted the paper given in the accompanying copy of the Minutes of the Convention.

It is certain that the colored ministers and people are not united on this matter. There is considerable difference of opinion. But so far as we know, there is no serious difference in the four independent Presbyteries, who strongly desire to perfect an organization at the meeting to assemble in New Orleans on the 19th of May, 1898.

In closing this report we wish to thank the church for the privilege of attending this convention as her representatives. We greatly enjoyed meeting the colored brethren. We gained much substantial information about their work and our work among them, and our hearts were deeply stirred as we gained better knowledge of their self-denial for the work's sake, Very respectfully submitted,

GEO. T. GOETCHIUS.

XIV. ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

We have earnestly endeavored to carry out the recommendations of the last Assembly. We immediately passed a resolution declaring the college separated from the Home and Training School, so as in future to relieve the Assembly from any and all responsibility for the conduct and support of the same so far as the Board could legally effect this separation in view of existing contracts.

For want of a purchaser we rented the above property for one year in such a manner as to relieve the Assembly of the conduct and support of said college, and at the same time providing for the education of the orphans under our care, and securing for them all the advantages of Fredericksburg College as rented by Dr. A. P. Saunders. The recommendation in regard to finding out the exact amount of indebtedness on Home and Training School, and then making a definite appeal to churches to liquidate the debt was faithfully carried out. The strictest economy has been practiced in the Home, and only actual necessities were provided for. The collection, after many urgent appeals through the religious papers, was taken up, and the following was the result: 285 churches and 43 individuals responded, and the amount of $3,415 was realized.

In view of our financial difficulties, we have cut down our expenses to the lowest possible point. This we have accomplished by the strictest economy of space and money, and by providing for some of our young ladies in one of our buildings rented by Dr. Saunders, the consideration of their board being the rent of the same. The very best Christian influence has been brought to bear upon the inmates of the Home. We believe it has been a happy home, and that the children of our deceased ministers have appreciated our efforts.

Profoundly impressed with the idea that the church appreciates the value of the educational features of the Home we have given the orphans all the advantages offered by the Fredericksburg College, which we can unhesitatingly say have been extended and valuable.

OFFICERS.

S. W. Somerville, Secretary, Treasurer and Superintendent; Mrs. John Boyle, Housekeeper; Mrs. James H. Smith, Matrom.

The students in the Home number thirty-five.

We take great pleasure in stating that these students are among the very best in the college. The highest places are often occupied by them. Also by far the greater part of them are professing Christians, and we have good reason to expect great results from their lives.

The college building and grounds were sold in March, 1898, to Rev. F. P. Ramsey for the amount of indebtedness thereupon. The Board reserved the right of college tuition for as many as twenty-four orphans free for ten years.

Whilst our financial condition has been a distressing one, and we have almost staggered under the great burdens we have been bearing, yet we take this occasion to thank those faithful individuals and churches who have so kindly ministered to us in various ways. It is with a feeling of great satisfaction that we report to you that during the present session we have met all current expenses promptly; when we say current expenses, we include interest $758.49, insurance $96.82, and other miscellaneous accounts, and in addition to this we have paid 20 per cent. of the old accounts and notes. By referring to the Treasurer's statements from September 1st to April 1st you will note that the amount of the small December collection is not quite equal to the amount paid on old accounts and notes and the amount on hand April 1st, which fact shows that the expenses of the institution, including a large interest account, have been met outside of the December collection.

We also beg that we be authorized to employ some capable man to undertake, as soon as possible, to raise the money to liquidate the debt now resting on this Home for the orphans of our deceased members. We believe this debt having been paid, the church will cheerfully support the beneficiaries under our care.

Report of the Assembly's Training School for Women.

The number of students of the present session shows a gratifying increase over the two previous years. Six foreign missionary candidates have been enrolled, three of them in the senior and three in the junior class, and three other students are taking the full course, and twelve special students have studies in one department only of the curriculum, as against the three foreign and one home missionary candidates and seven special students in attendance a year ago. Six students in addition are connected with the school, pursuing courses through correspondence, four of whom have determined upon foreign missionary service. Two students attending the school have been called upon by the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions to sail during the session, the one to Brazil and the other to China. And two students will graduate in June, after completing the full course of two years. The departments of instruction remain Theology, including Bible study, Doctrine and Church History, and Missions, Medicine and Pedagogy.

This school has been reorganized during the present year by separating it from the other institution of the Home and School corporation, and allowing it a separate treasury. and a treasurer of its own. The running expenses have been reduced 20 per cent. and aggregate $875, of which $855 are for salaries, and $20 for printing; $130 also were raised and expended for scholarships and $40 for the library. The income has been derived entirely from special contributions for the support of this school. Such contributions have always met the expenses of the school in the past and will do so the present session. To preclude, however, any possibility of debt in the future, all salaries have been arranged for amounts to be paid only so far as may be justified by the actual income of the year. This school seeks only voluntary contributions for its support.

The attention of Stated Clerks and Treasurers of Presbyteries is earnestly invited to the above new schedule of assessments, calculated, by order of Assembly of 1896, upon the basis of one cent for each church member. It will require all the annual payments here indicated to meet the annual expenses of the General Assembly.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions, and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organizations of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at the meeting of the Assembly, also the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments. See page 278

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives be sent to the Assembly.

On motion of Rev. Roger Martin, the Assembly was led in prayer by Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D. D., for divine direction in choosing a Moderator, and resolved that the choice be made by ballot without nomination.

The Rev. John F. Cannon, D. D., a commissioner from the Presbytery of St. Louis, was elected Moderator.

The Rev. Alexander Sprunt, D. D., a commissioner from the Presbytery of Bethel, and the Rev. Thomas H. Law, D. D., a commissioner from the Presbytery of Enoree, were chosen Temporary Clerks.

The Assembly adopted the following minute on the decease of the Rev. Dr. W. U. Murkland, of the Presbytery of Maryland:

The Rev. W. U. Murkland, D. D., of Baltimore, elected a commissioner to this General Assembly, having been translated to his eternal rest on May 13, 1899, this Assembly hereby places on record its sense of loss in the removal of one so successful in work and so valuable in counsel, and tenders its sympathy to the family bereaved of their honored and beloved. The Stated Clerk is directed to forward to Mrs. Murkland a copy of this resolution.

The following was adopted:

The General Assembly hereby extends its greeting to the Protestant Episcopal Council, of the Diocese of Virginia, now in session in this city, expressing our hearty interest in the work of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and our cordial regard for their bishops, clergymen and people as brethren beloved in the Lord, invoking upon them the blessing of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

A copy of this resolution, signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, is ordered sent to the Council at St. Paul's Church, Richmond, Va.

It was ordered that the daily sessions of the Assembly be from 9:30 A. M. to 2 P. M.; 4:30 P. M. to 6:30 P. M.; 8:15 P. M., at pleasure of the Assembly.

To-morrow at twelve o'clock M. was designated as the time for receiving the Ministerial Union of Richmond and suburbs.

It was ordered that the Lord's supper be celebrated to-morrow night at 8:15.

The following invitations were acknowledged with thanks, and the Assembly resolved to adjourn on the days specified so that members may avail themselves of the courtesy: From the ladies of this church to an excursion on the James river this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock; from the Covenanter bands of Richmond to a reception in this house at 8:15

Saturday night; from the Faculty of Union Theological Seminary to visit that institution at 5 o'clock P. M. next Monday.

The Assembly adjourned until half after nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by Rev. E. M. Green, D. D.

NO. 26, NORTH HIGH STREET,
COLUMBIA, TENN., May 15, 1899.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN: It will be seen from the enclosed extract of the minutes of the General Assembly of 1898, assembled in the city of New Orleans, that the undersigned were appointed by that venerable body a committee "to confer with the Associate Reformed Church, proposing organic union with that church, and asking for the appointment," etc.

Your committee beg leave to report that, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly, they appointed one of the committee, viz., Rev. Alexander Sprunt, to visit the Associate Synod, in session at Chester, S. C., October last, and bearing the greetings of our Assembly, to make known the desire of our church, and request the appointment of a committee of conference on the subject.

Dr. Sprunt visited the Synod, and ably presented the matter to said body. In response the "Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the South" passed the following resolutions, respectfully declining to appoint the committee asked for by our Assembly; the resolutions are as follows:

In reference to the proposed organic union between the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church of the United States, commonly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church, which cause was presented by Dr. Alexander Sprunt, of Rock Hill, S. C., the representative of that church, it was

"Resolved, 1. That this Synod desires to express in the warmest terms its esteem and affection for this noble church of Christ, because of its fidelity to the truth of God, because, also, of the great work it is doing for the Master, and, further, because 'we have so many things in common.'

"Resolved, 2. That we regard union with this honored body most desirable, provided our historic testimony in favor of an exclusive use of an inspired psalmody for the united church might be maintained.

"Resolved, 3. Inasmuch, however, as such testimony is, in our judgment, a barrier to organic union, we regard it unwise to prosecute negotiations to that end."

Your committee, having discharged the duty assigned to them, respectfully ask to be discharged.

F. B. WEBB, Chairman.

An overture from Rev. D. A. Planck and others, asking review of the action of the Synod of Alabama in dividing presbyteries without the consent of said presbyteries, was referred to the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama.

The Annual Report of the Directors of the Theological Department of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A paper purporting to be an appeal against an action of the Synod of Kentucky, was not received because presented later than the second day of the sessions of the Assembly.

The first order of the day, the consideration of the report on Church and Christian Education, was deferred, and the order for eleven o'clock was taken up, and the Assembly proceeded to the selection of a place for the meeting of the next Assembly. The Assembly made choice of Atlanta, Ga., in the Central Church.

The report of the ad interim Committee on Church and Christian Education was then taken up. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess for five minutes.

After recess, the Assembly met and received the following response to its greetings to the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly:

"DENVER, COL., May 22, 1899.

"To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Richmond, Va.:

"General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church gratefully acknowledges receipt of your salutations, and heartily reciprocates the same, with the prayer that you may sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

"J. M. HALLSELL, Moderator."

"J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk."

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of addresses by foreign missionaries, the Rev. Dr. Woodrow in the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The Assembly was addressed by the Revs. S. P. Verner, of Africa; W. C. Buchanan, of Japan; Mark B. Grier, of China; George E. Henderlite, of Brazil, and P. F. Price, of China.

An overture from the Synod of Georgia, touching an amendment of the Constitution respecting trials for licensure and ordination was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly had recess until 8:15 o'clock P. M.

8:15 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and heard the Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath. It was referred to the Standing Committee on the Sabbath.

The Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, in behalf of the Western Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, bore the salutations of that body to the Assembly.

The consideration of the report of the ad interim Committee on Church and Christian Education was resumed.

The Rev. Dr. Summey presented the following resolution which was adopted:

"Whereas, Ruling Elder J. R. Mitchell, a member of this Assembly, has just heard by telegram of the death of a beloved daughter, and has been called home by this sad bereavement, therefore,

"Resolved, That this Assembly tenders its profound sympathy to our brother in his sorrow, and that in the closing prayer to-night this Assembly do remember him and his family at the throne of grace."

The Assembly adjourned until 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

FIFTH DAY.

MAY 23, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. C. G. Christian.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows:

1. A recommendation that the communication, asking delegates to be sent to the unveiling of a monument in New Jersey, be transferred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence. Adopted.

2. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of Louisville, asking that the effort to prepare a new hymn-book be abandoned, be answered in the negative. This recommendation was put on the docket.

3. Recommending that the overtures from the Presbyteries of Abingdon, Central Texas, and Maryland, proposing negotiations with the Century Company in regard to a new hymn-book, be referred to the committee to prepare such book. Adopted.

4. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of North Alabama, asking that a "shape" note edition of the new hymn-book be issued, be referred to the committee to prepare such book. Adopted.

5. Recommending the granting of the overture of the Presbytery of Louisville, asking that the verbiage of amendments adopted, be inserted in the minutes of the Assembly. Adopted.

6. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of North Alabama, asking that the Constitution be so amended as to authorize but one stated annual meeting of the presbytery, be answered in the negative. Adopted.

7. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of Eastern Texas, asking whether the moderator of a presbytery may call a meeting without the concurrence of two ministers and two ruling elders, be answered in the affirmative. This item went to the docket.

8. Recommending that the Assembly decline to entertain the overture from the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking that Paragraph 278 of the Book of Church Order be amended by adding the words, "The session dismissing shall notify the session of the church to which dismissed, of such dismission. When such member is received, session receiving shall notify session dismissing of such reception." This answer was adopted.

9. Recommending that a negative answer be given to the overture from the Presbytery of Paris, asking whether a church session "may place in a separate list, and not report to presbytery as active members, the names of resident members who habitually absent themselves from the services and ordinances of the church for years." The answer was adopted.

10. Recommending that in reply to an overture from the Synod of Missouri, the Assembly declare that the authority for committing to the deacons the temporal affairs of the church lies with the session. This item was put upon the docket.

11. Recommending that the Assembly decline the request from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union that an annual temperance Sabbath be observed, this declinature being because the same request was answered by the last Assembly. This recommendation was adopted.

12. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of Athens against the observance of Christmas and Easter as holy days, be answered affirmatively. This answer went to the docket.

13. Recommending that, in answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Albemarle, the Assembly declare that an alternate may be substituted for a principal. This answer was docketed.

14. Recommending that, in answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Bethel, the Assembly say that the figures in the reports on Systematic Beneficence should include the amounts given in the statistical tables. This item was docketed.

15. In answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Fayetteville, asking the appointment of an ad interim committee to prepare a pastoral letter against worldliness, the appointment of such a committee for said purpose is not recommended. This answer was put upon the docket.

16. In answer to overtures from the Presbyteries of Western Texas and Central Texas, the former asking that the Confession of Faith (Chapter xxxi., Section 4) be amended by striking out the words "by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary," and inserting in their stead "by way of solemn protest when their rightful prerogatives are invaded"; and the latter asking that from said Section 4 of Chapter xxxi., all after the word "commonwealth" be omitted—the Assembly is recommended to say that what is asked for is inexpedient. Adopted.

17. In answer to overtures from the Synod of Georgia and the Presbyteries of North Alabama, Lexington and Bethel, asking change in the Constitution so as to require of candidates for licensure and ordination examination as to their knowledge of the English Bible, the Assembly is recommended to decline to submit to the presbyteries the suggested amendment. This answer was put upon the docket.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence made the following report, which was adopted.

Your Committee on Systematic Beneficence beg leave to submit the following report:

There have come into our hands reports from seventy-three presbyteries, two more than last year, leaving four presbyteries from which we have had no report—Ethel, Indian, Central Alabama, and Western District.

In the main, these reports are quite full and satisfactory; some are incomplete, in that they do not give the number of wholly non-contributing churches, as follows: Ebenezer, South Carolina, Nashville, Pine Bluff, Tombeckbee, Muhlenburg, Maryland, Brazos, Fayetteville, Chesapeake, St. Louis, Wilmington, Bethel. Some do not bear the names of the presbyteries on their face, as follows: Maryland, Suwanee, and Ouachita. The report from Arkansas has no name on it at all, the committee being able to identify it from the name of the Stated Clerk. The reports from Chesapeake and St. Louis were not sent up on the regular blanks provided for the purpose. For these reasons our tabulated report does not represent with perfect accuracy the facts as to church contributions.

A little more than $2,600 less for Foreign Missions is reported this year than last, and 165 fewer contributing churches. With this exception the amounts given to the benevolent causes are greater than last year, although the number of contributing churches is less, except in the contributions to General Assembly Home Missions, Invalid Fund, and Education.

The largest increase is seen in the contributions to the Bible Society, there being an increase in amount of $3,621.97, and of contributing churches 23.

Our tabulated report shows 2,755 churches reported as to contributions, 61 fewer giving to all the objects than gave last year, and 27 fewer are reported as giving to none of these causes.

We recommend that the General Assembly enjoin upon all the stated clerks of presbyteries—

1. To see to it that the reports from their presbyteries are sent up promptly.
2. To use the blanks provided for the purpose by the Publication Committee in making out their reports.
3. To be careful to make these reports complete by filling out all the blanks.

The following is the tabulated statement of contributions to the benevolent causes of the church made out from the reports in our hands:

1536	churches	gave	to Foreign Missions,	$103,313 33

The Standing Committee on Education made a report, which was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education respectfully submits the following report:

The committee has had placed in its hands the minutes of the Executive Committee on Education, the monthly reports of the Secretary of Education, the Treasurer's report with Auditing Committee's certificates, and the printed report of the Executive Committee. These documents have been carefully examined. The Secretary has also been conferred with for information touching various interests involved. From these papers the Standing Committee finds that during the year just closed the sum of $16,883.79 was contributed through the Assembly's Executive Agency to the cause of Ministerial Education, and the sum of $16,852.47 disbursed, leaving a cash balance on hand of $31.32. Two hundred and nine candidates have been aided, most of them in the sum of $70 to $75 each. The administration of the work has cost $2,035.15. The Auditing Committee's certificates indicate that the Secretary's and Treasurer's books and accounts have been duly examined and found correct.

The Standing Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Executive Committee be approved, its diligence and faithfulness and the Secretary's activity and businesslike methods be commended, and that the Assembly's thanks be expressed to the Union and Planters and the Memphis National Banks for the facilities which they have afforded for the Executive Committee's business, and to the Treasurer for his services on the merely nominal salary paid him.

2. That the Executive Committee be directed hereafter to close its books promptly not later than May 5th, and that contributions received after that time be not used in payments to beneficiaries of amounts promised for the year then closing.

3. That the Executive Committee be directed to continue the same appropriations to candidates as last year, namely, $75 per scholastic year, the appropriation being in the nature of a promise dependent upon the contributions of the churches, and not in the nature of a debt; and that no appropriations be made to candidates who are in preparatory schools, nor to any who are not in institutions approved by their respective presbyteries; and that the beneficiaries be required to report to the committee any financial aid received or provided for from other sources at the time so received or provided for.

4. That the sum of not less than $30,000 being essential to the efficient conduct of the cause of ministerial education, the Assembly urge it upon the presbyteries to make most earnest efforts to secure at least this amount during the year now entered upon, and authorize the Executive Committee to designate the proportion of this amount which each presbytery should secure as its proper share in the bearing of this responsibility; that all the presbyteries be urged to coöperate, if possible, with the Assembly's work; and that the cause be commended to the favorable consideration of the benevolent in making bequests to the church.

5. That, in order to the bringing of the Executive Committee into closer relations with the work as it is cared for in any of its phases by the presbyteries, the presbyteries be directed to send to the Executive Committee, through their chairmen of Education, abstracts or copies of all matters pertaining to the work of Ministerial Education, such as reception of candidates, their progress, scholastic standing, and all other such information as shall help the committee in its effort to make a judicious use of the funds of the church; and especially that the presbyteries direct full and explicit answers to be given to all inquiries which the Executive Committee may reasonably make in the prosecution of its work; and that the presbyteries be again urged to adopt and follow the plan elaborated by the General Assembly of 1895, and made the Assembly's Manual of Education in the reception and aiding of candidates.

6. That the following forms of application for aid be used by candidates and by presbyteries in behalf of candidates.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR AID TO BE USED BY CANDIDATES.

. . . . 18 . .

Being a candidate for the ministry under the care of the Presbytery of . . . and being unable to defray the expenses of my education, I hereby request the presbytery to aid me this year to the amount of $ . . . while pursuing my . . . studies at . . . in the . . . year of my course.

In making this application I hereby certify—

1. That I expect to receive from other sources this year $ . . . , and that I will absolutely need the above aid to meet the necessary expenses.

2. That I will use said aid, if granted, with due economy, and for the sole purpose of the necessary expenses of my education.

3. That should this aid, for any reason, become unnecessary, I will promptly notify the presbytery, and the appropriation may be reduced or withdrawn.

Signed, ...

Under care of . . . . Presbytery.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR AID IN BEHALF OF CANDIDATES.

. . . . 18 . .

The Presbytery of . . . hereby applies to the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for aid to the amount of $ . . . in behalf of . . . . pursuing his . . . studies at . . . in the . . . year of his . . . course.

In so doing we hereby certify—

1. That this application is made in accordance with the Assembly's recommendation, as found on page 424 of the Minutes of 1895, as to the reception of candidates.

2. That in addition to his written application we have made careful inquiry as to his other sources of help, and find he will need the above sum to meet his necessary expenses.

3. That should he receive aid from other sources, rendering the full appropriation, or any part of it, unnecessary, we will notify the committee, and the appropriation may be reduced or withdrawn.

4. That this presbytery is in full coöperation with the committee, and sends all of the regular collections for this cause to its treasury. Or—

4. That this presbytery is in partial coöperation with the committee, and sends . . . per cent. of its collections to its treasury.

5. That this presbytery will make diligent efforts to secure collections as appointed by the Assembly from all its churches for this cause.

Signed, ... Chairman.

7. That the following be appointed the Assembly's Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for the next ecclesiastical year, namely, Joseph H. Lumpkin, Secretary; G. W. Macrae, Treasurer; W. McF. Alexander, Neander M. Woods, Sterling J. Foster, William H. Neel, Thomas Wellford, J. S. Devant, S. P. Read, C. H. Albright, and John Johnston.

Respectfully submitted, GEORGE SUMMEY,
Chairman Committee of Education.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a partial report recommending that Rev. E. W. Williams, delegate from the "Synod of the Colored Presbyterian Church in the United States and Canada," be received by the Assembly, admitted to a seat as a corresponding member, and be heard in connection with the popular meeting on Colored Evangelization appointed for Thursday night. The report was adopted.

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report on Church and Christian Education, was resumed. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

4:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and resumed the unfinished business, and after protracted discussion adopted the ad interim committee's report on Church and Christian Education, which report is as follows:

To the Reverend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Your committee, appointed last year to consider the several overtures sent up from presbyteries on the subject of Church and Christian Education, after giving the subject careful thought and seeking the counsel of many of the leading men of the church, recommend the adoption of the following paper:

While expressing its appreciation of the great work done for the cause of education by the schools, colleges, and universities supported and controlled by civil authorities, by philanthropists, and by other religious denominations, and urging our people to do all that is expedient to throw about these institutions a wholesome Christian influence, the General Assembly does not consider it safe for any church to turn over to any other parties, either religious or civil, the entire education of her sons and daughters. The history and traditions of the Presbyterian Church in this and other countries amply prove that denominational fidelity in this and other matters has not only secured the best results for our church, but has accomplished great good by its influence on all others.

The General Assembly hails with delight the unmistakable signs of a re-awakening, not in our church only, but in all the evangelical churches, to the great importance of Christian education.

We also record with satisfaction the increasing prosperity, success, and usefulness of our higher institutions of learning, male and female, under direct church control and denominational influence. We also hail the increasing number of high schools, academies, grammar schools, and mission schools, which have more or less of direct church control. Therefore, in view of the great importance and promise of earnest effort for church and Christian education, we do recommend that all our synods, presbyteries, and church sessions undertake whatever may be practicable in furtherance of this cause, and we believe that very much may be done along denominational lines without antagonizing any good work done by others.

For the assistance and guidance of all who may find it practicable from time to time to found and support schools under church control, and in order to secure uniformity of effort and example, we do set forth the following constitution:

CONSTITUTION FOR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SCHOOLS.

(1), A school founded by a congregation, or by two more contiguous congregations, shall be called a Westminster School.

(2), The sole government of the school shall be in the hands of a board of trustees, not less than three nor more than six, who shall be appointed by the session or sessions of the churches founding the school for terms of one, two and three years, and the session or sessions shall fill vacancies as they occur, electing for three-year terms. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. The trustees in all cases must be male communicants in the Presbyterian Church.

(3), The school shall be limited in its scope and design to primary and preparatory education for males or females or both.

(4), The Bible shall be used as a text-book throughout the school in such measure and proportion as the board may determine, so as to make the school distinctively a Christian school, and the standards of the church, especially the Shorter Catechism, also, as far as it may be found practicable. The school shall be opened each day with suitable devotional exercises. It is very desirable that the pupils be trained in vocal sacred music.

(5), The board of trustees shall elect a president, secretary, and treasurer from their own number annually, and shall employ such teachers and other agencies as may be necessary.

(6), The board shall have power to raise and disburse moneys, and to hold property in trust for the furtherance of the objects of the school, and when necessary may secure articles of incorporation.

(7), The Board shall adopt their own by-laws subject to the limitations of this constitution, which constitution shall be of the nature of fundamental law to the board in the execution of their trust.

(8), In case it shall ever prove desirable to secure a charter of incorporation, the provisions of this constitution shall be incorporated into the charter, or else adopted as a fixed part of the by-laws.

(9), In founding, developing, and administering the school the board shall be careful not to incur debt.

(10), This constitution mutatis mutandis is recommended to the presbyteries and synods for the founding of educational institutions of any grade.

In furtherance of this cause of Church and Christian Education, your committee would recommend the Assembly to approve and adopt the following plan of organization for systematic effort throughout the church, which plan substantially has been in operation for some years in the four Synods of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida, and has been productive of excellent results in many places, to-wit.:

(1), That the General Assembly appoint a committee on church and Christian education, and urge the synods and presbyteries throughout the church to appoint similar committees, the duty of all which committees shall be to gather and disseminate information and excite interest in church and Christian education as best they may, and make annual reports to their respective bodies on this subject. These committees ought to be organized as permanent committees similar to those which have charge of other departments of Christian work.

(2), The chairman of the Assembly's committee shall be the organ of communication with the chairman of the several synodical and presbyterial committees.

(3), The Assembly urges upon the ministers under its charge to preach and instruct the people on the duty and necessity of providing, as far as possible, for the education of our sons and daughters, giving special emphasis to the cause of female education.

(4), That synods, presbyteries, sessions, officers, and private members of the church be exhorted and encouraged to provide, in every possible way, for schools both primary and preparatory, in which the Bible shall be a text-book.

(5), That the presbyteries are urged to prepare and circulate pastoral letters on this subject to all our people.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ROBERT P. KERR, Chairman,
J. B. SHEARER,
A. E. SPENCER,
JOHN E. WHARTON,
R. B. FULTON.

The Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., who was cordially in favor of the scheme, died before the committee met. He recognized his appointment on our committee, and wrote a valuable letter, giving his views in detail as to the plan of organization.

R. P. KERR.

The Assembly had recess until 8:15 o'clock P. M.

8:15 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and proceeded to the order of the day, a popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions. The Rev. Dr. W. N. Scott presided at the request of the Moderator, and the Assembly was addressed by the Revs. J. L. D. Houston, of Arkansas; R. M. Hall, and J. V. McCall, of Texas (the former on the work among the Mexicans in that State); W. S. Milne, of Florida; W. J. B. Lloyd, of Indian Territory, and Joseph Rennie, of Kentucky.

A collection, amounting to $202.50 in cash and pledges, was taken for Home Missions.

The Assembly adjourned until half after nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with the benediction by Dr. Scott.

SIXTH DAY.

MAY 24, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in devotional exercises by the Rev. J. A. Dickson, D. D.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Rev. E. W. Williams, delegate from the Synod of the Colored Presbyterian Church in the United States and Canada, was introduced to the Assembly, and welcomed to a seat as a corresponding member.

The following communication from ruling elders, members of this Assembly, was read, and the request to print in the Appendix was granted:

"Whereas, The ruling elders in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Minneapolis, Minn., and ruling elders in this General Assembly have exchanged Christian salutations and greetings, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That a copy of said greetings be furnished to the Assembly with the request that the same be incorporated in the Appendix to the minutes of this body."

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented a report which, after amendment by substituting the name of the Rev. Dr. Cecil in place of that of the Rev. Dr. McNeilly as a delegate to the Ecumenical Council of Foreign Missions, and the addition of Dr. Cecil to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee on Foreign Missions beg leave to submit the following report:

The General Assembly is again called upon to record our devout thanks to God for the manifest tokens of his favor which have rested upon the work of Foreign Missions during the past year. God has enabled our Executive Committee, notwithstanding some decrease in the funds at their disposal, to successfully prosecute the business entrusted to them by the church, and their report reveals the gratifying intelligence that all of our missions in various parts of the earth are in a prosperous condition. The faithful services rendered by the Executive Committee and our efficient Secretary to this cause of the church have merited the gratitude of all our people. We congratulate the church upon the ability and consecrated zeal of her devoted servants. In the name of the Assembly we also cordially welcome those missionaries which are among us, and rejoice in the cheering tidings which they bring us from the field. Through them we would extend cordial greetings to all of our beloved missionaries, assuring them of our unfailing sympathy with them in their self-denying labors, and praying that the blessing of Almighty God may abundantly rest upon them.

Your committee has carefully examined the Annual Report of the Executive Committee, and other papers handed to us by the Assembly, and would respectfully submit the following recommendations:

1. In regard to the overture from Tuskaloosa Presbytery, asking the Assembly to define the relation of churches and presbyteries organized in the foreign field to presbyteries and synods at home, and begging that the missionaries of the African field be allowed to organize churches and presbyteries in Africa, the missionaries to become members of such presbyteries, we recommend that the Presbytery of Tuskaloosa be referred to Paragraphs 13–15 of the Manual of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, adopted by the Assembly of 1895, in which the ecclesiastical status and relations of our foreign missionaries and their powers are carefully and fully defined.

2. The net receipts for the year were $144,990.10. We regret to record the fact that this is $1,053.31 less than the net receipts of the previous year. The year, however, closed April 1, 1899, without debt, and with a balance of $54.19 in the treasury. Touching this matter, and in reference to overtures from the Presbyteries of Enoree and Arkansas, asking the General Assembly to take proper steps to signalize the opening of the twentieth century by a special effort to raise not less than $200,000 for the cause of Foreign Missions in the year ending March 31, 1900, we recommend that these overtures be answered in the affirmative, and that our people be urged to make the minimum of their contributions this year one dollar each. By making this effort we shall simply be falling into line with other branches of the church of Christ in the great forward movement in the evangelization of the world, by which it is proposed to celebrate the dawn of the twentieth century. The amount of money it is thus proposed to raise is sadly needed in the maintenance and enlargement of our various missionary enterprises, and shall our beloved church hesitate to take her rightful place among her sister churches in the front ranks of that mighty host of loyal subjects of the King who claims her service? We make this recommendation in the confident hope that it will meet with the approval of the Assembly, and under the profound conviction that it will appeal to the hearts of our people, and stimulate them to a loyal and generous response.

3. In regard to the communication from the Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions representing the Protestant missionary societies and missions of the world, acquainting us with the fact that our church is entitled to thirty delegates to the conference to be held in New York city April 21 to May 1, 1900, we recommend to the Assembly that our church coöperate in this conference by sending delegates, and commending to our people the reports of the conference to be issued in two volumes, which can be secured by any church contributing the sum of five dollars to the General Fund for the support of the conference. We further recommend that our Secretary of Foreign Missions be appointed as one of our delegates to the conference, that the expenses of his attendance thereupon be defrayed from the treasury of the General Assembly, and that the following persons be appointed delegates, with the understanding that the Assembly does not assume the expense incurred by their attendance:

4. We recommend that the Assembly approve the action of the Executive Committee in inaugurating a mission in Cuba, and instruct the committee to prosecute the work begun there, as the way may be clear, with all possible vigor; that the interest of our young people in the evangelization of that island be heartily commended, and that they be urged to continue their efforts in the same direction.

5. All of our people have heard, with profound gratitude to God, of the remarkable preservation of the lives of our missionaries in the city of Hangchow at the time of the accidental explosion of a great powder magazine on the night of December 16, 1898, which wrecked our mission property. Our missionaries received many personal kindnesses from the missionaries of other churches in Hangchow, who invited the unfortunate sufferers into their houses, and provided for their necessities; the governor of Hangchow also made a personal donation of $3,000 (Mexican), equal to about $1,500 in United States currency, towards the repair of our buildings. We recommend that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the friendly missionaries of other churches for their kindness, and to the governor of Hangchow for his generous gift in those days of sore trial and loss.

6. The Executive Committee report that, in obedience to the instructions of the Assembly of 1898, negotiations are now in progress for the building and sending out of the Congo boat for the use of our missionaries in Africa. We recommend that the Assembly instruct the Executive Committee to prosecute this enterprise as rapidly as may be consistent with prudence, using the best effort to secure the construction of a steamer adapted to the needs of our work on the Congo, and should it be found expedient to consume the entire sum now held in the treasury for this purpose in the building of a suitable boat, that a special call be made upon the children of the church for the money necessary to pay the cost of its transportation to Africa.

7. We regret to learn from the Annual Report that none of our missionary publications are paying expenses, notwithstanding the marked ability with which they are edited by Rev. D. C. Rankin. The number of subscribers both to The Missionary and The Children's Missionary has decreased during the past year, and the two, together with the Prayer Calendar, have been published at a pecuniary loss to the church. We recommend, however, the continuation of all these valuable publications, such enlargement and improvement of The Missionary as may be deemed advisable by the Executive Committee, with an increase in the subscription price of of the same, should the committee judge it necessary for the best interests of the cause. We further recommend that pastors and sessions be urged to explain fully the conditions under which these publications are issued, and to adopt some practical method by which to secure a wider circulation of them among our people.

8. We observe with regret that, while only four new missionaries have been sent out during the past year, our losses from those already in the field have been the same. Among the latter was Mrs. Charles R. Morton, of the Southern Brazil Mission, who died at Fredericksburg, Va., October 22, 1898, and entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. The number of our missionaries in the field, therefore, remains 155, the same as last year. Thus we are barely holding our own in the face of the imperative demands of the work. All of our missions are in need of reinforcements, and unless we send out more laborers to the assistance of those in the field, our work will necessarily suffer. In view of the facts bearing upon this point recited in the Annual Report, we recommend that the Executive Committee be instructed to send out new missionaries to strengthen the forces in our most needy fields as speedily as the state of the treasury will justify such action.

9. We recommend that the following persons be elected members of the Executive Committee for the ensuing year, viz.: J. H. McNeilly, S. H. Chester, Angus McDonald, James I. Vance, J. W. Bachman, J. H. Lacy, F. B. Webb, G. W. Patterson, C. R. Hemphill, Russell Cecil, R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, G. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton, and W. Gales Adams; and that the Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be elected as the Assembly's Secretary of Foreign Missions.

Respectfully submitted, RUSSELL CECIL.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee has had placed in its hands for consideration the Annual Report, the Minutes, and the Treasurer's Book of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, and also four overtures to the Assembly—three bearing upon the interests of the Invalid Fund, and one upon the question of issuing a home missionary monthly.

We beg leave, after careful consideration, to submit for your action the following report:

1. We find that the minutes of the Central Committee have been well and carefully kept, and that the Treasurer's books have been duly audited, and recommend the approval of the same.

2. We cordially commend the wise management and faithful services of the Executive Committee in Atlanta.

3. We note, with sorrow, the loss, by death during the last year, of two honored and useful members of the Executive Committee—Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., and Ruling Elder David A. Beatie—both of whom have for many years rendered faithful service to the church on this committee.

4. We would suggest no change in the Assembly's present plan in conducting its Home Missions, but would heartily commend that now in use as being more and more worthy of the support and confidence of the church, as a wise and approved plan.

I. Home Missions.—We suggest the following for adoption by the Assembly:

The General Assembly renews its earnest request that the churches, including their Sabbath-schools and societies, shall raise the sum of $40,000 in the September and January collections for Assembly Home Missions; and since the Assembly has asked all Sabbath-schools to make contribution on the four "fifth Sabbaths" of the year for the support of Christian schools in the Indian Territory, and has also appointed the last Sabbath in September as "Children's Day" for Assembly Home Missions, we recommend—

1. That the Assembly urge all pastors and sessions in coöperation with Sabbath-school superintendents and teachers, to lay these interests fully before their Sabbath-schools on some Sabbath previous to the day named for the collection, and that an earnest effort be made to raise the sum of $5,000 in the Sabbath-schools for this cause.

2. We recommend that all pastors, with the endorsement of their sessions, be urged to make a full presentation of this great work to their congregations on the Sabbaths previous (if practicable) to those in which this collection is taken up in September and January; and that pastors, in all churches not using the envelope system, be urged to secure from the Assembly's officer a supply of envelopes and leaflets, such as the Central Committee is accustomed to furnish free of cost, and to distribute the same in their congregations in advance of the time for taking the collection.

3. As an aid to efficiency in this, the Assembly advises and requests that each session appoint an elder or deacon, or some other suitable person, who shall see after the distribution of these envelopes and leaflets; and that the name and address of such officer appointed be furnished to the Assembly's Secretary.

4. In making its appeals to the churches the Central Committee is instructed to send out to pastors, sessions, and Sabbath-school superintendents a copy of this action of the Assembly.

II. The Invalid Fund.—We note, with special pleasure, the marked increase in the gifts to this cause during the past year; and we recommend that an earnest effort be made to secure the sum of $18,000 during the present year, that our aged and infirm ministers and those dependent on them may be the better provided and cared for. We believe that this can readily be done, if but an earnest and general effort be made; and this we urge upon all our pastors and churches.

2. While believing that the outlook of our present scheme is good, and that it will accomplish the end if properly supported, we recognize the fact that a more adequate provision should be made by the church, and we recommend that the requests of these overtures be granted, and that an ad interim committee be appointed by the Moderator consisting of three, and, if possible, conveniently located to each other, who shall give this whole matter consideration—not only the Canadian Relief scheme (referred to), but that of the Methodist Episcopal Church (North), and any others to them occurring; and that they make report to the next Assembly.

III. Your committee does not deem it advisable to authorize the publication of a Home Mission magazine, but would recommend that the Central Committee send out before each collection a neatly prepared circular or paper containing facts and information calculated to awaken and intensify the interest of the churches in the work.

IV. We recommend that the Assembly adopt the suggestion of the Central Committee, and cancel the small balance of debt due on certain colored collections, and amounting to $127.

V. We recommend, lastly, that the Assembly reappoint the present Secretary and Executive Committee, as follows: Rev. J. N. Craig, Secretary; Rev. T. P.

Cleveland, Rev. A. R. Holderby, Rev. T. H. Rice, Rev. J. G. Patton, Rev. C. P. Bridewell, and Messrs. M. A. Candler, W. A. Powell, W. P. Inman, J. C. Kirkpatrick, and John C. Whitner.

Respectfully submitted, WM. N. SCOTT, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully submit the following report:

We have received reports from the following seminaries: Columbia, Louisville, and the Southwestern Presbyterian University. No report has been received from Union, but we have received information concerning it privately. From all sources the following encouraging facts have been gathered:

1. Concerning the Teaching Force.—Union has five professors, Columbia four and one instructor, Louisville has three who will devote all their time to teaching, and three who devote a part of their time. The number of professors in the Southwestern Presbyterian University is six. Of these teachers Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., has been installed professor in the chair of Church History and Polity in Columbia, and Rev. S. C. Byrd secured as tutor of Hebrew during the past year, and Dr. S. M. Smith gave lectures on Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. In Louisville, Dr. Hemphill, who has heretofore given part of his time to teaching, has been sesured for all his time. The full time of Professor Marquess is also expected in future. In Southwestern Presbyterian University Prof. Henry W. Naff, Litt. D., professor of English, has, by order of the board, been giving special instruction in the reading of the Scriptures, hymns, and other work of expression.

2. Attendance.—The number of the students during the year is as follows: Union, 88; Louisville, 41; Southwestern Presbyterian University, 26; Columbia, 24. Total, 179.

3. Material Progress.—During the year Union has been removed from Hampden-Sidney to Richmond, Va., where much better buildings and equipment have been provided, with several valuable additions in sight. The Southwestern Presbyterian University has received additional endowment. Columbia aims at the endowment of a chair of the English Bible, and Louisville is pushing her plan of temporary endowment.

4. Missionary Department.—We note with pleasure that several reports mention missionary courses and missionary libraries.

5. Special mention is also made by Union and Columbia of the exemption from sickness on the part of the professors and students.

6. The report from Columbia mentions the removal of the age limit for professors in that institution, as recommended by the last Assembly.

Along with the pleasing features in the reports mention is made, with sorrow, of the loss sustained by Louisville in the translation of that eminent and godly man, Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., LL. D.

From all the information at hand we believe that our seminaries are manned with able and efficient professors, and attended by godly, earnest, and studious pupils.

Being pleased with the course of English adopted by the Southwestern Presbyterian University, we recommend the adoption of the same to any of our seminaries who lack it. Respectfully submitted, ALFRED JONES, Chairman.

The ad interim Committee on a Summer School of Bible Study presented a report, which was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made further report as follows:

18. Recommending a negative answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Athens, asking the Assembly to withdraw from coöperation with the Society for Sabbath Reform. This item was put upon the docket.

19. Recommending a negative answer to the overture from A. J. McKelway, asking an amendment to Chapter XII., Section 3, Rules of Discipline, to provide for the demission of the ministry by one who "believes his doctrinal views to be out of harmony with the standards of the church." Adopted.

20. Recommending a negative answer to the overture from the Rev. W. I. Sinnott, who prays the Assembly not to enact the proposed change in the baptism formula. This answer went to the docket.

21. To the overture from the Presbytery of Mecklenburg, asking:

"Is a minister of our church justifiable in performing a marriage ceremony, when one or both of the contracting parties reside with their respective parents, are both of marriageable age, but under the age of twenty-one (said ceremony being performed at a place other than the home of the parents of the contracting parties), when the minister knows, or has reason to believe, that such marriage is without the knowledge and against the consent of the parents of either of the contracting parties."

The committee recommend that the Assembly deem it unwise and inexpedient to attempt to lay down an inflexible rule for guidance in such cases. The answer was put upon the docket.

22. In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking that the Book of Church Order, Chapter VI., Section 5, Paragraph 128, be changed so as to read as follows:

"When any minister shall tender the resignation of his pastoral charge to his presbytery, the presbytery shall cite the church, having been previously notified by him of his intention to resign, by its commissioner, appointed for the purpose, to show cause, if any it has, why the presbytery should not accept the resignation."

The Assembly is recommended to decline to send down the proposed amendment. Adopted.

23. In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Pee Dee, asking that Chapter VI., Section 5, Paragraph 121, be amended by adding after the words "or some other" the words "member of the commission," it is recommended that the Assembly decline to send down the proposed amendment. Adopted.

24. In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking that the Book of Church Order, Chapter V., Section 7, Paragraph 93, be amended so as to read: "A commission shall consist of a quorum of the court; in case of ordination of a minister, the presbytery itself shall conduct the previous examination"—it is recommended that the Assembly decline to send down the suggested amendment. Adopted.

25. In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi, asking that in case the pending overture as to an elder charging the people in an installation be enacted, the Assembly send down to the presbyteries an amendment providing for the appointment of a ruling elder to deliver the charge to a pastor at the installation of the latter—it is recommended that the Assembly decline to grant the overture. Adopted.

The Standing Committee of Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies made a report, which, after amendment, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies have received reports of 2,050 Sunday-schools, with an enrollment of 19,038 officers and teachers, and 138,557 scholars. Comparing this with last year's report, we find an increase of 8 schools, 18 officers and teachers, and 4,241 scholars. The contributions for current expenses amounts to $44,327, which is a loss of $4,158 from last year's report. For other objects $24,999 was contributed, which is $7,530 less than last year.

These reports show that these schools are, almost without exception, under the care of our church sessions, and that the scholars generally attend public worship. In answer to the question concerning the use of our standards in the Sunday-schools, it appears that the Catechism is used amongst the large majority of our churches. There is uniformity in the reports that our scholars memorize the scriptures. The publications of our church are in common use. But few reports specify special religious interest in our schools. Teachers' meetings are not general.

A memorial from Mr. Clifford P. Boles, asking for a change in the blanks used by sessions for their reports on Sabbath-schools, was referred to us, and carefully considered. We recommend that it is inexpedient to make the changes proposed at present.

Reports from 28 presbyteries have been received of Young People's Societies, of which we have mention of 331, with a membership of 8,892, contributing last year the sum of $9,878.98.

It is impossible to tabulate these reports so as to give the names of these societies in brief, because of the many different names given, and the glaring lack of uniformity in the Presbyterial Reports. We note that last year there were but 14 presbyteries reporting on this subject, while this year there are 28, an increase of 100 per cent.

The enlistment of the active sympathies and coöperation of the young people in the general work of the church and her benevolences, we recognize as a subject of great importance; and we commend it to the serious consideration of all our pastors and sessions through the presbyteries.

The Presbytery of East Hanover calls attention to the good work of the Covenanters' Societies, composed of young boys organized for home and foreign missionary work. As this communication is of the nature of information and apparently contemplates no action on the part of the Assembly, your committee would recommend none except to express our pleasure at what we have seen and heard of the Covenanters during the sitting of the Assembly in this city.

A communication from Professor J. Lewis Howe, touching the appointment by this Assembly of a trustee to represent our church in the United Society of Christian Endeavor, was referred to your committee, and after careful consideration we recommend that the Assembly decline to make such appointment.

It is further recommended that the eldership and membership of the churches be urgently requested to take a careful interest in Sunday-school work and Young People's Societies, and give to them, if possible, more active coöperation and oversight. Respectfully submitted, ALEXANDER SPRUNT, Chairman.

The Committee on Records of the Synod of Virginia reported, recommending their approval, "but would suggest that in the future more care be exercised in keeping them." Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky recommended their approval, except that the paragraph on page 714, beginning "The unfinished business of the afternoon session," should appear on page 715 in the minute of the evening session. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Nashville made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee on the records of the Synod of Nashville would report that no official records have been placed in our hands, but instead a printed copy of their minutes.

We offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sending up of a printed copy of the minutes is not complying with our Book of Church Order; and that the Synod of Nashville be directed to send up to the next Assembly either an authenticated copy of their printed minutes, or else their written records. (See Alexander's Digest, page 66–141; also Book of Church Order, Chapter IX., Section 213, page 75.)

JOHN E. McLEAN, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama made a report, pending the consideration of which the Assembly had recess until 4:30 o'clock P. M.

4:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made the following report, which was received and adopted:

There has come to us an invitation from Rev. A. H. Brown, chairman of a committee of the Synod of New Jersey, asking you to appoint delegates to represent you at the unveiling of a Presbyterian historical monument in the Old Scot's Burial Ground in Monmouth county, N. J., where assembled the first General Presbytery of which any official record exists. The monument is to be unveiled in the third week of October, 1899. The Assembly at Dallas, Texas, in 1895, heartily commended this enterprise, and appointed five delegates to attend and represent us, at their own expense, at a preliminary celebration called the Monmouth Pilgrimage. (See Minutes, pp. 385 and 388–389.) Of that delegation Rev. Drs. Moses D. Hoge and William U. Murkland have been called to their reward. Your committee recommend that the same persons be appointed to attend the unveiling of the monument as requested, and that the Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., of Richmond, and the Rev. Joseph A. Vance, of Baltimore, be substituted in place of the brethren deceased. The committee will thus consist of Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., Rev. Joseph A. Vance, Rev. Parke P. Flournoy, D. D., and Ruling Elders T. B. Gresham, Esq., and William Wirt Henry, Esq. That the Assembly express its deep interest in all that touches the founding and early struggles of the Presbyterian Church in our country, and the importance of keeping the history in remembrance of coming generations. That the Assembly returns its hearty thanks to the Synod of New Jersey for its fraternal invitation to us to participate in these memorial services.

J. H. McNEILLY, Chairman.

The same committee reported a fraternal response to the communication from the delegate of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, which response was adopted, and ordered to be forwarded to the clerk of the General Synod.

The same committee reported the following reply to the communication from the Secretary of the Western Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, which reply was adopted:

In view of the communication from W. H. Roberts, American Secretary of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, we hereby recommend—

1. That $480 be appropriated as our pro rata of the expenses of the Alliance.
2. That the Assembly has heard with pleasure the greetings of their representative, Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D.
3. That, since the Peace Conference of the accredited representatives of the nations, looking forward to the disarmament of the several armies and navies of the nations, is now in session at the Hague, Holland, the Assembly, at the hour of recess this afternoon, be led in prayer for this conference by the Moderator.

The Special Committee appointed to tabulate the votes of the Presbyteries on the overtures sent down by the last Assembly presented a report, which was put upon the docket.

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama, was resumed. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

To your Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama have been referred those records, together with the following overture, and an accompanying paper, viz.:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, convening at Richmond, Va., May 18, 1899:

The undersigned respectfully overture your venerable court to review the special action of the Synod of Alabama, noted on page 326 of the printed minutes of its last session, whereby boundary lines were removed and changed, without the advice and consent of the presbyteries concerned.

You will allow the explanation that steps were at once taken by one of our ministers, looking to the lodgment of a complaint against said action; but, on account of unusual and prolonged absence of brethren from their homes, the correspondence necessary for concerted and deliberate action was delayed till too late a date to comply with the time limit of the Book of Church Order.

D. A. PLANCK (and six others).

Your committee has given to these matters the fullest consideration of which they have been capable, and would thereupon report as follows:

The history of the matter referred to in the overture may be gathered from the Records (pages 308, 312, 313, 314 and 326). It is to the last record that the overture asks exception. It is beyond the province of your committee to consider the advisability, or otherwise, of this action. We are to pronounce solely upon its accordance with law. The legal argument, therefore, of the paper referred to us has been carefully examined. Your committee is of opinion that the authority of synod, as stated in Book of Church Order, Paragraph 84, is unlimited, either by the Constitution or Assembly's deliverance. The statement that "all courts . . . . are possessed inherently of the same kinds of rights and powers," in our opinion, should not be construed to teach that these powers are held in every case under the same limitations. Indeed, in the clause cited the law itself provides for a "differing as the Constitution may provide." Furthermore, in the passages cited from the Digest, your committee can find nothing that is pertinent to the present case. Believing, therefore, that the action of the synod is within the scope of its constitutional powers, we recommend that this overture be answered in the negative.

2. We recommend that the Records of the Synod of Alabama be approved with the following exceptions:

(a), It would be well for the synod to put on record all papers received by it as the basis of synodical action.

Respectfully submitted, FRANC. MITCHELL, Chairman.

The Rev. John Fox, D. D., one of the Corresponding Secretaries of the American Bible Society, was introduced to the Assembly, and it was made the order of the day for twelve o'clock to-morrow to hear him concerning the work of that Society.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Arkansas reported, recommending the approval of the records of 1897. Adopted.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Georgia, Missouri, Memphis, Mississippi, Florida, North Carolina, and South Carolina, reported, recommending approval of said records. Adopted.

The Auditing Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

To the General Assembly:

Your Auditing Committee beg leave to make the following report:

1. The report of the trustees of the General Assembly, as audited by their own Auditing Committee, appears to be correct. In the report of this committee to the Assembly of 1898, some explanation seemed needed of the charge of five per cent. deducted from bequests and legacies and credited to contingent fund. In our judgment, the actions taken by the Assemblies of 1873, 1883, and 1887 (see page 334, Alexander's Digest), and the repeated endorsement of its financial reports, were sufficient to justify the Board of Trustees in the putting aside from funds coming into their possession of a percentage to constitute a contingent fund for necessary expenses, and we would recommend, in order to quiet all discussion, the following action by this Assembly:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly be, and the same is hereby authorized to retain in possession and pass to contingent fund such a percentage of bequests and legacies as shall be sufficient, and only sufficient, to cover the necessary expenses of said Board of Trustees.

2. The reports of committees to audit accounts of the treasurers of the Executive Committees of Foreign and Home Missions, Education, Publication, and Colored Evangelization have been before us, each certifying to the correctness of the accounts audited by them. The appointment of these committees is not a mere matter of form, but carries with it a duty upon which much of the correctness in details, so necessary to the efficient work of the arms of the Assembly, must rest, that we recommend to this Assembly for adoption the following form, employed this year by the Richmond Auditing Committee, as the one to be used hereafter by all the Auditing Committees appointed by the General Assembly:

We, the undersigned, appointed to audit the accounts of the treasurer of . . . by the Assembly of . . . . , beg leave to report that they have performed that duty, and find the accounts correct, sustained by proper vouchers, and the disbursements made upon proper authority. A statement of receipts and disbursements is hereto attached. The balance in the treasury April 1, . . . is $ . . .

3. Your committee of 1898 (page 240 of Minutes) reported that through the illness of Dr. Joseph R. Wilson, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, no financial report was rendered. That report, together with the report of Dr. Alexander, for the past year, has come before us. The illness of Dr. Wilson brought about considerable confusion in accounts, which your present Stated Clerk and Treasurer has succeeded in getting into form to serve as a basis for future action.

We find his accounts correct, supported by proper vouchers, and his books opened in a businesslike manner and orderly kept, and recommend approval.

The accounts of Dr. Wilson are not itemized, and are therefore difficult to audit, but we recommend their approval, and his honorable discharge from all liability as Treasurer of this body.

The report of Dr. Alexander, accompanying his financial statement, is interesting and important.

Some presbyteries have utterly failed in their duty of financial support of the highest court of our church. Others are more or less delinquent, while a few explain and promise to seek correction. In view of the fact that we have latterly been compelled to draw upon the revenues of the current year to meet expenses of the past one, we would recommend the following action by this Assembly:

Resolved, That this General Assembly calls attention of presbyteries to their duty and privilege in the support of the great work of the General Assembly, and earnestly, but affectionately urges upon them the prompt settlement of their accounts with the Treasurer of this body.

Resolved, That in view of long delinquent accounts with some presbyteries, growing out of changes in officers and from other causes, the Treasurer be given full authority to make such settlement as the circumstances of each case may warrant, to the end that all delinquent accounts may be balanced during the present year.

Resolved, That the Treasurer be authorized to cancel on his books all claims for back dues from the Presbyteries of Indian, Ethel, and Central Alabama, and that these latter two presbyteries be relieved of all tax till otherwise ordered.

It is the judgment of your committee that the present compensation of your Stated Clerk and Treasurer is inadequate, and should be increased. We therefore recommend that the salary be fixed at a sum not less than $360 per annum.

4. The term of office of the following trustees, viz., Rev. J. W. Stagg, D. D., George E. Wilson, and A. G. Brenizer expires with the meeting of this Assembly. We recommend their reëlection.

We further recommend that Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., be added to the list of committees for which auditing committees should be appointed, and that the following Auditing Committees be appointed for the coming year:

(b), For Executive Committee Foreign Missions.—George G. O'Bryan, R. S. Hollins, Sr., R. E. Magill.

(f), For Board of Trustees Home and School.—S. G. Howison, J. H. Myer, Jr., Dr. J. M. Barney.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. LYMAN, Chairman,
J. D. HUTTON,
WILLIAM W. TRIGG,
G. H. NORWOOD.

The Revs. Roger Martin and Joseph Rennie for themselves and others gave notice of protest against the action of the Assembly on the report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries made a report on the proposed Summer School for Bible Study, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries, to whom the report of the Executive Committee on Summer Schools was referred, recommend that the effort to establish a summer school of theology be discontinued.

Respectfully submitted, ALFRED JONES, Chairman.

The Committee on the Narrative made a report, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to take from the docket the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly had recess until 8:15 o'clock to night.

8:15 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and was addressed by the Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., Secretary of Foreign Missions, on his recent visit to Japan and China.

The Assembly adjourned until 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SEVENTH DAY.

MAY 25, 9:30 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was led in devotional exercises by the Rev. W. B. McIlwaine, of Japan.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Rev. Dr. Kerr presented a resolution deprecating mob violence, which was put upon the docket.

The Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School presented a report, which, after amendment, was adopted, and is as follows:

The committee to whom was referred the Sixth Annual Report of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., would respectfully return the same with the recommendation that it be placed on record in the Appendix to the Minutes; and we beg leave to submit the following report thereon:

We have carefully examined the report of the board, and have had a full and satisfactory interview with the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, president of the board, and with Mr. S. W. Somerville, the secretary and treasurer, who is also the superintendent of the Home, both of whom were ready to afford us all the information in their possession.

It gives us pleasure to report to this Assembly that we find ample evidence of fidelity and earnest devotion, on the part of the board and its officers, to the trust committed to them, and that their work has been, through God's blessing, crowned with a large measure of success.

In particular, we direct attention to these matters following:

1. The board has been especially bereaved, during the past year, in the death of its venerable president, the beloved and lamented Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge, who was so ardently devoted to this cause; and in the death of the Rev. Grigsby E. Chandler, who had just entered with glowing zeal upon the service of the institution as its financial agent, when he was suddenly called to rest from his labors.

2. The board has carried out the instructions of the last General Assembly, as far as it has been possible to do so. The liquidation of the debt is the only matter involved in those instructions, which remains incomplete; and in this gratifying progress has been made.

3. The expenses of the Home and School have been managed with strict economy, and kept rigidly within the income of the year. The beneficiaries of the Home receive the best which it is possible to give them from the resources available; but these do not afford any of the luxuries of life. The cost of maintenance is about one hundred dollars ($100) per annum for each of the inmates.

4. The object of this institution, it should be remembered, is limited and peculiar. It is the care and education of the children of deceased ministers, and of our missionaries, home and foreign, living or dead, who may need such help as is here provided. Thirty-three children are now under the care of the Home, gathered from various parts of our home and foreign fields. A heavy burden is lifted from the heart of the workman but poorly paid, when assured that such provision is made for his children. But the comfort of that assurance is sadly lessened by the fact that it has not yet been in the power of the Home to receive all those for whom application has been presented. This condition should not be permitted to continue. Provision fully adequate to all legitimate claims can and should be promptly made. During the past year only 256 churches and 22 individuals have contributed to this cause.

5. From the Financial Statement it appears that the receipts of the board for the year ending April 1, 1899, have been $9,457.79; expenditures, $8,066.61, leaving a balance in bank, $1,391.18. During the same period there has been paid on the debts $3,010, and on the interest account, $905.16. All current expenses have been met. No debt has been incurred. The liabilities have been so far reduced that they but slightly exceed the assets. The interest account has been reduced from more than $1,000 (as it was two years ago) to $540 for this year.

6. The pupils enjoy the excellent educational advantages of the Fredericksburg College.

7. In conclusion, we recommend—

(1), That the board be directed to continue the work as during the past year, particularly and vigorously pressing towards these two results—

(a), The entire extinction of the debt, and (b) the enlargement of the capacity of the Home and School.

(2), That the General Assembly, expressing its entire confidence in the wise and economical administration of the institution, renew the direction for a collection in all of our churches, on the last Sabbath in December for the support of the institution, commending it to the sympathetic liberality of our people.

All of which is respectfully and unanimously submitted by the committee.

J. H. NALL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Publication made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Sabbath respectfully reports that the report of the Permanent Committee, Rev. Dr. Stacy, chairman, was placed in their hands, and considered..

The report presents nothing new as compared with former years touching the the observance of the Sabbath by our people. Church members continue, for the most part, to conform faithfully, both in their views and their practices, to the teaching of the word and of the standards, as to the sacredness of the day. And it is gratifying to note that from various quarters the report comes of the exhibition of more than usual diligence in the bearing of testimony to, and high appreciation of, its holy character amid the tendencies and many inducements to the relaxation of its authority and claims, arising in a time of war and public excitement.

On the other hand, among the non-Christian people of the land, and to some extent those within the pale of the church, there seems to be increasing evidence of a gradual drift toward utter disregard of the Sabbath as the divinely appointed season of rest from secular work and of worship, and spiritual enlargement. Of the indications in this direction the report lays larger emphasis on such as—

1. Increasing use of the day by the people for purposes of recreation and amusement.
2. Larger abuse of the day by railroads for the purposes of traffic and gain; and
3. Increasing patronage of the Sunday newspaper.

In view of these things, the lights and shadows which envelop this "pearl of days," this Assembly deems it but fidelity to a high and sacred trust to reiterate, with renewed emphasis, its former deliverances on this subject. The following recommendations in particular are presented for adoption:

1. That the individuals and households of our church which are faithful and exemplary in the observance of the Sabbath, be commended and encouraged in their fidelity and exhorted to continue steadfast and immovable in their testimony against the desecration of the day; and that sessions and presbyteries be vigilant in keeping the gates of Zion in this regard; and that ministers especially be faithful in teaching and warning the people.
2. That our people be reminded that the keeping of the Lord's Day is of binding obligation at all times and in all places; and that in honoring God in its observance, he will make it a bulwark in our land against every foe, and a channel of the richest blessing, both of nature and of grace, to all the people.
3. That the report of the Permanent Committee be reported in the Appendix to the Minutes.
4. That the following ministers and elders constitute the Committee on the Sabbath for the ensuing year, viz.: Rev. James Stacy, D. D., Rev. T. H. Rice, Rev. C. P. Bridewell and Mr. John A. Barry.

F. H. JOHNSTON, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the taking from the docket the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Pending this business, the order for twelve o'clock arrived, and the Assembly, with the Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Law in the chair, at the request of the Moderator, was addressed by the Rev. John Fox, D. D., a Corresponding Secretary of the American Bible Society.

Dr. Fox's address was referred to the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause for suitable response.

An invitation from the ladies of the Hollywood Memorial Association to the Assembly to participate in the observance of Memorial Sunday and Memorial Day, was acknowledged with thanks.

The Assembly resumed consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

1. That the Assembly decline to order, as overtured by the Presbytery of Louisville, the discontinuance of the preparation of a new hymn-book. Adopted.

2. The Presbytery of Eastern Texas asks whether "Paragraph 55, Chapter V., of the Book of Church Order, taken with Paragraph 79 of the same chapter, authorizes the moderator to call a meeting of presbytery (in case of the failure of the regular meeting, or because of an emergency that has arisen) without the concurrence or request of two ministers and two ruling elders?" The committee recommends an affirmative answer. Adopted.

3. That to the overture from the Synod of Missouri, as to whether the session or the congregation has the authority to commit to the deacons the temporal affairs of the church, it be answered that the authority lies with the session. Adopted.

4. That to the overture from the Presbytery of Athens, asking "a pronounced and explicit deliverance" against the recognition of "Christmas and Easter as religious days," the following answer be given:

There is no warrant in the Scriptures for the observance of Christmas and Easter as holy days, but rather the contrary (see Galatians iv. 9-11; Colossians ii. 16-21), and such observance is contrary to the principles of the Reformed faith, conducive to will-worship, and not in harmony with the simplicity of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The answer was adopted.

5. To the overture from the Presbytery of Albemarle, asking whether "alternates may take the place of principals, or vice versa, after the court has been organized, and one or the other has been enrolled as a member of it, and taken part in its deliberations," it was recommended that the Assembly return the following answer:

There being nothing in the Constitution bearing specifically on the point, it is the judgment of this Assembly that the substitution of the alternate for the principal, or vice versa, is competent whenever, in the judgment of the court, such a change is deemed necessary or proper, in every case the change being made a matter of record.

Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

4:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The answer of the Committee on Bills and Overtures to the overture from the Presbytery of Albemarle was adopted.

6. To the overture from the Presbytery of Bethel, asking "whether the figures in the Statistical Report should be copied into the Report on Systematic Beneficence, or should the figures in the Systematic Beneficence Report indicate simply what has actually been contributed to the various causes under the care of our Executive Committees"—the Assembly adopted the following answer:

It is the judgment of the Assembly that the reports on Statistics and Systematic Beneficence are different reports, and are intended to gather information on different subjects; the figures in the Statistical Report should not, therefore, necessarily be copied into the Report on Systematic Beneficence.

7. To the overture from the Presbytery of Fayetteville, asking for a pastoral letter on worldly amusements, the Assembly adopted the recommendation that the request be granted.

This business gave way to the taking from the docket the following paper, offered by the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, which was adopted:

The General Assembly takes occasion to express its strongest condemnation of the lawless spirit abroad in the land, manifesting itself in many ways, but notably in scenes of mob-violence and the taking of human life, in cases of supposed or proven crime, without due process of law, involving the awful danger of inflicting death upon an innocent person, while the real criminal goes free; tending also to cheapen human life, to unsettle the social order, and to weaken or destroy that reverence for law and constituted authority which the Scriptures require all to uphold.

We, therefore, while expressing our abhorrence of the crimes that lead to the disorders referred to, urge all our people and ministers, in all scriptural ways, to do their utmost towards cultivating and maintaining that order and reverence for authority which are enjoined by the word of God.

The Assembly had recess until 8:15 o'clock to-night.

8:15 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization, in connection with addresses on that subject.

The Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D., chairman of the committee, presided at the request of the Moderator, and read the report.

The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. D. C. Lilly, Secretary of Colored Evangelization, the Rev. Dr. Cannon, and the Rev. E. W. Williams, delegate from the Synod of the Colored Presbyterian Church in the United States and Canada.

A collection, amounting $56.50, was taken up for that department of our church work.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization.

The Assembly adjourned until nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

EIGHTH DAY.

MAY 26, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was led in devotional exercises by Rev. Dr. J. H. Nall.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read, corrected and approved.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause made a report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Among the items referred to your committee for consideration, we first report on the address of Dr. John Fox, one of the General Secretaries of the American Bible Society.

It is with pleasure we have heard this new voice representing so earnestly and clearly this great cause. We desire that Dr. Fox should carry from this Assembly assurances of our increasing interest in the work of the Bible Society. We have heard from him, with satisfaction, of the rapid growth of their foreign operations, and that the Society is giving emphasis to this arm of the work. We believe that, as in the first full proclamation of the gospel on the day of Pentecost every man heard the gospel in his own tongue, this fact is significant of an intention in God's providence that every man should have the gospel in his own vernacular. Hence we hail with pleasure the information that since the beginning of this century the foreign versions and translations have increased from about fifty to already four hundred, and that during the past year the American Bible Society has distributed in China alone nearly half a million Testaments, Bibles and portions.

Upon the overture from the Presbytery of Ouachita, asking that the month of June be set apart for the collection for the Society, instead of the third Sabbath in October, we recommend that the request be not granted.

In view of the great opportunities for Bible distribution now afforded in Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines, we urge unusual liberality to this cause on the part of our people on the third Sabbath in October, the day appointed by this Assembly for this collection.

We recommend that a copy of the overture from the Presbytery of North Alabama be transmitted to the managers of the American Bible Society, with the request that they give the matter their attention, and with the assurance that we believe they will not long allow any limitation upon the usefulness of the Society to exist.

Upon the other request in the overture we recommend that no action be taken at present. JAMES G. SNEDECOR, Chairman.

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

The Assembly hereby express thanks to the ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church, of Richmond, for the gift to the members of the Assembly of the volume containing the account of the memorial services at the forty-fifth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge in that church.

The members of the Assembly will cherish the memory of this faithful and able minister of Christ, with thankfulness to God for all the fruitful years of his ministry in the Second Church, extending beyond half a century.

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, was resumed.

8. The report of said committee on the overture from the Synod of Georgia and the Presbyteries of North Alabama, Lexington and Bethel was taken from the docket. The overture is that the following amendments be sent down to the presbyteries:

(1). Chapter VI., Section 5, Paragraph 118, Article 3, to-wit: After the words "the Greek and Hebrew language" add "the English Bible."

(2), Also, Chapter VI., Section 6, Paragraph 132, Article 4: After "Natural and Revealed Theology" add "On the English Bible."

(3). Also, Chapter VI., Section 6, Paragraph 134, Article 6, add to this article the following: Provided, that in every extraordinary case the candidate shall be required to stand a searching examination on the English Bible.

The committee recommended the following answer, which was adopted:

The Assembly declines to recommend the changes in the Form of Government asked for in these overtures, but would enjoin upon the presbyteries to subject every candidate for the ministry to a thorough examination as to his knowledge of the English Bible.

9. To the overture from the Presbytery of Athens, proposing that "the Assembly withdraw its recognition of the American Sabbath Union on the ground that this is a society for the promotion of legislative reform, which is not a function of the church of Jesus Christ"—the Assembly made answer that the overture shall be referred to the Permanent Committee of the Sabbath.

10. Mecklenburg Presbytery asks the General Assembly to answer the following overture:

Is a minister of our church justifiable in performing a marriage ceremony when one or both of the contracting parties reside with their respective parents, are both of marriageable age, but under the age of twenty-one (said ceremony being performed at a place other than the home of one of the parents of the contracting parties), when the minister knows, or has reason to believe, that such marriage is without the knowledge and against the consent of the parents of either one of the contracting parties?

The General Assembly replies as follows:

The Assembly is of the opinion that it would be both unwise and inexpedient to attempt to lay down any inflexible rule for the guidance of its ministry in relation to the performance of this ceremony, the great bond of society. It believes that an enlightened conscience and the laws of the land are, as a rule, the safest and only guides to be followed in such cases. But the Assembly cannot forbear to express the opinion that in the cases described in the overture the greatest prudence and caution should be exercised by the minister; that he should exert his influence as far as he can properly and prudently do so to prevent such marriages, and only consent to perform the ceremony in those cases where he is satisfied, from all the circumstances, that the best interests of all the parties (including the parent or parents) will be subserved by his so doing.

11. The overture from the Rev. W. I. Sinnott, asking the Assembly not to enact the proposed change in the baptism formula, was laid on the table as incompetent.

The report of the Special Committee to tabulate the vote of the presbyteries on the overtures sent down by the last Assembly, was taken from the docket, and is as follows:

Your committee appointed to collate the votes of the presbyteries upon the amendments to the Book of Church Order sent down by the last General Assembly, would report that they have received the votes of 70 presbyteries out of a total of 77, and that they have ascertained the following facts:

1. Fifty-five of these presbyteries voted to amend the Directory for Worship, Chapter IX., Paragraph 6, by substituting, in the Formula of Baptism, the word "in" for the word "into," as overtured by the last General Assembly; fourteen of the presbyteries voted against the amendment, and one did not vote. Therefore, a majority of the whole number of presbyteries in our Assembly approve the amendment, i. e., 55 out of 77.

2. That 44 of the presbyteries reporting voted to amend the Book of Church Order, Chapter VI., Section 5, Paragraph 6, as overtured by the last General Assembly, and 26 voted not to amend. Therefore, a majority of all the presbyteries in our Assembly approve the amendment—44 out of 77.

It appearing, therefore, that in each instance "a majority of the presbyteries have advised and consented to the changes proposed," according to Chapter VII., Paragraph 2, of the Form of Government, your committee lays these facts before the General Assembly, that it may take action in the premises.

J. A. SCOTT,
FRANC. MITCHELL,
D. B. PENICK.

The Assembly thereupon adopted the following:

The last General Assembly having sent down to the presbyteries, with its recommendation, an overture to amend the Directory for Worship, Chapter IX., Section 6, by striking out the words "I baptize thee into the name" in the baptismal formula, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "I baptize thee in the name," and the presbyteries having given their advice and consent to such amendment—

The Assembly also adopted the following:

Inasmuch as the last Assembly did recommend and a majority of the presbyteries have given their advice and consent to the following change; therefore, Resolved, That the following change in the Book of Church Order be enacted by this Assembly: In Chapter VI., Section 5, Paragraph 6, of the Form of Government, strike out the words "after which the minister presiding, or some other appointed for the purpose, shall give a solemn charge," and insert in lieu thereof "after which the minister presiding, or some other minister appointed for the purpose, shall give a solemn charge." Then at the end of the paragraph add the sentence, "If, in the judgment of the presbytery, it be deemed advisable, a ruling elder may be appointed to deliver the charge to the people."

The vote by which the foregoing paper was adopted was taken by yeas and nays, as follows:

The Assembly had recess until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

4:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization.

The report was amended and adopted, and is the following:

There have been placed in the hands of your committee the records of the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization, and the Annual Report of that committee, together with the catalogue of the Stillman Institute for the scholastic year 1898–1899.

After a careful examination of these papers your committee would recommend—

1. The approval of the records of the Executive Committee as accurate, neat and clear.

2. That the conclusion reached by the Executive Committee in the Ferguson-Williams School, after careful investigation and consideration of the facts in the case, be approved. (See Report of Executive Committee.)

3. That the revision of the Executive Committee's manual of work, defining the respective duties of the secretary and superintendent, be approved.

4. That this Assembly tender the thanks of the church to the Rev. R. L. Liston, of Oxford, Ala., for his liberal donation to this cause of property valued at $3,000 or more, and commend to others of the Lord's stewards this noble manifestation of interest in the church's work for the poor and needy.

5. The Assembly notes with gratification the evidences of the increased prosperity of the work under the administration of the Executive Committee. These evidences are apparent in the liquidation of all debts, the better provision made for the men in the field, the enlarged work of Stillman Institute, and the great reduction in the cost of administration. The committee is commended for the rigid economy and businesslike methods with which the work has been conducted, and special praise is due to the devoted secretary and superintendent, both of whom have given their services freely to the church, the expenses incurred by them in the actual prosecution of the work being the only cost to the funds of the committee.

6. The Assembly heartily approves the plans of the Executive Committee for bringing together all our colored ministers in a summer school of ten days at Stillman Institute, and for the convening at Tuscaloosa of the Independent Synod and the presbyteries composing it at the same season.

7. The Assembly gives its approval to the changes made by this committee in Stillman Institute, namely, the opening of the Academic Department to such male pupils as desire to enter, and to girls under fourteen years of age: also the requirement that each student shall earn his board by laboring on the farm, and shall bear all his other expenses himself instead of relying upon the committee for support.

8. The Assembly is gratified at the evidence of a fresh interest on the part of our people in the religious instruction of the negroes, as shown in the increasing number of Sabbath-schools for this race taught by white people, and commends this work to all pastors and sessions.

In the judgment of this Assembly the time has come for a great forward movement in the work of colored evangelization, and in confirmation of this judgment calls the attention of our people to the following considerations:

1. The work has perhaps a wider range than any other to which God has called us. "It includes the entering of a mission field, the erection of churches and manses, establishing and maintaining schools, the support of evangelists and pastors, the selection and training of a ministry; in short, every detail connected with the elevation of a race."

2. Statistics show the prevalence of immorality and crime among the negroes. If we are not moved by considerations of pity for them and sympathy with our Lord in his love for the souls of all, we ought at least to remember that the temporal and spiritual welfare of our own posterity is at stake. Are our children and children's children to inherit a land crying aloud to heaven because of violence and murder and lynch-law?

3. The Presbyterian Church believes that it is peculiarly fitted to give the negro what he needs. His needs are, in our judgment, a soundly educated ministry, sober instruction, simple and quiet rather than ritualistic or emotional modes of worship, a simple and orderly system of church government and discipline, and a "home life in which the children will be carefully trained and instructed in the word of God and in the faith of the church."

4. God has opened to us a wide door in Africa. The story of our mission on the Congo may be classed among the wonders of modern missionary annals.

How are we to enlarge the work in Africa, so signally blessed with God's favor, except by enlarging the work for the negroes at home? And how absurdly inconsistent to send missionaries to Africa while we neglect the Africans at our door!

5. The work of the Southern Presbyterian Church for the negro has reached the gravest crisis in its history. The few, feeble, and widely scattered negro churches, heretofore in organic union with the white churches, have been organized, in accordance with our long-cherished plan, into an Independent African Presbyterian Church. The charge has been brought against us that we have taken this action because of race prejudice, and with the purpose to rid ourselves of the burden of colored evangelization.

Those who bring the charge ignore the fact that it was at the request of the colored ministers and elders in convention assembled that this step was taken. Our critics, too, wherever they are brought into ecclesiastical proximity to the negroes, manifest the very race prejudice they charge against us.

These facts may serve as missiles to hurl at those who censure us; but they will not relieve us of odium in the sight of God and man, if we allow the new-born African Presbyterian Church to perish for lack of sympathy and support, we shall be made "a spectacle unto the world, and to angels and to men."

In view of all these things this Assembly does solemnly enjoin upon all our people—

1. The duty of earnest and believing prayer to God for wisdom to know and grace to do what he would have us do for the evangelization and religious instruction of the colored people.

2. The importance or personal service for the negroes in our own homes and in our own employ: The salvation of these people should lie upon our hearts next to the salvation of our own children. They are bound to us more closely than was "the stranger within the gates" to God's ancient people. Yet he held that people responsible for the stranger. It is the solemn duty of our people to summon their colored servants to family worship, to provide religious instruction for them in the household as far as practicable, and with earnest prayer for their salvation, to seek through direct personal effort to lead them to Jesus Christ, and to strengthen them in the Christian faith.

3. The Assembly earnestly calls upon all our pastors and sessions to teach the people under their charge of their solemn responsibility in this matter, and to concert measures for establishing Sunday-schools and churches wherever openings can be found, and to impress upon the people the duty of giving liberally of their substance to maintain and enlarge the work under the charge of the Assembly's Executive Committee.

4. Inasmuch as the present income of the committee is totally inadequate to carry on the work on the scale demanded by the needs and prospects, the Assembly earnestly calls for at least $15,000 for the prosecution of this work during the ensuing year, and urges presbyteries and pastors and sessions to take all necessary steps to inform our people of the needs of this cause and their duties and privileges in regard to its support.

5. The Executive Committee for the ensuing year: Dr. E. H. Sholl, Hon. J. W. Lapsley, Rev. L. S. Handley, D. D., Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Rev. J. A. Bryan, Hon. J. H. Miller, Rev. Neal L. Anderson, Rev. E. P. Davis, Rev. J. G. Snedecor, R. D. Johnston, and Rev. D. C. Lilly, secretary. R. F. CAMPBELL, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was taken from the docket, considered seriatim, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Assembly's Standing Committee of Publication beg leave to report on the several matters committed to them:

1. In recommending the approval of the Annual Report and the written minutes of the Executive Committee of Publication, we wish to note the following items:

(a), During the past year Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., LL. D., was called to his reward. He was a member of this committee from its first appointment in 1861, and was its chairman for thirty years. This Assembly, in recording our loss, would express our sincere gratitude to the great Head of the Church for his long and valued services on this committee, and for his longer service and testimony to the power of the gospel by which he did abound in every good word and work. Servant of God, well done.

(b), The Treasurer's statement, which had been properly audited, exhibits some interesting facts. The present net assets are $117,328.64. Of this $66,105.06 is a fixed investment in real estate, furniture, and stereotype plates. There seems to be a small margin of profit after paying all the expenses of the committee and its business. This makes it possible for the committee to use all the collections from the churches for colportage and donations.

(c), The collections from the churches were larger than heretofore by five or six per cent., and this was increased by a single donation of $5,000. This will enable the committee to enlarge its work the coming year. The Assembly would emphasize the importance of strengthening this arm of service by yet more liberal support.

(d), The reported increase of "issues from the press" is certainly encouraging, and so is the increased circulation of the Sabbath-school periodicals. The Assembly wishes to see these periodicals used yet more largely in our churches, and we would not fail to urge upon our people the larger use of the standard literature issued by this committee, much of which is invaluable to us as a church.

2. Several overtures were referred to this Standing Committee for consideration.

Overture No. 1. From Memphis Presbytery, asking for blanks, etc., for reports of the Home Department of the Sunday-school.

Answer: The Assembly directs that there be added to the blanks for Sunday-school Reports this question: "How many of the scholars reported belong to the Home Department?"

Answer: In the negative.

Overture No. 3. Presbytery of Lafayette, asking for modifications of the Children's Friend, so as to adapt its use to Westminster Leagues.

Answer: Refer the matter to the Executive Committee of Publication to meet the want if the way be clear.

Overture No. 4. East Hanover Presbytery, asking, first, that certain optional forms be printed in the Appendix to the Book of Church Order, and, second, that a statement about infant baptism be prepared and printed in same place.

Answer: In the negative.

Overture No. 5. Mecklenburg Presbytery, asking to suspend the use of the International Lessons, and to have prepared a suitable system for our church, etc.

Answer: In the negative.

Overture No. 6. Dallas Presbytery, asking to prepare blanks for Ladies' Missionary Societies, etc.

Answer: In the negative.

3. The committee recommends the reëlection of the same Secretary and Treasurer, and the same Executive Committee of Publication, as follows: James K. Hazen, D. D., Secretary and Treasurer; J. P. Smith, D. D., J. W. Rosebro, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., Charles H. Read, D. D., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, Rev. S. K. Winn, D. D., Rev. Donald Guthrie, R. A. Lancaster, B. R. Wellford, Jr., W. W. Henry, M. M. Gilliam and W. C. Preston.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. SHEARER, Chairman.

The following protest, presented by the Rev. Roger Martin for himself and others, was admitted to record without answer.

Certain members of South Alabama Presbytery sent to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States an overture, asking that the Assembly review certain action of the Synod of Alabama, in dividing their presbytery without their knowledge or consent.

The Assembly declined to sustain the overture on the ground that the synod had "unlimited power" to erect, unite or divide presbyteries.

It is not against the decision of the Assembly in not granting the overture that we protest, but concerning the doctrine declared in the report on the minutes of the Synod of Alabama, describing the powers of synod as "unlimited."

1. We protest most respectfully that such language necessarily concedes to the synod arbitrary power.

(a), We concede that the synod has exclusive authority in erecting, uniting, and dividing presbyteries, and that it may initiate and conclude such action as is deemed for the interest of the church.

(b), But we contend that its authority is not of the nature of "unlimited power."

(1), Because the genius of Presbyterianism is that nothing shall be arbitrary. It is clear to us that, if the power is unlimited in the erection, union, or division of presbyteries, then this is absolute monarchy, within such a sphere.

(2), Because unlimited power would grant to the synod the right to act without even the knowledge of parties affected, which is manifestly unpresbyterian.

(3), Because such concession would make the law granting to the General Assembly the power of review and control inconsistent; for if the General Assembly has the review and control of its records, then synod's power is not unlimited.

2. We protest, most respectfully, because such concession of unlimited power nullifies the following words in Section 5, Article 4, Paragraph 84, of Book of Church Order, where, in defining powers of the synod, it is expressly stated: "In general, to take such order with respect to presbyteries, sessions and churches as may be in conformity with the word of God and the established rules."

(a), We contend that a proper interpretation of this paragraph limits the power of the synod in erecting, uniting and dividing presbyteries, viz., that it shall be done according to the word of God and established rules.

(b), We contend that the word of God and the established rules of our church are to condemn no man unheard and change no boundary of presbytery until the parties are heard.

3. We protest, most respectfully, because such concession of unlimited power is necessarily subversive of a truly representative government in ecclesiastical affairs.

Respectfully submitted.

Cartledge, and Elder J. A. Shepperson, Ouachita.

Respectfully submitted, A. E. GROVER, Chairman.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Woodrow, the thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the Moderator as follows:

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of the General Assembly be tendered to the Moderator, the Rev. Dr. J. F. Cannon, for the courteous, able, impartial, and every way admirable manner in which he has discharged his duties as our presiding officer.

The following expression of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

The General Assembly desires hereby to express its deep sense of the generous and cordial hospitality of the families who have entertained the members of the Assembly during their stay in Richmond, and to convey to them, in this imperfect manner, our heartfelt thanks for their continued and most thoughtful kindness. It has refreshed us, and delighted us day by day, and has contributed to make this meeting of our Assembly an unusually bright and happy meeting.

The Assembly would also return its very sincere thanks to the Ladies Aid Society of this the First Presbyterian Church for the pleasant excursion on the James river, planned and provided by them; to the Covenanters for their reception on Saturday night; to the faculty and students of Union Seminary for their delightful reception in the handsome new buildings of that Christian institution; to the Young Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the First Church for their attentive, graceful, and helpful service at the Assembly post-office; to the organist and the choristers of the church for the music we needed in our services, and to the Committee of Arrangements, whose plans and appointments were so complete.

May the covenant benediction of our God rest upon this church, its pastor, officers, and families, and all who have manifested their Christian interest and sympathy in this meeting of our General Assembly.

The Assembly would also record its appreciation of the good will of the railroads in granting a reduction of fare to the commissioners of this Assembly; also to the press of the city for their notices of our daily sessions.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another Assembly, to be chosen in like manner, shall meet in the Central Presbyterian Church, in the city of Atlanta, Ga., on the third Thursday of May, 1900, at eleven o'clock A. M.

Closed with singing and prayer, and the benediction by the Moderator.

ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE NARRATIVE.

The Committee on the Narrative respectfully reports that papers on this subject have come into our hands from seventy-one of our seventy-seven presbyteries. These papers profess to answer, with more or less definiteness, some ten or a dozen inquiries touching the all-important matter of practical religion. If it were possible to obtain reports from our presbyteries characterized by entire accuracy and completeness, a proper digest of them would render practicable a succinct and satisfactory summary of the state of vital godliness within the limits of our beloved Zion.

Although the statements in very many of these reports are not so definite as might be desired, yet an examination of them has left upon the mind of your committee the following impressions:

1. Our congregations are very generally supplied with the preaching of the word, the cases of entire destitution being very few. The attendance of the people upon the public worship of God is good. It is a sure symptom of spiritual life and health when God's people have a longing for the courts of his house.

2. It appears that the holy Sabbath continues to command the reverential regard of the people of God. It is probably true that the command "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" receives at the hands of many a very imperfect obedience, and yet the reported instances of decided laxity or open desecration are so rare, and the testimony to its general observance is so uniform, that we must believe that at least God's own people among us still prize this ordinance as a precious means of grace, and look upon it as the lowlander looks upon his dyke.

3. Accordingly, we find that the general tenor of the Presbyterial reports indicates that the spirituality of God's people is not on the decline. With a remarkable degree of uniformity they affirm that harmful forms of worldliness do not prevail. There seems to be a growing interest in the things that pertain to the kingdom of God, and an increasing zeal for the maintenance of his cause and the diffusion of his truth.

4. Yet the picture is not wholly bright. The impression left by these tidings received from our broad field is not wholly pleasant. With a depressing and painful uniformity our presbyteries report a lamentable neglect of the family altar and religious home training of children. It is not easy to obtain the data requisite for satisfactory sessional reports touching these vital features of that vital subject, family religion, and hence there is room for hope that the shading of the reports at this point may be too deep. Still we cannot divest ourselves of the conviction that there now exists an imperative demand for a very general and radical reform in the matter—the all-important matter—of family religion—the building and maintenance of God's church in the house.

Respectfully submitted, W. J. McKAY, Chairman.

II. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Notwithstanding some difficulties and hindrances, the work in all our mission fields has been greatly prospered and blessed. The China Mission has suffered, perhaps, more seriously than in any previous year from failure of health among its members. The African Mission has been hampered by delay in obtaining the necessary "concessions" for the new stations opened at Dombi and Ibanj. The Japanese Mission has suffered from the loss of one missionary family, and from the inability of the Executive Committee to supply funds for the return of two other families at the end of their year's furlough at home. Several members of the Korean Mission have suffered loss of time from ill health, brought on by living in unsanitary native houses, and by overwork in trying to meet, with an inadequate force, the demands made on them by their continually increasing opportunities. In Northern Brazil drouth and famine have made country work in some places, during a part of the year, almost impossible.

Notwithstanding these hindrances the statistical reports show an addition of 484 members on profession of faith, which might have been largely increased but for the great care and caution exercised by all our missions in admitting members to full communion in the native churches. The number of inquirers and applicants for membership reported is much larger than in any previous year of our history. The largest number of additions in any one mission was 128, in the Mission of Southern Brazil, where we have only four ordained workers and only three engaged in the regular evangelistic work.

One new station was opened in Korea. With this exception no enlargement of the work has been attempted in any of the older fields.

The Assembly of 1898 authorized the Executive Committee to found a mission in Cuba whenever the way should be clear. At no time during the year has the condition of the treasury been such as would warrant us in drawing on the receipts for our regular work to inaugurate this new enterprise. At the same time the correspondence of the office showed that there was a strong desire in many parts of the church that the work should be begun. 'In the early fall one of our pastors in Kentucky published an appeal to the young people's societies in that synod to subscribe ten dollars or more each as a special contribution for work in Cuba, which appeal was responded to from all parts of the church, until, at the meeting of the committee in March, the Treasurer reported that he had received from this source $650, in cash, to ether with pledges of several hundred dollars, to be paid when called for. On the basis of this report of the treasurer, the committee instructed Rev. J. G. Hall, of our Mexican Mission, who was specially fitted for the work by his knowledge of the language and familiarity with the country from previous visits, to proceed to Cuba as soon as he could make his arrangements to do so, to investigate the field, decide as to the most suitable place, and initiate and carry on the work until suitable men could be found and sent as permanent missionaries to Cuba. At the date of this report, the committee is seeking for such men, and will send them to Cuba as soon as they are found and the funds are in sight for their support.

On the night of December 16th, our buildings at Hangchow, China, were wrecked by the accidental explosion of a powder magazine, situated only a few hundred yards distant from them. They were occupied at the time by Rev. George Hudson and family, Miss Emerson, Miss Matthews, and Miss Boardman, and by a number of girls and native teachers in the boarding school. Although the walls and ceilings of several of the buildings were thrown down, by a most remarkable and merciful interposition of Providence no lives were lost, and no very serious bodily injuries were sustained. Mr. Hudson's Chinese servants heroically exposed their lives in rescuing his children from the debris, and the girls in the school behaved with such quietness and self-possession as showed the excellence of the training they had received in the school. The missionaries of other churches at Hangchow showed every possible kindness, taking our missionaries into their homes and rendering them help. For this they have received the thanks of the committee, and we recommend that the Assembly take formal action expressing its appreciation of their kindness.

Our mission made no formal demand on the Chinese government for indemnity for their loss, believing that while they had a technical right to do so, the interest of our cause would be best served by making no such demand. Our consul at Shanghai presented a claim for indemnity, but his doing so was without the suggestion or approval of our mission, and, at the mission's request, was withdrawn. The governor of Hangchow made a personal donation of $3,000 (Mexican), equal to about $1,500 United States currency, towards the repair of the buildings, for which a letter of thanks was sent to him by the committee. The mission was instructed to draw on the regular appropriations for the remainder that might be found necessary to put the buildings in habitable shape, and an appeal was published to the church for special contributions to replace the amount just used. Up to April 1st, about $1,500 had been received in answer to this appeal.

The Assembly of 1898 instructed the committee to build and send out the Congo boat as soon as it could be done, consistently with due care and prudence. Owing to lack of unanimity in the African Mission on the subject during the earlier part of the year it was thought prudent to delay action other than the securing of estimates from builders. But in the month of January a letter was received, signed by all the male members of the mission, expressing the opinion that the boat had now become a necessity, and informing us that Dr. Snyder had been commissioned to go to London to superintend its construction and transport to the field. At the meeting of the committee in March, Dr. Snyder was instructed to secure and submit to the committee bids and specifications for a steamer, which can be delivered and put up on the river at Stanley Pool, ready for use, at a cost not exceeding $10,000. The amount of the fund in the committee's hands is $10,393.09.

The receipts from all sources during the year, including $246.40 of funds expended and returned, were $145,236.50. Net receipts $144,990.10. This is $1,053.31 less than the receipts for last year. The balance in the treasury on April 1, 1898, belonging to the General Fund was $161.17. The disbursements for the year, excluding repayment for borrowed funds were $145,343.48, leaving a balance in the treasury on April 1, 1899, of $54.19. We are, therefore, able to report the closing of another year without a debt. This result has only been attained by carefully observing the instruction of the last General Assembly, not to increase the number of our missionaries, "if such increase should increase expenditures beyond the probable income, rigidly estimating future receipts by past experience."

Only four missionaries were sent out during the year. Of these one went at his own charges, and the salary of one other was provided by contributions from the field to which she was sent.

The Southern Brazil Mission was bereaved by the death of Mrs. Charles R. Morton, which occurred in Fredericksburg, Va., on October 22, 1898. Miss Minnie M. Gunn, of the Mexican Mission, and Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Grinnan, of the Japan Mission, retired from service during the year. The number now on our roll is 155, exactly the same as that reported last year.

All our missions are so much in need of reinforcement that it is difficult to discriminate as to which of them are more so than the others.

The committee now has under appointment six men and eight women. This number could have been many times multiplied if any call had been made for workers accompanied by the assurance that they could be sent out. The number of applicants whose cases are now under consideration is eight. But the number on our roll is as large as the income of the past year will properly support, and cannot be safely added to until the church is sufficiently convinced of the importance of the work to enlarge its contributions in a substantial way. In addition to his office correspondence, the secretary has visited steadily among the churches, having been able, however, to answer only a small proportion of the calls made upon him for that kind of work. That we should have to report as the result of all these efforts no increase in the number of our missionary force, and a decrease instead of advance in our year's receipts, is a state of things for which a small balance on the credit side of our ledger is hardly an adequate consolation.

The circulation of The Missionary has decreased during the year, the number of paying subscribers now on the roll being 10,034, as against about 10,926 at the close of last year. The issue for the month of March was about 12,800 copies. The cost of publication and distribution was $6,035.49, and the receipts from subscriptions and advertisements was $5,829.69. In these sum totals are included the amounts paid out and received for Bibles offered as premiums to subscribers.

The circulation of The Children's Missionary has decreased, the number of paying subscribers now on the list being 5,140, as against about 6,385 at the close of last year. The cost of publication and distribution was $2,052.24. The amount received from subscriptions and advertisements was $1,492.66.

Three thousand five hundred copies of the Prayer Calendar were issued, at an estimated cost of printing and mailing of $471.75. Copies were distributed free to our ministers, and copies were sold amounting to $346.24.

In the situation as regards the Campinas property, there is little change since our last report. The part of the property unencumbered by the provisions of Mr. Lane's will is in our possession, awaiting a favorable opportunity to be sold. The friendly suit reported last year, as having been instituted to gain a fee simple title to the other part, has made little progress, and neither the committee nor our attorney in Brazil, Rev. S. R. Gammon, have been able to effect any change in the traditional experience of those who hope in vain for celerity of movement in the proceedings of courts of law.

At the Annual Conference of Mission Boards and Societies, held in New York, in 1896, a movement was initiated looking to the holding of a world's conference on foreign missions in this country in the year 1900 similar to the one held in London in 1888. A general committee, representing all the boards and societies, of which the secretary and Rev. J. I. Vance, D. D., are the members representing our Executive Committee, having the matter in charge, made its report to the Annual Conference held in New York in January, 1899. A copy of the proceedings of the New York Conference, containing the report of that committee in full, will be placed in the hands of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions of this Assembly. The general plan of the proposed conference is that it be held in the city of New York, and that all the topics and questions connected with the work in all its branches shall be considered in papers and discussions, which shall be afterwards published in a volume for the use of foreign mission workers throughout the world. The Executive Committee recommends that this Assembly signify to those having the matter in charge the willingness of our church to give its hearty coöperation in the movement.

A number of additional Woman's Presbyterial Unions have been organized during the year. So far as known they are all organized and conducted in strict subordination to Presbyterial authority, and have been doing a valuable work in the way of increasing missionary interest and organizing missionary effort in the churches represented in them.

Receipts from legacies, $3,796.43; from Loan Fund, $271.75; from interest on railroad bond, $50; contributions, $30,692.51; total receipts, $34,810.69. Add on hand April 1, 1898, cash, $9,456.90, and one railroad bond, $1,000, and we have total in the hands of the treasurer for Home Missions during the year, $45,267.59. The total outlay for field work has been $29,251.01. Expenses, $3,028.19, were paid, and the year closed with a balance on hand of cash $11,988.39, and a railroad bond $1,000 (bearing five per cent. interest), the market value of which at this writing is eleven cents above par.

The whole number of ministers and teachers whose support your committee supplied in whole or in part was one hundred and twenty-four.

Thirteen years have now elapsed since the Assembly instructed its committee to make loans without interest as a debt of honor, to feeble congregations to aid them in erecting houses of worship. As much as $7,305 have been loaned to fifty-four white churches, including three to which loans have been made during the year.

The Assembly canceled one loan of $300. During the past year six white churches have returned $269.25 on the amounts loaned to them, which, added to $3,796.24 previously returned, gives a total returned and canceled of $4,365.49, and leaves $2,939.51 outstanding loans to white churches, some of which are not yet due. The sum of $255 was loaned, eight to ten years ago, to five colored congregations, which have returned, including $2.50 returned during the past year, as much as $128, making the total outstanding loans to white and colored, $3,066.51. Of the Moore Fund the sum of $2,306.17 of the principal, with $123.35 accrued interest—total $2,429.52, is outstanding. Some of this has been, for several years past, due, but is secured by mortgages. No loans were made during this year.

There was an increase in church contributions for Home Missions of $846.87; an increase in contributions from societies of $36.05, and a decrease in Sabbath-school contributions of $352.01, giving a gain in the aggregate contributions from churches, societies and Sabbath-schools of $530.91 over their contributions last year, and being by that amount the best contribution they have made under our present plan. The total receipts for Home Missions from all sources were less than those of the previous year by $280.60.

Receipts for the Invalid Fund from contributions, $14,384.13, to which add $28.50 returned to the treasury—money which was sent out during the previous year, but was not used—to this add $160.60 cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and we have a total of $14,573.23 in the hands of the treasurer during the year. The sum of $13,305 was paid out to 57 presbyteries, giving aid to 38 aged or infirm ministers and to the widows and orphans of 103 ministers deceased. Of these beneficiaries, six aged ministers and three widows passed away during the year. Expenses amounting to $1,254.02 were paid, and the year closed with $14.21 cash on hand.

The increase in contributions to the cause this year over those of last year has been $2,764.33.

The secretary spent the month of April in attendance upon seven presbyteries (and in presenting the causes of the office in several of the larger churches) of Arkansas, Texas and the Indian Territory. He conversed and consulted freely with the presbyteries and with their committees. The cry made for so many years, by all denominations, that the rapid increase of population in the West, and the prospective importance of that section, is calling imperatively for active and immediate missionary work, has proved to be an old, old story, but, like another old, old story, it never ceases to be true. The call for this activity becomes more and more imperative with each passing year. The secretary reports that he was impressed during his visit by these facts: That the presbyteries were almost universally cheered by the evidences of God's blessing upon their work, and especially so as to his blessing upon the work of the last few years; and that being inspired by the almost universal hope of speedy results they were everywhere energetically at work. The migratory life of people who went into those Western sections in former years is rapidly becoming a thing of the past; communities are now taking on a settled, crystalized form. This gives more hope of success in building up stable churches, and makes an absolute demand for immediate work. The opportune hour is upon us, and we can accomplish now what cannot be accomplished later.

Payments to missionaries were made promptly during the year, and in nearly all cases were made every six weeks instead of at the end of every three months, as required by the Manual.

The receipts for the Invalid Fund in 1892, not counting legacies, were $15,902. Then came a falling off until last year, we reported receipts of only $11,619, not counting a small legacy, and this paid only 65 cents on the dollar of the amounts which presbyteries asked for the beneficiaries. Now we have the gratifying fact before us that more earnest attention was given to this cause during the last year, and its total receipts increased by over $2,700, were consequently larger than in any year since 1892. The fund for the year has paid 90 cents on the dollar of amounts asked by the presbyteries for the beneficiaries. A similar increase this year in July will pay the beneficiaries in full, and the increase last year shows that only a little more earnest attention to the July collection is necessary to secure the amount needed. Some presbyteries have sent overtures to this Assembly concerning this fund. Your committee submits that all plans have been considered and tentatively tried by the Assembly, and that it is now perfectly plain that the present plan of the Assembly is, all things considered, the best that can be proposed.

A brief history of the office work, from 1861 to 1898, inclusive, prepared by the secretary, was published during the year, and copies sent to our ministers and to the officers of the several hundred societies and to others. The exhibit showed that the amount handled by this office from April, 1866, to April, 1898, was $1,617,153. The following statements are taken from pages 32–33 of that history:

"We know that the Central Treasury up to April 1, 1898, aided in the erection (in a few cases in the repair) of 649 church buildings, of which 238 were in Florida, Arkansas, Texas, Indian Territory and New Mexico.

"We know that in our schools in the Indian Territory and among the Mexicans in Texas, religious truth has been taught to probably as many as 2,000 children and youths.

"The number of ministers whose support and consequently whose services as pastors and evangelists were, by this fund secured, ran from 118 in 1869 to about 290 in 1893. For the last ten years of the old plan, 1884 to 1893, the average number of ministers whose services were thus secured was over 250. It is not possible to separate the results of their work from the sum total of work accomplished by them and by the pastors of the strong churches in the presbyteries to which they belong. Since 1870, there has been an increase of 1,244 organized churches, and nearly 131,000 communicants.

"We estimate that the white population of that portion of the country in which our church exists grew from nine millions in 1870 to eighteen millions in 1898, being a gain in the entire white population in our field of 100 per cent. Our entire church membership in the same years has increased (Missouri estimated), 152 per cent. The white population in that portion of the country (Arkansas, Florida, Texas, Indian Territory and New Mexico) in which the Assembly does its work chiefly was, in 1870, about 1,150,000. It is now about four millions, being a gain in white population in these States and Territories of about 240 per cent. Our church membership in this field in the same years has increased 408 per cent. The amount of money raised by the whole church for all purposes in 1870 was (Missouri estimated), $965,058; amount raised by same for all purposes in 1898, $1,848,969—gain nearly 92 per cent. Amount raised by Florida, Arkansas, Texas and Indian Territory for all purposes in 1870 was $83,111; amount for same in 1898, $258,170 —gain 210 per cent."

We recommend that the $127 due on loans from the colored churches be canceled, as there is no probability of its payment.

IV. ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

Due efforts have been made to prosecute, with all possible economy, this work in accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly. The efficient clerk of the committee has served without remuneration. The directors of the Union and Planters Bank continue to us, without charge, the use of their rooms for our meetings, and your treasurer has again given us, without cost to the committee, through the Memphis National Bank, of which he is president, all necessary exchange.

The salary of the secretary was made $1,500, and that of the treasurer $100 per annum, being the same as that paid to each last year.

The maximum appropriation in behalf of each beneficiary was made $75. It is not, however, the judgment of your committee that this sum is sufficient, in each case, for your beneficiaries. On the contrary many beneficiaries need and should have more than $75 to supplement their limited means. But judging from both the contributions and the number of beneficiaries in the past, we believe we would not be able to pay more than this sum this year.

While we have endeavored, in accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, to aid those only who have been in theological seminaries and in college classes proper, we have failed, in a few instances, through no fault of our own, as we think, to restrict appropriations to these. Through misapprehension on the part of some of the presbyteries of either the Assembly's plan, or of the grade of study of their candidates, seven young men, who were really "academical students," were recommended to us as being in college, in regular college classes. Not being properly informed touching these cases we made appropriations as per applications, and also payments on these appropriations. But detecting the error in each case we have sought, with partial success, to recover the money so paid, the total sum thus disbursed not exceeding $100.

Last July we apportioned among the presbyteries $30,000 to be raised for this cause this year, and notified each presbytery prior to its fall meeting of the amount it was requested to raise.

It is to be regretted that your committee have been unable to obtain from some of the presbyteries important information concerning this work within their respective bounds.

Just before the spring meetings of the presbyteries the secretary, in communicating information, sent a circular letter to each of the presbyteries asking important, pertinent questions as to their coöperation with the committee; as to their efforts to secure from their churches in November and in April collections for this cause without allowing other things to interfere with it; as to the number of their candidates, beneficiaries and non-beneficiaries; as to the amount of money given to their beneficiaries in addition to what is given through your committee; and as to the character, conduct and progress of their candidates. We had hoped to gather, by this means, valuable information for the Assembly in regard to ministerial education. But we were sorely disappointed, for only twenty-three of the seventy-five presbyteries responded.

From these responses, however, and from other sources, we gather information sufficient, as we suppose, to warrant us in saying:

1. That in some presbyteries coöperation is scarcely more than nominal.

2. That the months of November and April, though set apart by the General Assembly for this cause, are not devoted entirely, in some instances not even chiefly to it. On the contrary, some of our strongest synods enjoin upon their churches a collection in November, or in April, or in both, for other causes of a more local character. It is easy to see that these other causes, appealing as they do to local interest and sympathy, might seriously interfere with the contributions for our work.

3. While it may be possible to ascertain from the reports of the presbyteries sent up to the Assembly the exact number of our candidates for the ministry, it is impossible to ascertain how many of them are beneficiaries.

4. It is equally difficult to ascertain how much money is given annually by our church for beneficiary education. Of the money reported last year for education only about thirty-three per cent. passed through your treasury as for beneficiary education. We have no reason to believe that the proportion will differ materially this year, yet is it not reasonably certain that more than thirty-three per cent. of our gifts for education is for beneficiary education?

5. Another serious fact demanding attention is that very few of our presbyteries, so far as we can learn, know how much money is given annually to their beneficiaries who are on our roll, in addition to the appropriations we make. Yet the meager sum we give must be, and in many instances actually is, supplemented largely by friends or churches, or institutions in which they are pursuing their studies.

6. Turning from this, a very pleasing feature of this work is, that so far as we can obtain information, the character, conduct and progress of your beneficiaries are, with rare exceptions, excellent.

We have enrolled, upon application of presbyteries, 215 beneficiaries. This is 5 less than were enrolled last year, and might seem to indicate a decrease in the number of candidates. Such, however, is not the case, for it should be remembered in this connection that of those aided last year 17 were academical students, while only 7 of those enrolled this year are in this class; and they were enrolled under misapprehension and subsequently dropped. Had we continued to aid academical students as heretofore, it is probable the total number this year would have been greater than for many years yast. Of these 116 are theological, 32 being seniors, 47 in the middle class, 37 juniors; 99 are in college.

Of those drawing full appropriations from our treasury, nine have received through us from other sources $544.37 in addition to our appropriation. Six of those enrolled have received nothing on the appropriations made for them, because either they did not pursue their studies, or for some other reason were not entitled to aid, thus leaving 209 actually aided by us.

As the treasurer's appended report shows, we have received this year from all sources $16,808.96. Disbursed to candidates $16,852.47.

V. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

In submitting to the General Assembly its thirty-eighth Annual Report, the Executive Committee feels constrained to speak, first of all, of the great loss sustained by the committee, and by the whole church, in the death of Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., LL. D., who not only was a most efficient member of the committee from its organization, but has been for thirty years its chairman, and the president of the Board of Trustees from the date of its charter to the time of his death, on the 6th of January last. During this long period of service, though constantly pressed with other duties and responsibilities, he never failed to respond to all claims upon his time and attention imposed by these offices.

In the earliest years of the committee's existence it was due to his energy and persistence that a supply of God's word and other religious literature was obtained from abroad for the use of the great armies that were gathered during the years of civil strife; and in the wreck of all material prosperity throughout our Southland that followed, no one brought to the work of the organization and reëstablishment of the publication interests of our church greater weight of influence, wiser counsel, or more patient industry than he. When, at a later period, disaster came upon the cause he loved, and it seemed for a time that the business of the committee was utterly wrecked, the burden of anxiety fell upon none with greater weight than upon Dr. Hoge, and his name, his influence, and his personal effort were large factors in regaining the confidence of our people, in replacing wasted resources, and in laying anew the foundations of successful enterprise.

Few men could have brought to that part of the work of our committee which consists in passing upon the abundant material offered for publication a literary taste as exquisite, a scholarship as accurate, or a judgment as infallible as his; and it is due in no small degree to him that our standard has been so high, and has been so persistently maintained.

In a long life, filled with great responsibilities and with great services to the church, the service rendered in connection with the work of this committee will not be counted least.

In comparing the list of "Issues from the Press" with that of last year, it appears that the total issues of 1899 are considerably larger than in 1898, but the new issues are less in number, and perhaps less in importance.

Attention is called to the fact that the demand for the Shorter Catechism does not fail from year to year. Last year we printed 41,000, and this year 43,000. The list is significant also as showing the steady demand for other standard Presbyterian literature.

Obedient to the instructions of the General Assembly of 1898, the Executive Committee has purchased of Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., the copyright and stereotype plates of the Hymns of the Ages, together with the stock of the same on hand at that date, and has offered it to our churches at reduced rates.

In our sales department the volume of business has varied very little from that of last year, but is a trifle less in amount. The character of our book business is such that we cannot expect much patronage outside of our own church; there is, therefore, the more reason that our people should give us a hearty and united support, and supply themselves through us with such literature as they may need, of whatever character.

In this connection we deem it proper to refer to the relation which the committee sustains toward all literature sold in its depository other than that bearing its own imprint.

In the first place, we do not formally endorse any, or hold ourselves responsible for the teachings of any, except such as bear the imprint of the committee.

In the second place, we hold that it is a part of our duty to furnish our patrons such literature as they desire, even though we cannot endorse the teachings (theological or other) which such literature may contain.

The table that follows gives the issues of our Sunday-school papers during the year. There has been growth in circulation in all except The Children's Friend, on the list of which there appears a slight decline:

April 1, 1899.

Earnest Worker,	222,000
Children's Friend,	1,095,000
Pearls,	950,000
Pictorial Lessons,	90,000
Lesson Quarterly,	132,000
Primary Quarterly,	65,000
Lesson Papers,	900,000

Our colportage work has been restricted by want of means, as in previous years; but the following table shows a larger amount of work accomplished than in the previous year, and a larger number of colporteurs employed, though of the list given only three have been employed during the whole year.

Colporteurs Engaged.

Rev. William Crowe,	Synod of Kentucky, resigned.
Mr. John G. Barclay,	Synod of Kentucky.
Rev. D. T. Towles,	Synod of North Carolina, resigned.
Rev. W. A. Zeigler,	Synod of North Carolina, resigned.
J. K. Coit,	Synod of North Carolina.
Rev. L. H. Query,	Synod of South Carolina.
Rev. R. L. Fulton,	Synod of Georgia.
Rev. Ro. Morrison, D. D.,	Synod of Missouri.
Rev. J. C. Smith,	Synod of Mississippi.
Samuel Lacy,	Synod of Virginia.

WORK ACCOMPLISHED.

Total number of days' service,	1,209
Miles travelled,	13,957
Sabbath-schools organized,	6
Sabbath-schools visited,	131
Prayer-meetings held,	118
Addresses delivered,	65
Sermons preached,	258
Families visited,	5,212
Books and tracts distributed (value),	$3,172.20
Total expenses,	$3,365.35

In addition to the above, the Executive Committee appropriated $100 to the support of a young man engaged in the Sabbath-school work in the mountains of Kentucky, under the direction of the Evangelistic Committee of that Synod, and furnished for the schools organized in that work the necessary supplies of literature.

The Sabbath-school mission work has been made more prominent during the past year, and our colporteurs have been urged to give special attention to the organization of new schools in their respective fields of labor; and within the past six months six such schools have been organized.

The total amount appropriated during the year to our benevolent work—donations and colportage work—was $8,588.55, or $1,583.20 more than the collection reported at the beginning of the year.

While the collections from churches, Sabbath-schools, etc., for this cause have gained only a few hundred dollars over that of last year, as is shown elsewhere in this report, giving us from this source scarcely enough to meet our present rate of expenditures in the benevolent work, a recent contribution of $5,000 to the cause from a generous-hearted friend has placed it in the power of the committee to enlarge our colportage and Sabbath-school missionary work, and it is proposed to employ such measures as will develop especially the latter feature of this work.

The total value donated to missions, churches and Sunday-schools during the year past is $5,722.13, or $1,059.60 more than was given last year, and more than four-fifths of the total contributions which have been placed in our hands. Besides the ordinary charges upon this fund, a liberal appropriation has been made during the year, at the suggestion of the Secretary for Colored Evangelization, for the supply of some of our colored ministers with some necessary books, as well as with tract literature for their work. We have reason to believe that none of the grants made by the committee have been more profitably bestowed.

Eight hundred and twenty-eight Bibles have been given for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism, and eleven hundred and eighty-seven Testaments for the perfect recitation of the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism.

COLLECTIONS.

The amount contributed by churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals during the year was $12.408.28, but $5,000 of this was given by one individual—Mrs. Sarah C. Ball, of the First Presbyterian Church, Galveston, Texas—so that what may be called the regular collections was only $7,408.28, an advance on that of last year of about 5½ per cent. As that was 5 per cent. increase on the collection of the previous year, we have made an advance in the last two years of a little more than 10 per cent.

VI. ABSTRACT FROM THE EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

The work entrusted to this committee has the widest range of any of the departments of our church's work. It includes the entering of a mission field, the erection of churches and manses, establishing and maintaining schools, the support of evangelists and pastors, the selection and training of a ministry—in short, every detail connected with the elevation of a race.

This work we divide, for convenience, into the three departments of Evangelistic, Sustentation, and Educational.

EVANGELISTIC.

In the work of evangelization we have done next to nothing in the way of extending our work by the agency of the colored ministers. We have been anxious to do this work, but have only recently emerged from the shadow of debt. We do not feel that we could properly expend money which we owed any other way than by paying those to whom it was due. Hence that arm of our work has been paralyzed. However, we have not failed to do what we could to extend this work. We have had Rev. O. B. Wilson, our white evangelist, devote a part of his time to establishing Sunday-schools among the colored people, taught by white teachers.

This is a most hopeful work. Last year we reported 13 such schools. This year we report 23—a gain of 10.

SUSTENTATION.

We are glad to report good work done in this line. We have paid the colored ministers and churches $2,427, which includes all of the debt of $1,346, reported as due them last April. This has relieved the actual distress of many of them. It should be said that they greatly appreciate our doing this. A good feeling seems to pervade our entire force of workers. We have been able to do more for them this year than for several years.

EDUCATIONAL.

Stillman Institute.—In this institution we have made considerable progress. Much has been changed. Instead of furnishing board and clothes and medical attention gratis, we require each student to earn his board by laboring on the farm, and to bear all his other expenses himself.

We have also enlarged the scope of the work of this institution. We had a faculty who could teach a large number of pupils as easily as a small one, and we thought it well to give a larger number the benefit of this by admitting them to the classes in the institute. Accordingly we opened the academic department to such male pupils as desired to enter it, and to girls under fourteen years of age. This will increase the usefulness of this institution without adding anything to its expenses. Indeed it may reduce them, as tuition fees are charged all those not contemplating the ministry.

This committee can scarcely be said to be doing any other work in the educational department. The Synod of South Carolina is paying the rent for the Ferguson-Williams College building, and the school is in successful operation under the management of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Williams.

Also the Synod of North Carolina is interested in a school at North Wilkesboro, which is doing a good work, under the management of Rev. S. G. Walker.

We found it impossible to undertake the purchase of the Ferguson-Williams school. We had just made a canvass of the church for Stillman Institute. We could not follow it immediately with another to raise funds for this purchase. We bring the following facts to your attention. The mortgagee of this property objected to our abandonment of the purchase of this school unless we should pay or secure the payment of the four years' interest accrued on the mortgages, holding that our expressed purpose to purchase had prevented an earlier foreclosure, thus allowing the interest to run up. Also, members of the Synod of South Carolina held that we were bound to purchase this property, because of an alleged compact with them to do so. The whole question was carefully gone over by the committee. We heard all the interested parties. We went over the case carefully in executive session. Then we had the matter reviewed by a sub-committee composed of men of legal knowledge and experience. The conclusion was that we were neither legally or morally bound for this interest.

The Independent Synod held its first meeting at Chester, S. C., January 19, 1899. This committee was represented by Rev. O. B. Wilson, whom we appointed to attend and convey our fraternal greetings and assurances of sympathy and support. Their meeting was a small one. Ten members, representing the three Presbyteries of North and South Carolina, Abbeville and Chester, were present.

We have decided to bring all our colored ministers together in a "Summer School" of ten days at Tuscaloosa. They will be diligently instructed in the various departments of church work, and carried through some helpful books. In connection with this school there will be a meeting of the Independent Synod, and it is hoped the organization of all our men into presbyteries of this synod.

The fact that our ministers are so widely separated has been and is a serious menace to the success of the Independent Synod. We propose to overcome this by organizing the scattered men into presbyteries of extensive area, and have these presbyteries hold their meetings at the time of the meeting of the Independent Synod. It is also proposed to make the Summer School a permanent feature of our work. We can bring all of our men together in one full meeting once a year, at which time they may have their sessions of their presbyteries and synod, and also enjoy the benefits of the instruction in the Summer School.

We had from time to time advanced from the General Fund of Colored Evangelization to the Stillman Institute Special Fund sums to the amount of $1,619.21. The contributions to this Special Fund have amounted this year to $1,592.63, of which amount $1,396.38 has been repaid to the General Fund, leaving $222.83 still due from the Special to the General Fund.

We began the year with considerable indebtedness on the General Fund. On this account we have received $6,621.51. We have paid all debts; have maintained the work in all its departments; no curtailing of the work of the previous year, and no failure to pay the amounts promised the workers. We close the year with two thousand dollars to our credit in the bank, which will keep the work going until the December collection.

But we cannot carry on the work on the above scale. It does not employ all our ministers. It does not pay enough to the ones employed. It is not possible to support forty or fifty men on $2,500. It does not provide for evangelistic work. It does not provide sufficiently for sustentation work. It does not even make a show of providing for educational work outside of Stillman Institute.

In addition to the cash receipts of the past year, we thankfully acknowledge the gift of a house and lot in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., valued at from three to four thousand dollars. This is the gift of one of our pastors, whose great interest in this work has led him to make this generous gift to our cause. It is due our former secretary, Dr. Phillips, to say that this gift was secured to our work through his instrumentality.

We have received a most valuable donation of books from the Assembly's Committee of Publication and Colportage, enough to send several volumes of best works and a number of tracts to each colored minister in our care.

We have revised our Manual of Work so as to divide the work between the secretary and Superintendent, in the following way:

The Secretary is the executive officer of this committee. He shall visit synods, presbyteries and churches, as far as practicable, in the interests of this cause, devoting his time to the work under the supervision of this committee.

He shall be the organ of communication between this committee and the Presbyterial Committees of Colored Evangelization, and with the colored churches, preachers and teachers.

The secretary shall be the organ of communication between this committee and the General Assembly; shall prepare the annual reports for the General Assembly, first submitting them to the committee for adoption. He shall also make written monthly reports to the committee, briefly narrating the work done; said reports to be filed and preserved.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent to secure new students for Stillman Institute; to promote the organization of churches and their supply with preachers. Also to establish Sunday-schools wherever practicable, and to aid in effecting changes in the pastorates of the colored ministers.

He shall be the superintendent of Stillman Institute, and shall manage all its affairs with the aid of the directors hereinbefore provided for.

In view of the fact that the Synods of Mississippi, South Carolina and North Carolina were not coöperating with the Assembly's committee in this work, the last Assembly adopted the report of the Standing Committee on this work "urging all synods and presbyteries to full coöperation through the regular channel appointed." Acting upon this suggestion the Synods of Mississippi and South Carolina are now coöperating with us.

VII. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board wishes to acknowledge the goodness of God to this time-honored institution during the past year as exhibited in the health and comfort of the faculty and students, and their harmony, fidelity and tranquility in the discharge of their duties. The following facts and figures will present to the Assembly in brief the condition of the Seminary.

There have been 24 students in the institution, 2 in the junior class, 8 in the middle and 5 in the senior, taking the regular course. In addition to these, 8 have pursued irregular courses, and one the postgraduate course. Those who have taken irregular courses have received permission from their presbyteries to do so.

The number of students is small, but it has been much smaller in years past. In 1844, the number was 14; in 1848, 19; in 1866, 14; in 1867, 9; in 1883, 14; in 1884, 12. With an able faculty, a plant worth $280,000, an income of $12,311 from endowment, an excellent library of 22,000 volumes, comfortable rooms for the students, and houses for the faculty, and with the covenant promise of support from the four Synods of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, the number of students should be much larger, and simple loyalty to our solemn and voluntary engagements should induce us to rally to the support of our Seminary. It deserves to live and continue to bless the church.

The board has memorialized the synods to raise funds in 1900 to endow a chair of English Bible.

It was decided to postpone the erection of a mess-hall for the present on account of a lack of sufficient funds, but a committee has been appointed to continue the canvass for the means to build it.

After an able inaugural address by Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., who was previously elected to fill the chair of Church History and Polity, he was solemnly inducted into office. The board is confident that the addition of Dr. Reed to the teaching force of the Seminary will increase its attractiveness and usefulness.

The provision regarding the age limit of professors has been rescinded by order of the controlling synods. It has been ordered that the expenses be kept hereafter within the probable income. The course in missions, authorized by the board, has been organized, and Professor Brimm has successfully conducted it during the year, while the services of Rev. Mr. Byrd have been secured as tutor in Hebrew and teacher of English Bible, and Rev. S. M. Smith has lectured on Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. The closing exercises were impressive and profitable.

VIII. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

The Southwestern Presbyterian University respectfully reports as follows concerning its Divinity School:

The corps of professors remains the same as last year, except that, according to the provision of the Board of Directors, special instruction has been added in the form of practical training in public reading, under Dr. Henry W. Naff, of the University's School of English. The six professors have prosecuted their work faithfully and successfully, and without any interruption, during the usual forty weeks of the session.

Twenty-six students have been enrolled during the year, twelve of them being new students, and the whole number being three more than last year. The following young men expect to complete all the studies required and to graduate with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity on June 14th, viz.: Messrs. F. E. Bagby, a candidate of Palmyra Presbytery; B. I. Dickey, a candidate of Western Texas Presbytery; E. D. Patton, a candidate of Paducah Presbytery, and L. E. Selfridge, a candidate of Western Texas Presbytery. The following expect to close their studies, and to enter upon their work at the close of the session, but have not taken all the studies required for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, viz.: Messrs. U. D. Mooney, a candidate of New Orleans Presbytery; John W. Moseley, a licentiate of Tombeckbee Presbytery; R. L. Nicholson, a candidate of Tombeckbee Presbytery, and John D. Wilson, a licentiate of Western District Presbytery.

The year has been one of great prosperity to the University, and the Divinity School has shared in this prosperity. Marked increase in material equipment and enlargement of endowments have been the special features of the year. There has also been present a marked degree of earnestness and consecration on the part of the students. By order of the Board of Directors,

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

D. N. KENNEDY, Secretary.

IX. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

For the year 1898–1899.

The Board of Directors has pleasure in making its sixth annual report to the General Assembly. The annual meeting of the board was held on May 2, 1899, and its proceedings were marked by harmony and earnestness. The following officers were elected for the year: Rev. J. G. Hunter, D. D., Harrodsburg, Ky., president; Rev. S. M. Neel, D. D., Kansas City, Mo., vice-president; Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D., Louisville, Ky., secretary; W. T. Grant, Esq., Louisville, Ky., treasurer; Stuart Duncan, Esq., Louisville, Ky., assistant treasurer.

At the opening of the session the Seminary suffered a very sore loss through the lamented death of the Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., LL. D., professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, who entered into rest, after a painful illness, on the third of November, 1898. The board prepared a suitable memorial testifying to the noble gifts of this good man, and making recognition of the large and varied services which he had rendered to the church.

During the session his work in the Seminary was carried on by the other professors, assisted by the Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D., pastor of the First Church, Louisville, who gave his services gratuitously. Professor Marquess taught the class in Biblical Introduction, Professor Hemphill that in Pastoral Theology, Dr. Lyons that in Homiletics, and Professor Muller acted as librarian during the year.

The report of the faculty shows that there were forty-one students in attendance during the session, that the health of the students had been good, and that their deportment and diligence in study had been commendable.

The students this session came from ten States, and they represent sixteen colleges. All save three have had a college training, and only four are not under the care of presbytery. On the whole, this session was one of the most satisfactory the Seminary has yet enjoyed. Practical mission work has been carried on by the students at several points in and about the city. The mission work among the colored people, begun last year, has been continued and enlarged this session. All the mission work is conducted under the supervision of the faculty, and in connection with the Home Mission Committee of the presbytery. This work has done not a little to strengthen our work in this locality, and to deepen the practical interest of our people in the work of the Seminary. It also gives much useful experience to the students.

The course of studies in the various schools is flexible and comprehensive, and it remains practically unchanged. Several advanced courses of study are again offered to the students.

The policy of not offering indiscriminate financial aid to students has been continued with satisfactory results. In accordance with the policy inaugurated two years ago, a number of scholarships have been placed by liberal friends at the disposal of the faculty, to be awarded under certain conditions, which are stated in the catalogue for this year, on page 32.

The movement instituted last year to increase the income of the Seminary by temporary subscriptions, running from one to five years, has proved of great service. Steps have been taken by the board to continue and enlarge this movement. To mature this movement a coöperative financial committee was appointed. It is composed of certain members of the board and of the faculty, together with several other efficient friends of the Seminary. They begin to act without delay, and in coöperation with the Executive Committee.

The library now numbers about four thousand volumes. This year 160 volumes have been added. The Missionary Library contains nearly three hundred volumes, and it is carefully selected and very valuable. To it forty-five additions were made during the year. Three of the schools of the Seminary have useful special libraries.

The buildings and material property remain as last year. The students in attendance occupied all the available rooms. The question of a large new domitory building was considered by the board, and the prospect that before long such a building may be provided is encouraging.

The question of filling the important place in the faculty made vacant by the lamented death of the late Professor Witherspoon gave the board much earnest thought during the year. At this meeting of the board it was finally decided, with great unanimity and earnestness, to take steps to secure the entire services of Professor Hemphill and Professor Marquess for the Seminary, and not appoint a new man.

The financial support of Professor Hemphill's chair having been fully secured for a term of years by a few liberal friends, the board accordingly earnestly requested him to resign the pastoral charge of the Second Church, and give his whole time to the Seminary, adding to his present duties such parts of the work done by the late Professor Witherspoon as shall be agreed upon by the Executive Committee, in consultation with Professor Hemphill and the faculty.

Professor Hemphill has acceded to this earnest request of the board, and will take steps to have his pastoral relations dissolved, so that he may devote all his time and talents to the service of the Seminary at the opening of the next session.

Professor Marquess was also requested to devote all his time to the work of the Seminary; and, as he is only stated supply of the Crescent Hill Church, he is expected to retire from this position, and give his whole time to the Seminary with the opening of next session.

This will give three professors who shall devote all their energies to the work of the Seminary, together with three others giving part of their time, and thereby greatly increase its efficiency. The liberality of the friends of the Seminary who have provided the financial resources to make this forward step possible, and the generosity of the Second Church, Louisville, in giving to the Seminary a pastor so dearly beloved, are worthy of all praise. The board hopes that the Assembly will heartily approve of this important advance on the part of this institution.

The board resolved to name the main Seminary building "Haldeman Hall," in honor of Mr. W. N. Haldeman, who three years ago gave this valuable property to the Seminary.

The Board also named the chair occupied by Professor Hemphill "The Second Church, Louisville, chair of New Testament Exegesis," in recognition of the great service this church has rendered to the Seminary by its liberal gifts, the use of its property for three years, and the gratuitous service of its pastor for six years.

The reports of the several professors show efficient service on their part, and faithful work by the students. The earnest missionary spirit among the students, and the benefits of the monthly Missionary Day are to be noted with pleasure. An earnest spiritual tone prevailed all through the year in the institution.

The following received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, as they had completed all the courses of study: E. F. Abbott, J. S. Baird, A. O. Browne, J. H. Edwards, F. E. Fincher, W. E. Furr, J. T. Hall, J. Little, C. A. Logan, E. H. Moseley, G. W. Jurey, H. McDowell, E. P. Pillans, J. O. Reavis, A. D. Rice, C. Sheltman.

The great goodness of God to this institution during the six years of its service to the church is gratefully acknowledged. During these years it has had the sincere and liberal support of many friends; and during the past year a deeper and larger interest has been elicited among its supporters. Its foundation is now well laid, and its future prospect of useful service is very bright. It has already given about eighty ministers to the church, most of whom are now settled in Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. Six of its graduates are already in the foreign field, and two others will soon join them. All these tokens of divine power greatly cheer the friends of the Seminary and afford much reason for grateful praise to the Head of the church, for whose honor it was founded.

Respectfully submitted, J. G. HUNTER, President.

J. S. LYONS, Secretary.

X. REPORT OF ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE ON SUMMER SCHOOL.

The General Assembly's Executive Committee on Summer School respectfully submits the following report:

The General Assembly of 1897 determined that there should be established at some suitable point a school for summer instruction and study in theology and kindred themes, for the utilization of the faculties of our various theological institutions for the benefit of ministers, ruling elders and Sabbath-school teachers. An ad interim committee was appointed by that Assembly. Its report to the Assembly of 1898 was received, and, after certain amendment, adopted. It was upon this that the Assembly appointed the present Executive Committee, charged with the duty of organizing the courses of study, securing a proper rotation of teachers, preparing programmes, etc.

Your committee reports that it has made diligent effort to organize and provide for such a summer school, at an available and central point. It has found it absolutely impracticable, however, to obtain the services of any of the professors of our theological institutions on the terms offered. The Executive Committee cannot promise them any remuneration, nor guarantee even their travelling and boarding expenses while engaged in this work of the Assembly for the reason that the Assembly of 1898, while ordering the organization of the school, expressly declined to be responsible for the expenses of its conduct. Such small receipts as may be expected from students and others attending the school will not do more than pay the incidental expenses. The members of the Executive Committee themselves personally agreed to guarantee at least this part of the cost. They could not, however, undertake more than this.

Your committee therefore recommends that unless the Assembly will appropriate from its funds not less than four hundred dollars for the purpose of paying the travelling and boarding expenses of a proper corps of instructors in the Assembly's school, the effort to establish such school be given up.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chairman.

XI. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

We beg leave to call your attention to the report of the committee at the last meeting of the Assembly, which report was adopted. After a careful and thorough review of the work of the institution and the condition of the same, the Assembly recommended that—

"1. In order to supplement the income of the institution, a collection be taken in all our churches on the last Sabbath of next December.

"2. In order that the Home may be free from debt, which so greatly hampers its usefulness and threatens its existence, we recommend that the Board of Trustees be authorized to employ some capable man to undertake, as soon as possible, to raise the money to liquidate the debt.

"3. In view of the meagre equipment of the Training School for women missionaries and because there is no urgent demand for it, we recommend that the Training School be discontinued."

We have earnestly endeavored to carry out these recommendations. The collection was taken, the Training School discontinued, and search at once begun to secure the services of some suitable person to travel in the interest of the institution. Some time was needed in this matter, and only on February 1st was an arrangement concluded. We secured the services of Rev. G. E. Chandler for this important work. This faithful servant of God, with heart burning with zeal for the work and greatly impressed with the importance of such an institution, entered upon his labors for us on the 1st of February, but was called home to heaven almost upon the very threshold of his work, having visited only Fredericksburg and Richmond, Va. We immediately set to work to secure a successor, and have secured the services of Rev. Charles R. Hyde, of Richmond, Va., who begins his work on April 15th.

Whilst our financial condition has forced us to practice the strictest economy and we have been able to offer only the necessities, yet we feel sure the inmates have been comfortably provided for, and we believe too it has been a happy household. The very best Christian influence has been brought to bear upon the inmates.

Faithful and careful attention has been given to the education of our young people. They have had the advantages of the elementary, primary and college courses as offered by Fredericksburg College, which is now owned by Rev. F. P. Ramsay. We do not hesitate to say they are receiving excellent instruction in this institution.

OFFICERS.

S. W. Somerville, Secretary, Treasurer and Superintendent; Mrs. John Boyle, Housekeeper; Mrs. James H. Smith, Matron.

The students in the Home number thirty-three.

We take great pleasure in saying that this is a body of excellent young people. Appreciating the privileges extended them, they are doing faithful work. Almost without exception they are professing Christians, and we feel sure they will be a blessing to their parents and to the church of God.

By examining our financial report of last year and of the year just passed you will readily see that, whilst there are still difficulties before us, yet we have been making excellent progress in curtailing the indebtedness. Two thousand three hundred and seventy-five dollars has been paid on bills receivable, and $635 on old accounts. All current expenses have been met. The liabilities have been so reduced that assets and liabilities are almost equal. This is a remarkable statement when you consider that we are educating and maintaining (some wholly and some in part) 33 orphans; that our December collection was only $2,283.71; and that this amount was contributed by only 256 churches, and 22 individuals out of the 2,816 churches on our roll; that our financial agent visited only two places—Richmond and Fredericksburg, Va.

Three thousand dollars was raised in Richmond, and $600 in Fredericksburg, which is an excellent proof of the confidence in the success of the work, and of appreciation of the value of the institution by these two places, which are so well acquainted with the work of the Home.

The balance of the contribution has been voluntary (from individuals and scholarships). We are impressed with the fact that God loves the Home and School; that the church needs it (for the demands for its privileges grow daily), and that once entirely free from debt, it will go forward and be one of our most prosperous and valued institutions.

We, therefore, earnestly beg that the Assembly continue to order a collection to be taken in all our churches on the last Sabbath in December for the support of the institution.

Respectfully submitted, ROBERT P. KERR, President.

CHARTER OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL.

The following Charter of the Home and School was approved by the Assembly of 1893, and was enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Virginia, and approved December 16, 1893. As it has never appeared in the minutes, it is here published as a matter of history and information. STATED CLERK.

CHARTER.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That Rev. W. U. Murkland, D. D., of Baltimore; Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., of Petersburg; Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., Judge George L. Christian and J. N. Cullingworth, of Richmond; Rev. W. S. Lacy, D. D., of Norfolk; Colonel Charles S. Venable, of University of Virginia; Rev. Theron H. Rice, of Alexandria; G. C. Heard, of Washington city; Rev. A. P. Saunders and John L. Marye, of Fredericksburg, Va., and their successors in office, to be appointed as hereinafter prescribed, be, and they are hereby, constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of "The Assembly's Home and School at Fredericksburg, Virginia," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal; may contract, and be contracted with; sue and be sued, and may purchase, acquire, receive, hold, possess and enjoy; and may lease, sell, convey, encumber, invest and otherwise manage and dispose of all property, real, personal and mixed, which may be given to, purchased, or otherwise acquired by said corporation for the use and benefit of the said Assembly's Home and School; provided that the said property so given, purchased, or otherwise acquired shall not, in the amount thereof held at any one time by said corporation, exceed in marketable value five hundred thousand dollars.

2. The above-named corporators and their successors in office together with the secretaries of the committees of Foreign Missions and of Domestic Missions of "the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States," commonly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church, shall constitute a board of trustees for the government, conduct and management of the said home and school, and shall have the power to fill all vacancies occurring in their body by death, resignation or other disability to act, the persons to fill such vacancies to be chosen from members in good standing of the Southern Presbyterian churches under the jurisdiction of the said Southern Presbyterian General Assembly, and the selection of such persons so chosen to fill said vacancies shall be reported by said board of trustees to said General Assembly for its approval and confirmation.

3. The said board of trustees shall have the power to make and establish, from time to time, such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State or of the United States, as they may deem necessary and proper for the government, operation, good order and management of said home and school, and they may appoint such officers, teachers, and other employees, and prescribe their compensation and duties, as they shall deem best for the said institution, and they may require from such officers such bond or other security, in such penalty as they may prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties; and they may remove such officers and teachers whenever in their judgment the welfare of said institution requires it.

4. Five trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of said corporation; and the said board may constitute an executive committee of not less than three trustees, who may transact the routine business—matters of said Home and School—and supervise and direct the discharge of their duties by its officers, teachers and other employees. The meetings of said board and of said executive committee may be held at such place and time as they shall respectively appoint.

5. The beneficiaries of said corporation, whose maintenance and education shall be provided for out of its property and funds, shall consist of the orphans of deceased Presbyterian ministers and missionaries, and the said board of trustees may provide, out of said funds, for the education of the children of Presbyterian missionaries who are laboring among the Indians or in foreign lands, upon such terms and conditions as said board shall prescribe.

6. A report shall be made by the said board of trustees every year to the said General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, setting forth all the property and funds of said corporation; its receipts and expenditures, in detail, for each year; its officers, teachers and other employees, and their respective duties and compensation; the number and names of its said beneficiaries, and all matters showing the condition and methods of conducting said institution.

7. The said corporation shall have the power to take, receive and use, for its purposes and objects above mentioned, the buildings and grounds at Fredericksburg, Va., and the invested funds and other means held and owned by "the directors and managers of the Female Orphan Asylum," at Fredericksburg, Va., whenever a deed of transfer of same is made and delivered by said last named corporation.

8. The said corporation shall have the power to receive and use, for its said purposes and objects, all property given to it by legal instruments in which the proper legal title of said corporation is not correctly expressed, where the intention to give such property to said corporation appears clear in the terms and provision of said instruments.

9. No tax shall be required to be paid upon this charter of said corporation, nor to be paid upon the property of said corporation, after it is organized.

10. This act shall be in force from and after its passage, and shall be subject to amendment, alteration and repeal, at the pleasure of the General Assembly.

XII. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

The Board of Trustees of the General Assembly herewith submits its financial report for the past fiscal year ending April 27, 1899, showing total receipts $20,048.59 and disbursements $20,048.59 less $418.94, balance in hands of treasurer to be disbursed at a future day. For a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements you are referred to itemized account of the secretary and treasurer hereto appended, which account has been duly audited and approved by a committee of the trustees.

The attention of the Board of Trustees has been called to the report of the Auditing Committee of the last Assembly, and especially to that portion thereof contained in the following words, viz., "The report of the trustees of the General Assembly as audited by their own auditing committee is found to be correct. There is, however, some explanation needed of the charges of five per cent. deducted from bequests and legacies, and credited to account of contingent fund. Some of these gifts seem to require nothing beyond turning them over to another committee of our church. While disclaiming the least reflection upon any one, your committee would state they find no authority for such deduction beyond expenses actually paid in each case." This report will be found in the published minutes of Assembly for the year 1898, at pages 230 and 231.

By reference to the report of the treasurer sent to the Assembly of 1898 it will appear that the funds that came into the hands of the treasurer for that year amounted to $9,580.33; that the Board of Trustees reserved for its expenses

$324.85, which you will readily perceive is less than five per cent, and, in truth and in fact, only a little over three per cent. For the further information of your venerable body we would further report that our board is a corporation created by the Legislature of North Carolina for the purpose of having a legal entity to enable our church to hold such property as may be devolved upon it for its legitimate purposes by gifts, devises or otherwise.

The General Assembly in its wisdom has not seen proper to provide a fund to meet expenses of our board in looking after the interests committed to our care. In a number of instances when property or money is devised and bequeathed to our church, by reason of the inartificial manner in which the devise or bequest is expressed, difficulties of interpretation arise which can only be settled by judicial decision. Litigation ensues, and, representing the church, it becomes our duty to see that its rights are protected. This involves litigation; litigation involves the employment of counsel; counsel must be compensated for their services. Counsel are not always willing to represent our church when their compensation is contingent upon the favorable determination of the litigation. But even in some cases where they could be employed in this way, it is not wise to do so, as a contingent fee is always larger than when the compensation is fixed and certain. When litigation results adversely to the church, the cost of litigation must be paid by us in addition to counsel fees. It is also our duty to investigate matters of pecuniary interest to the church, and this necessitates procuring certified copies of wills or other written instruments in order that we may determine whether or not the church has rights in the matter. Court officers require their fees in advance before a copy will be forwarded.

Some travelling expenses are incurred in the prosecution of the business committed to our care. The only salaried officer of our board is our treasurer, who is required to give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties, and his compensation has been fixed by our board at two per cent. of our receipts. The duties of this officer are responsible and delicate, demanding time, care and attention, and we are of the opinion that the compensation fixed for such services is extremely reasonable.

We have no sources from which to meet the expenses of our board save by taxing the funds that come into our hands as hereinbefore explained. When the funds retained for this purpose exceed the amount probably required for all ordinary expenses, the excess is remitted to the different committees, the purpose of our board being to retain only an amount sufficient to cover probable expenses.

As to our authority for so doing we respectfully refer you to the minutes of the Assembly of 1883, page 54; to the minutes of the Assembly of 1873, page 337; to the minutes of the Assembly of 1887, page 246, all of which deliverances will appear by reference to Alexander's Presbyterian Digest, page 334.

In conclusion, we simply add that our board taxes legacies only when it is necessary to meet expenses, but experience has demonstrated, not only the wisdom, but the necessity of providing a fund to meet a present emergency which only can be done by methods pursued by this board.

The term of the following officers expire with this meeting of the board, viz.: Rev. J. W. Stagg, D. D., Messrs. George E. Wilson, and A. G. Brenizer. Your board would unanimously recommend the reëlection of these gentlemen.

The officers of the board beginning to-day are Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, president; Rev. J. R. Howerton, D. D., Messrs. D. W. Oates, P. M. Brown, George F. Bason and John R. Pharr, secretary and treasurer.

Respectfully submitted, E. NYE HUTCHISON, President.

JOHN R. PHARR, Secretary and Treasurer.

My predecessor, in turning his records over, stated that in endeavoring to collect arrearages due the Assembly on presbyterial assessments, I need not extend my efforts back of 1893. Accepting his suggestion, and finding that many presbyteries were behind in their payments, I prepared a ledger account of the standing of each presbytery and mailed a circular statement of its account with your treasury to every presbytery that was found behind hand on any of the annual dues for the past six years. The result is that I have collected the sum of $607 31 on back taxes, and in a number of cases where discrepancies were found between the entries of your Treasurer and the presbyterial records I have adjusted the same and reached an understanding with the presbyteries. I found, eleven months ago, only twelve presbyteries credited as having paid all their dues for the past six years. I can now report that forty-three presbyteries have paid up in full to 1899.

The following is a list of presbyteries which are in arrears on assessments from 1893 to 1899 inclusive, with the amount of the arrearage of each: *Arkansas, $10; Bethel, $75; Chickasaw, $15; Concord, $242.50; Ebenezer, $25; Enoree, $21.50; Fayetteville, $272.20; Greenbrier, $61.50; Harmony, $67.50; Holston, $32.50; Indian, $37.75; Lafayette, $57.25; Louisville, $24; Mecklenburg, $89; Missouri, $163.75; Muhlenburg, $12; Nashville, $77.50; North Mississippi, $71.25; Orange, $151.50; Ouachita, $63.50; Paducah, $23; Pee Dee, $98.50; Pine Bluff, $12; Potosi, $32.55; Savannah, $3.75; South Carolina, $31.25; St. John, $70.50; Suwanee, $2.50 (uncertain); Washbourne, $2.50; Western District, $33; Western Texas, $25; Winchester, $36.25. One of the above named presbyteries has paid nothing in twenty years. I have taken no account of Ethel and Central Alabama in this list. The total of arrearages since 1893 is $1,937.75.

I ask direction as to what further steps I should take in collecting unpaid presbyterial assessments. A number of delinquent presbyteries have during the year by effort paid large sums and squared their accounts. Other presbyteries have as yet not responded to my circular. In the main these delinquencies have arisen as the result of changes in the clerkship and treasurership of the presbyteries. New men, unfamiliar with the details of their duties, are inducted into office, and several years sometimes elapse before they become aware that the Assembly's tax should be included in the presbytery's annual budget. Treasurers have written me that their presbyteries got behind because they had not been notified of the fact that there was a tax due. It has been the understanding of the Assembly that the publication of the amount of the assessment in its annual minutes, and the sending of a copy of the minutes to the clerk of each presbytery is its official announcement to presbyteries of all that is published in the minutes. As this method of notification has not proved adequate to prevent the accumulation of unpaid taxes, I recommend—

1. That your Treasurer be directed, before the fall meetings of the presbyteries, to send to each presbytery that is behind with any part of its tax due the previous spring a notice reminding it that such is overdue, and urging prompt settlement.

2. That such presbyteries as remain delinquent twelve months be reported in your Treasurer's annual report, and the fact be published in the minutes of the Assembly.

3. That the Treasurer be given authority and discretion, in arranging a settlement of arrearages for the past six years, to make such equitable compromises as the circumstances and peculiar embarrassments of each delinquent presbytery may suggest as proper, to the end that this accumulation of delayed payments may no longer hang over the presbyteries to obstruct their work and embarrass their liberality in the future.

4. That the Assembly relinquish all claim to tax still due from any presbytery for years prior to 1893.

5. That all claims for back dues from the Presbyteries of Indian, Ethel and Central Alabama be remitted, and that the latter two presbyteries be relieved of all tax till otherwise ordered.

I tendered Rev. Dr. Sprunt his expenses incurred in attending the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod, as a representative of this Assembly, but he courteously declined the same as the amount was small.

According to the last published report of my predecessor, made two years ago, the treasury was compelled to draw on the collections at the Assembly of 1897 to meet the expenses growing out of the Assembly of 1896, for the sum of $784.18. That is, the treasury was that much behind with its legitimate obligations, owing to the slack way in which many of the presbyteries looked after their assessments. This amount had been growing from year to year, receipts falling behind expenses. But we are able to report a reduction of about $301.95 on this deficit. Nevertheless, to pay the bill for printing the minutes of 1898, the only outstanding obligation from last year not yet paid, the Treasurer will be compelled to use $482.17 of the collections on the tax of 1899.

Respectfully submitted, W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

XV. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

In making this their annual report to the General Assembly, your Permanent Committee on the Sabbath would first of all, with hearts bowed with grief, make the announcement of the death of one of their number, the Rev. E. H. Barnett, D. D., in whose decease the Sabbath has lost a firm friend, as well as the pulpit an able defender, and the church a faithful and useful minister. He was called from labors here to his final rest on the 18th of September last.

In response to our letters we have received answers from only forty-five out of the seventy-seven presbyteries under the control of the Assembly. From the tone of these we are but the more painfully impressed with the conviction so often expressed in former reports that while it may be true that here and there in certain localities the Sabbath may be maintaining its hold upon the masses, the general trend slowly, but surely continues as heretofore in the direction of looser views and practices. The proportion of discouraging reports is just as great, and if anything even larger, than usual, the result, doubtless, in a great measure of the late war.

Many of the reports speak of the Lord's day as a favorite pastime for excursions. Others, of the continued practice of so many of the railroads of offering inducements for travel on Sundays by allowing cheaper rates on that day than others, which, together with the idea of "saving time," furnishes a plea which, to many in this active, busy age, is well-nigh irresistible.

The reports also show the great extent to which freight trains are run on the Lord's day. And even where no local freight is handled, the number of through trains is as great, and in some places even greater than on other days. Nearly all the State laws allow the carrying of "perishable freight" on the Sabbath, which largely means an open door for business of any kind.

So with regard to that other great foe of the church, the Sunday newspaper. The reports too clearly show that this form of Sabbath desecration is rapidly coming to the front, a great impetus being given it by the interest felt in the late war. With very few exceptions the reports are all very emphatic in their assertion that the patronage of the Sunday paper is largely "on the increase."

The most gratifying thing in connection with the whole matter is the frequent commendatory notices of the conduct of church members. The distinction is everywhere sharply drawn between the church and the world. The statement is constantly reiterated that whilst the day is losing its hold upon the outside world, the people of God, with few exceptions, regard it, more or less, with unabated reverence and affection. As long as this is the case, we have much to encourage us. The Sabbath is the sign of God's covenant with his people, and the better observed, the stronger the evidence it furnishes of their spirituality. As long as the church will "call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord honorable, and shall honor him" in its observance, we feel she is measurably safe.

Herein, then, is the great plea for a greater watchfulness and zeal, on the part of our ministers, elders, and people. The very fact of a greater and increasing laxity on part of the outside world should furnish the strongest motives for a closer adherence of Christian people to this great bulwark of the church and nation. And instead of being discouraged thereby, or yielding to the influence of their pernicious example, we should the rather the more gladly embrace the opportunity thus furnished of bearing testimony to this invaluable appointment of our king.

From a general survey of the field it is the conclusion of your committee, and we doubt not but it must likewise be the judgment of your venerable body, that the best and about the only cause left to be pursued is the more diligently to urge our own people to a more scrupulous and careful observance of this day of the Lord. This would not only be the means of our own establishment, but the best and only means left us of restraining the outside world.

We have nothing very special to present as the result of our correspondence with the American Sabbath Union, with which our Assembly has formed a cooperative union. We cannot but express regret that on account of distance and expense none of your committee have been able to attend in person any of their conferences. Together with this report we send a few copies of their official organ, the American Sabbath, in which will be found an account of their decennial anniversary, and their tenth annual report, and from which the Assembly may form some idea of the spirit and the general character of the work in which said Union is engaged.

Praying grace, wisdom and peace upon your meeting, we subscribe ourselves,

Respectfully,
JAMES STACY,
JOHN A. BARRY.

XVI. EXCHANGE OF GREETINGS.

The attention of Stated Clerks and Treasurers of Presbyteries is earnestly invited to the above new schedule of assessments, calculated, by order of Assembly of 1896, upon the basis of one cent for each church member, as shown by the statistical tables of 1899. It will require all the annual payments here indicated to meet the annual expenses of the General Assembly.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions, and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States ——— (here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said church."

"I give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the foreign mission work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

[Legacies of this kind in Mississippi are barred by the constitution of the State.]

The price of the Minutes of the General Assembly is 25 cents a copy, being less than cost. Orders should be sent to the Executive Committee of Publication, and not to the Stated Clerk.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives; (5), On Young People's Societies.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organizations of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of church if a manse is furnished.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared, if possible before the meeting of the Assembly. If statistical reports are not received before the Assembly adjourns, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes. Clerks should also see that the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments are promptly sent up. See page 477.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record.

ROLL OF ORDAINED FOREIGN MISSIONARIES

UNDER CARE OF AND SENT OUT FROM THIS LAND BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS, BUT NOT MEMBERS OF ANY PRESBYTERY IN CONNECTION WITH THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Rev. A. T. Graybill, D. D , Linares, Mexico, is a member of the Presbytery of Tamaulipas.

Rev. Joseph E. Phipps, Luebo, Congo Free State, is a member of the Presbytery of Lackawanna, in connection with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

Rev. H. S. Allyn, M. D., Sao, Joao Del Rei;
Rev. G. W. Butler, M. D., Recife;
Rev. S. R. Gammon, Lavras;
Rev. G. E. Henderlite, Parahyba;

MINUTES.

ATLANTA, GA., May 17, 1900.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met in the Central Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga., May 17, 1900, at 11 o'clock A. M., and was opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator, the Rev. John F. Cannon, D. D., on John xxi. 17: "He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus said unto him, Feed my sheep."

The Assembly was then constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The Stated Clerk announced that he had been officially notified of the erection of the Presbytery of Meridian by the Synod of Mississippi and the Presbytery of Brownwood by the Synod of Texas.
